2015-2016 Catalog

This catalog was prepared on the basis of the information available at the time of publication. Therefore, specific statements, including fees, dates, course offerings, admissions requirements, financial aid practice and policies, graduation requirements, and other procedures or policies, may be subject to change without notice.

Each step of the educational process, from admission through graduation, requires continuing review and appropriate approval by college officials. The college, therefore, reserves the right to change the requirements contained in this bulletin, to determine whether a student has satisfactorily met the requirements for admission or graduation, and to reject any applicant for admission for any reason the college determines to be material to the applicant's qualifications to pursue higher education.

Statement of Nondiscrimination and Affirmative Action

Pursuant to the philosophy of the Rhode Island Board of Education, Rhode Island College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, marital, citizenship status or status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran, or any other veteran who served in active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized (except in those special circumstances permitted or mandated by law). This nondiscrimination policy encompasses the operation of the college's educational programs and activities, including admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and other college-administered programs. It also encompasses the employment of college personnel and contracting by the college for goods and services. The college is committed to taking affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified women and members of minority groups identified in state and federal affirmative action laws and executive orders, persons with disabilities (including qualified special disabled veterans), and veterans of the Vietnam Era.

The college's policy of nondiscrimination is consistent with Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246, the Equal Pay Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans With Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, and the relevant Governor's Executive Orders and Rhode Island Gen. Laws § 28-5.1 et seq.

Inquiries concerning the college's administration of the nondiscrimination laws should be addressed to the Interim Director of Human Resources and Affirmative Action, 310 Roberts Hall, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456-8218. Questions regarding provisions for students with disabilities should be directed to the Office of Student Life, 127 Craig-Lee Hall, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456- 8061. Questions regarding provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) should be addressed to the ADA Coordinator, 314 Roberts Hall, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456-8216. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the above offices via the Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711. Reasonable accommodation may be provided upon request.

Campus Map

Capital letters on map designate parking areas. Some of these lots are restricted. See ric.edu/parking for more information.

† Gender Neutral Restrooms

Single occupancy restrooms located throughout campus, heretofore assigned by gender but in practice often used irrespective of gender, have been designated as gender neutral. These converted units address concerns about gender imbalance and gender identity in the availability of restroom facilities. Each unit is ADA compliant and provides a private, family friendly facility for occasions when the gender of a parent differs from that of a child or for when a caregiver must tend to an individual in need of assistance.

Cancellation of Classes

Classes will be held at Rhode Island College except in cases of emergency following consultation among appropriate college officials. Consideration regarding cancellation includes factors such as the college's ability to clear parking lots and walkways, official state-issued advisories regarding vehicular travel, actions of other area higher education institutions and local school districts and the availability of public transportation.

If conditions warrant cancellation of classes, said classes may be canceled for the morning, afternoon or evening time periods, or for a combination of two or more of those specific time periods. Morning classes are defined as those beginning prior to noon; afternoon classes are defined as those beginning from noon through 3:59 p.m.; and evening classes are defined as those beginning from 4 p.m. through the remainder of the day. In consideration of the commuting time necessary for many students, faculty and staff, every effort shall be made to provide notification of cancellation at least three hours prior to the start of each time period.

Notification of class cancellation

1. The Rhode Island College website (www.ric.edu) will feature an announcement on the home page.
2. The message will be carried on the college's recorded telephone announcement that may be accessed by calling (401) 456-9500. Normally, the college website and the recorded telephone announcement will provide the most timely information on class cancellations.

Other sources of information:

1. Local radio and television stations will broadcast cancellation announcements through the Rhode Island Broadcasters Association consortium. These announcements may be accessed directly from most major television and AM and FM radio stations in the area. Many broadcasters also post cancellation announcements on their websites.
2. The announcement will also be carried on the college's official institutional Facebook page.
3. A campus-wide email notification will be sent to all faculty and staff as well as to the college email addresses of all students registered for that semester.
4. A campus-wide voice mail will be sent to every voice mailbox throughout the campus system.
5. A text message will be sent through RICAlert (the Rhode Island College Emergency Notification System). RICAlert text messages are sent to all cellphones and PDAs registered in the system. Students, faculty and staff may register for this service through RICConnect.
6. Anchor TV and RIC radio station WXIN will be notified by email.

Emergencies—Information for Students, Parents and the General Public

1. The college switchboard will remain staffed during the hours of 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. The college's recorded information line will be available 24 hours a day at (401) 456-9500.
2. Provision will be made to meet the dining needs of residence hall students.
3. During emergencies, regardless of whether or not classes are canceled, other activities scheduled on campus may be canceled. Contact the sponsoring organization for information.
4. During any period of locally inclement weather that does not warrant college-wide cancellation of classes, a student unable to get to class shall be allowed, at the first opportunity, to make up any in-class examinations and to submit any assignments that require the student's physical presence on the campus.

Emergencies—Information for Employees

In the event of cancellation of classes, nonteaching employees are still expected to report to work. Employees who are unable to report to work or to complete their work schedule due to adverse weather conditions may, with the approval of their supervisor, use personal leave, annual leave, salary-deferred pay or leave without pay to compensate for their absence.

Parking lots K (Student Union loop), D (south of Roberts Hall and Alex and Ani Hall) will be given priority for clearing during snow emergencies that result in class cancellation. This arrangement facilitates access to the dining center for resident students and provides a cleared parking area for nonteaching employees.

In extreme circumstances, when the governor officially orders a complete or partial shutdown of state services and/or orders the closure of state highways, the pay status of employees will be in accordance with the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or as agreed upon between the Rhode Island Board of Education and the unions representing the several bargaining units.

Introduction

An Overview

Rhode Island College is located on a 180-acre campus in the Mount Pleasant section of Providence. This location combines easy access to the benefits and resources of the metropolitan area with a suburban atmosphere.

Academic offerings are provided through the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the School of Management, the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work, as well as through the Office of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions.

Rhode Island College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and has also received accreditation for specified programs from the following agencies: Council on Social Work Education, National Association of Schools of Art and Design, National Association of Schools of Music, National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education and the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.

When the college was established in 1854 as the Rhode Island State Normal School, its goal was to provide teacher preparation to young people from Rhode Island. With the dedication of a new building in 1898, the institution began a period of steady growth, evolving first into a teachers college, called the Rhode Island College of Education. In the 1958-59 academic year the college moved to its current Mount Pleasant campus and in 1960 was renamed Rhode Island College to reflect its new purpose as a comprehensive institution of higher education.

The college has undergone expansion in recent decades at both the undergraduate and the graduate levels. The college now serves approximately 9,000 students in courses and programs on and off campus.

Rhode Island College is the oldest of the three public institutions of higher education that operate under the aegis of the Postsecondary Council of the Rhode Island Board of Education. The 11-member board was created by the Rhode Island General Assembly in 2013 and replaced the Board of Regents for Elementary and Secondary Education and the Board of Governors for Higher Education.

Mission of the College

As a leading regional public college, Rhode Island College personalizes higher education of the finest quality for undergraduate and graduate students. We offer vibrant programs in arts and sciences, business and professional disciplines within a supportive, respectful and diverse community. Dedicated faculty engage students in learning, research, and career attainment, and our innovative curricula and co-curricula foster intellectual curiosity and prepare an educated citizenry for responsible leadership.

General Information - Undergraduate

Admissions - Undergraduate

Admissions Policy

The admissions policy at Rhode Island College is formulated by a committee of faculty, administrators and students. Generally, the most important factor in an admissions decision is the applicant's academic credentials. However, since the college recognizes the value of special backgrounds and experiences, it bases its final decision on the applicant's overall record. Additional factors considered include recommendations, academic potential, school and community activities, and—for certain applicants—standardized test scores. Students are selected without regard to race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, citizenship, status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran or any other veteran who served in active duty. Applicants to Rhode Island College are expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty in completing the application process. By signing the application, the applicant attests that the information provided is complete and accurate to the best of the applicant's knowledge. The admissions office may withdraw an application or rescind the acceptance offered, if a violation of academic honesty is discovered.

Freshman Applicants

Admission Requirements

To qualify for admission, freshman applicants must possess a diploma from an accredited secondary school or expect to receive one before enrolling at Rhode Island College. The applicant's secondary school program must include at least 18 units of college preparatory academic subjects, with the following requirements:

- 4 units of college preparatory English.
- 3 units of mathematics, including algebra I, algebra II, and geometry. Students planning to enter education, nursing, management, mathematics or the sciences are encouraged to complete four years of mathematics.
- 2 units of history or social science. Students should study U.S. history and government and the social sciences, which might include anthropology, economics, geography, political science and sociology.
- 2 units of laboratory sciences. Students planning to enter a technical, scientific or health-related field are strongly encouraged to complete courses in biology, chemistry and physics.
- 2 units of the same foreign language. College-bound students are encouraged to complete three years of a foreign language.
- 5 units of diversified college preparatory courses. Appropriate courses may include additional units from the arts, mathematics, language, social sciences, science or other college preparatory electives offered by the high school.

Exceptions to some unit requirements may be allowed. Requests should be made in writing to the director of admissions.

An individual assessment will be made of each student participating in ESL study while attending secondary school. Such students are encouraged to submit documentation of their current level of proficiency in English. Also, their secondary schools are encouraged to provide such additional information as transcript annotations designating the college preparatory level for appropriate ESL sections, course descriptions and other indices of English proficiency sufficient to succeed in college.

Rhode Island College supports the efforts of secondary school officials and governing bodies to have their schools achieve regional accreditation status to provide reliable assurance of the quality of the educational preparation of applicants for admission.

Application Procedures

Rhode Island College is a member of the The Common Application Group. To be considered for admission, freshman applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by March 15 for fall semester enrollment or by November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org or at www.nexttiereeducation.com.
2. Official high school transcript(s) and recommendations. The applicant must arrange to have these materials forwarded to the admissions office. Applicants may be required to submit senior midyear grades for review.
3. Scores on the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) of the College Entrance Examination Board or the ACT (including ACT with Writing Test). The applicant is fully responsible for arranging to take the test. Complete information is available from high school guidance offices or from the College Board, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, NJ 08540. Arrangements should be made at least five weeks prior to the desired examination date.

Students who reside in the United States but have secondary school (or equivalent) credentials from another country are not required to take the SAT. However, such students, if they have lived in the United States for less than five years, must have a minimum score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version or 550 on the paper-based version. The international English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam is accepted in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum required score is 6.5.

Scores on the SAT Subject Tests (formerly Achievement Tests) may be submitted for additional consideration. These scores are not a requirement. (See Proficiency and Advanced Placement (p. 11).)

Interviews are encouraged and may be required of some applicants. Applications are considered on a rolling basis and are acted upon as soon as all materials are received.

Admissions staff are available to answer any questions a prospective student may have about admission or about the college, and inquiries are welcomed. Campus tours are scheduled regularly; appointments may be made online or through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Transfer Applicants

Admission Requirements

Rhode Island College accepts transfer applications. To be considered for transfer admission, a minimum of 24 credit hours in a diversified program of study is required. Transfer applicants for January admission must have completed 24 credit hours by September 1, prior to the January semester. Applicants for September admission must have completed 24 credit hours by June 1, prior to the September semester. Students must also meet grade point average requirements as follows: a minimum GPA of 2.25 with 24 to 29 earned college credits or a minimum GPA of 2.00 with 30 or more earned college credits.

Application Procedures

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. To be considered for admission, transfer applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org or at www.nexttiereducation.com.
2. Official transcripts from all colleges attended, whether or not you expect or desire credit for such work. Final spring semester transcript is due by July 1. Students who complete summer courses before matriculation at Rhode Island College must arrange to send official transcripts to the admissions office. Credit from other colleges or universities will not be evaluated or posted until the official transcript is received.
3. Official high school transcripts and scores on the SAT or the ACT (including ACT with Writing Test) of students who will have earned fewer than 24 college credits before entering degree candidacy at Rhode Island College.

Transfer applicants with fewer than 24 college credits will be evaluated according to the standards used for freshman applicants. Those with more than 24 college credits will be evaluated primarily on their collegiate academic performance.

Students who reside in the United States but have secondary school (or equivalent) credentials from another country are not required to take the SAT. However, such students, if they have lived in the United States for less than five years, must have a minimum score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version or 550 on the paper-based version. The international English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam is accepted in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum required score is 6.5.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is usually granted for courses completed at a regionally accredited college in which the student has achieved a minimum grade of C; however, Rhode Island College reserves the right of final judgment on any such decision. At the discretion of the admissions office, college credit more than 10 years old may be accepted for transfer. The chair of the student's major department will determine how the credit is to be applied in the student's program of study. Effective January 2012, students may be awarded a maximum of 75 transfer credits.

Students may request program credit for art courses taken at another institution by submitting a portfolio of work representing the courses for which credit is desired. The portfolio will be reviewed by a committee of studio art faculty to determine course credit transfer.

A minimum of 45 credit hours must be earned at Rhode Island College to fulfill degree requirements. Transfer students must also satisfy the College Mathematics Competency and all General Education requirements.

Transfer Applicants from the University of Rhode Island and the Community College of Rhode Island

According to the Rhode Island Board of Education's "Policy for Articulation and Transfer," all college credit earned in comparable courses at the University of Rhode Island and the Community College of Rhode Island with minimally acceptable grades is transferable to Rhode Island College. The Transfer Guide is available through the following Web site: www.ritransfers.org.

Students with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.4, graduating from CCRI with an Associate in Arts, an Associate in Science in business administration or computer science, or an Associate in Applied Science in radiography are guaranteed admission to Rhode Island College. (There are restrictions on entry into certain majors and professional programs.) These students will be able to transfer all credit earned for their associate degree, but any credit earned beyond it will be evaluated separately.

Students who possess the specified degree, with a minimum GPA of 2.0, may be accepted to Rhode Island College and their credits evaluated on a course-by-course basis.

Joint Admission Program with the Community College of Rhode Island

Rhode Island College and the Community College of Rhode Island (CCRI) have established a Joint Admission Program. To be guaranteed admission to Rhode Island College under the Joint Admission Program, the student must fulfill the following requirements:

1. Prior to completing 30 credits, enroll in the Joint Admission Program at CCRI as a freshman by completing a Joint Admissions Agreement Form at CCRI.
2. Earn an associate degree in the prescribed program of study at CCRI within five years of initial matriculation at CCRI.
3. Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.4.
4. Meet all nonacademic admissions requirements for Rhode Island College.

Other Forms of Admission

Early Admission Program

Students with superior academic records may seek early admission to Rhode Island College and may begin study directly from their junior year in high school. Candidates for early admission must fulfill all regular admissions requirements and must have a personal interview. Application materials should be filed with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions during the spring semester of the junior year. Interested students must contact their high school principal or guidance counselor to make arrangements to complete high school diploma requirements.

International Student Admission

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group and encourages applications from prospective international students whose command of English is sufficient for college study. Applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for freshmen and June 1 for transfer students:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org or at www.nexttiereducation.com.
2. Official records or certified copies of past academic work. A certified literal English translation and evaluation of the applicant's educational records is required.
3. Scores on one of the following tests:
 - Test of English as a foreign Language (TOEFL): minimum score of 79 iBt
 - Pearson Test of English: minimum score of 63
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS): minimum score of 6.5

Students with strong academic records whose test scores are below the minimum required may be considered for conditional admission.

4. Once admitted, an affidavit of support detailing funds available for the educational program. All college health requirements must be met. In addition, students admitted to Rhode Island College for enrollment as F1 visa students are required to buy the basic medical insurance currently offered as an option to all Rhode Island College students.

International admission information packets are available from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. International students should contact the international student advisor in the Office of Student Life for information concerning U.S. laws, regulations, and employment practices.

Military Personnel and Veteran Admission

Rhode Island College is a Servicemembers Opportunity College. U.S. military personnel and veterans are invited to contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for information on undergraduate degrees. The office will also assist those who think they lack the necessary prerequisites for degree candidacy. Those who are interested in nondegree course work should contact the Office of Academic Support and Information Services.

Performance-Based Admission Program

Individuals who are at least 20 years old, who have been away from formal schooling for some time, who have little or no college credit and who lack some of the usual college entrance requirements may be considered for freshman admission through the Performance-Based Admission (PBA) Program.

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. Applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment and November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online or download a copy of application materials at www.commonapp.org or at www.nexttiereducation.com.
2. Official copies of high school transcripts.
3. Scores on the High School General Educational Development (GED) tests (if the candidate has not earned a traditional high school diploma).
4. An interview.

Each student who is accepted into Rhode Island College through the PBA Program will develop a special plan of study with the program advisor before the beginning of the first semester of classes. The plan of study will specify any special condition (e.g., remedial courses in mathematics or English-language courses), a schedule for ongoing consultation with an advisor and a specific six-course program, which will include the college writing course, three General Education Distribution courses and two other elective courses. Students must complete the six-course program with a minimum grade point average of 2.00 to be allowed to continue their studies. Upon successful completion of the plan of study, students will be continued as degree candidates without condition.

Testing in English and mathematics may be required as part of the admission process. Students who need remedial course work in either of these disciplines will be permitted to take these courses as part of their program, but credits earned will not count toward either the degree requirement or the six-course PBA Program plan.

Adult students whose primary language is other than English may also be accepted into the college through this program and may be required to complete one or more English-as-a-second language (ESL) courses before undertaking the regular six courses in the PBA Program. These students are expected to demonstrate a facility with the English language that is comparable to a score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version, 550 on the paper-based version, 960 on the English Language Proficiency Test (ELPT) or 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) before undertaking the six-course PBA Program.

Students who do not make satisfactory progress will be dismissed from the college. Appeals of dismissal decisions can be made to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Preparatory Enrollment Program

The Preparatory Enrollment Program serves a select number of first-generation or low-income students who demonstrate the potential for academic success and persistence. Program services support the intellectual and social development of students by providing academic instruction and tutoring, faculty mentoring, a peer support network, workshops, learning communities and individual advising. PEP is a student-centered program characterized by an environment of diversity, cooperation and community.

Student support services begin during the spring and summer months, prior to freshman year. All students participate in a five week Spring Pre-College Seminar Series led by Rhode Island College faculty, which exposes and engages students in college-level coursework. During the summer, students participate in a First Year Experience Seminar and attend individual advising meetings with their PEP advisor. Throughout freshman year, PEP students receive individualized support and guidance to ensure a successful personal and academic transition to college.

Students also have the opportunity to participate in study halls, learning communities, group workshops with campus offices and a peer mentoring program.

Prospective PEP applicants must complete the Common Application and indicate an interest in applying to PEP by February 1. The selection process involves a review of academic records, standardized test scores, a personal statement and a letters of recommendation. Some students selected for final consideration may be invited to participate in a personal interview. In order to be considered for financial aid, applicants must also complete the FASFA and the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application by March 1.

Project ExCEL (Excellence in College for English Learners)

Project ExCEL (Excellence in College for English Learners) is an academic initiative at Rhode Island College aiming to expand college access for talented bilingual students. Because the process of acquisition of academic English for non-native speakers of English is complex and extends over several years, many highly capable, literate and academically talented advanced bilinguals often do not have all the mainstream English courses required for admission to a four-year college or university. In close partnership with high school and other counselors, Project ExCEL @ RIC enrolls bright, accomplished bilinguals with established success in academic subjects and provides them the opportunity to pursue a Rhode Island College degree.

Admissions requirements:

- Successful completion of high school ESL courses
- 3 units of mathematics
- 2 units of laboratory science
- 2 units of social science
- 2 units of foreign language (may be waived if a student exhibits proficiency in multiple languages)

5 additional units of diversified study

Additional requirements:

- Eligible candidates will generally rank in the top 10% of the graduating class or have a minimum GPA of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- Interview
- RIC ESL Placement Exam

RIC Writing Placement Test

Second Degree Applicants

Persons holding baccalaureate degrees from accredited institutions may apply to Rhode Island College for a second undergraduate degree. This assumes completion of all previous baccalaureate requirements, including General Education and a 2.00 cumulative grade point average (higher for some programs).

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. Applicants for a second bachelor's degree submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 1 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org or at www.nexttiereducation.com.
2. Official transcripts from all colleges attended. Transcripts must indicate that a baccalaureate degree was conferred and the date it was conferred.

Once the application and all credentials have been received, the admissions office will notify and instruct the candidate to schedule an appointment with the appropriate department chair(s) to determine the courses needed to meet requirements for the second degree. Candidates should be advised that certain programs, (e.g., art, teacher education, nursing and social work) have specialized requirements and admission standards that must be satisfied for acceptance into those programs.

Candidates for a second degree must successfully complete a minimum of 30 credit hours at Rhode Island College. Some programs, such as education, will require considerably more credit hours. Credit requirements for plans of study may be as high as 98 credit hours. At least 15 of the 30 hours must be taken in the department of the major or program. Course/credit proficiency, field experience, prior learning credit or transfer credit may not be counted toward this 30-credit-hour requirement.

Early Enrollment Program

The Early Enrollment Program (EEP) is a concurrent enrollment program that provides high school students with the opportunity to take college-level courses in the familiar environment of their own high school. Upon successful completion of EEP courses, high school students earn college credits at Rhode Island College that may be transferred to other institutions of higher learning. The faculty and courses that are accepted into the program must meet National Alliance of Concurrent Enrollment Partnerships and Rhode Island College EEP standards. See www.ric.edu/eep/.

Proficiency and Advanced Placement

Students may increase their opportunities to pursue advanced work or may earn credits toward graduation through proficiency and advanced placement. Such credit is substituted for specified courses and is usually gained through appropriate scores on the following examinations administered by the College Board: SAT Subject Tests in a modern foreign language; the Advanced Placement Test (given to high school students in advanced programs); and the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) tests, both the Subject-Level and General-Level Tests. All proficiency and advanced placement credit must be approved by the academic department involved. Further information is available from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or the appropriate academic department.

Health Requirements

All full-time students and international students are required to meet immunization requirements mandated by the Rhode Island Department of Health. A completed Immunization Record, signed by a health care provider, must be returned to College Health Services before a full-time student is allowed to start classes. Students living on campus, participating in the athletic program or enrolled in the nursing program are also required to have a physical examination on file at College Health Services. Forms are available at www.ric.edu/healthservices or may be entered through the Medicat Patient Portal found on the right sidebar of MyRIC.

Note: Certain departments have additional health requirements for admission to their programs.

High School Equivalency

In some cases, Rhode Island College will accept a high school equivalency diploma in lieu of a regular diploma, if the applicant has achieved superior scores on the high school General Educational Development (GED) tests. All other admissions requirements must be fulfilled.

Registration - Undergraduate

Registration Procedures

Degree Candidates

Each student is assigned a day and time to register, which can be found in the student's myRIC account. Information regarding course offerings is available online for all students prior to the registration period at www.ric.edu/recordsOffice/Bulletin.php.

Incoming Freshmen

Information on freshman orientation is mailed to incoming freshmen by the Office of Academic Support and Information Services. Orientation provides for academic advisement and course registration as well as an introduction to campus life.

Incoming Transfer, Readmit and Second Degree Students

Information on transfer orientation is mailed to incoming transfer, readmit and second degree students by the Office of Academic Support and Information Services. Orientation provides for academic advisement and course registration as well as an introduction to campus life.

Nondegree Students

New and returning nondegree students may register during the late registration period. Those interested in taking undergraduate courses are advised to contact the Office of Academic Support and Information Services.

A late fee of $10 is charged to those who do not complete registration during the designated periods.

Preregistration

Some departments conduct an early registration for their courses. This procedure is usually restricted to department majors and allows students to enroll before the registration period. Students should check with the departments in which they wish to take courses.

Adding/Dropping Courses

Any adjustment in a student's schedule may be made through the Web registration system. Courses may be added at any time during the first two weeks of classes, and a student may withdraw without a grading penalty up to midsemester.

Interinstitutional Agreements

Providence College

Students registered at Rhode Island College may take courses at Providence College if the courses are not offered at Rhode Island College. Students must have the written approval of the chair of the Rhode Island College department involved as well as the permission of the appropriate department chair and instructor at Providence College.

In order to qualify for this exchange program, the student must be enrolled full time (taking 12 to 18 credit hours per semester). Rhode Island College will pay Providence College the Providence College tuition for each student enrolled in an approved course, provided the combined total of credit hours taken at Rhode Island College and Providence College does not exceed 18.

The student will, in turn, reimburse Rhode Island College for the difference in tuition costs at Rhode Island College and Providence

College. Should the combined total of credit hours exceed 18, the student will be responsible for paying the entire Providence College charge for all credit hours over 18.

This agreement is a reciprocal one, allowing students from Providence College to have the same benefits.

University of Rhode Island/Community College of Rhode Island

Any student who has paid full-time fees at Rhode Island College may take a maximum of 7 credits during each of the fall and spring semesters at the University of Rhode Island (URI) or the Community College of Rhode Island (CCRI) or both without paying additional fees. The student must be enrolled for at least 5 credits at Rhode Island College, and the total number of credits taken at all institutions combined must be 18 or less. The forms required for this procedure are available at the Records Office. This agreement is a reciprocal one, allowing students at URI and CCRI to have the same benefits.

Transcripts

For a onetime charge of $30, official transcripts are issued by the Records Office upon written request or by using the RICconnect system. Telephone and fax requests will not be honored. Transcripts are free for alumni and former students.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

Rhode Island College maintains students' records to support its educational and service programs. Its policies and procedures governing the utilization and maintenance of such records are in accordance with state and federal laws. Copies of the policy can be obtained from the Records Office.

Fees - Undergraduate

The fees described in the following sections are projected for the 2015–2016 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.

Students are required to pay all applicable fees in accordance with the billing due dates. Also, Rhode Island College offers an extended payment plan for students who wish to pay on a monthly basis. The cost of this service is approximately $35 dollars per semester. Details are available in the Office of the Bursar.

Students accepted into a second degree undergraduate program pay undergraduate fees.

Students are responsible for informing the college of their status in order to assess the aforementioned tuition and fee charges.

Tuition and Fees for Full-Time Undergraduate Students (2015–2016)

All full-time students (those taking 12 to 18 credit hours per semester) pay per semester:

	In State	MTP	Out of State
Tuition (General Fee)	$3,559	$5,338.50	$9,389.50
Dining Center/Student Union Fee	$209.50	$209.50	$209.50

Textbooks, Supplies, and Other Expenses

Students purchase their own textbooks and supplies. The cost of these materials is approximately $1,000 annually. Rhode Island College furnishes a stated maximum of special materials for certain technology education and fine arts courses. Students who use these materials in excess of the amount must meet the additional costs themselves.

Commuting students are responsible for the cost of transportation and meals, which can run from $1,200 to $1,750 annually. Students should also expect to pay up to $1,000 per year for clothing, entertainment and other personal expenses, depending on their style of living.

An optional plan for accident and sickness insurance is available to students at a nominal rate. Details may be obtained from College Health Services.

Explanation of Fees

The Application Fee is used to defray the costs of processing an application.

The Athletic Fee is used to support intramural, intercollegiate and recreation activities and programming.

The Applied Music Fee is used to cover 14 private 50-minute lessons, which make up Music 270–288 and 370–388. The fee for Music 170–188 covers 14 private 30-minute lessons.

The Enrollment Fee applies to all incoming freshman, transfer, second degree and readmitted students at the time of their acceptance. This nonrefundable deposit will be applied toward tuition and/or fees.

The Fine Arts Fee is used to provide opportunities and activities in the fine and performing arts at Rhode Island College.

The Laboratory/Studio Art Fee is used to cover the costs of art and laboratory supplies provided by the college to students enrolled in specific courses.

The Late Payment Fee is a penalty for failing to make payment during the designated periods.

The Library Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing books, periodicals, and nonprint materials for the library.

The Nursing Testing Fee is used to cover the cost of the comprehensive testing and review package used to enhance the program.

The Orientation Fee is used to cover the costs of accommodations and other expenses for the orientation program.

The Recreation Fee is used to cover the debt service and utilities for the Recreation Center.

The Registration Fee is used to cover the costs associated with the registration process.

The School of Management Program Fee is used to provide educational opportunities and career activities for business students at Rhode Island College.

The School of Nursing Program Fee is used to enhance educational opportunities and career activities for nursing students at Rhode Island College.

The Technology Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing equipment and software for student use on campus.

The Transcript Fee is a one-time fee charged to all students to cover all requests for official transcripts.

The Transportation Fee is used to fund the re-establishment of a discounted RIPTA fare program for students and parking improvements on campus.

The Tuition (General Fee) is used to cover the basic costs of educating a student and of running the college.

Determination of Residency for Tuition Purposes

The determination of residency for tuition purposes is made by the director of admissions for new students and by the director of records for enrolled students.

When residence status is in question, the student, if under 18 years of age, must present certification to the appropriate Rhode Island College official that the parents or legal guardians have resided in Rhode Island for at least 12 months. This certification must be verified by the clerk of the city or town in which legal residence is claimed.

If the student is over 18 and claims independent status, a notarized statement must be furnished, indicating residence in Rhode Island for at least one year prior to the student's first registering at Rhode Island College. In addition, to be considered independent of their parents, students must not have been claimed as a dependent for tax purposes for two years, and students must have resided in Rhode Island for at least one year. A notarized statement from the parents attesting to the fact that the student was not claimed for Internal Revenue Service (IRS) purposes for two years is required. This statement authorizes the college to verify the fact with the IRS.

For such students, time spent in Rhode Island while attending college usually may not be used to establish residence.

Contact either the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or the Records Office, as appropriate, for further information.

Metropolitan Tuition Policy (MTP)

Rhode Island College students whose permanent place of residence is a community within a 50-mile radius of Providence are eligible for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The Metropolitan Tuition Policy includes both full-time and part-time students, undergraduate and graduate students, and degree and non-degree students. Connecticut and Massachusetts communities (and one NY community) within the 50-mile radius are listed online at www.ric.edu/bursar/tuition_metro.php.

Forms for verification of residence for this purpose are available in the Records Office and must be submitted for approval prior to the close of registration.

New England Regional Student Program

Rhode Island College participates in the Regional Student Program (RSP) administered by the New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE). Through this program, New England residents who live outside of Rhode Island may enroll in specified curricula at Rhode Island College for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The student's program of study must be one not offered at an institution in the student's home state, or Rhode Island College must be closer in traveling time to the student's legal residence than an institution offering an approved RSP program in the home state.

Students must remain in the program for which they applied or may transfer only into another RSP program or else they will be charged out-of-state tuition fees as of the date of transfer. Each semester, RSP program students must also request a tuition waiver from the Records Office.

Those entering Rhode Island College through the RSP program must meet all the standards required for admission to the college and must be accepted into a degree-granting program.

Additional information may be obtained from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, from the high school guidance counselor, or from the NEBHE website at www.nebhe.org/programs-overview/rsp-tuition-break/overview/.

Rhode Island National Guard State Tuition Exemption Program

Members of the Rhode Island National Guard who are in good standing may apply for tuition assistance through the State Tuition Exemption Program (STEP). This program applies to both undergraduate and graduate courses and will cover both tuition and mandatory fees for up to four courses within a 12-month period, but it is limited to one course each semester. Those wishing to apply for STEP should contact their Rhode Island National Guard commanders for details.

Senior Citizen Waiver

All Rhode Island residents who are at least 60 years old are eligible to take courses at Rhode Island College without having to pay the regular tuition charges. However, the registration, recreation and other applicable laboratory/studio fees will be charged. In addition, the student must have fulfilled all academic prerequisites for the course, is limited to registering on the last day of registration on a space available basis and is subject to a means test.

Unemployment Waiver

Rhode Island General Law 284281 provides that any Rhode Island resident receiving unemployment benefits, including benefits earned in another state, is eligible for waiver of tuition for any course(s) taken at Rhode Island College. The law stipulates, however, that the waiver be granted on a space-available basis only and that each applicant be subject to a means test. Therefore, students who wish to register under the terms of waiver are limited to registering on the last day of registration. Students must obtain Form DET467 from the Department of Labor and Training and submit this completed form, certifying eligibility, at the time of registration. Any registration prior to the specified date each term will be ineligible for consideration for an unemployment waiver, and no retroactive use of the waiver is permitted. Mandatory fees that are not waived include lab fees, recreation fees and activity fees.

Refund of Tuition and Fees

A full- or part-time student withdrawing from Rhode Island College, either voluntarily or because of dismissal for disciplinary reasons, will receive a refund of tuition and/or fees in accordance with the college policy in force for first-time students, including Title IV students and all other withdrawn students. Enrolled students are also subject to the college refund policy.

Full-time students who withdraw from a course are not eligible for a refund unless such withdrawal results in a change of status from full time to part time and this withdrawal is made during the approved Add/Drop Period.

Refund of Room and Board Fees

Room Refunds

Withdrawal prior to the “contractually publicized” July 15th date will cancel all room charges minus the room reservation of $100. Otherwise, the room contract will remain binding on the student until the end of the academic year. However, proration of the charges may be made by the Office of Residential Life and Housing if the space created by the withdrawal is filled by a new resident.

A first semester freshman who withdraws from the college in their first semester will be released from the contract for the spring semester upon completion of proper withdrawal forms. All other students will need to submit an appeal letter for contract release consideration. In all cancellations, the room reservation deposit ($100) shall be forfeited.

Board Refunds

The board contract is binding upon the student until the end of the academic year during which the cancellation is effected (first semester, July 15 to December 31; second semester, January 1 to May 25).

However, proration of the food-cost portion of the board contract will result in a refund based on the week of withdrawal.

Refund for Students Involuntarily Called to Military Service

The Rhode Island Board of Education has adopted as policy the following options for students who are involuntarily called to military service:

1. Total refund of tuition and course-related fees, including registration fee. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees. Or
2. No tuition refund but a grade of Incomplete awarded for courses in which the student is enrolled at the time of recall. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees.

Indebtedness to the College

Failure to make full payment of tuition and fees or to resolve other debts to Rhode Island College—for example, unreturned athletic equipment, overdue short-term or emergency loans, delinquent or defaulted student loans (Federal Nursing and/or Federal Perkins Loans), unreturned library books, damage to college property, etc.—may result in the cancellation of registration for the following semester, withholding of academic grades, denial of registration until the payment is made and/or disenrollment. If requested, appropriate departments will provide the student with notice of the debt, the reason for the debt and a review. Students must fulfill all financial obligations to the college, including participation in loan exit counseling for borrowers under one or more of the several long-term loan programs in which the college participates (e.g., Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Direct Loans, PLUS and/or SLS loans), before receiving grades, a degree, transcripts or a diploma.

Financial Aid - Undergraduate

In order to assist students who are unable to meet the cost of financing a college education, the Office of Student Financial Aid administers an extensive program of scholarships, grants, loans and part-time employment opportunities. Demonstrated financial need is the primary factor used in the awarding of financial aid, although some scholarships are given each year in recognition of superior academic achievement or special talent. At Rhode Island College approximately 60 percent of full-time and part-time undergraduate degree students receive financial aid. Degree students are assigned a financial aid counselor who is listed at www.ric.edu/financialaid/financialaidcounselor.php.

Eligibility Standards

Applicants should be aware that virtually all financial assistance awarded by Rhode Island College is limited to:

1. Students who have been accepted into a program that will lead to a degree.
2. Students who are U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens.
3. Students who are enrolled at least half time (for six credit hours), although limited Federal Pell Grants are available to students enrolled less than half time.
4. Students who are maintaining satisfactory academic progress (see Standards for Measuring Satisfactory Academic Progress for Undergraduate Financial Aid Recipients (p. 20)).

For financial aid purposes, enrollment levels are determined at the end of the Add Period (the first two weeks of each semester). Hence, those who are officially classified as non-matriculated students, visiting students, special students, non-matriculated graduate students, etc. at the end of the Add Period should anticipate that their awards will be canceled. Students whose enrollment at the end of the Add Period is less than full time should expect that the amount of their award(s) may be reduced proportionately or canceled.

Students enrolled in a program designed to lead to a second baccalaureate degree or to the Rhode Island Teacher Certification Program (RITE) are considered ineligible for virtually all grant/gift assistance provided by or through Rhode Island College. Second baccalaureate degree and RITE students may be considered for financial assistance in the form of a loan and/or work opportunities.

Application Procedures

Any undergraduate student who desires financial aid from Rhode Island College must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). In addition, new freshmen and transfer applicants must complete the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application if they wish to be considered for Rhode Island College grants and scholarships. These forms are available from the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Preference for financial aid provided by the college is given to students who complete the financial aid application process in accordance with the following deadlines:

Incoming Freshmen (Fall Semester) and Continuing Upperclass Students

1. Application for admission on file with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by March 15 (incoming freshmen only).
2. FAFSA on file at the processing center by March 1.
3. Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application on file with the Office of Student Financial Aid by March 1 (incoming freshmen only).

Readmitted Students and New Transfers (Fall Semester)

1. Application for admission on file with the admissions office by June 1.
2. FAFSA on file at the processing center by May 15.
3. Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application on file with the Office of Student Financial Aid by May 15 (incoming transfers only).

Incoming Freshmen, New Transfers, and Other Students Admitted/Readmitted (Spring Semester)

1. FAFSA on file at the processing center by November 15.
2. Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application on file with the Office of Student Financial Aid by November 15 (incoming freshmen and transfers only).

Applicants should fill out all forms completely and accurately in order to avoid delays in processing and possible loss of financial aid. Adherence to deadlines is strongly advised. Late applicants are considered only after on-time applicants have been considered and if funds are available. Awards to on-time applicants are made in the spring and summer. Awards to late applicants are normally not made until October/November or February/March.

Since awards are not automatically renewable, applicants must reapply each year.

Note: Rhode Island College reserves the right to require verification of income data submitted by any or all applicants for financial assistance. Awards to those who are asked for such verification will be made conditional upon receipt of the requested information/documentation. Forms of documentation or verification which may be requested include, but are not limited to, signed and dated photocopies of federal income tax returns, IRS Tax Return Transcripts and copies of authorization letters for untaxed income. Any discrepancy in reported figures may result in adjustment or cancellation of the financial aid award and may be reported to the federal government for further review and possible legal action.

All awards made by or through the college are conditional and are based upon information available to college officials at the time the award is made. All awards are, therefore, subject to change and/or cancellation should the college become aware of facts, conditions and/or circumstances which differ from those upon which the award(s) was (were) based. Similarly, all awards are contingent upon the receipt by the college of sufficient funding from state, federal or other funding sources and/or donors to cover award offers.

Eligible Non-citizenship Documentation: Applicants who are “eligible non-citizens” must provide appropriate documentation before awards can be made (please refer to FAFSA instructions for definition and required documents for U.S. immigration status).

Financial Aid Programs

Federal Financial Aid Programs

Federal Direct Parental Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Federal Direct PLUS Loans allow parents of dependent undergraduate students to borrow up to the full cost of college less other student aid. There is no need requirement for the PLUS loan, but the student must file a FAFSA and parents must pass a credit review in order to qualify for the loan. Repayment may be deferred for up to six months after the student is no longer enrolled at least half time. However, interest does accrue on the loan and is capitalized into the loan principal before repayment begins. The interest rate on these loans is fixed at 6.84 percent. Federal Direct PLUS Loans have an origination fee of 4.292 percent.

Federal Pell Grants

Eligibility for a Federal Pell Grant is determined by the United States Department of Education, using a national formula. These grants range up to $5,775 annually. Actual awards vary according to the cost of attendance, the student’s enrollment status (full, three-quarter, half, or less than half time), and a family’s expected contribution.

Federal Perkins Loans

Perkins loans are long-term, low-interest (5 percent) loans. Eligibility for a Federal Perkins Loan is based on financial need as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from the FAFSA. Annual loan amounts may total up to $5,500 for undergraduates and $8,000 for graduate students. The cumulative borrowing limit is $27,500 for undergraduates and $60,000 for graduate students. Actual award amounts vary depending on federal funding levels, and priority is given to those applicants with the greatest need. Repayment begins nine months after graduation or after dropping below half-time status (6 credits per semester). Students may be allowed up to 10 years to repay; however, a minimum monthly repayment of $40 is required. This program will be gradually phased out after the 2015-2016 academic year. Only students who received loans at Rhode Island College prior to 2015-2016 will be eligible for loans in subsequent academic years.

Federal Direct Loans

Eligibility for a subsidized Federal Direct Loan is based on financial need as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from the FAFSA. Subsidized loans are interest free during the student’s period of enrollment. Students have a six-month grace period after leaving school or dropping below half-time status before repayment begins, but interest will accrue during this period. Unsubsidized Direct Loans, which do not require financial need, have an interest charge during the in-school and grace periods.

Effective July 1, 2015, both subsidized and unsubsidized loans for undergraduate students have a fixed interest rate of 4.29 percent. Both loans also have a 1.073 percent origination fee. In addition, as of July 1, 2012, subsidized loans are limited to undergraduate students.

Annual loan limits are as follows:

$5,500 for freshmen, but only $3,500 can be subsidized
 $6,500 for sophomores, but only $4,500 can be subsidized
 $7,500 for upper-class undergraduates, but only $5,500 can be subsidized
 $20,500 for graduate students

Financially independent undergraduate students may apply for an additional unsubsidized loan of $4,000 in the freshman and sophomore years and $5,000 in the junior and senior years.

Aggregate loan limits are as follows:

$31,000 for undergraduate dependent students, but no more than $23,000 can be subsidized

$57,500 for undergraduate independent students, but no more than $23,000 can be subsidized

$138,500 for graduate students

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants

Eligibility for a Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant is based on financial need as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from the FAFSA. Awards range from $100 to $4,000 per year, depending on funding and student need. Priority for funding is given to students who are eligible to receive Federal Pell Grants.

Federal Work-Study Program

This is a part-time employment program based on financial need. A work-study award is paid biweekly at an hourly rate based on hours worked. Wage rates reflect both the level of responsibility and the experience of the student worker. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from the FAFSA. The Career Development Center helps work-study students identify opportunities both on and off campus; however, Rhode Island College cannot guarantee that a student will secure a work-study position.

State Financial Aid Programs

RI Stay-the-Course Scholarship

The Stay-the-Course Scholarship at Rhode Island College is funded by an allocation from the Rhode Island State Higher Education Opportunity Grant program. The scholarship is awarded by the Office of Student Financial Aid to Rhode Island residents after completion of the freshman year at RIC. The scholarship is designed to increase our graduation rate by enabling these students to continue full-time study in their second through sixth years at the college by reducing the need to work long hours off-campus. To qualify, a student must enter RIC at or during the freshman year, enroll full-time, be eligible for the federal Pell Grant and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75. The scholarship will cover up to the difference between the standard cost of full tuition, registration fees, an allowance for books and the funds provided by the Pell Grant, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, and merit-based scholarships. However, no scholarship will exceed need or 60% of a student's annual cost of attendance. Recipients must remain Pell-eligible, continue full-time enrollment and maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 for renewal in subsequent years. Renewal scholarships are subject to continued state funding, and students filing the FAFSA by our March 1 deadline will receive priority.

Other State Financial Aid Programs

Guidelines for applying for state scholarship/grant programs vary, so students should inquire at the appropriate agency in their state of legal residence regarding application procedures.

Names, addresses and telephone numbers of other state scholarship agencies are available upon request from the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Rhode Island College Need-Based Grants and Scholarships

RIC Scholars Program

This program provides scholarships of $2,500 to entering freshmen with exceptional financial need and academic promise. These awards require full-time enrollment and may be renewed for up to four years of study based on need and a cumulative GPA of at least 2.5. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from a student's academic record and FAFSA.

Rhode Island College Grants

Rhode Island College grants ranging from $100 to $13,600 are awarded by the Office of Student Financial Aid to students with demonstrated financial need. All applicants are required to file the FAFSA. In addition, new freshmen and transfer applicants are required to file the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application in order to be considered for this program. Award decisions depend on level of need, year in school, academic record and date of application.

Rhode Island College Transfer Scholar Awards

These awards range from $2,500 to $5,000 and are based on academic achievement as well as financial need. To be considered, an entering transfer student must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.25 as determined by the college Office of Undergraduate Admissions at the time of acceptance. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from both the FAFSA and the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application. Awards may be renewed for up to three years of study based on need and maintenance of a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.

Financial Aid for Summer Sessions

In addition to filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as outlined above, students who desire financial assistance for summer sessions must submit a Rhode Island College Application for Financial Aid—Summer Sessions. This form is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid on or about February 1 each year. Summer session aid is contingent upon the availability of funds and normally consists of Pell Grants, Federal Direct Loans and Federal Work-Study. To be considered for Federal Work-Study for summer sessions, the FAFSA must be received at the federal processing center by March 1 and the Application for Financial Aid—Summer Sessions must be received in the Office of Student Financial Aid by April 1.

Talent Awards

Special Talent Awards were established to recognize and encourage students who have exceptional talent or skill in the visual and performing arts, areas of intercollegiate competition (other than athletics) or similar fields. Currently, Rhode Island College offers awards in the following areas: art, communication, dance, film studies, music and theatre. While the requirements for these awards vary by department, award competition is open to entering freshmen and transfer students. Awards range from $100 to $2,500. Applicants should contact the academic department or program advisor in their area of interest.

Employment Programs

The Office of Student Employment, located in the Career Development Center, provides information on part-time employment both on and off campus during the academic year and the summer. One source of employment is the Federal Work-Study Program, which is based on financial need. However, student employment opportunities are also available for students who do not qualify for financial aid.

Short-Term Loans

Students may be eligible to receive a line of credit toward purchases at the Rhode Island College Bookstore if their financial aid award exceeds direct charges (e.g., tuition, fees, room and board). Applications must be submitted online using the student self-service section of RICConnect.

Standards for Measuring Satisfactory Academic Progress for Undergraduate Financial Aid Recipients

Standards of satisfactory academic progress for student financial aid recipients measure both the quantity and quality of course work completed. All credit hours attempted, with the exception of credit hours dropped during the first two weeks of the semester (or corresponding time for summer sessions), are counted to determine placement in the schedule below. In addition, federal regulations require that student financial aid eligibility be terminated once a student has attempted 150 percent of the credit hours needed to complete a degree program. Satisfactory academic progress is measured once each academic year at the end of the spring semester.

Credit Hours Attempted	Required Successful Completion	Minimum Cumulative GPA
0–12	—	—
13–29	40%	1.00
30–59	45%	1.75
60–89	50%	1.90
90–119	55%	2.00
120–149	60%	2.00
150–180	67%	2.00

Transfer Credits: Credit hours transferred into Rhode Island College are included as credit hours attempted to determine placement in the above schedule.

Treatment of W, I, and F Grades: Credit hours earned will be added to credit hours attempted to determine placement in the above schedule.

Repeated Courses: Credit hours earned will be included in the total number of credit hours attempted.

Federal regulations allow repeated courses to be included in determining financial aid enrollment status as long as there is not more than one repeat of a previously passed course.

If a previously passed course is repeated more than once, credits for the course will not count in the determination of financial aid enrollment status or cost of attendance. For example, a student who enrolls for 12 credits while repeating a previously passed 3-credit course for the second time would only receive financial aid as a three-quarter time student. All repeated courses, as well as the original attempt, are included in determining satisfactory academic progress.

Total Limit on Attempted Credit Hours: Rhode Island College does not provide financial assistance to undergraduate students attempting more than 180 credit hours.

Appeals and Reinstatement of Eligibility: If a determination is made that a financial aid applicant is not making satisfactory academic progress, the applicant will be considered ineligible for all student financial assistance programs for the next academic period. If a student believes that there are extenuating circumstances that contributed to the failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, the determination of financial aid ineligibility may be appealed to the director of student financial aid. Appeals should be submitted in writing. Appeals not resolved by the director of student financial aid may be further appealed to the assistant vice president for academic affairs.

The above standards of satisfactory academic progress are not designed to replace the standards that Rhode Island College uses for academic dismissal/probation. It is possible for a student to lose financial aid eligibility without losing status as a degree candidate. However, once a student loses status as a degree candidate, he or she will also lose eligibility for financial aid.

Student financial aid eligibility may be reinstated during the academic year once a student successfully completes the required number of credit hours with the required cumulative grade point average.

The Rights and Responsibilities of Students Receiving Financial Assistance

As recipients of student financial aid, students have certain rights they should exercise and certain responsibilities that must be met.

Student Rights

1. Students have the right to know the cost of attending the institution.
2. Students have the right to know where and from whom information on student assistance at the institution may be obtained.
3. Students have the right to know what financial aid programs are available at their school.
4. Students have the right to know how to apply for student assistance programs and what standards are used to determine eligibility.
5. Students have the right to know the deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.
6. Students have the right to know how financial aid will be distributed, how decisions on that distribution are made and the basis for these decisions.
7. Students have the right to know how their financial need was determined. This includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal miscellaneous expenses, etc., are considered in their budget.

8. Students have the right to know what resources (such as parental contribution, other financial aid, student assets, etc.) were considered in the calculation of their need.
9. Students have the right to know how much of their financial need as determined by the institution has been met.
10. Students have the right to request an explanation of the various programs in their student aid package.
11. Students have the right to know what portion of their financial aid must be repaid and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, students have the right to know what the interest rate is, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time they have to repay the loan and when repayment is to begin.
12. Students have the right to know the means by which financial aid will be disbursed and the frequency of disbursements.
13. Students have the right to know how the school determines whether they are making satisfactory progress, what happens if they are not and the procedures by which a student who has failed to maintain such progress may reestablish eligibility.
14. Students have the right to know their school's refund policy.
15. Students have the right to know what academic programs are available at the institution and the faculty and facilities available for those programs.
16. Students have the right to data regarding retention of students at the institution.
17. Students have the right to know the number or percentage of students completing each program if such data is available.

Student Responsibilities

1. Students must complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to the right place.
2. Students must provide correct information. In most instances, misreporting information on financial aid application forms is a violation of law and may be considered a criminal offense which could result in indictment under the U.S. Criminal Code.
3. Students must return all additional documentation, verification, corrections and/or new information requested by either the Office of Student Financial Aid or the agency to which an application was submitted.
4. Students are responsible for reading and understanding all forms that they are asked to sign and for keeping copies of them.
5. Students must accept responsibility for all agreements that they sign.
6. Students must perform the work that is agreed upon in accepting a Federal Work-Study award.
7. Students must be aware of and comply with the deadlines for application or reapplication for aid.
8. Students should be aware of their school's refund procedures.
9. All schools must provide information to prospective students about the school's programs and performance. Students should consider this information carefully before deciding to attend a school.

Academic Policies and Requirements - Undergraduate

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

The following requirements must be completed by undergraduate degree candidates at Rhode Island College in order to graduate:

1. The General Education requirements.
2. The College Writing Requirement.
3. The College Mathematics Competency.
4. The major requirements listed under each program, and, if applicable, requirements in the minor.
5. A minimum of 120 credit hours, with a minimum of 45 credit hours taken at RIC. Of the 45 credit hours, a minimum of 15 credit hours must be in the major (12 of which must be at the 300- or 400-level).
6. A minimum overall grade point average of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale.

College Writing Requirement

All students are required to complete the College Writing Requirement. In most cases, this requirement is satisfied by the completion of FYW 100, FYW 100P, or FYW 100H, with a minimum grade of C. However, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires a minimum grade of B. Students who receive a C-, D+, D, or a D- in FYW 100, FYW 100P, or FYW 100H, will receive the college credit but will not have fulfilled the College Writing Requirement. This requirement may also be satisfied by (1) passing the appropriate College Level Examination Program (CLEP)/College Composition, with a minimum score of 50, and by reporting the score to RIC's admissions office; or (2) by passing the course equivalent of FYW 100 with a C or better; in this latter case, the transcript from the institution at which the student enrolled in the equivalent course should be sent to RIC's admissions office. Most students will have the opportunity during first year orientation to choose which FYW course best meets their needs. Visit the FYW Program website at www.ric.edu/firstyearwriting for information on this process.

Students are encouraged to fulfill the College Writing Requirement in their first year of study at Rhode Island College. Students who have not fulfilled the requirement will have that noted on their transcript. Students who have not fulfilled the College Writing Requirement before the completion of 40 attempted credits at the college will be placed on academic probation and be advised to satisfy the requirement as soon as possible.

College Mathematics Competency

Students are urged to complete the College Mathematics Competency by the end of their first semester of study at the college. Students who have not fulfilled the requirement will have that noted on their transcript.

Students who do not satisfy the College Mathematics Competency by the end of their first semester (15 or more attempted credit hours at Rhode Island College) will be placed on academic probation.

Note: Fulfillment of the College Mathematics Competency is distinct from and does not substitute for completion of the Mathematics category of General Education.

Entering Freshmen:

1. Students who score 480 or better on the Mathematics section of the SAT (or 20 or better on the ACT Mathematics subscore) will have met the College Mathematics Competency.
2. Freshmen who scored less than 480 on the Mathematics section of the SAT (or less than 20 on the ACT Mathematics subscore) will be required to take the Mathematics Accuplacer Examination at or prior to freshman orientation. Students who achieve a satisfactory grade on the accuplacer exam will have met the College Mathematics Competency. (This exam is given at least six times each semester, and, if necessary, may be repeated once. It is administered by the Mathematics Learning Center.)
3. Students who do not achieve a satisfactory grade on the Accuplacer exam (which may be taken twice) must enroll in MATH 010 prior to or during their first semester at Rhode Island College. Students who fail to earn a satisfactory grade during that semester shall be required to retake MATH 010 until successful completion.

Entering Transfer Students:

1. Students who score 480 or better on the Mathematics section of the SAT (or 20 or better on the ACT Mathematics subscore) will have met the College Mathematics Competency.
2. Students who receive transfer credit for a course(s) deemed equivalent to MATH 010 or 177 or higher will have met the College Mathematics Competency.
3. Transfer students who do not fulfill the College Mathematics Competency by means of numbers 1 or 2 above will be required to take the Accuplacer exam prior to or during their first semester at Rhode Island College. Students who achieve a satisfactory grade on the exam will have met this requirement. (This exam is given at least six times each semester, and, if necessary, may be repeated once. It is administered by the Mathematics Learning Center.)
4. Students who do not achieve a satisfactory grade on the Accuplacer exam (which may be taken twice) must enroll in MATH 010 prior to or during their first semester at Rhode Island College. Students who fail to earn a satisfactory grade during that semester shall be required to retake MATH 010 until successful completion.

Grading System

Academic standing is based on grade points, which are related to the letter grades as indicated:

Letter Grade	Grade Points Per Credit Hour
A (excellent)	4.00
A-	3.67
B+	3.33
B (good)	3.00
B-	2.67
C+	2.33
C (satisfactory)	2.00
C-	1.67
D+	1.33
D (low pass)	1.00

D- 0.67

F* (failure) 0.00

*Included in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average

W—Withdrawn with permission. No grade points, no effect on GPA. No credits counted toward graduation.

I—Incomplete. No grade points.

CR—Passing grade in course taken with Credit/No Credit option. Credits counted toward graduation, but no effect on GPA. The Credit/No Credit option may only be chosen in certain elective courses. Students should discuss this option with their academic advisor before electing it.

NCR—Failing grade in course taken with Credit/No Credit option. No credits counted toward graduation and no effect on GPA. The Credit/No Credit option may only be chosen in certain elective courses. Students should discuss this option with their academic advisor before electing it.

AUD—Notation for course which was audited.

H—Honors. No grade points, no effect on GPA. Credits counted toward graduation.

S—Satisfactory. No grade points, no effect on GPA. Credits counted toward graduation.

U—Unsatisfactory. No grade points, no effect on GPA. No credits counted toward graduation.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course during the first two weeks of a semester (or during a corresponding time for summer sessions) without having any entry made on the permanent record. After this time, students receive a grade of W and are financially responsible for the course.

Withdrawal from a course anytime after the last withdrawal date until the end of the course requires the approval of the instructor of the course. Approval is based on evidence of extenuating circumstances other than academic difficulty in the course.

Students who do not follow the official procedures, but stop attending classes, receive a grade based on the work completed as compared to the total course requirements.

Additional information on options and procedures for withdrawing from a course is available from the Records Office or the Office of Student Life or online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/standards.php.

Incomplete Grade

For all undergraduate students, the time limit for completing course requirements for courses in which the grade of Incomplete was received is the last day of classes of the succeeding semester (summer sessions not included). For further information, students and their advisors should consult the Student Handbook provided by the Office of Student Life or on the RIC website (www.ric.edu/studentlife/handbook.php).

Repeating a Course

A student may repeat only once any course taken for undergraduate credit that is not subject to restrictions within undergraduate programs. A student who wishes to repeat a course a second time may request permission to do so from the Academic Standing Committee. Forms for petitioning the Academic Standing Committee are available in the Records Office or online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/for_ms.php/.

The latest grade for a repeated course will be included in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average and will appear on the student's transcript. The original course and grade will also appear on the transcript. Only grades for courses repeated at Rhode Island College will be adjusted.

Failing a Required Course Twice

Students are subject to dismissal from degree candidacy after failing a required course twice. Students will be notified upon the second failure that they will not be permitted to register in any program for which the course is a requirement and will be advised to choose an alternate major or curriculum.

To avoid dismissal, students must enroll in a new major or curriculum by the end of the late registration period of the succeeding semester. Should a student fail to complete this process within the designated time, dismissal will result and the action will be recorded on the student's permanent record.

Auditing a Course

To audit a course is to participate in a course without receiving credit for the course or having the grade point average affected. Auditing requires consent of the instructor and the appropriate department chair.

During the first two weeks of a semester, if registration for the course has not been closed, a course may be added for audit through regular Add/Drop procedures without a late registration fee charged. Conversely, during the first two weeks of the semester, a course that was audited may be dropped and added for credit with no late registration fee charged.

Full-time undergraduate students may register as auditors without paying additional fees. Part-time students pay the usual per-credit fee. Any refunds will be made only at the student's request and according to the standard Rhode Island College refund schedules.

Under no circumstances will audited courses be counted for credit toward a degree.

Independent Study

Independent study, directed study and certain research courses afford students the opportunity to pursue concentrated study in a selected topic under the supervision of a faculty member. Students enrolled in independent study are expected to observe the semester begin and end dates, unless a different time limit has been arranged with their instructor. Requests for an independent study should be made in the semester prior to the semester of the planned independent study. An application for Independent Study Form, signed by the instructor, the department chair and the appropriate dean must be filed with the respective program. Forms are available in the Records Office or online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/for_ms.php.

Retention Requirements

Rhode Island College has set certain minimum requirements for cumulative grade point averages (GPAs), based on the number of credit hours attempted. The averages are as follows:

Credit Hours Attempted*	Probation GPA Lower Than	Dismissal GPA Lower Than
0–29	1.75	—
30–59	1.90	1.75

60–89	2.00	1.90
90 and above	—	2.00

*Includes transfer and proficiency credits. Transfer students should understand that the credits transferred in from another institution will count in their accumulated credits earned at Rhode Island College; however, their GPA will be based only on their Rhode Island College course work. As with all students, transfer students will not be subject to academic dismissal prior to attempting a minimum of 30 credits at Rhode Island College.

Students will be placed on academic probation or dismissed from degree candidacy:

1. If they fail to attain the minimum cumulative GPA at the end of any given semester.
2. If they have attempted 40 credits at the college but have not fulfilled the College Writing Requirement
3. If they have attempted 15 credits at the college but have not fulfilled the College Mathematics Competency.

Students who are placed on probation are notified by the Records Office through the student's RIC e-mail account. Students may be placed on probation at the end of the fall semester, spring semester or Summer Session II. Students who are dismissed are notified by the Records Office in writing and through the student's RIC email account. However, dismissals only occur at the end of the spring semester.

Academic Assessment

Faculty and staff at Rhode Island College are committed to meeting the mission of providing excellent academic and co-curricular programs. All major programs publish goals that articulate our expectations for student learning. Formative and summative assessment of student learning and programs help us to determine how well we have met our goals and make improvements. Students and graduates are expected, when requested, to submit examples of their work, respond to surveys and tests, and engage in discussions that enrich the collegiate environment and support our effort to strive for continuous improvement in the delivery of excellent academic programs. Faculty collect and analyze data to make program improvements as their contribution to this college-wide process.

Plagiarism

The Rhode Island College community is committed to the basic principles of academic honesty. Instances of alleged academic dishonesty are adjudicated under the procedures developed by the Academic Integrity Board. The board is composed of students, faculty and administrators. A description of its powers and responsibilities can be found in the Student Handbook under Campus Policies. The Student Handbook is available in the Office of Student Life or can be found on the RIC website at www.ric.edu/studentlife/handbook.php.

Transfer Credit

Undergraduate degree candidates who plan to take a course at another college while a degree student at RIC must complete an Authorization of Credit form(s) before registering for the course (including CCRI and URI courses). The Authorization of Credit form may be found online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/for_ms.php and must be filed with the Records Office. Students must also obtain permission of the department chair or, in the case of interdisciplinary courses, the dean. Students with financial aid awards should contact the Office of Student Financial Aid about their continued eligibility to receive aid while they take courses at other colleges.

Upon completion of the course, students must arrange to have their official transcript sent to the Records Office. Credit will not be posted until the official transcript is received.

Students who withdraw from Rhode Island College to attend another college must make formal application for readmission if they decide to return to RIC.

Declaring a Major

All undergraduate degree students must declare a major by the time they have earned 45 credits (includes all earned course and test credits).

Students who fail to declare a major will have a registration hold placed.

Honors and Awards - Undergraduate

Rhode Island College recognizes intellectual and creative excellence in four primary ways: (1) through the publication each semester of the Dean's List, (2) through honors programs, (3) through graduation honors, and (4) through awards.

The 3.5 Society

Full-time freshmen who earn a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.50 in their first semester or by the end of their first year will automatically become members of The 3.5 Society in recognition of their scholastic achievement.

Cap and Gown Awards

Rhode Island College recognizes academic excellence and outstanding achievement through the annual presentation of special awards. These are sponsored by alumni, faculty and friends of Rhode Island College, as well as by the families and friends of those for whom they are named. Most funds for endowed awards are deposited with the Rhode Island College Foundation. The awards are given to graduating seniors at the annual Cap and Gown Convocation.

College Honors Program

The College Honors Program offers academically superior students, regardless of major, the opportunity to participate in a four-year honors experience. The program has two parts: General Education Honors and Departmental Honors. Each part may be taken independently of the other and will be noted on the student's official transcript. However, both parts must be completed in order to receive the additional designation of "College Honors" on the transcript.

General Education Honors

General Education Honors admits students directly from high school, during their freshman year or as transfers. General Education Honors is normally, although not necessarily, completed by the end of the sophomore year.

Students take a minimum of five General Education courses, normally including the three core requirements, in specially designed honors sections. These sections are designed to be more intellectually challenging than regular courses and are kept small in size, thus allowing ample opportunity for class discussion and for individualized study.

Successful completion of General Education Honors requires a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.00. All honors courses taken are noted on the student's transcript, as is the completion of General Education Honors as a whole. Students may withdraw from the program at any time.

Admission to General Education Honors is by invitation of the director of honors and the College Honors Committee. Students invited into General Education Honors normally rank in the top 20 percent of their high school class, have taken demanding academic schedules and have scored at least 1200 on the SAT. Each student's application is reviewed individually and other factors are considered, such as activities, recommendations, the student's high school curriculum and his or her personal statement. Students may also join on the basis of their performance at Rhode Island College during their first year or as transfer students, if they have not already completed too many General Education courses.

Each year Rhode Island College awards a number of merit-based financial scholarships to students in General Education Honors. Those scholarships are renewable for a maximum of four years as long as the student maintains full-time status with a minimum GPA of 3.00 and makes satisfactory progress toward completing General Education Honors.

Other financial scholarships specifically for General Education Honors students are the Eleanor M. McMahon Award, which is presented to an outstanding graduating senior who has completed both General Education Honors and Departmental Honors; the Eleanor M. McMahon Rising Junior Award, which is presented to a rising junior in General Education Honors who plans to complete a departmental honors project; the John Nazarian Honors Scholarship, which is awarded to an outstanding incoming freshman in General Education Honors; the Director of Honors Scholarship, which is given to a deserving student in General Education Honors; and the Ruth Williams '33 Honors Scholarship, which is given to students from the Westerly, Rhode Island, area.

Honors Colloquium

Honors 351: Honors Colloquium admits continuing and transfer students who have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.00, whether or not they have participated in General Education Honors. Although most students will have attained junior status, this colloquium is open to second-semester sophomores as well. This course may be taken twice for credit.

Honors 351 promotes intellectual and social community among students from different disciplines at the college. It teaches students to think self-analytically about their majors and about working in particular academic genres. It helps students decide whether or not to undertake departmental honors work and guides them in the initial stages of identifying, researching and proposing honors projects in their respective majors.

Departmental Honors

Departmental Honors offers students the opportunity to undertake an independent research, critical or creative project on a topic of the student's choice and directed by a professor of the student's choice. Normally, the project begins in the senior year, although it may commence earlier, and carries six to eight hours of independent study credit over two semesters. Students may participate in Departmental Honors whether or not they have completed General Education Honors or taken Honors 351.

A Departmental Honors project is completed in the department of the student's major. The student must apply formally to the appropriate departmental honors committee, which is responsible for accepting the student's proposal for an honors project, for evaluating the completed project and for awarding the Departmental Honors designation, which will appear on the student's transcript. If the student's project involves work with persons or animals, the project must also be approved by the Committee on Human Participants in Research or the Committee on Animal Care and Use. Individual departments may also require that the student take specific upper-level courses in addition to or as part of the honors project. Undergraduate research/creativity grants are available to support honors projects.

If there is no honors program in the student's major or if the student wishes to undertake an interdisciplinary project that cannot be accommodated in the major, the student may apply to the director of honors to appoint an appropriate faculty committee to review the student's proposal and to oversee the project. In such cases, the student's transcript will reflect completion of an Honors Independent Project rather than Departmental Honors. Such students will still be eligible to receive the College Honors designation on their transcripts.

Students seeking Departmental Honors must have a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.00 and a minimum GPA in the major of at least 3.25. Some departments require higher minimum GPAs. Students should consult the respective departmental honors committees for details. A student whose project is denied honors may appeal that decision through the normal college appeal process.

Honors programs are offered in all departments in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and in the School of Management, as well as in the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

Dean's List

Full-time students who attain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 in any semester have their names placed on the Dean's List in recognition of their scholastic achievement. (During a student teaching semester, students must attain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00, as well as a minimum semester GPA of 3.00, and earn at least a grade of Satisfactory in student teaching.)

Graduation Honors

Graduating seniors are cited for honors at the annual Commencement exercises, according to the following standards: a cumulative grade point average of 3.85 or higher, summa cum laude; 3.60 to 3.84, magna cum laude; 3.25 to 3.59, cum laude.

Students who have transferred to Rhode Island College or who are seeking their second baccalaureate degree are eligible for Graduation Honors if they have completed a minimum of 54 credit hours of work at Rhode Island College.

International Honor Societies

Alpha Kappa Delta

The Beta Chapter of the International Honor Society in Sociology was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1976. The society was founded in 1920 at the University of Southern California. There are now 290 chapters in the United States and Canada that honor excellence in scholarship, research and service.

Kappa Delta Pi

The Epsilon Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, an International Honor Society in Education, was organized at Rhode Island College in 1944. It encourages high personal, professional and intellectual standards and recognizes outstanding contributions to education. More than 500 colleges in the United States have chapters in this society.

Phi Alpha Theta

Kappa Psi Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the International Honor Society in History, was organized at Rhode Island College in 1966. It recognizes history students who maintain high standards in their college studies. It promotes the study of history by encouraging research, good teaching, exchange of ideas and publication. Over 700 chapters exist across the United States, Canada and the Philippines.

Phi Sigma Iota

The Beta Gamma chapter of the International Foreign Language Honor Society was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1982. It recognizes outstanding accomplishment in the study or teaching of any of the academic fields related to foreign language, literature or culture. These fields include not only modern foreign language, but also classics, linguistics, philology, comparative literature, bilingual education, second language acquisition and other interdisciplinary programs with a significant foreign language component. Phi Sigma Iota is the highest academic honor in the field of foreign languages. There are approximately 250 chapters of Phi Sigma Iota at institutions of higher learning in the United States, Mexico and France.

Phi Sigma Tau

The Gamma Chapter of Phi Sigma Tau, the International Honor Society in Philosophy, was established at Rhode Island College in 2011. The objectives of the society are to award distinction to students having high scholarship and interest in philosophy; promote student research and advanced study; publish student research papers of merit; encourage a professional spirit and friendship; and popularize interest in philosophy among the general collegiate public. Founded in 1930, the society has over 200 chapters in the U.S. and Canada.

Sigma Tau Delta

The Alpha Omicron Pi Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, an International Honor Society in English, was established at Rhode Island College in 2007 to recognize excellence in scholarship and includes students, alumni and faculty members. Sigma Tau Delta was founded in 1924 as a national society and became international in 1988. There are now over 750 active chapters, with conventions scheduled in even-numbered years.

Sigma Theta Tau

Sigma Theta Tau, Inc., the International Honor Society in Nursing, has established the Delta Upsilon Chapter-at-Large at Rhode Island College and at the University of Rhode Island with this purpose in mind: to recognize superior achievement and scholarship, to recognize the development of leadership qualities, to foster high professional standards, to encourage creative work and to strengthen commitment to the ideals and purposes of the nursing profession.

Sigma Xi

Sigma Xi, the Scientific Research Society, was founded in 1886 as an honor society for science and engineering. Today it is an international research society with programs and activities that promote the health of the scientific enterprise and honor scientific achievement. There are more than 80,000 Sigma Xi members in over 500 chapters at colleges and universities, industrial research centers and government laboratories. Students who have shown potential as researchers are invited to join as associate members. The Rhode Island College chapter began as a club in 1984.

Tau Sigma

A chapter of Tau Sigma National Honor Society was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2010. Founded in 1999, Tau Sigma currently has chapters at nearly 90 colleges and universities throughout the United States. This is the first chapter in Rhode Island. The purpose of the society is to recognize and promote the academic excellence and involvement of transfer students.

Upsilon Pi Epsilon

The Alpha Chapter of the International Honor Society for the computing disciplines was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2011. The society was organized in 1967 at Texas A & M University. There are now over 200 chapters in the United States, Bulgaria, Japan and Mexico that honor academic excellence in computer and information systems, computer science and other computing disciplines.

National Honor SocietiesAlpha Delta Mu

The Beta Chi Chapter of Alpha Delta Mu, the National Honor Society in Social Work, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1982. Alpha Delta Mu is dedicated to the advancement of excellence in social work practice and to the encouragement, stimulation and maintenance of scholarship in social work.

Alpha Lambda Delta

The 3.50 Society chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta will be chartered at Rhode Island College in 2013. Founded in 1924, Alpha Lambda Delta (ALD) is one of the oldest honor societies in the United States dedicated to recognizing academic excellence among first-year college students.

Pi Mu Epsilon

The Rhode Island Beta chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon, the National Honor Society in Mathematics, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1967. Founded in 1914, Pi Mu Epsilon currently has chapters at over 300 colleges and universities throughout the United States. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarly activity in mathematics among students in academic institutions.

Pi Sigma Alpha

The Alpha Beta Epsilon Chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Honor Society in Political Science, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2003. Pi Sigma Alpha recognizes academic excellence in political science, provides a forum for the scholarly discussion of politics and encourages graduate study in political science through scholarship awards.

Psi Chi

The Psi Chi Chapter of the National Honor Society in Psychology was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1992. Psi Chi functions as a federation of chapters located at more than 800 senior colleges and universities in the United States. Psi Chi serves two major functions: (1) to provide academic recognition to its inductees and (2) to nurture the creative and professional development of its members and its psychology department.

Academic Facilities and Services - Undergraduate

Academic Support and Information Services, Office of

Rhode Island College provides a number of academic support and advising services in the Office of Academic Support and Information Services (OASIS). OASIS is responsible for the orientation of all new undergraduate students. At orientation students receive academic advising, register for classes, and are introduced to campus life. First-year students entering in the fall participate in a two-day summer program on campus. New transfer students attend a shorter, more intensive orientation during the summer months.

OASIS was established to assist students with questions concerning academic policies and procedures at Rhode Island College and to serve as the official advisor to students in the exploring majors categories (undeclared) as well as those who have not yet been accepted into the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

Students interested in becoming more effective learners will find assistance in OASIS. Services include instruction and tutorial help for reading comprehension, note taking, and test preparation for admission and certification testing for the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development. Assistance with tests required by the School of Nursing is also available. OASIS works closely with Disability Services to offer academic counseling and learning strategies to students who have or think they may have a learning disability. OASIS welcomes all Rhode Island College students. For more information on tutorial help, refer to the Mathematics Learning Center (p. 29), Tutorial Services (p. 29), and Writing Center (p. 29).

Career Development Center

The Career Development Center serves students and alumni in the career planning and job and internship search process. The center also offers assistance with applying to graduate school, including program selection and help with writing the personal statement.

Individual counseling sessions are offered at the center, along with TypeFocus, an online system that helps students examine their values, skills, and interests to reach informed decisions about a major and career.

Workshops and programs are offered that help students develop competitive job search skills and strategies (e.g., résumé and cover letter writing, effective interviewing, LinkedIn accounts and networking).

Many resources are available 24/7 online such as job and internship postings and information about career fields. Employers seeking full-time, permanent and part-time employees and interns are connected with students. Work-study and non-work-study jobs are also available both on and off campus.

Current students and alumni may post résumés, view jobs/internships, and access the center's online library at www.ric.edu/careerdevelopment.

Disability Services Center

The Disability Services Center (DSC) is the central location on campus for disability-related services for undergraduate and graduate students and is committed to providing accommodations for students with disabilities and supporting them in achieving their academic goals. Students who self-identify and provide appropriate documentation of their condition to the DSC may be eligible to receive reasonable accommodations in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and analogous state laws. Support services may include classroom and testing accommodations, advisement, referrals, and use of assistive technology.

The DSC serves students with all types of disabilities: mobility, hearing, vision, motor, psychological, learning, attention, speech, medical, developmental and other conditions. In addition, the DSC shall seek to assist students with temporary impairments who are in need of short-term accommodations. The DSC is also available to advise any student who needs information about how to obtain proper documentation of a disability.

The DSC promotes the inclusion of individuals with disabilities in all aspects of college life, and endeavors to make students aware of the many opportunities and resources available to them at Rhode Island College. The DSC recognizes disability as a form of diversity and is the primary resource to educate, train and guide the college community in understanding disability access, rights and responsibilities. The DSC not only serves as an advocate for students with disabilities, but also encourages students toward self-advocacy and self-determination.

Clarification of policies and procedures for disability-related services is available in the Policies and Procedures Manual for Students with Disabilities. Copies of the manual are available at the Disability Services Center or on its Web site at www.ric.edu/disabilityservices. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the Disabilities Services Center via Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711.

Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning

The Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning (FCTL) promotes the professional growth and development of faculty as teachers and as scholars of teaching and learning. It cultivates a public dialogue about teaching and learning across disciplinary lines and strives to build a professional community among teachers at Rhode Island College. The FCTL serves faculty at every stage of their professional lives in order to support a campus-wide culture committed to excellence in teaching and learning. The FCTL is by faculty, for faculty. We offer opportunities for faculty members to get together and talk about what they are doing, share strategies and stories and learn about online teaching and new technologies. In addition, we offer one-on-one support for course design, syllabus design and online course design and redesign in addition to help with class discussions and crafting assignments. Our support services are typically by appointment but walk-ins are welcome. For more information about the FCTL and our offerings visit our website at www.ric.edu/fctl.

Help Center

The Help Center provides comprehensive support for computer and printer problems along with a full complement of IT equipment and support for classroom instruction. The Help Center also assists conference planners with presentation media.

Henry Barnard Laboratory School

The Henry Barnard Laboratory School (HBS), which enrolls learners from preschool (age 3) through grade five, has served the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and the College for 115 years. It provides opportunities for Rhode Island College education students preparing to become teachers to observe classes, to participate in clinical and practicum experiences and to student/co-teach. HBS faculty participate in educational research activities, publish in literature of the field and present at local and national conferences.

As a laboratory school, HBS seeks to be a model for other schools in the state and region. Faculty seek to develop, document and disseminate new, effective practices for the field. The HBS preschool is a Reggio-Emelia-inspired program. Afterschool care for all learners is available. For more information, visit the website at www.ric.edu/hbs.

Information Services

Management Information Services (MIS)

Management Information Services provides technical support for the PeopleSoft administrative computer systems at the college. Additional database support is provided in areas not served by PeopleSoft along with scanning services for time sheets and testing.

User Support Services (USS)

User Support Services is responsible for distributing and maintaining desktop hardware, software, and multimedia resources. To assist and educate students, faculty and staff in the appropriate use of technology, USS provides a primary point of contact for end-user support and offers a wide range of end-user services, including the Help Center, oversight of computer labs and electronic classrooms, and technology training. The college has two large walk-in computing facilities for student use located in Horace Mann Technology Center and in Whipple Hall where over 150 PCs and Apple Macintosh systems are available. In addition, hands-on instructional computing facilities are located in Alger Hall, Clark Science Hall, Craig-Lee Hall, Fogarty Life Sciences, Gage Hall, Henry Barnard School, Horace Mann Hall, Nazarian Center, School of Social Work (Bldg 9) and Whipple Hall. Electronic classrooms are available for instructional use in over fifteen buildings.

Network and Telecommunications (NT)

Network and Telecommunications is responsible for the data and voice infrastructure on the Rhode Island College campus. The college has a gigabit Ethernet data network, with extensive wireless coverage; a Nortel digital phone system; and a modern data center, with redundant systems for business continuity.

Learning for Life (L4L)

Learning for Life is a multi-faceted community and college partnership, linking students to a wide range of services, supports, and opportunities that fortify them for college success and remove practical, life challenges and obstacles that may prevent education from remaining a priority in their lives.

By connecting students with academic, social, life-skill, financial, and career-related supports, L4L helps students to navigate a direct course to college completion. Contact Learning for Life at www.ric.edu/learningforlife/ or l4linfo@ric.edu.

Mathematics Learning Center

The Mathematics Learning Center, located in the Office of Academic Support and Information Services (OASIS), has peer tutors available each day to assist students individually or in small groups with the Mathematics Accuplacer Examination, with mathematics courses or with mathematics topics in another discipline. Students may make appointments in person or by phone.

Outreach Programs

Outreach Programs offer a variety of workforce development programs that include internship coordination and support as well as requisite course in job skills and job search. The comprehensive curriculum includes internship coordination and support as well as a requisite course in job skills and job search. Focus is on job readiness and employability skills, culminating in a full portfolio of targeted résumés and job-search tools. All courses include the full support of staff trained in job procurement and retention as well as financial and computer literacy instruction. Additional course offerings include English as a Second Language, green business practices, remedial math, reading and language.

Partnerships and Placements, Office of

In cooperation with academic departments within the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the Office of Partnerships and Placements is responsible for securing field placements and maintaining partnerships with school districts.

Tutorial Services

Any student requiring assistance with mastering course content is encouraged to arrange for tutoring as soon as possible. All tutorial services are offered free of charge and are administered through the Office of Academic Support and Information Services (OASIS). Online tutoring in Accounting, Bilingual Math, Biology, Chemistry, Computers and Technology, Economics, ESL/Writing, Essay Center, Finance, Math, Physics, Spanish and Writing is available through the "Smarthinking" web service. Tutoring for many of the subjects is available 24 hours, 7 days a week.

Upward Bound Program

The Upward Bound Program was first established at RIC in 1966. It is designed to instill in low-income, potential first-generation college students the skills and motivation to complete high school and to enter and graduate from college. Upward Bound is committed to providing equal access and opportunity to students from specific target high schools who meet federal eligibility requirements. The program enhances the intellectual, emotional, character and motivational development of each participant by offering rigorous academic instruction, counseling, support services and an environment that recognizes individual differences and academic potential.

For more information visit the Upward Bound office, or e-mail upwardbound@ric.edu, or visit the Web site at www.ric.edu/upward_bound.

Writing Center

The Writing Center is staffed by highly qualified student tutors. Tutors work with all writers, from freshmen to graduate students, in all disciplines. Tutors assist with any phase of writing, such as refining topics, writing for a specific audience, developing ideas, organizing material, revising drafts and editing.

The Writing Center maintains a reference library of books, journals and articles on writing theory, writing for specific disciplines and other topics, including MLA, APA and Chicago style manuals. Services are free to all Rhode Island College students, faculty, and staff.

Campus Life - Undergraduate

Child Care—Cooperative Preschool

The Cooperative Preschool is a campus organization sponsored by Student Community Government. Through the cooperative involvement of parents, the co-op provides an affordable, reliable, high-quality preschool program for children ages three to five. To participate in the co-op, children must be toilet trained and be three years of age by August 31. Students, staff and faculty of Rhode Island College are eligible to enroll their children. Children of students are given first priority.

Children are enrolled full time, regardless of the number of hours they attend. The school is DCYF licensed and employs a certified teacher and workstudy students. The co-op also participates in Brightstars, a preschool quality-rating and improvement system. The curriculum is aligned with the Rhode Island Early Learning domains.

In addition to paying monthly tuition, parents work designated hours, attend monthly meetings and participate in the running of the co-op.

The co-op is open Monday through Friday from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the academic year. Use of the co-op is limited to those hours in which the parent is performing college related activities, such as attending class, doing research, student teaching, etc.

For more information, stop by the co-op during hours of operation or access information and registration forms at:

www.ric.edu/cooperativepreschool/.

College Health Services

College Health Services, located on the ground floor of Browne Hall, provides confidential, primary health care to all students. Care includes physical examinations, immunizations, treatment of acute and chronic illnesses and injuries, gynecological exams, health education and, if necessary, specialty referral. On-site laboratory services include blood and urine tests, throat cultures and pregnancy testing. Health Services is open year round and is staffed by nurse practitioners, registered nurses and a part-time physician. Visits are available by appointment.

Rhode Island College offers Student Health and Accident Insurance to any student taking a minimum of 6 credit hours. Information about this policy is available at www.universityhealthplans.com.

Counseling Center

The principal aim of the Counseling Center is to help students grow, develop and succeed during their college years. A professional staff of psychologists and counselors provides individual and group counseling to students who seek help with emotional or social problems, academic difficulties or educational and career planning. Assessment of vocational interest and personal characteristics is available as needed. The Center also conducts groups and workshops on personal development matters, such as stress management and procrastination. Although friends or faculty may encourage individual students to utilize counseling, it is entirely voluntary, and most students make the decision on their own initiative. Counseling Center services are strictly confidential and are provided to any current Rhode Island College students, regardless of age, without charge.

Cultural Activities

Students can participate in a wide variety of cultural activities and events at Rhode Island College. For example, students can attend a rock concert at the Recreation Center, an open mic performance at the Café, listen to a speaker at Adams Library, see a student play or concert in the Nazarian Center, find a dance partner in the Student Union Ballroom, attend an art gallery opening, write an article for the Anchor newspaper, make a t-shirt in the quad or watch Chinese acrobats tumble in the Auditorium in Roberts Hall. There are academic-based exhibition and performance opportunities and a whole host of student groups in which students participate in ways best suited to their interests, from audience members to directors. In addition, several on-campus groups bring nationally and internationally renowned fine and performing artists to RIC to enhance the cultural learning of our students and the community at large. Many of these cultural activities and events are free or discounted for students. Whatever your interest or passion, there is a way for you to participate. To find information about attending cultural events or getting involved in cultural activities on campus, visit www.ric.edu and click on the Performing & Fine Arts or Campus Life tabs.

Dining Services

Rhode Island College's Dining Services is dedicated to exceeding the food, beverage and service expectations of our diverse community. Dining Services provides a variety of quality products expertly prepared, professionally served, and enjoyed in comfortable, relaxing settings.

Commuters, residents, faculty and staff are welcome at all dining locations. These include the Donovan Dining Center, The Café and The Galley Café, which is located on the east campus. All guests can purchase their favorite food or drinks using cash or debit/credit cards. Resident students will select one of four meal plan options and use it to make purchases from the three locations.

Additionally, we are able to offer Nutrition Services to the campus community. Our registered, licensed dietician is available to meet with students to address dietary needs, discuss healthy eating habits and answer any related questions.

The full Dining Services website is available at www.ric.edu/collegedining.

Housing, Office of Residential Life and

On-campus housing is available for undergraduate students and graduate students. Six residence halls—Browne, Thorp, Weber, Willard, Sweet, and New Hall—provide accommodations for 1,196 men and women. Browne, Thorp and Weber Halls are designed with suites of eight to twelve single rooms adjacent to a study-lounge area. Sweet and Willard Halls feature double-occupancy rooms, with a select number of single rooms. Sweet Hall is built along more traditional lines, with rooms on either side of the corridors. Each hall has a common lounge area and laundry, and each room is furnished with a bed, desk and closet. New Hall provides suite-style living for four, with either single or double bedrooms. A portion of New Hall suites have apartment-style features, with breakfast counters and full-size refrigerators.

The Office of Residential Life and Housing also maintains a listing of off-campus housing; however, it does not guarantee the suitability or availability of such housing.

The fees given below are for the 2015–2016 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.

Room Fees

(per year)

Hall	Room Type	Cost Per Year
Browne	Single	$5,914
Thorp	Single	$5,914
Weber	Single	$5,914
Willard	Single	$6,080
Willard	Double	$5,914
Sweet	Double and Triple	$6,214
New Hall	Single, Suite Style	$6,504
New Hall	Single, Apartment Style	$6,916
New Hall	Double, Suite Style	$6,302
New Hall	Double, Apartment Style	$6,708

Rooms are contracted on a yearly basis. All students are required to pay a housing deposit of $220, which covers the room reservation deposit of $100, the damage deposit of $100, and $20 in hall dues. Since on-campus housing is limited, approximately 50 percent of the spaces are reserved for new students.

Residence halls open at the beginning of each semester and close at the end of each semester in December and May and during Spring Break. Residents are expected to secure alternate housing accommodations during scheduled breaks.

Board Fees

(per semester)

Students choosing to live on campus are required to purchase one of four available Meal Plans. Each Meal Plan includes a set number of meals per week, Guest Passes and Bonus Dollars that can be used throughout the year. All meals and Guest Passes are redeemable at Donovan Dining Center. Bonus Dollars may be used at Donovan Dining Center, the Café, or the Galley at any time.

Meal Plan	Meals Per Week	Guest Passes Per Semester	Bonus Per Semester Dollars	Cost Per Semester
A	19	4	$125	$2,240
B	14	6	$175	$2,240
C	12	8	$200	$2,240
D	10	10	$250	$2,240

Room Refunds

Withdrawal prior to the “contractually publicized” July 15th date will cancel all room charges minus the room reservation of $100. Otherwise, the room contract will remain binding on the student until the end of the academic year. However, proration of the charges may be made by the Office of Residential Life and Housing, if the space created by the withdrawal is filled by a new resident.

A first semester freshman who withdraws from the college in their first semester will be released from the contract for the spring semester upon completion of proper withdrawal forms. All other students will need to submit an appeal letter for contract release consideration. In all cancellations, the room reservation deposit ($100) shall be forfeited.

Board Refunds

The board contract is binding upon the student until the end of the academic year during which the cancellation is effected. However, proration of the foodcost portion of the Meal Plan contract will result in a refund based on the week when dining services is officially notified of withdrawal.

Interfaith Center

The Rhode Island College Interfaith Center endeavors to provide for the spiritual needs of all the members of the Rhode Island College community—regardless of religious history/affiliation, cultural background or personal circumstance. The Interfaith Center strives to educate the RIC community about various faiths and to foster appreciation, understanding and respect for religious choice; provide opportunities for prayer, worship and meditation; support faith-based student groups; encourage spiritual exploration and promote volunteerism both on- and off-campus. The Interfaith Center is adjacent to the Unity Center. Contact us at RICInterfaithcenter@ric.edu.

International Students, Office of

The Office of International Students serves many undergraduate and graduate students from around the world by providing information about U.S. government forms, the process of entering and leaving the country, employment, financial needs, taxes, health, housing, and academic and personal problems. The office also hosts social activities, such as coffee hours, parties, picnics and field trips. The office website is www.ric.edu/internationalstudents.

Recreation Club Sports

A completely renovated recreation center opened in the fall semester of 2012. The complex is home to all recreational programming, including intramurals and club sports. The center and its programs are available to all currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. The facility is also available to faculty, staff, alumni and the community on a membership-fee basis. For a complete list of activities and hours, which change each semester, visit www.goanchormen.com.

The 80,000-square-foot facility includes a five-lane, 25-yard, L-shaped swimming pool; a five-lane, 1/10-mile, indoor track; three multi-use courts for basketball, volleyball, and tennis; a fitness center, including cardio and strength areas; a student lounge complete with WiFi and cable television; new locker room facilities; a multimedia room; a wrestling facility adaptable for other events; a multi-use studio for aerobics and yoga; offices for coaches; and a suite to host fundraising-related initiatives. The Club Sport Program currently includes the following established club sport opportunities: men's ice hockey, equestrian, ultimate frisbee and men's volleyball. For more updated information, or if you are interested in starting a club sport, go to: www.goanchormen.com.

Security and Safety, Office of

The Office of Security and Safety provides 24-hour service to the campus community in the areas of law enforcement, security and personal safety, fire safety and right-to-know laws. The office is also responsible for the enforcement of all laws and regulations that apply to campus life, including those of the Rhode Island Board of Education and federal and state statutes. Information regarding security and safety, campus police, parking, traffic regulations and vehicle registration is available in the security department or on the college website at www.ric.edu.

The Office of Security and Safety also provides a variety of crime prevention materials and a 24-hour escort service for students, faculty and staff. This service is available by calling extension 8201 or by pushing the escort button on the Blue Light Emergency Phones (for the location of these phones see Campus Map (p. 5)).

Student Community Government

As the official voice of the student body, Student Community Government is concerned with student rights and responsibilities and the enhancement of educational, cultural and social opportunities for students.

Although primarily undergraduate in membership, Student Parliament, the main body of Student Community government, includes representatives from almost all areas of the college. A Finance Commission, composed of parliament and nonparliament members, allocates funds from the student activity fee to support various student organizations and activities on campus.

Student Life, Office of

The Office of Student Life provides information and assistance to students regarding nonacademic issues, such as problems with a tuition charge or other bill, absences due to illness or family matters, adding or dropping a course, withdrawing from the college for a semester or permanently, disagreements with other students or college personnel and health and safety concerns. The Office of Student Life also publishes the Student Handbook (see www.ric.edu/studentlife/handbook.php), which provides specific policies and procedures related to academic and behavioral conduct.

Student Union

The Student Union facility consists of the Student Union and Ducey Media Center. As its mission states, it is “more than a building, but also an organization and a program which complements the academic experience and contributes to student success.” In addition to Student Activities and events, departments and services include Campus Card (student ID), Campus Store, Welcome & Information Center, the Café, student mailboxes, Student Community Government and a variety of other student organization offices. The Ducey Media Center includes the Anchor (student newspaper), Anchor TV and WXIN Radio.

Veterans Resource Center

The Veterans Resource Center serves as a bridge between off-campus services and on-campus services for military service members, veterans and their families. The VetSuccess on Campus program is located in the center. Students receive information and assistance in accessing educational benefits, exploring career options, and locating other important services at Rhode Island College.

Women's Center

The mission of the Women's Center is to cultivate a campus culture that fosters the advancement of women and inspires RIC students to discover and embrace their full potential. The Center collaborates with related campus and community organizations on various projects to promote campus awareness and understanding through advocacy and education. It also provides a clearinghouse of information related to women's history, health and progress. The Women's Center connects and supports RIC students through confidential referrals to existing campus and local resources.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.)

Refer to the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (p. 152).

Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.)

The bachelor's degree in social work (p. 157) provides entry-level professional education for generalist social work practice. In addition to taking classroom courses, students participate in professionally supervised fieldwork in one of many Rhode Island College-approved social service agencies. Application for formal admission into the bachelor's degree program is made during the first semester of the student's junior year.

Special Programs - Undergraduate

Assessment of Prior Learning

Rhode Island College makes every effort to acknowledge college-level learning that has taken place outside of formal college classrooms.

The college has instituted a procedure for granting undergraduate credit for prior college-level learning achieved through experience, such as employer-sponsored or armed service-sponsored training, community service, self-education, relevant work assignments or artistic development. Limited credit will be granted only for documented learning that is clearly germane to the student's degree program, not for experience per se. The basis for granting credit will be a portfolio of documentation prepared by the student with the guidance of the college.

The college accepts the results of the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) and armed services testing programs (DANTES) and makes use of the guide prepared by the American Council on Education (ACE) and other sources that contain evaluations of a wide variety of training opportunities sponsored by the armed services, business, industry, and labor communities.

Returning adult students, especially those who have been in the armed services, who have participated in apprenticeship or other extensive training programs, or who have held positions of responsibility, are encouraged to apply for assessment of their prior learning. Applications are available in the offices of the academic deans.

Certificate of Undergraduate Study (C.U.S.)

Certificate programs of undergraduate study are offered in the following areas:

- Computed Tomography (p. 48)
- Gerontology (p. 48)
- International Nongovernmental Organizations Studies (p. 48)
- Long Term Care Administration (p. 48)
- Nonprofit Studies (p. 48)
- Public History (p. 49)
- Risk Management and Insurance (p. 49)
- Social and Human Service Assistance (p. 49)
- Youth Services (p. 49)

Continuing Education

Rhode Island College offers a wide range of professional development courses and workshops each semester and summer for students and working professionals. The college also offers certificate programs that provide focused study and expertise in several professional areas.

For agencies and organizations, continuing education provides assistance with establishing courses and workshops and with identifying college resources that support personal enrichment and professional development activities. Rhode Island College has a long history of providing such assistance to business and industry and of assisting public and private schools and agencies. For more information, contact the director of professional studies and continuing education.

For returning adult students, a schedule of course offerings, which includes information on registration and fees, is available at the Records Office or online at www.ric.edu. For formal admission to an undergraduate program and for information on possible transfer credit, applicants should contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Applicants interested in pursuing graduate work should contact the appropriate dean. Individuals with teacher certification questions or those seeking to complete professional teaching requirements should contact the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

Endorsement in English as a Second Language

Refer to Teaching English as a Second Language (p. 138).

Endorsement in Middle School Education (Elementary and Secondary)

Refer to Elementary Education Middle School Endorsement (p. 123) and Secondary Education Middle School Endorsement (p. 132).

National Student Exchange Program

The National Student Exchange Program includes a group of almost 200 four-year colleges and universities that allow undergraduate students to study for up to one academic year at a college or university in another part of the United States. The program embraces social and cultural experiences as well as academics, offering an opportunity for further selfexploration and examination of educational objectives.

In order to qualify for participation, a student should (1) be a full-time student at Rhode Island College, (2) be in their sophomore or junior year during the exchange, and (3) have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50 at the time their application is submitted.

ROTC

Participation in the Army Reserve Officer's Training Corps (ROTC) program is available to Rhode Island College students through the ROTC program at Providence College. For more information and a complete program description, contact the program director at Providence College, (401) 865-2471.

Specialization in Adapted Physical Education

See Physical Education (p. 125).

Student-Designed Majors

Students may develop individualized majors to accommodate special needs and interests. These majors may focus on an area of study not covered in regular departmental offerings or may be interdisciplinary in nature. Student-designed majors are open to undergraduate degree candidates who have earned at least 40 credit hours and who have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50. Proposals from students with more than 75 credit hours are normally not accepted. A completed proposal must be submitted to the Committee on Student-Designed Majors no later than October 1 or March 1 for action that same semester. Further information about this program and application materials may be obtained from the offices of the academic deans.

Study Abroad

Rhode Island College students, no matter what their majors, may study abroad for course credit at institutions in other countries. They may study for a semester, an academic year, the summer or during the early spring term.

While studying abroad, students do not pay RIC tuition and may apply their financial aid to program costs, including tuition, at the host institution and toward travel expenses.

The choice of program and specific location depend upon the student's interests. The Study Abroad Office provides information about the study abroad process, assists students with their applications and facilitates transfer of credits.

Rhode Island College is affiliated with six study abroad program providers that offer discounted tuition for RIC students: Academic Programs International, the American Institute for Foreign Study, the Center for International Studies, the Education Abroad Network, CAPA International Education and SIT Study Abroad. All of these providers can be found on the Web. However, students are not limited to these affiliates and may study with many other programs and universities around the world. Also, individual faculty members may lead RIC courses abroad from time to time.

Students interested in studying abroad are encouraged to review the information available on the RIC Study Abroad Web site at ric.edu/studyabroad and to meet with the director of Study Abroad.

Summer Sessions

Summer Sessions provides degree and nondegree undergraduate and graduate students access to a comprehensive cross section of courses in two six-week sessions each summer. Traditional and intensive courses are offered to accelerate and maximize college study and many courses are designed specifically for personal enrichment or professional advancement. For information, contact the director of professional studies and continuing education.

General Information - Graduate

Admissions - Graduate

Admissions Policy

The primary factor in decisions for admission to graduate studies at Rhode Island College is a candidate's academic record, although other factors, such as recommendations and standardized test scores, are also important. A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university is required for admission to all graduate programs. Final acceptance is based on the combined decision of the appropriate academic department and the dean responsible for that department. Decisions are made without regard to race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, marital status, citizenship, status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran or any other veteran who served in active duty.

Admissions Requirements

Graduate study is offered through the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the School of Management, the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work. Though many departments review applications on a continuing basis, the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and the School of Management require that all application materials be received by March 1 to ensure full acceptance to the fall term and by November 1 to ensure full acceptance to the spring term. The School Psychology program and Clinical Mental Health Counseling program in the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and the Master of Social Work program in the School of Social Work have one application deadline of February 1 to ensure full acceptance into the programs, which begin in the fall term. Information on admission requirements and deadlines can be found at www.ric.edu/academics/graduate.php.

For all degree programs, the materials listed below should be submitted to the dean responsible for that program.

1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records. The dean's office will obtain any Rhode Island College transcripts.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of B (3.00 on a 4.00 scale) in all undergraduate course work. Applicants with undergraduate GPAs less than 3.00, but not less than 2.00, may be admitted to degree candidacy upon the submission of other evidence of academic potential, for example, satisfactory performance in postbaccalaureate work, professional experience as evidenced by publications or letters of recommendation and/or high scores on the standardized tests.
4. A copy of candidate's teaching certificate (when applicable).
5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) for most programs. See specific programs for requirements.

6. Three letters of recommendation attesting to the candidate's potential to do graduate work. Placement references are generally not applicable.
7. Some programs have additional admission requirements. Please review requirements for individual programs. An interview may also be required.

The dean responsible for the program to which the candidate is applying will inform the candidate of the decision regarding his or her admission.

International Student Admission

Rhode Island College encourages applications from prospective international students whose command of English is sufficient for graduate study. Applicants follow the normal graduate admissions procedures and requirements. In addition, applicants must submit

1. Certified literal English translations and evaluations of applicant's transcripts and academic records.
2. Scores on the Test of English as a Foreign Language and other tests as required by the program.
3. An affidavit of support detailing the funds available for the educational program.
4. A complete Immunization Record.

International students should contact the international student advisor in the Office of Student Life for information concerning U.S. laws, regulations, and employment practices.

Health Requirements

All full-time graduate students and international students are required to meet immunization requirements mandated by the Rhode Island Department of Health. A completed Immunization Record, signed by a health care provider, must be returned to College Health Services before full-time graduate students are allowed to start classes. Forms are available at www.ric.edu/healthservices or may be entered through the Medicat Patient Portal found on the right sidebar of MyRIC.

Note: Certain departments have additional health requirements for admission to their programs.

Military Personnel and Veterans

Rhode Island College is a Servicemember's Opportunity College. U.S. military personnel and veterans are invited to contact the appropriate dean or the RIC Veterans Resource Center for information on graduate degrees and courses or e-mail vrc@ric.edu.

Fees and Expenses - Graduate

Tuition and Fees for Graduate Students (2015–2016)

The fees described in the following sections are projected for the 2015–2016 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.

All fulltime graduate students (those taking 9 credit hours or more per semester) and parttime graduate students (those taking fewer than 9 credit hours per semester) pay per credit hour:

	In State	MTP	Out of State
Tuition (General Fee)	$372	$558	$724
Library Fee	$5	$5	$5
Recreation Fee	$8	$8	$8
Technology Fee	$5	$5	$5
Fine Arts Fee	$2	$2	$2
Transportation Fee	$2	$2	$2
Total:	$394	$580	$746

All graduate students (in state and out of state) also pay once per semester:

Registration Fee: $74

Note: Graduate students enrolled in undergraduate courses pay the undergraduate tuition rate for those courses.

Students accepted into a second degree undergraduate program pay undergraduate fees. Students accepted into the RITE program also pay undergraduate fees, but only after they have been fully accepted into the RITE program. Students are responsible for informing Rhode Island College of their status in order for the proper tuition and fee charges to be assessed.

Special Fees

Students are charged the following additional fees, if applicable:

Application Fee

$50

Applied Music Fee

$650 per semester, for students taking Music 370–388 or 570–588

Laboratory/Studio Art Fee

$30 per course

Late Payment Fee

$10

School of Management Program Fee

$5 per credit hour, up to a maximum of $50 per semester

School of Nursing Program Fee

$5 per credit hour, up to a maximum of $50 per semester

Transcript Fee

$30

Explanation of Fees

The Application Fee is used to defray the costs of processing an application.

The Applied Music Fee is used to cover 14 private 50-minute lessons, which make up Music 370–388 and 570–588.

The Fine Arts Fee is used to provide opportunities and activities in the fine and performing arts at Rhode Island College.

The Laboratory/Studio Art Fee is used to cover the costs of art and laboratory supplies provided by the college to students enrolled in specific courses.

The Late Payment Fee is a penalty for failing to make payment during the designated periods.

The Library Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing books, periodicals, and non-print materials for the library.

The Recreation Fee is used to cover the operation and programs of the Recreation Center.

The Registration Fee is used to cover the costs associated with the registration process.

The Technology Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing equipment and software for student use on campus.

The Transcript Fee is a one-time fee charged to all students to cover all requests for official transcripts.

The Transportation Fee is used to fund the re-establishment of a discounted RIPTA fare program for students and parking improvements on campus.

The Tuition (General Fee) is used to cover the basic costs of educating a student and of running the college.

Determination of Residency for Tuition Purposes

The determination of residency for tuition purposes is made by the director of admissions for new students and by the director of records for enrolled students.

When residence status is in question, the student, if under 18 years of age, must present certification to the appropriate Rhode Island College official that the parents or legal guardians have resided in Rhode Island for at least 12 months. This certification must be verified by the clerk of the city or town in which legal residence is claimed.

If the student is over 18 and claims independent status, a notarized statement must be furnished, indicating residence in Rhode Island for at least one year prior to the student's first registering at Rhode Island College. In addition, to be considered independent of their parents, students must not have been claimed as a dependent for tax purposes for two years, and students must have resided in Rhode Island for at least one year. A notarized statement from the parents attesting to the fact that the student was not claimed for Internal Revenue Service (IRS) purposes for two years is required. This statement authorizes the college to verify the fact with the IRS.

For such students, time spent in Rhode Island while attending college usually may not be used to establish residence.

Contact the Records Office for further information.

Metropolitan Tuition Policy (MTP)

Rhode Island College students whose permanent place of residence is a community within a 50-mile radius of Providence are eligible for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The Metropolitan Tuition Policy includes both full-time and part-time students, undergraduate and graduate students, and degree and non-degree students. Connecticut and Massachusetts communities within the 50-mile radius are listed online at www.ric.edu/bursar/tuition_metro.php.

Forms for verification of residence for this purpose are available in the Records Office and must be submitted for approval prior to the close of registration.

New England Regional Student Program

Rhode Island College participates in the Regional Student Program (RSP) administered by the New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE). Through this program, New England residents who live outside of Rhode Island may enroll in specified curricula at Rhode Island College for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The student's program of study must be one not offered at an institution in the student's home state, or Rhode Island College must be closer in traveling time to the student's legal residence than an institution offering an approved RSP program in the home state.

Students must remain in the program for which they applied or may transfer only into another NEBHE program or else they will be charged out-of-state tuition fees as of the date of transfer. Each semester, NEBHE program students must also request a tuition waiver from the Records Office.

Those entering Rhode Island College through the NEBHE program must meet all the standards required for admission to the college and must be accepted into a degree-granting program.

Additional information may be obtained from the vice president for academic affairs or the New England Board of Higher Education, 45 Temple Place, Boston, MA 02111.

Senior Citizen Waiver

All Rhode Island residents who are at least 60 years old are eligible to take courses at Rhode Island College without having to pay the regular tuition charges. However, the registration, recreation and other applicable laboratory/studio fees will be charged. In addition, the student must have fulfilled all academic prerequisites for the course, is limited to registering on the last day of registration on a space-available basis and is subject to a means test.

Unemployment Waiver

Rhode Island General Law 28-42-81 provides that any Rhode Island resident receiving unemployment benefits, including benefits earned in another state, is eligible for waiver of tuition for any course(s) taken at Rhode Island College. The law stipulates, however, that the waiver be granted on a space-available basis only and that each applicant be subject to a means test. Therefore, students who wish to register under the terms of waiver are limited to registering on the last day of registration. Students must obtain Form DET-467 from the Department of Labor and Training and submit this completed form, certifying eligibility, at the time of registration. Any registration prior to the specified date each term will be ineligible for consideration for an unemployment waiver, and no retroactive use of the waiver is permitted. Mandatory fees that are not waived include lab fees, recreation fees and activity fees.

Refund of Tuition and Fees

A full- or part-time student withdrawing from Rhode Island College, either voluntarily or because of dismissal for disciplinary reasons, will receive a refund of tuition and/or fees in accordance with the college policy in force for first-time students, including Title IV students and all other withdrawn students. Enrolled students are also subject to the college refund policy.

Refunds for Students Involuntarily Called to Military Service

The Rhode Island Board of Education has adopted as policy the following options for students who are involuntarily called to military service:

1. Total refund of tuition and course-related fees, including registration fee. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees. Or
2. No tuition refund but a grade of Incomplete awarded for courses in which the student is enrolled at the time of recall. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees.

Indebtedness to the College

Failure to make full payment of tuition and fees or to resolve other debts to Rhode Island College—for example, unreturned athletic equipment, overdue short-term or emergency loans, delinquent or defaulted student loans (Federal Nursing and/or Federal Perkins Loans), unreturned library books, damage to college property, etc.—may result in the cancellation of registration for the following semester, withholding of academic grades, denial of registration until the payment is made and/or disenrollment. If requested, appropriate departments will provide the student with notice of the debt, the reason for the debt and a review. Students must fulfill all financial obligations to the college, including participation in loan exit counseling for borrowers under one or more of the several long-term loan programs in which the college participates (e.g., Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Direct Loans, PLUS and/or SLS loans), before receiving grades, a degree, transcripts or a diploma.

Financial Aid - Graduate

Federal Financial Aid Programs

Need-based financial aid for graduate students consists of student loans and employment programs. To apply for need-based financial assistance, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students are encouraged to apply online at www.fafsa.gov. The FAFSA on the Web Worksheet should be used prior to applying online. Priority for funds administered by Rhode Island College is given to applications received by May 15 prior to the following academic year. In addition to demonstrating financial need, general eligibility requirements for financial aid include acceptance for admission as a degree candidate and status as a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Federal Perkins Loans

This loan program is administered directly by the Office of Student Financial Aid. Eligibility is based on financial need as determined from the FAFSA. The annual loan limit for graduate students is $8,000, and the cumulative limit for combined undergraduate and graduate borrowing is $60,000. Actual award amounts depend on federal funding levels, and priority is given to those applicants with the greatest need. Repayment at 5 percent interest begins nine months after the borrower drops below half-time enrollment (5 graduate credits per semester). Students may be allowed up to 10 years to repay; however, a minimum monthly payment of $40 is required. This program will be gradually phased out after the 2015-2016 academic year. Only students who received loans at Rhode Island College prior to 2015-2016 will be eligible for loans in subsequent academic years.

Federal Direct PLUS Loans

Graduate students are eligible to borrow under the Federal Direct PLUS Loan Program. Students may borrow up to their full cost of attendance minus other student financial aid. The PLUS interest rate is fixed at 6.84 percent, and applicants must pass a credit review in order to qualify for the loan. Repayment of the loan begins six months after the borrower ceases to be enrolled at least half time, and interest accrues during the period of enrollment and grace period. In addition to interest, these loans have a 4.292 percent origination fee. Graduate applicants must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and they must have used their maximum eligibility under the unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan Program.

Federal Direct Loans

Recent federal legislation eliminated subsidized Direct Loans for graduate students effective July 1, 2012. Unsubsidized Direct Loans have an interest charge during the in-school and grace periods. The loans have a fixed interest rate of 5.84 percent and a 1.073 percent origination fee. The repayment period extends up to 10 years, but there is a minimum monthly payment of $50.

Graduate students may borrow up to $20,500 per year from the unsubsidized Direct Loan. Although financial need is not required for an unsubsidized loan, the FAFSA must still be filed. In all cases, the total amount of student aid from all programs is limited to a student's total educational costs as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Federal Work-Study Program

This is a part-time employment program based on financial need. A work-study award is paid biweekly at an hourly rate based on hours worked. Wage rates reflect both the level of responsibilities and the experience of the student worker. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from the FAFSA. The Career Development Center helps work-study students identify opportunities both on and off campus; however, Rhode Island College cannot guarantee that a student will secure a work-study position.

Financial Aid for Summer Sessions

In addition to filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as outlined above, students who desire financial assistance for summer sessions must submit a Rhode Island College Application for Financial Aid—Summer Sessions. This form is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid on or about February 1 each year. Summer aid is contingent upon the availability of funds and normally consists of long-term loans and Federal Work-Study.

To be considered for Federal Work-Study for summer sessions, the FAFSA must be received at the federal processing center by March 1 and the Application for Financial Aid—Summer Sessions must be received in the Office of Student Financial Aid by April 1.

The Rights and Responsibilities of Students Receiving Financial Assistance

Students should be fully aware of their rights and responsibilities in applying for and accepting any form of financial aid.

Note: Rhode Island College reserves the right to require verification of income data submitted by any or all applicants for financial assistance. Awards to those asked for such verification will be made conditional upon receipt of the requested information/documentation. Any discrepancy in reported figures may result in adjustment or cancellation of the financial aid award and may be reported to the federal government for further review and possible legal action.

Graduate Scholarships

Scholarship assistance is available through the Elizabeth S. Carr Trust Fund for students in the elementary/early childhood education programs and through the Rhode Island College Alumni Association. The Harrower Family Award is available through the Department of English and the dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The Naylor Family Scholarship is available through the Department of Psychology and the dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. Specific information on these and other scholarships is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid, and for alumni scholarships, the Office of College Advancement.

Master of Social Work Scholarships

The School of Social Work offers Master of Social Work Graduate work-study scholarships to full-time M.S.W. students in field placement. These scholarships match federal work-study funds to enable recipients to obtain paid field placements in nonprofit agencies and organizations, up to a total of $2,000 per year. To be eligible for these scholarships, students should file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, which can be obtained online at www.fafsa.gov. The School of Social Work also offers scholarships to students enrolled full-time in the M.S.W. program. These include the Gladys Corvera-Baker Scholarship, available to Hispanic students who demonstrate academic excellence and financial need; the Juanita Handy Scholarship, awarded to a second-year minority and/or female student; and the Mary G. Davey Scholarship, awarded to a second-year student who is dedicated to child welfare. Specific information may be obtained by contacting the dean's assistant at the School of Social Work.

Graduate Assistantships

Graduate assistantships are limited to accepted degree candidates who are enrolled full time. The duties of a graduate assistant usually involve such activities as: preparation for and supervision of laboratory sections, assistance with classroom discussion, assistance in student support services, research and data collection.

The student may be required to devote a maximum of 20 hours a week to such work, not more than 10 hours of which may be in classroom contact hours. The normal course load for a graduate assistant is six hours per semester.

Graduate assistants receive a stipend of $3,000 to $3,500 for the academic year and remission of tuition and registration fees for the academic year and summer session. Appointments to assistantships are for one year. Graduate assistantship applications are available on the graduate studies Web site. The application deadline for graduate student assistantships is March 1.

Graduate Traineeships

The School of Social Work and the Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities offer graduate traineeships. The School of Social Work graduate traineeships are available to accepted M.S.W. degree candidates who are enrolled full-time in the program. Graduate trainees in the School of Social Work are refunded tuition for the academic year and are required to fulfill 10 hours per week on assignments within the School of Social Work. Interested candidates who are accepted into the M.S.W. program should contact the dean's assistant at the School of Social Work.

The Sherlock Center interdisciplinary graduate traineeships are open to accepted graduate students who have a life commitment to people with disabilities. Graduate traineeships receive refunded tuition for the academic year and/or a stipend. Graduate trainees are required to fulfill 10 hours per week of field work and research activity connected to disability and Sherlock Center initiatives.

Employment Programs

The Office of Student Employment, located in the Career Development Center, provides information on part-time employment both on and off campus during the academic year and the summer. One source of employment is the Federal Work-Study Program, which is based on financial need. However, student employment opportunities are also available for students who do not qualify for financial aid.

Academic Policies and Requirements - Graduate

Plan of Study

Each student recommended for admission to a degree or certificate program shall submit a signed copy of their plan of study to the appropriate academic dean for approval. The plan of study includes all degree requirements, including required and elective course work and independent research, along with other requirements such as exams and assessments necessary to complete degree requirements. The plan of study may also include courses that are to be taken without program credit to remedy deficiencies or to satisfy prerequisites. The plan of study must be approved by the program director and the appropriate academic dean. Students are not formally accepted into a graduate program until the plan of study is approved and filed. Students are responsible for meeting all program requirements for the thesis, portfolio, comprehensive evaluation or field project.

Grading System

Credit/No Credit

Graduate students are not permitted to take graduate courses for Credit/No Credit; however, they may take certain undergraduate prerequisite courses for Credit/No Credit with permission of their graduate advisor.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Grades

Graduate courses approved for a Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory (S/U) grade by the Graduate Committee require students to perform at the B level (3.00) or better to receive a grade of S. These courses shall be so labeled in the college catalog and bulletin. S/U grades are not included in calculating grade point average.

Incomplete Grades

An Incomplete will be given in place of a grade when the work of the semester has been passing but has not been completed because of illness or some other reason that, in the opinion of the instructor, justifies such a report. Graduate students who do not make up an Incomplete within three academic semesters must make a request in writing to their graduate program for permission to complete the course.

Failure in a Course

A course with a failing grade that has been retaken or replaced will be considered taken for No Credit and must remain on the student's transcript. The most recent grade will be included in calculating the grade point average.

Repeating a Course

A course with a failing grade that has been retaken or replaced will be considered taken for No Credit but must remain on the student's transcript. The most recent grade will be included in calculating the grade point average.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course during the first two weeks of a semester (or during a corresponding time for summer sessions) without having any entry made on the permanent record. After that time, students will receive a grade of W and are financially responsible for the course.

Withdrawal from a course anytime after the last withdrawal date until the end of the course requires the approval of the instructor of the course. Approval is based on evidence of extenuating circumstances other than academic difficulty in the course.

Students who do not follow the official procedures, but stop attending classes, receive a grade based on the work completed as compared to the total course requirements.

Additional information on options and procedures for withdrawing from a course is available from the Records Office or the Office of Student Life.

Auditing a Course

To audit a course is to participate in a course without receiving credit for the course or having the grade point average affected. Auditing requires consent of the instructor and the appropriate department chair.

During the first two weeks of a semester, if registration for the course has not been closed, a course may be added for audit through regular Add/Drop procedures without a late registration fee charged. Conversely, during the first two weeks of the semester, a course that was audited may be dropped and added for credit with no late registration fee charged.

Under no circumstances will audited courses be counted for credit toward a degree.

Retention Requirements

Graduate students who earn a grade below B (3.00) in any course will have their status reviewed by the appropriate academic dean in consultation with the department. Such review may result in the student being placed on probation or dismissed. Students on probation must achieve grades of B (3.00) or better in graduate-level course work for the next 9 earned credits. Probation may also require the retaking of courses and the suspension of progress in the program until satisfactory performance is achieved. Students on probation will continue to be monitored until satisfactory performance in their graduate program is achieved. Failure to meet the conditions of probation will result in dismissal.

Residency Requirements

The master's degree or graduate certificate may be earned either through full- or part-time study or by a combination of both. However, candidates must take at least four-fifths of the credits required for the degree at Rhode Island College. In the School of Social Work, graduate students must complete the advanced year on a full-time basis (enrolled in at least nine credits).

Transfer Credit

A candidate may request credit for work taken at other regionally accredited institutions of higher learning not exceeding one-fifth of the total credits in the program for the degree. In considering a request for transfer credit, the student's advisor will review the program of study, carefully evaluate the relevance of the proposed courses to the plan of study and consider the availability of courses to fulfill credit requirements. Transfer credit is granted only when approved by the student's advisor, the program director and the academic dean.

Normally, transfer credit must not exceed 6 credit hours of a candidate's graduate program. However, upon the recommendation of the student's program committee and upon the approval of the chair responsible for that program, the amount of credits transferred may be increased but may not exceed 20 percent of the total program. Credit is transferred only for graduate courses having minimum grades of B.

For additional information on transfer credits, changes in the plan of study and thesis, projects and comprehensive evaluations, see the Graduate Studies Policies and Procedures Manual at <http://www.ric.edu/academics/pdf/GraduateStudiesManual.pdf>.

Independent Study

Independent study, directed study, and certain research courses afford students the opportunity to pursue concentrated study in a selected topic under the supervision of a faculty member. Students enrolled in independent study are expected to observe time limits corresponding to semester limits unless specifically arranged by the instructor. A Request for Independent Study form signed by the instructor, department chair, program director and the appropriate academic dean must be filed with the departmental office of the respective graduate program. Requests for an independent study should be made in the semester prior to the semester of the planned independent study. Independent study requests must be approved and fees paid before study is begun. Grades are reported for independent study in the same manner as for other courses.

Students who wish to register for credits that will be counted toward their degree but that will be earned through off-campus activities, such as research or independent study at a national laboratory, must list these activities as part of their plan of study and receive prior approval from their advisor and dean. Credits are calculated on the basis of 1 credit for three hours per week per semester and may not exceed the limits of full-time registration, namely 12 credit hours per semester and 6 per summer session.

Leave of Absence

Graduate students are expected to remain continuously enrolled until they have completed all requirements and have received their degrees. Graduate students who must leave the college for a period of one semester or more due to military service, prolonged illness or other unusual circumstances, whether before or after they have completed the work prescribed in their plan of study, should apply for a leave of absence. The request should be made in writing to the appropriate academic dean. It should include an endorsement from the advisor and program director and should be sufficiently specific to enable the academic dean to determine whether the leave is warranted. A leave of absence, granted under such unusual circumstances, has the effect of suspending time limitations such as those for completion of the degree or for the removal of incomplete grades. Accordingly, a leave will be granted only for sufficient reason and only if it is to be for one year or less. Students may apply in writing for a maximum of one additional year if circumstances warrant.

Permanent withdrawal from a graduate program is a serious matter that deserves careful consideration by students in consultation with their advisor. If a leave of absence is not in the student's best interest, the student should inform the dean responsible for the program in writing of the intention to terminate graduate status.

Time Limits

Students must complete their program of study within six years from the time of registration following acceptance to degree or certificate candidacy; otherwise, the candidacy will be terminated and the Records Office notified by the program director. An appeal for extension requires review by the appropriate program director, advisor, and academic dean. (Note: Credits seven years or older may no longer be counted in a student's program, unless the department and the appropriate dean grant an exception.)

Academic Facilities and Services - Graduate

Career Development Center

The Career Development Center serves students and alumni in the career planning and job and internship search process. The center also offers assistance with applying to graduate school, including program selection and help with writing the personal statement.

Individual counseling sessions are offered at the center, along with TypeFocus, an online system that helps students examine their values, skills, and interests to reach informed decisions about a major and career.

Workshops and programs are offered that help students develop competitive job search skills and strategies (e.g., résumé and cover letter writing, effective interviewing, LinkedIn accounts and networking).

Many resources are available 24/7 online such as job and internship postings and information about career fields. Employers seeking full-time, permanent and part-time employees and interns are connected with students. Work-study and non-work-study jobs are also available both on and off campus.

Current students and alumni may post résumés, view jobs/internships, and access the center's online library at www.ric.edu/careerdevelopment.

Disability Services Center

The Disability Services Center (DSC) is the central location on campus for disability-related services for students and is committed to providing accommodations for students with disabilities and supporting them in achieving their academic goals. Students who self-identify and provide appropriate documentation of their condition to the DSC may be eligible to receive reasonable accommodations in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and analogous state laws. Support services may include classroom and testing accommodations, advisement, referrals, and use of assistive technology.

The DSC serves students with all types of disabilities: mobility, hearing, vision, motor, psychological, learning (including attention disorders), speech, medical, developmental and other conditions. In addition, the DSC shall seek to assist students with temporary impairments who are in need of short-term accommodations. The DSC is also available to advise any student who needs information about how you obtain proper documentation of a disability.

The DSC promotes the inclusion of individuals with disabilities in all aspects of college life, and endeavors to make students aware of the many opportunities and resources available to them at Rhode Island College. The DSC recognizes disability as a form of diversity and is the primary resource to educate, train and guide the college community in understanding disability access, rights and responsibilities. The DSC not only serves as an advocate for students with disabilities, but also encourages students toward self-advocacy and self-determination.

Clarification of policies and procedures for disability-related services is available in the Policies and Procedures Manual for Students with Disabilities. Copies of the manual are available at the Disability Services Center or on its Web site at www.ric.edu/disabilityservices. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the Disabilities Services Center via the Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711.

Writing Center

The Writing Center is staffed by highly qualified student tutors. Tutors work with all writers, from freshmen to graduate students, in all disciplines. Tutors assist with any phase of writing, such as refining topics, writing for a specific audience, developing ideas, organizing material, revising drafts and editing.

The Writing Center maintains a reference library of books, journals and articles on writing theory, writing for specific disciplines and other topics, including MLA, APA and Chicago style manuals. Services are free to all Rhode Island College students, faculty, and staff.

Campus Life - Undergraduate

Child Care—Cooperative Preschool

The Cooperative Preschool is a campus organization sponsored by Student Community Government. Through the cooperative involvement of parents, the co-op provides an affordable, reliable, high-quality preschool program for children ages three to five. To participate in the co-op, children must be toilet trained and be three years of age by August 31. Students, staff and faculty of Rhode Island College are eligible to enroll their children. Children of students are given first priority.

Children are enrolled full time, regardless of the number of hours they attend. The school is DCYF licensed and employs a certified teacher and workstudy students. The co-op also participates in Brightstars, a preschool quality-rating and improvement system. The curriculum is aligned with the Rhode Island Early Learning domains.

In addition to paying monthly tuition, parents work designated hours, attend monthly meetings and participate in the running of the co-op.

The co-op is open Monday through Friday from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the academic year. Use of the co-op is limited to those hours in which the parent is performing college related activities, such as attending class, doing research, student teaching, etc.

For more information, stop by the co-op during hours of operation or access information and registration forms at: www.ric.edu/cooperativepreschool/.

College Health Services

College Health Services, located on the ground floor of Browne Hall, provides confidential, primary health care to all students. Care includes physical examinations, immunizations, treatment of acute and chronic illnesses and injuries, gynecological exams, health education and, if necessary, specialty referral. On-site laboratory services include blood and urine tests, throat cultures and pregnancy testing. Health Services is open year round and is staffed by nurse practitioners, registered nurses and a part-time physician. Visits are available by appointment.

Rhode Island College offers Student Health and Accident Insurance to any student taking a minimum of 6 credit hours. Information about this policy is available at www.universityhealthplans.com.

Counseling Center

The principal aim of the Counseling Center is to help students grow, develop and succeed during their college years. A professional staff of psychologists and counselors provides individual and group counseling to students who seek help with emotional or social problems, academic difficulties or educational and career planning. Assessment of vocational interest and personal characteristics is available as needed. The Center also conducts groups and workshops on personal development matters, such as stress management and procrastination. Although friends or faculty may encourage individual students to utilize counseling, it is entirely voluntary, and most students make the decision on their own initiative. Counseling Center services are strictly confidential and are provided to any current Rhode Island College students, regardless of age, without charge.

Cultural Activities

Students can participate in a wide variety of cultural activities and events at Rhode Island College. For example, students can attend a rock concert at the Recreation Center, an open mic performance at the Café, listen to a speaker at Adams Library, see a student play or concert in the Nazarian Center, find a dance partner in the Student Union Ballroom, attend an art gallery opening, write an article for the Anchor newspaper, make a t-shirt in the quad or watch Chinese acrobats tumble in the Auditorium in Roberts Hall. There are academic-based exhibition and performance opportunities and a whole host of student groups in which students participate in ways best suited to their interests, from audience members to directors. In addition, several on-campus groups bring nationally and internationally renowned fine and performing artists to RIC to enhance the cultural learning of our students and the community at large. Many of these cultural activities and events are free or discounted for students. Whatever your interest or passion, there is a way for you to participate. To find information about attending cultural events or getting involved in cultural activities on campus, visit www.ric.edu and click on the Performing & Fine Arts or Campus Life tabs.

Recreation Club Sports

A completely renovated recreation center opened in the fall semester of 2012. The complex is home to all recreational programming, including intramurals and club sports. The center and its programs are available to all currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. The facility is also available to faculty, staff, alumni and the community on a membership-fee basis. For a complete list of activities and hours, which change each semester, visit www.goanchormen.com.

The 80,000-square-foot facility includes a five-lane, 25-yard, L-shaped swimming pool; a five-lane, 1/10-mile, indoor track; three multi-use courts for basketball, volleyball, and tennis; a fitness center, including cardio and strength areas; a student lounge complete with WiFi and cable television; new locker room facilities; a multimedia room; a wrestling facility adaptable for other events; a multi-use studio for aerobics and yoga; offices for coaches; and a suite to host fundraising-related initiatives. The Club Sport Program currently includes the following established club sport opportunities: men's ice hockey, equestrian, ultimate frisbee and men's volleyball. For more updated information, or if you are interested in starting a club sport, go to: www.goanchormen.com.

The Office of Security and Safety provides 24-hour service to the campus community in the areas of law enforcement, security and personal safety, fire safety and right-to-know laws. The office is also responsible for the enforcement of all laws and regulations that apply to campus life, including those of the Rhode Island Board of Education and federal and state statutes. Information regarding security and safety, campus police, parking, traffic regulations and vehicle registration is available in the security department or on the college website at www.ric.edu.

The Office of Security and Safety also provides a variety of crime prevention materials and a 24-hour escort service for students, faculty and staff. This service is available by calling extension 8201 or by pushing the escort button on the Blue Light Emergency Phones (for the location of these phones see Campus Map (p. 5)).

Student Union

The Student Union facility consists of the Student Union and Ducey Media Center. As its mission states, it is "more than a building, but also an organization and a program which complements the academic experience and contributes to student success." In addition to Student Activities and events, departments and services include Campus Card (student ID), Campus Store, Welcome & Information Center, the Café, student mailboxes, Student Community Government and a variety of other student organization offices. The Ducey Media Center includes the Anchor (student newspaper), Anchor TV and WXIN Radio.

Veterans Resource Center

The Veterans Resource Center serves as a bridge between off-campus services and on-campus services for military service members, veterans and their families. The VetSuccess on Campus program is located in the center. Students receive information and assistance in accessing educational benefits, exploring career options, and locating other important services at Rhode Island College.

Women's Center

The mission of the Women's Center is to cultivate a campus culture that fosters the advancement of women and inspires RIC students to discover and embrace their full potential. The Center collaborates with related campus and community organizations on various projects to promote campus awareness and understanding through advocacy and education. It also provides a clearinghouse of information related to women's history, health and progress. The Women's Center connects and supports RIC students through confidential referrals to existing campus and local resources.

Degree Programs - Graduate

Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study (C.A.G.S.)

The C.A.G.S. is a degree program consisting of a minimum of 24-post master's credit hours that prepare candidates for positions and competencies in education and related fields for which the master's degree is not sufficient. The C.A.G.S. is offered in the following areas:

- Individualized Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study (p. 44)
- School Psychology (p. 127)

Master of Arts (M.A.)

The M.A. degree is offered in the following areas:

- Art with concentrations in
 - Art Education (p. 71)
 - Media Studies (p. 68)
- Biology (p. 73)
- Counseling (p. 114) with concentration in:
 - School Counseling
- English (p. 80)
- English (p. 81) with concentrations in
 - Creative Writing
- History (p. 90)
- Individualized Master of Arts (p. 45)
- Mathematical Studies (p. 93) with concentrations in
 - Mathematics
 - Mathematics for the Professions
- Psychology (p. 105)

Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.)

The M.A.T. degree is offered in the following areas:

- Art Education (p. 70)
- Elementary Education (p. 123)
- Music Education (p. 99)
- Secondary Education (p. 132) with teaching concentrations in
 - Biology
 - English
 - History
 - Mathematics
 - Pedagogy
- World Languages Education (p. 140) with teaching concentrations in
 - French
 - Pedagogy
 - Portuguese
 - Spanish
 - Biology

Master of Education (M.Ed.)

The M.Ed. degree is offered in the following areas:

- Advanced Studies in Teaching and Learning (p. 111)
- Early Childhood Education (p. 116)
- Educational Leadership (p. 118)
- Elementary Education (p. 124)
- Individualized Master of Education (p. 44)
- Health Education (p. 125)
- Reading (p. 126)
- Special Education (p. 135) with concentrations in
 - Early Childhood—Birth through Grade 2
 - Exceptional Learning Needs
 - Severe/Profound Intellectual Disabilities (SID)
 - Special Education Certification
 - Urban Multicultural Special Education
- Teaching English as a Second Language (p. 138)

Master of Music Education (M.M.Ed.)

The M.M.Ed. degree (p. 99) is offered for persons certified to teach music. However, students seeking initial certification are required to enroll in the Master of Arts in Teaching program (p. 99).

Master of Professional Accountancy (M.P.Ac.)

The M.P.Ac. degree (p. 150) is offered in professional accountancy, with concentrations in accounting information systems and personal financial planning.

Master of Science (M.S.)

The M.S. degree is offered in: Clinical Mental Health Counseling (p. 114).

Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.)

The M.S.N. degree (p. 154) is designed to prepare expert nurses for advanced practice roles. There are three specialty concentrations: (1) adult/gerontology acute care (CNS or NP role), (2) nurse anesthesia, and (3) population/public health.

Master of Social Work (M.S.W.)

The M.S.W. degree (p. 159) prepares social workers for advanced professional practice. The program offers two areas of concentration: clinical and macro. The clinical concentration prepares students to work with individuals and families across the lifespan. The macro concentration prepares students for policy practice and leadership roles within organizations.

Ph.D. in Education Program

The Ph.D. in education (p. 117) is offered jointly by Rhode Island College and the University of Rhode Island.

Individualized Graduate Degree Programs

Individualized graduate degrees are offered in the C.A.G.S., M.A., M.Ed., and M.S. programs. Essentially interdisciplinary in nature, these programs provide students with the opportunity to pursue graduate work in areas of specific academic interest or need. These programs may be oriented toward special career preparation or toward unique scholarly pursuits.

Admission standards for all individualized programs are comparable to those of the department or departments involved. All graduate division criteria also apply. Admission is subject to the criteria approved by the Committee on Individualized Graduate Programs. All plans of study must be approved by the committee.

Students who are interested in an individualized graduate program should first consult with the dean responsible for that program to receive advisement and the special forms for application.

Special Programs - Graduate

Certificate of Graduate Study (C.G.S.)

The C.G.S. is a certificate program of advanced study offered in the following areas:

- Advanced Counseling (p. 49)
- Advanced Study of Creative Writing (p. 50)
- Advanced Study of Literature (p. 50)
- Autism Education (p. 50)
- Child and Adolescent Trauma (p. 51)
- Financial Planning (p. 51)
- Health Psychology (p. 51)
- Historical Studies (p. 52)
- Mathematics Content Specialist: Elementary (p. 52)
- Middle Level Education (p. 52)
- Modern Biological Sciences (p. 52)
- Nonprofit Leadership (p. 53)
- Nursing Care Management (p. 53)
- Physical Education (p. 53)
- Public History (p. 53)
- Severe Intellectual Disabilities

Rhode Island Teacher Education (RITE) Program

Students who hold the baccalaureate degree and who have majored in or completed a substantial amount of course work in an appropriate academic area (see appropriate academic areas below) may pursue the secondary education teaching certificate in that area through the RITE program. This is not a degree program and courses taken in this program cannot be used in any graduate degree program at Rhode Island College. This program is designed so that successful applicants can, in most cases, complete the required course work within three consecutive semesters.

Appropriate academic areas are

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| • Biology | • History |
| • Chemistry | • Mathematics |
| • English | • Physics |
| • French | • Social Studies |
| • General Science | • Spanish |

RITE Admission Requirements

1. A baccalaureate degree with a major equivalent to an undergraduate secondary education major at Rhode Island College.
2. A completed application submitted to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, including complete transcripts from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 in all previous undergraduate course work.
4. PRAXIS I (PPST), ACT, or SAT with required score as established by the Rhode Island Department of Education. (This requirement is waived if the GPA in undergraduate course work is a minimum of 3.0.)
5. The minimum GPA required in the academic major. Requirements for GPAs in specific majors are available from the Department of Educational Studies.
6. Two Disposition Reference Forms from an instructor of a college course in the applicant's academic major, or from a professional who can document the applicant's experience with youth, or from a work supervisor.
7. A Statement of Education Philosophy.
8. A résumé outlining educational and work experience.
9. A personal interview with the RITE program major advisor.
10. A complete plan of study approved by the RITE program advisor, the chair of the Department of Educational Studies and the dean.

RITE Program Requirements

The RITE program consists of a minimum of 30 credit hours, as follows: Counseling and Educational Psychology 315; Foundations of Education 346; Secondary Education 406, 407, 411, 412, 421, 422; and Special Education 433.

General Education

Chair of the Committee on General Education
James Magyar

General Information

The General Education Program is designed to provide students in all academic majors and professional programs with the knowledge and skills of a college-educated citizen. General Education approaches eleven learning outcomes through three core courses, seven distribution areas, a second language requirement, and writing in each of the disciplines. In the first year, First Year Writing provides a starting point for writing at all levels throughout the curriculum. Also in the first year, students choose from a large selection of intriguing topics with which to hone their skills in First Year Seminar. Connections courses, taken later in one's program, again use a topical approach to strengthen academic skills. Writing in each discipline purposefully and explicitly develops student writing appropriate to the style and context of the individual discipline.

Recognizing the vast scope of knowledge available, Distribution courses allow students to choose courses in each area to advance professional goals, enhance personal interests, or explore new areas. One of these courses is a more advanced course that builds upon other General Education courses in science and mathematics to develop skills and understanding at a higher level.

Rhode Island College graduates also demonstrate knowledge of an additional language, demonstrated through the Second Language Requirement. The following sections provide more detailed information on General Education at the College.

Students who were enrolled at Rhode Island College before fall of 2013 are responsible for the requirements of the previous General Education program. The current version of that program is available at www.ric.edu/generaleducation/preSpring2012.php.

Core Courses

Courses

First Year Seminar (FYS)

FYS 100 is required in the freshman year, with sections on a wide variety of topics. Each section is discussion-based and focused on developing critical thinking, oral communication, research fluency, and written communication. FYS 100 will not be offered in the summer or the early spring sessions. Students who enter the college as transfer students are not considered first-year students and are exempt from this requirement.

Courses are limited to twenty students

FYS 100	First Year Seminar	4	F, Sp
---------	--------------------	---	-------

First Year Writing (FYW)

FYW 100 (or FYW 100P) is required in freshman year. Either course introduces students to college-level writing and helps them develop the writing skills needed for success in college courses. Successful completion of the course (a final grade of C or better) will also meet the College Writing Requirement. Courses are limited to twenty students for FYW 100 (four credit hours); courses are limited to fifteen students for FYW 100P (six credit hours).

FYW 100	Introduction to Academic	4	F, Sp, Su
---------	--------------------------	---	-----------

FYW 100P	Writing Introduction to Academic Writing PLUS	6	F, Sp
----------	-----------------------------------------------------	---	-------

Connections (C)

Courses in the Connections category are upper-level courses on topics that emphasize comparative perspectives, such as across disciplines, across time, and across cultures. Students must complete the FYS 100 (p. 211) and FYW 100 (p. 212)/FYW 100P (p. 212)/FYW 100H courses and must have earned at least 45 college credits before taking a Connections course. Connections courses cannot be included in any major or minor program.

Writing in the Discipline

Building on the core course, FYW 100 (p. 212)/FYW 100P (p. 212)/FYW 100H, each discipline has identified a required course or courses within the major in which students learn to write for that discipline. Completion of the major/program fulfills the Writing in the Discipline requirement.

Second Language Requirement

Rhode Island College graduates are expected to communicate in and understand a language other than English at a novice-mid proficiency level. The Second Language Requirement of General Education is designed to meet that expectation. If you are unable to fulfill any one of the requirements listed below, please consult the chair of the Department of Modern Languages.

The Second Language Requirement may be fulfilled in any of the following ways:

1. By completing RIC language courses 101 and 102 or higher, with a minimum grade of C.
2. Through transfer credit of language courses equivalent to 101 and 102 or higher from an accredited college or university.
3. Through transfer credit of a second language course from an approved study abroad program.
4. Through Advanced Placement (AP) credit. If students score three or higher on the AP Test in French, German, or Spanish, RIC will award 6 credits (equivalent to RIC language courses 113 and 114).
5. Through Early Enrollment Program credit for language courses 113 or 114.
6. By completing the CLEP Test in French, German, or Spanish, with a score on the Level I test of 50 or higher.
7. By completing the ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) and the written exam for languages for which there are no CLEP or AP

Tests. Level: OPI (offered in 65 languages): Novice Mid to High. Written test: Novice High (offered in twelve languages).

8. By completing the SAT II Subject Test (scores vary according to language).
9. Foreign/international students may submit an official high school transcript from a non-English-speaking country of origin.

General Education Categories

Courses that fulfill General Education requirements have the appropriate notation in the course description following credit hours:

Gen. Ed. Category A (Arts—Visual and Performing)
 Gen. Ed. Category AQS (Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning)
 Gen. Ed. Category C (Connections)
 Gen. Ed. Category FYS (First Year Seminar)
 Gen. Ed. Category FYW (First Year Writing)
 Gen. Ed. Category H (History)
 Gen. Ed. Category L (Literature)
 Gen. Ed. Category M (Mathematics)
 Gen. Ed. Category NS (Natural Science)
 Gen. Ed. Category SB (Social and Behavioral Sciences)

Transfer Students

Transfer Students may determine their status with respect to General Education requirements by inquiring at the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or at the Office of the Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The college's admissions website, at <http://www.ric.edu/admissions/transfer.php> contains useful information.

General Education Honors

To complete General Education Honors, students must take a minimum of five General Education courses in specially designed honors sections. Courses chosen normally include the Honors Core, which consists of Honors First Year Seminar, Honors First Year Writing, and Honors Connections (taken in the junior year). Other honors courses are offered in various disciplines as Distribution requirements. Although honors courses are reserved for students in the General Education Honors Program, if space permits and with the permission of the director of honors, other students may take honors sections. For more information, write or call the director of honors.

Outcomes for General Education

Each course in General Education addresses several outcomes. Students who complete the General Education program will encounter each outcome at least once at an introductory level. No introductory course can fully meet an outcome. Rather, every course introduces or develops several outcomes. Relevant outcomes are addressed at a higher level within the advanced work of the respective majors.

1. Written Communication Students will understand the different purposes of writing and employ the conventions of writing in their major fields. Students will produce writing that is well organized, supported by evidence, demonstrates correct usage of grammar and terminology, and is appropriate to the academic context.
2. Critical and Creative Thinking Students will be able to analyze and interpret information from multiple perspectives, question assumptions and conclusions, and understand the impact of biases, including their own, on thinking and learning.

3. Research Fluency Students will demonstrate the ability to access, understand, evaluate, and ethically use information to address a wide range of goals or problems.
4. Oral Communication Students will learn to speak in a clearly expressed, purposeful, and carefully organized way that engages and connects with their audience.
5. Collaborative Work Students will learn to interact appropriately as part of a team to design and implement a strategy to achieve a team goal and to evaluate the process.
6. Arts Students will demonstrate through performance, creation, or analysis an ability to interpret and explain the arts from personal, aesthetic, cultural, and historical perspectives.
7. Civic Knowledge Students will gain knowledge of social and political systems and of how civic engagement can change the environment in which we live.
8. Ethical Reasoning Students will demonstrate an understanding of their own ethical values, other ethical traditions from diverse places and times, and the process of determining ethical practice.
9. Global Understanding Students will analyze and understand the social, historical, political, religious, economic, and cultural conditions that shape individuals, groups, and nations and the relationships among them across time.
10. Quantitative Literacy Students will demonstrate the ability to: (1) interpret and evaluate numerical and visual statistics, (2) develop models that can be solved by appropriate mathematical methods, and (3) create arguments supported by quantitative evidence and communicate them in writing and through numerical and visual displays of data, including words, tables, graphs, and equations.
11. Scientific Literacy Students will understand how scientific knowledge is uncovered through the empirical testing of hypotheses; be familiar with how data is analyzed, scientific models are made, theories are generated, and practical scientific problems are approached and solved; have the capacity to be informed about scientific matters as they pertain to living in this complex world; and be able to communicate scientific knowledge through speaking and writing.

ENGL 581	Workshop in Creative Writing	3	As needed
ENGL 591	Directed Reading	3	As needed
ENGL 592	Master's Thesis	3	As needed

TWELVE CREDIT HOURS of graduate-level literature or theory courses.

Note: ENGL 581 is taken for three semesters for a total of 9 hours.

Total Credit Hours: 30

Examination Plan

Under the examination plan (optional for M.A. in English) and upon completion of at least 24 credit hours of graduate course work, students take a written examination prepared and administered by the Department of English. The examination is based on reading lists in two of the following four categories: (1) British literature before 1800, (2) British literature since 1800, (3) American literature, and (4) theory or genre. Prior to the examination, students, in consultation with faculty, will prepare reading lists for the two categories selected. The departmental graduate committee must approve the reading lists and will appoint faculty committees to conduct examinations. Guidelines for preparing reading lists are available from the departmental graduate advisor.

Thesis Plan

Under the thesis plan (optional for M.A. in English; required for M.A. in English with concentration in creative writing), students take ENGL 591: Directed Reading in preparation for the writing of the thesis and ENGL 592: Master's Thesis in their final semesters of study toward the M.A. degree. During this time they complete research for and write a master's thesis on a subject of their choice that has been approved by the departmental graduate committee. The thesis will be written under the direction of a faculty member of the student's choice and will be read by that faculty member and by a second reader appointed by the departmental graduate committee. For M.A. in English students, the thesis will normally be a substantial critical or research paper (though different kinds of projects are possible) of approximately fifty to seventy pages in length. For M.A. in English with concentration in creative writing students, the thesis will consist of a substantial body of poetry, fiction, nonfictional prose or drama. A defense of the thesis before a faculty committee is required in all cases.

Medical Imaging

Co-Directors: Eric Hall and Kenneth Kinsey

The medical imaging program at Rhode Island College is a joint program in conjunction with the Rhode Island Hospital School of Diagnostic Imaging. It is a comprehensive four-year program consisting of General Education and cognate courses at Rhode Island College followed by clinical education courses at the School of Diagnostic Imaging.

Clinical education courses are held at Rhode Island Hospital, Hasbro Children's Hospital, University of Orthopedics, The Miriam Hospital, and Rhode Island Medical Imaging. Students who successfully complete the program are eligible to take the appropriate national certification examination.

Students accepted into a medical imaging clinical program are responsible for obtaining certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (basic life support for the health care provider) prior to enrolling in clinical courses.

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

Medical Imaging B.S.

Admission Requirements for Concentrations in Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Nuclear Medicine Technology, and Radiologic Technology

Concentrators

1. Completion of the Enrollment Form signed by the program director.
2. Completion of all required courses, with a minimum grade of C in each course.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.70.
4. An interview with the program director of the Rhode Island Hospital School of Diagnostic Imaging.

Admission Requirements for Concentrations in Certified RT Computed Tomography

Prior American Registry of Radiologic Technologists certification and concurrent acceptance into the Rhode Island Hospital School of Diagnostic Imaging.

Retention Requirement for All Concentrations

A minimum grade of C in all required courses.

General Education Requirements for Concentrations in Certified RT Computed Tomography and Certified RT Management

Students must complete the college's General Education requirements, with the following contingencies:

1. Students will take a required MATH course in the cognates for each program that will satisfy their General Education Mathematics category.

2. Students will receive transfer credit for NS 175, which will fulfill the Natural Science category.
3. Students will receive transfer credit for AQSR 175, which will fulfill the Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning category.

Modern Languages

Department of Modern Languages

Department Chair: Maricarmen Margenot

Department Faculty: Professor Juzyn Associate Professors Margenot, Oliveira; Assistant Professor Basile, Falangola

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

Language Courses

The Department of Modern Languages offers elementary and intermediate courses in Arabic, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Portuguese, and Spanish. Placement for language study is determined by the student's performance in course work or, for French, German, and Spanish, by their score on the modern languages online test at: www.ric.edu/modernlanguages/placement.php. Students who demonstrate proficiency on the CEEB or the College Level Examination Program tests are granted credit toward graduation in accordance with Rhode Island College policy.

Elementary courses (101 and 102) and intermediate courses (113 and 114) may be offered in languages not listed in this catalog. Refer to the schedule of classes published each semester and contact the department chair for details. Advanced courses are available in French, Italian, Latin American studies, Portuguese, and Spanish.

Elementary courses may be taken for elective credit, except in the language presented to meet college admission requirements. Students who wish to continue their study of the language presented for admission should elect language courses numbered 102, 113, or 114. For fulfillment of the Second Language Requirement see the section on General Education.

Internship

The Department of Modern Languages strongly encourages students to undertake internship experiences as part of their undergraduate education. Every semester, the department offers twelve-week internships for students in all modern languages concentrations. Students are placed in area agencies, organizations, and companies where they have the opportunity to use the language of their concentration. In order to participate in an internship, students must register for MLAN 320.

Internship

The Department of Political Science strongly encourages students to undertake internship experiences as part of their undergraduate education. Every fall, spring, and summer the department offers a twelve-week internship for students in political science, public administration, justice studies, gerontology, and other programs. Students are placed in federal, state, and local government agencies; in private sector public service organizations; and in organizations engaged in campaigns or political advocacy. To enroll in this internship, students should register for POL 328.

In addition, under the auspices of the Rhode Island State Internship Program, the department offers a twelve-week internship every spring semester, placing students with individual members of the Rhode Island state legislature or with members of the executive and judicial branches of state government. To enroll in this internship, students should register for POL 327.

In cooperation with Rhode Island's U.S. senators and representatives, several students are chosen to spend a week during the spring semester in the Washington, D.C., office of either a U.S. senator or a representative from Rhode Island.

The London Course

The London Course is the study of British politics, government, and culture, as well as urban geography and city planning in London. The course is divided into two components—a six-week proseminar at Rhode Island College during Summer Session I, followed by a three-week stay in London during July in conjunction with South Bank University. The stay in Europe includes trips to the House of Commons, Cambridge University, the Home Counties, and Paris.

Predental, Premedical, Preoptometry, Preveterinary Preparation

Premedical, Predental, and Preoptometry Advisor

Elaine Magyar

Preveterinary Advisor

Edythe Anthony

To qualify for admission to dental, medical, optometry, or veterinary school, students must present a strong liberal arts background, show competency in writing, competency in their chosen academic majors, and demonstrate some knowledge of work in the laboratory sciences.

Although neither a specific major nor a specific program of study is required for application, a biology or chemistry major will provide excellent preparation. In addition, most schools require the results of the student's performance on standardized tests of verbal and quantitative analytical abilities, knowledge in certain content areas, and analytical and critical thinking.

Beginning in the freshman year, students interested in dental, medical, optometry, or veterinary school should consult with the appropriate preprofessional advisor concerning a plan of study and application procedures to a professional school. Since individual schools have specific course requirements, it is essential to consult with the advisor early in the program of study. Students should also supplement their majors with the following courses: BIOL 111, BIOL 112; CHEM 103, CHEM 104, CHEM 205, CHEM 206, CHEM 310; PHYS 101, PHYS 102; and two or three courses in advanced biology, chosen in consultation with the appropriate advisor. Premedical students should also take PSYC 110 and SOC 200 in preparation for the MCAT. It is strongly recommended that students take mathematics sequences through calculus as well as intermediate or advanced courses in modern foreign languages.

Each year the faculty is able to nominate several students who are Rhode Island residents as candidates for the Early Identification Program of the Alpert Medical School at Brown University. Students who are accepted into this competitive program and successfully complete their undergraduate coursework at Rhode Island College can be accepted into Brown's medical school upon graduation. Complete details are available from the premedical advisor.

Prelaw Preparation

Prelaw Advisor

Thomas Schmeling

Rhode Island College is comparable with other baccalaureate degree-granting institutions as an appropriate environment for a prelegal education. The college offers a range of experiences that help prepare students for entrance into law school.

No specific major or curriculum is required or recommended by law schools as a prerequisite for admission. One can major in any of a dozen or more possible fields and go on to law school with equal facility. Accordingly, the selection of liberal arts courses that familiarize prelaw students with society, history, philosophy, and government is as important as the choice of a major. Success in and contribution to some fields of law also increasingly require preparation in such areas as accounting, communication, and computer science.

A primary criterion for admission to law school is performance on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT). All law schools require applicants to submit their LSAT scores. The LSAT is both "a standardized test designed to measure an examinee's ability to handle new situations and problems" and an examination requiring the writing of an impromptu essay on a controversial topic or situation. The former is scored in competition with all other applicants taking the LSAT on a given date around the country. The essay is scored and used by the admissions committees of individual law schools as they see fit. (See Law School Admission Services' LSAT/LSDAS Registration Information Book.)

The LSAT examination is given four times a year at test sites throughout Rhode Island and the nation. Students who wish to apply to enter law school in the month of September, especially if they are going to seek financial support, should take the LSAT in October or December of the preceding year.

Law schools assess a student's undergraduate record on a 4.00 index scale, excluding grades in physical education, ROTC, and applied courses in art and music. The law school applicant should demonstrate a strong grade point average both in their major and overall course work.

Early in their undergraduate programs, those interested in law school should discuss with the college's prelaw advisor the particulars of taking the LSAT as well as the procedures and strategies for filling out the law school application.

Public Administration B.A.-M.P.A.

Rhode Island College cooperates with the University of Rhode Island in providing Rhode Island College students with an opportunity to begin their graduate training in public administration as they complete their studies leading to a degree at Rhode Island College. Early advisement is essential for students seeking admission to this program. A student in this cooperative program could earn the Master of Public Administration degree in fifteen months of full-time study or pursue the degree on a part-time basis. Students should consult with the director of the undergraduate public administration program no later than the second semester of their junior year.

Public Administration M.P.A.

The Master of Public Administration Program is a cooperative program of Rhode Island College and the University of Rhode Island. M.P.A. students may take graduate-level electives at Rhode Island College to fulfill their plan of study. Requests for program information should be made to the director of the public administration program at Rhode Island College.

General Information

Application to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs

Students who are in good standing at Rhode Island College may apply for admission to a teacher preparation program.

The application is submitted online. Further information may be obtained from the office of the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development (Horace Mann 105) and from the Office of Academic Support and Information Services (OASIS).

Students interested in the art education or music education program should contact the department chair as soon as they are admitted to the college for information about the required courses in the program and the requirements for admission to the program.

Most applicants acquire and complete the application materials while they are enrolled in FNED 346: Schooling in a Democratic Society. This course is a prerequisite for admission to teacher preparation programs. Basic skills tests are required for admission and should be completed before or during enrollment in FNED 346. Transfer students must complete these tests as soon as possible. Information about test requirements can be found at www.ric.edu/fsehd/ppst.php. Individuals with disabilities and nonnative speakers of English should read the Special Registration Options section on the ETS Web site for information on requesting alternative test administration.

Admission Requirements to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs

The applicant's academic performance and related experiences that indicate potential for success as a teacher are reviewed in the admission process. The application materials submitted by the student must provide evidence of the following:

1. Successful completion of an assessment of basic skills or all of the subtests of the Pre-Professional Skills Test of the Praxis I Series as described at www.ric.edu/fsehd/ppst.php. Test registration information is available at OASIS and on the ETS Web site at www.ets.org/praxis.
2. Completion of at least 24 credit hours at a nationally or regionally accredited college or university by the end of the semester in which the candidate applies for admission to a teacher preparation program.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 in all college-level courses taken at RIC prior to admission to a teacher preparation program.
4. Completion of FNED 346: Schooling in a Democratic Society, with a minimum grade of B-. The minimum grade requirement applies even if an equivalent course from another institution is transferred to Rhode Island College.
5. Completion of the college mathematics competency.
6. Completion of FYW 100 or FYW 100P, with a minimum grade of B. This requirement may also be satisfied by (1) passing the equivalent of a First Year Writing 100 course, with a minimum grade of B; (2) earning a minimum score of 63 on the College Level Examination Program/English Composition Exam with Essay; or (3) earning a score of 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Test for English Language and Composition.
7. Two Disposition Reference Forms. For further information visit www.ric.edu/fsehd/admission.php.

8. Fulfillment of all additional requirements that a department may have for admission to a particular teacher preparation program/concentration. Information about these requirements is available in the teacher education department to which the candidate is applying.

Admission Procedures to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs

Application to an elementary education, secondary education, special education, or K-12 program requires an online application.

The Admission Committee in the respective departments evaluates the information provided in the application and makes a recommendation to the associate dean about the candidate's admission to a teacher preparation program.

The associate dean reviews the recommendation of the department. If the associate dean and the department committee concur, a letter is sent informing the applicant of their decision. If the associate dean does not concur with the recommendation of the department, the associate dean and the departmental committee confer to resolve the disagreement, and the applicant is then informed of the result in writing.

Students admitted to one teacher preparation program who wish to transfer to or add another program within the school must inform their advisor or department chair of their decision and apply for admission to the new program. Information used in the original application may be used in the new application when appropriate.

Appeal Process

The applicant may appeal a decision for admission or re-admission to a teacher preparation program within 60 days of receiving the denial letter. The appeal may be based on policy or procedure and should be sent to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development. Any applicant initiating an appeal must provide additional and substantiating evidence to support the appeal. Subsequent appeals should follow Rhode Island College policy for student appeals (see the Rhode Island College Student Handbook).

Community Service Requirement

The Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires all students in undergraduate teacher preparation programs (undergraduate, second degree) to participate in 25 hours of documented community service experience. This requirement may be completed on an individual basis or through one or more of the courses in the program and must be completed prior to student teaching. See www.ric.edu/communityservice/requirement.php.

Portfolio Requirement

The Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires all students in teacher preparation programs (undergraduate, second degree, RITE, and M.A.T.) to successfully complete a Preparing to Teach Portfolio prior to student teaching and to successfully complete the Teacher Candidate Work Sample prior to graduation. Both portfolios must be rated as meeting standard or better for a student to progress in and graduate from any teacher preparation program.

Admission Requirements to Graduate (M.A., M.S., M.Ed., C.A.G.S., and C.G.S.) Programs

Admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development master's-level programs is determined by the quality of the total application. Applicants must submit the materials listed below to the associate dean of graduate studies as a measure of their potential for success in graduate-level studies.

1. A completed online application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Graduate applications are available online at www.ric.edu/graduatestudies.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
3. A bachelor's degree with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in all undergraduate course work. Applicants with undergraduate GPAs less than 3.00 may be admitted to degree candidacy upon submission of other evidence of academic potential.
4. A teaching certificate (for all school-related programs, except school psychology and health education).
5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test, except C.G.S. candidates and C.A.G.S. in mental health counseling candidates.
6. Three Candidate Reference Forms accompanied by three letters of recommendation.
7. A Professional Goals Essay.
8. A Performance-Based Evaluation.

See individual programs for additional program-specific requirements.

Comprehensive ExamTotal Credit Hours: 60*C.G.S. in Advanced Counseling

The C.G.S. in Advanced Counseling is a certificate program which enables students who already have a master's degree, which is fewer than 60 credits, to obtain 60 credits needed for licensure as a mental health counselor in the State of Rhode Island. Students will be able to take from 15-27 credits depending on the number of credits they need for licensure. Core courses in counseling practica and internship (a total of 12 credits) will be required of all C.G.S. candidates. Other credits are determined based on the needs of the candidate (see "C.G.S. in Advanced Counseling (p. 49)" for a full description.

Early Childhood Education

Concentration in Teaching

Admission Requirements

Admission to program is dependent upon prior admission into the FSEHD.

Students will select a concentration and follow the same core program of coursework until the final semester of the program where they will either complete a student teaching experience or an internship. Concentration options include:

- Concentration in Teaching (certification Pre-K through Grade 2)
- Concentration in Community Programs

Fifth-Year Master's Program Option

Applicants to this program will have the option of applying to the fifth-year master's program in early childhood special education, which will fulfill the requirements for Early Childhood Special Education Certification.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum overall grade point average of 2.50 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all professional and major courses.
3. Recommendation to continue from course instructors and clinical instructors.

Records of students who do not maintain good standing or who receive a Recommendation to Continue with Concerns are reviewed by the departmental retention committee. Students may be dismissed from the program. Appeal of a decision to dismiss a student is made to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

M. ED. IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

All students in the LEAD Program take 19 credits of core courses, plus one of three concentrations: Instructional Leadership (IL), Building Level

Leadership (BL), or Special Education Administration (SE). The IL and BL concentrations are 12 credits each, and the SE concentration is 14 credits.

Instructional Leader (IL) Concentration:

Successful completion of this program concentration leads to a master’s degree following the guidelines for certification as an instructional leader in the State of Rhode Island.

Building Level Leader (BL) Concentration:

Successful completion of this program concentration leads to a master’s degree and certification as a building level leader (principal) in the State of Rhode Island.

Special Education Administration (SE) Concentration:

Successful completion of this program concentration leads to a master’s degree and eligibility for certification (pending RIDE approval, anticipated start date Fall 2016) as an Administrator of Special Education in the State of Rhode Island.

Educational Leadership M.Ed.

Admission Requirements

1. Completion of all Feinstein School of Education and Human Development admission requirements (p. 110).
2. A current résumé.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale.
2. A minimum grade of B- in LEAD 500 or LEAD 530. Students who receive a grade below a B- in either of these courses must consult with their advisor before registering for any subsequent course in the plan of study.
3. A minimum grade of B in LEAD 502, LEAD 503, LEAD 504, LEAD 506, and LEAD 507. Students who receive a grade below a B in any of these courses must retake the course. Following retake of the course, a recommendation to continue from the student’s advisor is also required.

Elementary Education Program Director: Carolyn Obel-Omia

Elementary Education Program Faculty: Professors Barton, Cordeiro, Kniseley, Lawrence, Rowell, Rude, Steiglitz; Associate Professors Cotti, Goodrow, Henshaw, Horn, McGuire-Schwartz, Sevey; Assistant Professors Capalbo, Obel-Omia

Students in elementary education are awarded either a B.A. or a B.S. degree.

- The B.A. is awarded to students choosing a content major (Multidisciplinary Studies, English, General Science, Mathematics, or Social Studies).
- The B.S. is awarded to students electing a teaching concentration in special education.

Elementary Education B.A.

Some programs, including the middle grades certification program, will total more than 120 credits and may take longer than four years to complete.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum overall grade point average of 2.50 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in ELED 300, and recommendation to continue from the instructor.
3. A minimum grade of B- in all other professional courses and a recommendation to continue from each instructor. Courses in the department may be repeated once with a recommendation to retake from the previous instructor.
4. A minimum grade of C in all prerequisite courses offered in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.

Records of students who do not maintain good standing or who receive a Recommendation to Continue with Concerns are reviewed by the departmental retention committee. Students may be dismissed from the program. Appeal of a decision to dismiss a student is made to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

Other Requirements

In addition to completing courses in elementary education, students must also complete the following requirements. See FSEHD website for additional information.

- A Preparing to Teach Portfolio
- Community service requirement
- Elementary physical education requirement

National School Psychology Examination (C.A.G.S.)

0 credit hours. Offered Fall, Spring.

The C.A.G.S. in school psychology is awarded when the student has completed:

1. An additional 27 credit hours of graduate course work beyond the master's level as specified in the student's integrated and sequential plan of study.
2. A one-year, 1,200-hour, 12-credit internship in a cooperating school system.
3. A passing score (as determined by the Department of Counseling, Educational Leadership, and School Psychology) on the National School Psychology Examination administered by the Educational Testing Service (ETS/PRAXIS II #10400).

4. A performance portfolio at the conclusion of the internship.

The C.A.G.S. in school psychology meets state certification requirements in school psychology from the Rhode Island Department of Education.

For candidates admitted to the C.A.G.S. in school psychology, the M.A. in counseling (educational psychology concentration) is awarded when the student has completed CEP 531, CEP 532, CEP 533, CEP 534, CEP 536, CEP 537, CEP 538, CEP 551, CEP 554 and CEP 602; and satisfactorily passed a written examination prepared and administered by the Department of Counseling, Educational Leadership, and School Psychology. The examination is based on the student's knowledge of human development, counseling approaches and intervention strategies.

The M.A. in counseling with concentration in educational psychology is not granted as a terminal degree and does not meet requirements for certification as a school psychologist.

Biology

BIOL 111	Introductory Biology I	4	F, Sp, Su
BIOL 112	Introductory Biology II	4	F, Sp, Su
BIOL 221	Genetics	4	F
BIOL 318	Ecology	4	F
BIOL 320	Cell and Molecular Biology	4	Sp
BIOL 335	Human Physiology	4	F, Sp, Su
BIOL 348	Microbiology	4	F, Sp, Su
BIOL 491-494	Research in Biology	1-4	F, Sp, Su

Chemistry

CHEM 103	General Chemistry I	4	F, Sp, Su
CHEM 104	General Chemistry II	4	F, Sp, Su
CHEM 205	Organic Chemistry I	4	F, Su
CHEM 206	Organic Chemistry II	4	Sp, Su

Mathematics

MATH 209	Precalculus Mathematics	4	F, Sp, Su
MATH 240	Statistical Methods I	4	F, Sp, Su

Physical Science

PSCI 212	Introduction to Geology	4	F, Su
PSCI 357	Historical and Contemporary Contexts of Science	3	As needed

Physics

PHYS 101	General Physics I -Or-	4	F, Su
PHYS 200	Mechanics	4	F

ONE COURSE from:

BIOL 300	Developmental Biology of Animals	4	Sp
BIOL 321	Invertebrate Zoology	4	As needed
BIOL 324	Vertebrate Zoology	4	As needed
BIOL 329	Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy	4	As needed
BIOL 353	The Plant Kingdom	4	As needed
BIOL 354	Plant Growth and Development	4	As needed

Note: To enroll in SED 411 and SED 412, students must have completed at least 55 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major or have the consent of the program advisor. Prior to enrolling in SED 421, students must have completed all requirements in the biology major.

Total Credit Hours: 68

Chemistry Major

Along with completing required courses in secondary education, students electing a major in chemistry must complete the following courses with a minimum grade point average of 2.50 and a minimum grade of C:

RequirementsBiology

BIOL 111	Introductory Biology I	4	F, Sp, Su

CHEM 103	General Chemistry I	4	F, Sp, Su
CHEM 104	General Chemistry II	4	F, Sp, Su
CHEM 205	Organic Chemistry I	4	F, Su
CHEM 206	Organic Chemistry II	4	Sp, Su
CHEM 310	Biochemistry	3	F (even years)
CHEM 403	Inorganic Chemistry I	3	F
CHEM 404	Analytical Chemistry	4	Sp (even years)

CHEM 405	Physical Chemistry I	3	F
CHEM 407	Physical Chemistry Laboratory I	1	F
CHEM 491-493	Research in Chemistry	1	As needed

Mathematics

MATH 212	Calculus I	4	F, Sp, Su
MATH 213	Calculus II	4	F, Sp, Su

Physical Science

PSCI 212	Introduction to Geology	4	F, Su
PSCI 357	Historical and Contemporary Contexts of Science	3	As needed

Physics

PHYS 200	Mechanics	4	F
PHYS 201	Electricity and Magnetism	4	Sp

Note: In unusual circumstances, PHYS 101 and 102 may be substituted for PHYS 200 and 201, with consent of department chair.

ONE COURSE from:

CHEM 406	Physical Chemistry II	3	Sp
CHEM 412	Inorganic Chemistry II -And-	2	Sp
CHEM 413	Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory	1	Sp
CHEM 414	Instrumental Methods of Analysis	4	Sp (odd years)
CHEM 420	Biochemistry of Proteins and Nucleic Acids	3	F, Sp (odd years)
CHEM 422	Biochemistry Laboratory	3	F (odd years)
CHEM 425	Advanced Organic Chemistry	4	F (odd years)
CHEM 435	Pharmacology and Toxicology	3	As needed

Note: To enroll in SED 411 and SED 412, students must have completed at least 55 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major or have the consent of the program advisor. Prior to enrolling in SED 421, students must have completed all requirements in the chemistry major.

Total Credit Hours: 61-62

English Major

Along with completing required courses in secondary education, students electing a major in English must complete the following courses with a minimum grade point average of 3.00:

RequirementsEnglish

ENGL 201	Literary Studies: Analysis	4	F, Sp
ENGL 202	Literary Studies: Theory and Criticism	4	F, Sp
ENGL 205	British Literature through the Eighteenth Century	4	F, Sp, Su
ENGL 207	American Literature, Beginnings to the present	4	F, Sp, Su

ONE ADDITIONAL 300-level history course

Certification Courses

To be certified to teach history in Rhode Island secondary schools, students must also complete seven of the certification courses listed below. Upon completion, students may be eligible for Rhode Island endorsement to teach economics, geography, political science, and social studies. Students may also be eligible for endorsement to teach anthropology and/or sociology, if they take two of the designated anthropology courses (see below) and/or two of the designated sociology courses (see below). Only one course in these disciplines is required if endorsement in these disciplines is not sought.

Courses

ECON 200	Introduction to Economics	4	F, Sp, Su
GEOG 200	World Regional Geography	4	F, Sp
POL 202	American Government	4	F, Sp, Su

ONE COURSE from:

ANTH 101	Introduction to Cultural Anthropology	4	F, Sp
ANTH 205	Race, Culture, and Ethnicity: Anthropological Perspectives	4	Odd years
SOC 200	Society and Social Behavior	4	F, Sp
SOC 202	The Family	4	F, Sp, Su

Teaching Concentration in Special Education

A teaching concentration in special education may be chosen in addition to one of the majors listed above. Students must complete required secondary education courses, required courses in the major, and special education courses. See course requirements for a teaching concentration in special education (p. 133).

Middle School Endorsement

The endorsement program in middle school education is for students who wish to teach in a middle school. Students must be enrolled in the secondary education program and must fulfill the following requirements:

1. Complete MLED 310, MLED 320, MLED 330, and MLED 340.
2. Complete a student teaching experience at a middle school.
3. Complete the course requirements for a secondary education major in one of the following areas: English (language arts), general science, mathematics, modern languages (French, Portuguese, or Spanish), or social studies.

Secondary Education M.A.T.Admission Requirements

1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.

4. An official report of scores on the appropriate Praxis II Content Knowledge Test, with a minimum score as established by the Department of Educational Studies.
5. Two Disposition Reference Forms: one from a faculty or supervisor of a child/youth-related activity, and one from a work supervisor.
6. Two letters of recommendation: one from a faculty or supervisor of a child/youth-related activity, and one from a work supervisor.
7. A Statement of Educational Philosophy.
8. A current résumé.
9. An interview with an advisor in the M.A.T. program.
10. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.

Special Education

Department of Special Education

Department Chair: Ying Hui-Michael

Professors Antosh, Imber, Lynch; Associate Professors Dell, Hui-Michael, LaCava, McDermott-Fasy; Assistant Professors Kemp, Pinheiro

Students in the Department of Special Education must meet the admission and retention requirements of their major (Elementary Education or Secondary Education) as well as the admission and retention requirements of the special education program.

Students are eligible for an initial educator certificate in special education in Rhode Island if they have successfully completed ALL teaching concentration requirements in their major (Elementary Education or Secondary Education) as well as ALL requirements for their special education concentration.

Admission Portfolio Requirements (Undergraduate only. See "Special Education Programs M.Ed. (p. 135)" for graduate requirements.)

B.S. Elementary and Special Education programs (i.e., Concentration in Mild/Moderate Grade 1-6, Severe Intellectual Disabilities) allow joint admission. See "FSEHD admission requirements (p. 110)."

B.S. Secondary Special Education Program (i.e., Concentration in Mild/Moderate Grade 7-12):

1. A completed special education application form.
2. A copy of current transcripts. Minimum GPA of 2.50.
3. SPED 300 course artifact and graded rubric or equivalent course with a B- or better.
4. One reference letter from a professional documenting the extent and quality of the candidate's experience with individuals with disabilities.
5. A personal statement describing the candidate's interest in a career teaching individuals with disabilities.
6. A copy of a letter of acceptance to a secondary education teacher preparation program.

Retention Requirements (Undergraduate only. See "Special Education Programs M.Ed. (p. 135)" for graduate requirements.)

1. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50 at Rhode Island College.
2. Completion of admission and retention requirements in an elementary or secondary teacher preparation program.
3. A minimum grade of B- in all coursework in Special Education courses, including at least an "acceptable" rating on primary course artifact.
4. Positive recommendations from all education instructors based on academic work, fieldwork, and professional behavior.

Students must maintain acceptable standing in academic work, fieldwork, and demonstrate consistent professionalism (as described above), or risk suspension and/or dismissal from the Special Education program.

Special Education Programs M.Ed.

There are five M.Ed. programs in special education: early childhood, exceptional learning needs, initial certification, severe intellectual disabilities, and urban multicultural special education.

- The early childhood program prepares special education teachers for children with disabilities from birth through Grade 2 and for their families.
- The exceptional learning needs program provides advanced study for special educators with specialization in one of three strands: autism education, special education administration, or specialized study in an area of professional interest (i.e., behavioral support).
- The initial certification program results in licensure as a special education teacher of students with mild to moderate disabilities at either the elementary or secondary levels.
- The severe intellectual disabilities program provides preparation and special education licensure for teachers of students with severe disabilities.
- The urban multicultural program provides advanced preparation for special educators who teach English language learners with disabilities.

Special Education M.Ed.—with Concentration in Early Childhood—Birth Through Grade 2

Admission Requirements

1. Completion of all Feinstein School of Education and Human Development admission requirements (p. 110).
2. Completion of SPED 300, SPED 310, and SPED 415 or their equivalent as determined by the Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE) advisor are required for Rhode Island Department of Education early childhood special education certification
3. An application essay describing the candidate's commitment to special education, cultural awareness, collaboration, and lifelong learning.
4. An interview may be required.
5. An M.Ed. in special education with concentration in early childhood—birth to grade 2 requires that the student is eligible for

Rhode Island certification in early childhood education (possesses certification in early childhood education).

Course Requirements

Program Prerequisites

SPED 300, SPED 310, SPED 415 or their equivalent and an undergraduate degree in Early Childhood Education are required for Rhode Island Department of Education early childhood special education certification.

World Languages Education B.A.

Admission Requirements

For acceptance into the teacher preparation program in world languages education, students must fulfill the following requirements by the end of the semester in which they apply for admission:

1. All FSEHD admission requirements. Please refer to the FSEHD (p. 110) section of this catalog or go to www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/admission.php.
2. Completion of 24 credit hours, including 8 in the content major

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all teacher education courses.
3. A GPA of 3.0 or higher in the major area.
4. Positive recommendations from all education instructors based on academic work, fieldwork and professional behavior.

If a student's GPA falls below the minimum of 2.50, or if the required GPA in the major falls below the minimum of 3.0, the student will be put on probation, which means the student cannot continue to take courses in the professional education sequence until the probationary status is removed. If either the overall GPA or the required GPA in the major falls below the minimum for two consecutive semesters, the student may be suspended or dismissed from the world languages education program.

Graduate Degree Programs

Major	Degree	Concentration
Professional Accountancy (p. 150)	M.P.Ac.	Accounting Information Systems
	M.P.Ac.	Personal Financial Planning

General Information

The School of Management houses three departments: (1) the Department of Accounting and Computer Information Systems, (2) the Department of Economics and Finance, and (3) the Department of Management and Marketing. The school also houses and coordinates the health care administration major.

Writing Requirement

A graded writing assignment is required in every course.

Suggested Sequence of Courses

Majors in the School of Management are designed primarily for upper-division students. Entering students should plan to complete their General Education Core and Distribution Requirements during their first two years. These courses provide excellent and necessary preparation for the major and its requirements.

In the first year, students may not take courses in the departments (except ECON 200, ECON 214, and ECON 215) but are strongly encouraged to complete MATH 177 and, for majors that require it, MATH 238.

Students entering their second year may enroll in a variety of required courses at the 200-level, including introductory courses in their major.

In the third year, students with junior standing and with 60 credit hours or more may enroll in 300-level courses in the School of Management. Students with 45 credit hours or more may enroll in FIN 301, MGT 301, and MKT 301. At this time, students begin to take courses to fulfill the requirements of their major.

Retention Requirements

1. Satisfactory completion (passing grade) of the college writing requirement.
2. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00.
3. Students majoring in accounting, computer information systems, management, and marketing must achieve satisfactory completion of ACCT 201, 202; CIS 251; ECON 214, 215; and MATH 177 and MATH 248.
4. Students majoring in health care administration must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 in all courses in the major.

The appropriate department within the School of Management, in cooperation with the Records Office, will monitor the standards for all declared majors and notify those students who fail to meet the requirements. The appropriate department within the School of Management will also establish and maintain an Appeals Committee to receive, review, and determine the outcome of petitions by students for retention under extenuating circumstances. Preregistration course reservations will be canceled for any student who has been notified that he or she no longer meets the retention standards.

Application to the School of Nursing

Admission to the School of Nursing is highly competitive. The applicant's academic performance, indicating potential for success as a nurse, is reviewed and considered carefully in the admission process. The criteria listed below are minimum admission requirements and do not guarantee admission to the nursing program. Students admitted to the college as freshmen are given preference. Transfer and second-degree candidates are welcome to apply for a limited number of spaces.

Admission Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors

1. Completion of Enrollment Form signed by the faculty advisor and submitted to the School of Nursing by October 15 or April 15 of the preceding semester. Students may apply to the nursing program no more than three times.
2. Completion of the college mathematics competency and writing requirements.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale.
4. Completion of BIOL 231, CHEM 106, and PSYC 230, with a minimum grade of C; and a minimum overall grade point average of 2.67 (B-) in these courses.

Admission Requirements for R.N. Students (with an associate's degree in nursing or hospital diploma)

1. Admission to Rhode Island College and declaration of nursing as the major.
2. Completion of Enrollment Form signed by the faculty advisor and submitted to the School of Nursing by November 15 or April 15 of the semester prior to upper level nursing course work (NURS 316, NURS 370, NURS 376).
3. Completion of NURS 207 and NURS 225 with a minimum grade of C.
4. Completion of the college mathematics competency and writing requirements.
5. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50.
6. Current unrestricted Rhode Island R.N. licensure.

Upon admission to the School of Nursing, criminal background investigation verification is required.

Admission Requirements for R.N. students applying to the R.N. to B.S.N. Program as second degree candidates are noted below under "Admission Requirements for Second Degree Candidates."

Admission Requirements for Lateral Transfer Students

Students within the Rhode Island College community who desire a change of major to nursing must go to the B.S.N. Program director to request the change. The Director then e-mails the change to the Records Office.

Admission Requirements for Transfer Students

Transfer students accepted into the college will need to file an Enrollment Form and will need to meet the same requirements as all general declared nursing majors. Nursing students transferring from other nursing programs are required to forward a letter of recommendation from the head of the previous program.

Admission Requirements for Second Degree Candidates

Second degree candidates admitted to Rhode Island College must apply through the college's Office of Undergraduate Admissions. A plan of study is then formulated with the B.S.N. program director. Acceptance as a second-degree student does not guarantee admission to the School of Nursing. The student should contact their nursing advisor regarding eligibility to make formal application to the school. Second degree candidates may petition to take the five beginning-level courses (NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224, and NURS 225) in one semester on a space-available basis if all cognate courses are completed.

Admission Requirements for R.N. students applying to the R.N. to B.S.N. Program include submission of the admission application to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 1 for spring semester enrollment. Once the application and all credentials have been received, the admissions office notifies the R.N. to B.S.N. candidate to schedule an appointment with the B.S.N. program director to determine the courses needed to meet the requirements for the second bachelor's degree. Upon admission to the college, the R.N. to B.S.N. second-degree candidate will meet with an advisor to submit the second Enrollment Form to apply to the R.N. to B.S.N. Program.

Retention Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors

1. Completion of required prerequisite courses (cognate and nursing courses).
2. Completion of cognates before the junior year (intermediate level).
3. A minimum grade of C in each nursing course. Only one nursing course may be repeated. Students who sustain another failure (a grade below a C) in any nursing course will be dismissed from the program.
4. A minimum grade of C in each cognate course. Students with a grade of C- or below in a cognate course will have the option to progress in nursing (probationary status) for one semester while repeating the course in question.

5. Due to the rigors of the program and retention policies, enrollment in required nursing courses is limited to 12 credits per semester.
6. The School of Nursing will notify students who have not met the retention criteria. The faculty of the School of Nursing reserves the right to require withdrawal or dismissal of a student who shows evidence, academically or personally, of an inability to carry out professional responsibilities in nursing. Students are expected to adhere to the School of Nursing code of academic honesty. Students have the right to appeal through the Student Outcomes Committee and the dean of the School of Nursing.

Retention Requirements for RN Students

Please see #3, #4, #5 and #6 of “Retention Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors” above.

Health Requirements

Every year students must provide the Office of Health Services with evidence of a negative PPD test or compliance with treatment. Before beginning some clinical nursing courses, students may be expected to meet additional health requirements. All nursing students must provide the following documentation:

1. A physical examination.
2. Two measles immunizations.
3. One rubella (German measles) immunization.
4. One mumps immunization.
5. One dose of tetanus/diphtheria/pertussis (Tdap) if it has been two or more years since last dose of tetanus/diphtheria (Td).
6. Hepatitis B vaccine (a series of three immunizations over a six-month period).
7. Two-step PPD (TB skin testing) within one year of starting clinical rotation.
8. Proof of chicken pox disease or immunization.
9. Influenza vaccine or declination form

Students will not be admitted to the first class meeting of a nursing practicum course without having complied with the health requirements. Proof of immunization may be obtained from your physician, high school, previous college or university, military record, and/or from blood titers.

Nursing majors should follow the guidelines on the college immunization form or call College Health Services at (401) 456-8055 for further information. Once all required information is complete, students may pick up their documentation of immunization status at College Health Services.

Clinical Placements

Clinical learning provides students with the opportunity to carry out nursing care for persons of all ages and in all stages of the health-illness spectrum. The School of Nursing retains the right to place and schedule students in appropriate clinical settings. Although every effort will be made to place all students, it is possible that in any given semester sufficient placements may not be available. Students in clinical courses are responsible for their own transportation to the clinical area. Affiliating agencies require students to consent to criminal background checks; therefore, students must have periodic Background Criminal Investigation (BCI) checks.

Licensure

Graduates of the nursing program are eligible to take NCLEX-RN for licensure as a registered nurse in any state. An applicant who has been convicted of a felony may not be awarded a license by the Rhode Island Board of Nurse Registration and Nursing Education. For more information, contact the dean of the School of Nursing.

Nursing Fee

The School of Nursing contracts with Assessment Technologies Institute, LLC, to provide students with a comprehensive testing and review package, which enhances the program. Nursing students are billed by the college each semester for these services.

Handbook

The School of Nursing Handbook for Undergraduate Students in Nursing provides detailed and essential information about the undergraduate nursing program. It is available online at www.ric.edu/nursing.

Students must consult with their advisor each semester before registering for courses. ALL students must be certified for CPR each year.

Nursing, M.S.N.

Jane Williams

Dean, School of Nursing

M.S.N. Graduate Program Director: Cynthia Padula

M.S.N. Program Faculty: Professors Byrd, Carty, Padula, Thomas, Williams, Wood; Associate Professors Aflague, Blasdel, Costello, Hetzel, Huntley-Newby, Lockett, Quigley, Schwager; Assistant Professors Blanchette, Brennan, Coia, Creamer, DeNuccio, Foote, Gremel, Griffin, Mock, Molloy, Morris, Records, Ross, Servello, Siskind, Smith, Wilks

Admission Requirements for All M.S.N. Students

1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. A baccalaureate degree in an upper-division nursing major from an NLNAC or CCNE accredited program.
3. Applicants with international degrees must have their transcripts evaluated for degree and grade equivalency to that of a regionally accredited institution in the United States.
4. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
5. Completion of a course in statistics (MATH 240 or its equivalent), with a minimum grade of C.
6. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work. Provisional acceptance is occasionally granted to students with a cumulative grade point average of less than 3.00. Students who are provisionally admitted must achieve a minimum grade of B in three required nursing courses to qualify for full admission.
7. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination or the Millers Analogies Test.
8. An official report of scores on the Test of English as a Foreign Language from international applicants who are from countries where English is not the first language.
9. Current unrestricted licensure for the practice of nursing in Rhode Island.
10. A professional résumé.
11. Three professional references (one from the clinical area).
12. A brief letter of intent, which includes a statement of goals.
13. Proof of residency.
14. An interview may be required.

Additional Admission Requirements for R.N. to M.S.N. Students

Students must fulfill all of the above requirements and successfully complete the R.N. to B.S.N. program, including MATH 240. When at senior standing in the B.S.N. program, students may complete NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, or NURS 512 (up to 9 credits) as electives. Those completed M.S.N. courses will be waived upon entry into the M.S.N. program of study.

Additional Admission Requirement for the Adult/Gerontology Acute Care Option

One year relevant acute care experience.

Additional Admission Requirements for Nurse Anesthesia

Due to clinical rotations at hospitals in Massachusetts, a license is required for Massachusetts. Personal interview is required. Completion of two courses in chemistry (Chem 105, 106) within the last ten years with minimum grades of C. A preferred undergraduate science GPA of 3.0. Of the three required references, one must be from a clinical supervisor. Current ACLS certification. Minimum of one year critical care experience. A complete definition of accepted critical care experience is found on the St. Joseph Hospital School of Nurse Anesthesia website: www.sjhsna.com.

Retention Requirement for M.S.N. Students

All students are expected to maintain a cumulative average of B (3.00) or better in their graduate program. Students who do not maintain a cumulative B (3.00) average will have their status reviewed by the master's program director. Students who achieve less than a B in a required nursing course (electives excluded) will be placed on probationary status. Students in the Nurse Anesthesia option who earn a grade of less than B- in the required science courses, including CHEM 519 and BIO 535 and BIO 536, will be placed on probationary status. Students on probationary status must achieve a B or better in each required course over the next 9 credits. Two grades below B are sufficient cause for consideration of dismissal; the decision regarding students' status will be made by the master's program director in consult with the dean. Students may be required to repeat a course at the discretion of the master's program director.

School of Social Work

Social Work B.S.W.

Roberta Pearlmutter
Dean, School of Social Work

B.S.W. Program Chair: Scott Mueller

B.S.W. Program Faculty: Professor Weisman; Associate Professor Becker; Assistant Professors Battle, Mueller, Thayer, Watson

The B.S.W. program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Students must consult with their assigned academic advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

The social work major prepares students for bachelors-level generalist practice. That is, students graduate having completed sixteen months of placement in an internship agency recruited and approved by the faculty of this program and having learned the skills necessary for employment by an agency serving the elderly, children and families, the mentally ill, those with health challenges, or for immediate application to graduate school.

This is the largest social work program in the state, large enough to ensure that the resources are there to support your success and small enough to ensure that you will know each of the faculty and each of the students in your graduating class.

College is not without its stress and pressure, and so we make an effort to create supports that encourage our students to describe the program as feeling “like a family.” We have high expectations and we are prepared to provide the support necessary to help you meet them.

Admission Requirements

1. Enrollment in SWRK 326.
2. Evidence of a combination of personal qualities considered essential to professional social work practice. Students must be capable of working with clients and communities with populations different from themselves, with people of different faiths, sexual orientations, and cultural norms. We seek students who can demonstrate responsiveness and sensitivity in relationships, commitment to improving social conditions, and the ability to function both independently and collectively with others.
3. A completed application form during the first semester of the junior year, while enrolled in SWRK 326.
4. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work, and a minimum GPA of 2.67 in 300-level social work courses.

Students will complete the application with support from their instructor while enrolled in SWRK 326. Applications and support materials will be distributed during the meetings for this course. All students planning to proceed in the social work major and planning to enter the internship during the spring semester must complete an application. The application is a noncompetitive process. Students are not competing against other students for a limited number of seats. Rather, students are asked to demonstrate that they meet the selection criteria listed above. Additional information and materials are available from the chair of the department.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work, and a minimum GPA of 2.67 in all 300-level social work courses. No student will be allowed to enter a subsequent semester if their GPA falls below these standards.
2. Students who receive a grade of C- or below in any required social work course must retake that course and receive at least a grade of C in order to proceed in the major. Students who receive a C- or below twice in the same course will be dismissed from the major. For additional information, see the School of Social Work B.S.W. Academic Manual available at the B.S.W. Office or on the School of Social Work Web site: www.ric.edu/socialwork/bswprogram.php.
3. Students who receive an F in any required social work course or an initial grade of C- or below in any two required social work courses will be dismissed from the major.
4. Student performance and behavior must be in conformity with the school's policy on professional behavior and the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics. The policy is available in the B.S.W. Academic Manual and the B.S.W. Field Manual (www.ric.edu/socialwork/field.php). The Code of Ethics is also discussed in courses. A copy of the B.S.W. Academic Standing Policy, including appeal procedures, is made available to students in the B.S.W. Academic Manual and the B.S.W. Field Manual.

Fieldwork

Social work majors enroll in fieldwork in both the junior and senior years. The first B.S.W. fieldwork experience takes place during the spring semester of the junior year. In the senior year, students may fulfill their 480-hour field requirement in one of the following ways:

1. Students may take SWRK 436 in the fall semester (minimum of 4 credit hours) and SWRK 437 in the spring semester (minimum of 4 credit hours). Credits are calculated on the basis of 4 hours per week for each credit hour; hence, students are in the field for 16 hours per week over the two semesters (total 480 hours).
2. Students may take the “extended field option”: SWRK 445 in the summer (120 hours of fieldwork plus 16 hours of seminar, for 3 credit hours), SWRK 446 in the fall semester (180 hours of fieldwork at 12 hours per week for 3 credit hours), and SWRK 447 in the spring semester (180 hours of fieldwork at 12 hours per week for 3 credit hours).
3. Students may take the “extended field option”: SWRK 445, SWRK 446, and SWRK 447 at the discretion of the department.

Social Work M.S.W.

Roberta Pearlmutter
Dean, School of Social Work

M.S.W. Program Chair: Jayashree Nimmagadda

M.S.W. Program Faculty: Professors Evans, Mumm, Nimmagadda, Pearlmutter, Reamer, Siegel; Associate Professors Ghindia, Gushwa, Martell; Assistant Professors Harvey, Meade, Oliveira

The M.S.W. program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the School of Social Work is on a selective basis and is determined by the quality of the total application. The program expects applicants to meet the following requirements for admission. (Certain requirements may be waived under special circumstances; applicants must demonstrate sufficient cause in writing.):

- Evidence of a combination of personal qualities considered essential to professional social work practice. Students must be capable of working with clients and communities with populations different from themselves, with people of different faiths, sexual orientations, and cultural norms. We seek students who can demonstrate responsiveness and sensitivity in relationships, commitment to improving social conditions, and the ability to function both independently and collectively with others.
- Baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning. Students who have completed all but their last semester of baccalaureate work may also apply; however their degree must be granted by August 15. Students who received their baccalaureate degree outside the United States may need to take and score above an 80 on the computerized TOEFL. See RIC Graduate Manual.
- Evidence of the intellectual capacity to participate successfully in academic work at the graduate level. A diverse academic background with a liberal arts perspective that includes course work in the human biological sciences, humanities, mathematics, and social sciences. Specifically, an applicant is required to have:
 - A minimum grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate work;
 - At least 15 credit hours drawn from course work in anthropology, economics, political science, psychology, and sociology;
 - Course work in human anatomy, human biology, or human physiology (course work is necessary; the CLEP Examination is not sufficient); and
 - Course content in the humanities (English, language, philosophy, visual and performing arts, and Western and non-Western history).
- A commitment to social work as a profession, which may be demonstrated by experience in the field. This experience may have been attained in a variety of ways, such as through volunteer work, fieldwork experience in conjunction with course work, life experiences, etc.

Admission Procedures

Application materials may be downloaded from the School of Social Work website: www.ric.edu/socialwork/mswprogram.php. The deadline for admission is February 1.

- A completed application form accompanied by a nonrefundable $50 application fee payable to Rhode Island College.
- Official transcripts. It is the responsibility of the applicant to request official transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate programs previously attended, including community colleges, and have them sent directly to the School of Social Work. Even if the student transferred into RIC or into another college, transcripts must be requested from the previous college. The School of Social Work will obtain official transcripts for all work completed at Rhode Island College.

3. Three letters of recommendation. More than three required recommendations may be provided if the applicant wishes. Applicants must provide referees with the proper guidelines for completing letters of recommendation. (Guidelines are included with the application.) Advanced standing applicants must submit a fourth recommendation on a form included with the M.S.W. application package.
4. A personal statement. Typically six to eight double-spaced typewritten pages, the personal statement will aid the Admission Committee in assessing the applicant's qualifications for professional social work practice. Among these qualifications are: the ability to think analytically and conceptually; clarity in self-expression; responsiveness and sensitivity in minority and culturally diverse relationships; the ability to develop professional self-awareness and self-evaluation; commitment to improving social conditions; and the ability to function creatively, responsibly, and independently.

Admission Decision

Notice of acceptance will occur by April 15 for study beginning the following September. There are no midyear admissions. Within two weeks of receiving notification, accepted applicants must confirm in writing their intention to enroll in the program. Confirmation of acceptance should be addressed to the M.S.W. Department, School of Social Work. Upon accepting a place in the full-time, part-time, or advanced standing program (full or part time), the student is required to provide a nonrefundable one hundred dollar deposit, which will be applied against tuition charges for the first semester. Admitted applicants should also inform the program of any change of name or address.

Health Requirements

After being accepted, candidates are provided with an Admission Physical Examination Form, which must be completed and signed by a physician and returned directly to College Health Services before the candidate enrolls. As required by Rhode Island state law, all new entering students must present to College Health Services a certificate signed by a physician, attesting to their immunity to measles and rubella (German measles).

Advanced Standing Program

Preference in admission to advanced standing is given to students who have completed a B.S.W. during the last five years from a program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. All students accepted into this program are expected to enroll in and successfully complete an online summer preparatory course. Advanced standing students should expect to pay $375 to participate in this class. Applicants who obtained a B.S.W. degree more than five years prior to their application year can still apply to the Advanced Standing Program.

Students who are granted admission to advanced standing are exempt from the foundation year, pending completion of comparable course work. Students in the program must complete 33 credit hours and may do so in one or two years.

Student Advisement

Shortly after initial registration, a member of the faculty is appointed as the student's advisor. Thereafter, students plan their program in consultation with the advisor. Advisors assist students in developing their learning goals and objectives and in assessing their progress toward those objectives. Students are encouraged to confer with their advisors. Early in the first semester, prior to going into the concentration year(s), students in the full-time program will meet with their advisor and develop a plan of study, listing the required courses in the concentration and electives. The chair of the M.S.W. program provides advisement to students in the part-time program. Students must have an approved plan of study in order to proceed into the concentration year. Additional academic aids are available through college resources and/or special programs.

Grade Requirements

All students must have a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 at the end of the first year and an evaluation of Satisfactory or better in field education. Students who do not have the minimum 3.00 GPA may not continue in the program. No course in which the student earns a grade below a C may be accepted for M.S.W. credit.

Full-Time Program

To achieve full-time status in either year, a student must register for field instruction and at least three courses each semester. Students who are admitted full time are expected to complete the program in two years. This would require that students register for 15 credits in their first semester, 14 credits in their second, 17.5 credits in their third, and 15.5 credits in their fourth. Students are encouraged to take at least one summer or early spring course to ease the third semester workload.

Part-Time Program

Applicants who intend to retain full-time employment while attending the M.S.W. program or who have significant responsibilities in other areas should apply to the part-time program. Admission requirements and procedures are the same as those for full-time study. Part-time students are normally expected to take a minimum of two courses during the academic year. A field placement will occur in a public or private nonprofit agency after the completion of 11 credit hours of course work. Degree requirements must be met within four years. At the discretion of the M.S.W. chair, students may switch from part-time to full-time study after completing the foundation year on a part-time basis.

Fieldwork

All students, except those in the advanced standing program, are required to complete SWRK 500 (240 hours), SWRK 501 (240 hours), SWRK 600 (300 hours), and SWRK 601 (300 hours) for a total of 1,080 hours. For full-time and part-time students, this is accomplished over two academic years. Students in the advanced standing program complete SWRK 600 (300 hours) and SWRK 601 (300 hours) for a total of 600 hours. All students are expected to be available during daytime hours (8 A.M.-5 P.M.) for at least one day during the week (Monday-Friday) for field experience.

All students must take the first-year placement concurrently with SWRK 532 and SWRK 533. All students in the Clinical concentration must take SWRK 602 and SWRK 603 concurrently with second-year field placement. Macro concentration students must take SWRK 628 and SWRK 629 concurrently with their second-year field placement. It is possible to do one year of fieldwork in the student's place of employment, provided that the placement meets all the criteria for supervision and placement settings. Plans to do a placement in a student's place of employment need to be discussed with and approved by the director of field education. For all continuing students, this approval must be obtained no later than April 1 for field placements to begin in September. For all incoming full-time students, this approval must be obtained no later than July 1 for placements to begin in September.

Course Descriptions - General Information

Course Numbering System

Courses Numbered 000–099 = Noncredit courses.

Courses Numbered 100–299 = Introductory and foundational knowledge courses normally taken in the undergraduate student's initial years at the college.

Courses Numbered 300–399 = More advanced courses taken by undergraduate students.

These courses are not accepted for credit toward graduate degrees.

Courses Numbered 400–499 = Most advanced courses, typically taken by seniors, and open to graduate students for credit toward graduate degrees. The number of credits acceptable in a graduate program is limited by graduate program policies.

Courses Numbered 500–599 = Courses open to graduate students.

Normally these courses require a bachelor's degree as a prerequisite. In certain circumstances, qualified undergraduate students who have earned at least 90 credit hours may be admitted, with documented consent of the instructor and the appropriate dean.

Courses Numbered 600–699 = Courses open to graduate and doctoral students only.

Courses Numbered 700–799 = Courses open to graduate and doctoral students only.

 Courses numbered 300 and above must have a prerequisite.*

 In general, when the middle digit of a course number is 6, the course is a seminar or a*

General Education Core course; 8, a workshop; 9, directed study.

 Courses ending with an E are only open to Early Enrollment Program high school students.*

Courses with Variable Content

Most departments offer a variety of topic courses (X50), seminar courses (X60), and workshop courses (X80), for which the content and credit hours are announced each semester. Departments may offer independent study courses (X9Y). The level of study, for example, 19Y, 29Y, 39Y, etc., will depend on what is appropriate in terms of the project and the student. These courses may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Contact Hours

A number in parentheses appearing before the credit hours for a course indicates that the number of "contact hours" per week—time required in class, studio, or laboratory—differs from the number of credit hours.

Credit Hours

The number of "credit hours" specified for each course indicates both the number of credits it carries and the approximate total number of clock hours it meets each week.

Frequency of Course Offerings

Listed with each course description is the normal frequency with which the course is offered. For example, a course that is typically offered every fall semester carries the notation "Offered fall." For complete and current information on course offerings, including dates, times, locations, and instructors, students are advised to consult both the Summer/Fall and Spring Course Bulletins.

Courses

AFRI - Africana Studies

AFRI 162 - Non-Western Worlds (4)

Selected cultures and historical traditions in regions of contemporary and ancient Africa and its diaspora are studied. Students comment critically, in written and oral form, upon African experiences and ideas. Sections are titled: (1) Cape Verde and Western Africa and (2) African Social/Economic Development.

General Education Category: Core 3

Offered: Fall, Spring.

AFRI 200 - Introduction to Africana Studies (4)

This is a transdisciplinary survey of key issues in the life and history of peoples of African descent and their interaction with other peoples and world cultures. (Formerly Perspectives on African and African American Cultures.)

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer (as needed).

AFRI 261 - Bebop: African and African American Cultures and Aesthetics (4)

Students examine the African origins of bebop; the American founders, Parker and Gillespie; the hard bop of the 1950s and 1960s; and bebop's resurgence in the 1980s and 1990s.

General Education Category: Core 4

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

AFRI 262 - Cultural Issues in Africana Studies (4)

A variable topics course in which students will take a critical and empowering look at various cultural topics (e.g. music, sport, and film) regarding people of African descent.

General Education Category: Connections

Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

AFRI 310 - Martin Luther King and the Civil Rights Era (3)

The philosophy of Martin Luther King Jr. is examined. Emphasis is on King's context and contributions to the historical development of the meanings of freedom, equality, and respect for the individual and community.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200 or consent of program director.

Offered: Fall.

AFRI 320 - Hip-Hop: A Global Perspective (3)

Hip-hop's international reach and social significance are explored. Through case studies, students examine how hip-hop animates local cultural politics in an age of globalized media, migration, and transnationalism.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200 or consent of program director.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 335 - Race and Cyberspace (3)

This course explores how race and ethnicity structures online behavior. Emphasis is on prejudice, racism, power, inequality, and social transformation.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200 and SOC 200 or SOC 208.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 410 - Seminar in Comparative Race Relations (3)

The changing dynamics of race relations within a national and international framework are examined, including ideas about the causes and persistence of racism.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200 or consent of program director.

Offered: Spring.

AFRI 420 - Comparative Slave Systems (3)

This is an integrative experience in the comparative study of slave systems. Emphasis is on the study of slavery in Africa and the New World.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200 or consent of program director.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 461 - Seminar in Africana Studies (4)

Africana concepts and theory are examined within a holistic framework. Students conduct research and complete a senior paper.

Prerequisite: AFRI 200, HIST 348 or HIST 349; 12 additional credit hours of Africana studies courses; and senior standing.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member. Students who wish to pursue a creative writing project should submit a portfolio of work with their application.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the Africana studies honors program.

Offered: As needed.

AFRI 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in AFRI 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment by the department.

Prerequisite: AFRI 491 and consent of instructor, program director and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH - Anthropology

ANTH 101 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (4)

The concept of culture and its significance to an understanding of human societies are studied. Examples from a variety of societies are used to illustrate the basic approaches and concepts of cultural anthropology.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 102 - Introduction to Archaeology (4)

The methods by which archaeologists study culture and reconstruct past societies are examined through lecture-discussion, films, and laboratory exercises.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 103 - Introduction to Biological Anthropology (4)

The biocultural nature of human physical variation is examined through lecture-discussion, films, and laboratory exercises. Topics include modern variation, primatology, and paleo- anthropology. (Formerly Introduction to Physical Anthropology.)

Offered: Spring.

ANTH 104 - Introduction to Anthropological Linguistics (4)

Language is examined as a uniquely human phenomenon, with emphasis on the systematic description and analysis of communication as a socially and culturally shaped process.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall.

ANTH 118E - Anthropology (3)

Students will explore the evolution and biological variation of humans as well as the development and diversity of human culture. Open to EEP high school students only.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 162 - Non-Western Worlds (4)

Selected cultures and historical traditions that arose outside the Western experience are studied. Sections are titled: African Worlds, Amazonia, Ancient Nile, Borneo, Caribbean "Others," The Maya, Past and Future, Middle East, The Middle East: Women and Men in Non-Western Cultures, Native Americans in the Northeast.

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ANTH 167 - Music Cultures of Non-Western Worlds (4)

Selected music cultures of the non-Western world are introduced in the contexts of sounds, concepts, social interactions, and materials of music. Students cannot receive credit for both MUS 169 and ANTH 169.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 205 - Race, Culture, and Ethnicity: Anthropological Perspectives (4)

Anthropological perspectives on race and ethnicity are examined, with a key focus on how people use notions of race and culture to sustain and contest social inequalities around the world.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Odd years.

ANTH 206 - Oral Traditions (4)

Various forms of spoken traditions are studied as cultural manifestations. These include myths, legends, folktales, parables, poetry, riddles, and games.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 208 - Sex and Gender in Global Perspective (4)

Students will examine the meanings attached to biological differences between women and men in diverse locales across the globe and the power relations that shape their relationships with one another.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 214 - Peoples and Cultures of Amazonia (4)

Students will explore the myth and reality of Amazonia, focusing on surviving native peoples, their perspectives on life, intimate knowledge of the rainforest environment and critical problems threatening their survival.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 215 - The Archaeology of Ancient Civilizations (4)

The ancient civilizations of Asia, Africa, and the Americas are examined. Topics include how civilizations arise, the similarities and differences among them, and the causes of collapse.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 233 - Methods in Anthropology (4)

Students are introduced to multiple qualitative and quantitative methods for data collection and analysis, and instruction on spoken and written communication, with emphasis on ethnographic and observed data.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least three of the following courses: ANTH 101, ANTH 102, ANTH 103, ANTH 104.

Offered: Spring.

ANTH 261 - Intercultural Encounters (4)

The intersection of world cultures in historical and/or contemporary contexts is studied. Students cannot receive credit for both GED 261 and ANTH 261. Sections are titled: Arab-Islamic Culture and the West, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Tourists and Their Hosts, The West Encounters the "Other".

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ANTH 262 - Indigenous Rights and the Global Environment (4)

Using a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary approach, students will examine and comment critically on human rights and global environmental issues as they intersect and impact indigenous peoples across the world.

General Education Category: Connections

Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Fall or Spring.

ANTH 263 - Hunters and Gatherers: Designs for Living (4)

Non-Western, small-scale societies are compared to Western, complex, post-industrial societies to reveal common elements in the solutions they have developed for "designs for living."

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 265 - Anthropological Perspectives on Childhood (4)

Using comparative evolutionary, historical, and cross-cultural approaches, students examine patterns of pregnancy, childbirth and child-rearing, child development, the role of children, and how children become members of their society.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 266 - Anthropological and Indigenous Perspectives on Place (4)

Using a comparative historical and cross-cultural approach, students examine various indigenous peoples' ideas about place, and through critical inquiry learn to develop and express their own "sense of place."

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 304 - Human Paleontology (4)

Patterns in hominoid evolution, from primate beginnings to modern humans, are explored. Fossil records and artifacts are examined, with emphasis on anatomical and behavioral adaptations to changing environments.

Prerequisite: ANTH 103 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 305 - Exploring Ethnographic Film (4)

A broad perspective is given on the ethnographic category of documentary film.

Prerequisite: 100- or 200-level course in a social science or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 306 - Primate Ecology and Social Behavior (4)

Captive and field studies are examined to illustrate common features of nonhuman primates. Topics include biological and social adaptations, such as diet, communication, dominance hierarchies, social learning, and cognition.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics or natural science general education distribution.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 307 - Human Nature: Evolution, Ecology, and Behavior (4)

The behavior and ecology of humans are explored within the framework of evolutionary theory, focusing on the selective pressures of cooperation, conflict, food, predators, disease, sociality, and reproduction.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics or natural science general education distribution.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 308 - Culture, Aging, and the Life Course (4)

Multiple perspectives on aging, maturation, and the life course are examined within a variety of cultural contexts. Individual development, intergenerational relationships, and broader social impacts of aging are studied. (Formerly Cross-Cultural Studies of Aging.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, including at least one Gen. Ed. course in the social and behavioral sciences, or consent of instructor.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 309 - Medical Anthropology (4)

Anthropological approaches and results in the study of health and illness are surveyed as social, cultural, and biological phenomena.

Prerequisite: One of the following: ANTH 101, BIOL 112, HPE 233, NURS 201, PSYC 230, or SOC 217; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 310 - Language and Culture (4)

The interrelationships between language and other aspects of culture are examined as they illuminate anthropological issues and theories. (Formerly ANTH 410.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ANTH 104 or COMM 255, or consent of instructor.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 311 - North American Archaeology (4)

North American history from the first peopling of the continent to modern times is examined, including migration patterns, subsistence, environmental and social change, technology and social life.

Prerequisite: ANTH 102 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 312 - Archaeology of Mesopotamia and South Asia (4)

The archaeology of ancient Mesopotamia and South Asia is investigated. Topics include understanding the nature of civilizations; their emergence in these regions; and their culture, politics, economy and interaction with neighbors.

Prerequisite: ANTH 102 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 314 - Archaeology: Selected Regions (4)

The archaeological evidence for the development of cultures is examined, including technology, subsistence, economy, social life, political organization, religion, art and architecture (may be repeated with a change in region).

Prerequisite: ANTH 102 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 325 - South American Indians (4)

Selected indigenous societies living in South America are examined as they relate to anthropological concerns, including how their cultures reflect adaptation to physical environments as well as particular socio-cultural features.

Prerequisite: ANTH 101 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 327 - Peoples and Cultures: Selected Regions (4)

An ethnographic and historical overview of a geographic region is examined, emphasizing the diversity of cultures and societies. Topics may include economic organization, domestic life, religion, migration, colonization or modernization (may be repeated with a change in region).

Prerequisite: ANTH 101 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 330 - Language Endangerment and Linguistic Revitalization (4)

Students examine the value of linguistic diversity on a global scale, its importance for humanity, the causes and extent of language endangerment and possible solutions through language maintenance and revitalization.

Prerequisite: ANTH 104 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 332 - Applied Anthropology (4)

Students explore the history, evolution, methods, objectives, and applications of the practical involvement of anthropology in understanding and solving human problems.

Prerequisite: ANTH 101 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 333 - Comparative Law and Justice (4)

Systems of law and justice are examined in prestate and state societies to understand the operation of law and justice in cross-cultural contexts and in the United States. Students cannot receive credit for both SOC 333 and ANTH 333. (Formerly ANTH 303.)

Prerequisite: Any 100- or 200-level course in a social science.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ANTH 334 - Steamships and Cyberspace: Technology, Culture, Society (4)

The invention and evolution of a range of technologies, such as railroads and cell phones, are explored using current anthropological concepts and case studies from various cultures and time periods.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any Gen. Ed. course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 337 - Anthropological Approaches to Religion (4)

The content, structure, concepts, and functions of religion are studied, with emphasis on relationships to other aspects of culture and society.

Prerequisite: 100- or 200-level course in a social science or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 338 - Urban Anthropology (4)

Western and non-Western traditions in urbanization are compared and contrasted. Cross-cultural comparisons are emphasized.

Prerequisite: ANTH 101 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 343 - Environmental Anthropology (4)

Students are introduced to the field of environmental anthropology, focusing broadly on the interrelationships between environmental change and human conflict, culture and nature, and science and environmental policy.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits and any General Education course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 345 - Museums, Cultures, and Others (4)

Students learn about the history of museums and explore how they shape and reflect identities. Museum exhibits are analyzed from a variety of perspectives in order to understand their effectiveness.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any Gen. Ed. course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 346 - Anthropology of Economic Development and Globalization (4)

Social and cultural transformations associated with economic development and globalization are examined. Transformations in development practice associated with the rise of neoliberal ("free-trade") economics are emphasized.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate Years.

ANTH 347 - Environmental Justice (4)

The development of social movements and politics at the intersections of society, environment and justice, is explored, focusing primarily on historic and contemporary cases of environmental justice struggle.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits and any General Education course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 348 - History of Anthropological Thought (4)

Anthropology, from its scientific and philosophical roots to its current status, is surveyed. Emphasis is on the major contributions and theoretical debates of anthropology and the historical contexts of their development. (Formerly ANTH 401: Issues in Anthropological Theory.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ANTH 101, ANTH 102, ANTH 103, and ANTH 104.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 390 - Directed Study (1-4)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits; completion of at least two of the following courses: ANTH 101, ANTH 102, ANTH 103, ANTH 104; and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 402 - Evolution of the Capacity for Culture (4)

The evolution of the biological and social capacities that made culture the central attribute of humans is examined. Topics include evolution of the human diet, tool making, social interaction, and language. (Formerly ANTH 302.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least one of the following: ANTH 304, ANTH 306, or BIOL 221; or consent of instructor.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 424 - North American Indians (4)

Selected societies of Native North America are examined as they relate to anthropological concerns and contribute to an understanding of the similarities and variations in cultures of the region.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 431 - Gender, Environment and Development (4)

The gender dimensions of environmental change are explored, with an emphasis on changes linked to economic development. Sample topics include gender and agriculture, water privatization, conservation, toxics and climate change.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

ANTH 460 - Seminar in Anthropology (4)

Anthropological concepts and theory are examined within a holistic framework. Students conduct research and complete a senior paper. Required of majors.

Prerequisite: Senior standing and ANTH 101, ANTH 102, ANTH 103, ANTH 104, and ANTH 233.

Offered: Fall.

ANTH 461 - Latinos in the United States (3)

The experiences and perspectives of Latinos in the United States are examined. Students cannot credit for both ANTH 461 and SSCI 461.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and any course in a social or behavioral science, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 470 - Reading Course in Anthropology (1-4)

Directed reading is given in an anthropological area of interest to the student and the instructor.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of advisor, department chair, and instructor with whom student plans to study.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 481 - Anthropology Field School: Cultural Anthropology (4-8)

This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 482 - Anthropology Field School: Archaeology (4-8)

This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 483 - Anthropology Field School: Biological Anthropology (4-8)

This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 484 - Anthropology Field School: Anthropological Linguistics (4-8)

This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 490 - Independent Study in Anthropology (1-4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member. May be repeated with a different topic or continuation of a non-honors project.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 90 college credits and consent of dean, department chair and instructor with whom student plans to study.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 491 - Independent Study I (4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 90 college credits; consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the anthropology honors program.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 492 - Independent Study II (4)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ANTH 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: ANTH 491, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 495 - Internships in Anthropology (1-8)

Students are placed in positions appropriate to their studies in anthropology, such as in museums and historical preservation agencies. A program of study is designed by the student and supervised by a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ANTH 561 - Latinos in the United States (3)

Students examine recent scholarship on Latinos in the United States and undertake research projects that focus on Latino educational issues. Students may receive credit for only one of the following: ANTH 561, FNED 561, or SSCI 561.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and any 300-level social or behavioral science course, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARBC - Arabic

ARBC 101 - Elementary Arabic I (4)

Students learn to understand, speak, read, and write in basic Modern Standard Arabic and gain an understanding of the diversity of Arabic life.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARBC 102 - Elementary Arabic II (4)

Four skills in Modern Standard Arabic—speaking, reading, writing, and listening comprehension—are further developed within the context of Arabic-speaking cultures.

Prerequisite: ARBC 101 or equivalent.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART - Art

ART 101 - Drawing I: General Drawing (4)

The fundamentals and history of freehand drawing are explored. Observational analysis of forms and space, media characteristics, and pictorial organization approaches are stressed. Studio.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 104 - Design I: Two-Dimensional Design (4)

Two-dimensional compositional strategies are applied through intuitive and logical organization of visual elements. Students also develop basic problem-solving skills while learning to think visually. Studio.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 105 - Drawing II (3)

Drawing from the human figure is introduced, including basic anatomy, general nomenclature, and consideration of various artistic problems. Students work from live models, the skeleton, and anatomy texts. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 101.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 107 - Foundations in Digital Media (3)

Combines and extends elements from ART 101 and ART 104 with more advanced exploration and research of digital still and moving images for art making. Includes digital photography shooting lab. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 101 and ART 104.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 114 - Design II: Three-Dimensional Design (3)

The sequential development of planar and volumetric forms in real space provide the basis for study of visual structure. The role that media, process, and problem solving have in the development of form are also covered. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 104.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 202 - Painting I (3)

The techniques of oil painting are introduced. Color, value, line, form, texture, and compositional problems are explored by observing objects and nature. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 204 - Synthesis/Three-Dimensional Emphasis (3)

Using three-dimensional techniques, a synthesis of the skills and concepts developed in the previous four foundation courses is realized. The interaction of two- and three-dimensional approaches is stressed. Includes wood shop lab. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 105 and ART 114.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 205 - Synthesis/Two-Dimensional Emphasis (3)

Emphasis is on the synthesis of basic drawing language and fundamental design skills. Extended possibilities for the manipulation of materials and the conceptual aspects of image construction are stressed. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 105 and ART 114.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 206 - Ceramics I (3)

Basic hand-building methods and simple direct decoration techniques are introduced. Students explore clay, glaze materials, and firing procedures at earthenware temperatures. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 is prerequisite for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 207 - Digital Media I (3)

Students learn a wide range of digital techniques for 2D time-based works. Class demos and critiques focus on the use of such techniques in contemporary video art world. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 107 and concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 208 - Printmaking: Intaglio and Monotype (3)

The materials and techniques of monotype and intaglio printmaking are introduced, with emphasis on the aesthetic and conceptual possibilities of various approaches. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Spring.

ART 210 - Nurturing Artistic and Musical Development (4)

This hands-on art and music course provides students with experiences, knowledge, skills, and ideas for cultivating artistic development in their own lives and the lives of others. No prior artistic experience required.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 217 - Introduction to Photography (3)

Emphasis is on the expressive potential of the medium through the creative use of theory, camera controls, and darkroom procedures. Print quality is stressed. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 is prerequisite for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 218 - Printmaking: Lithography and Relief (3)

The materials and techniques of relief and lithographic printmaking are introduced, with emphasis on the aesthetic and conceptual possibilities of various approaches. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Fall.

ART 221 - Metalsmithing and Jewelry: Basic Fabrication/Forming (3)

Fabrication and forming processes are studied, with emphasis on the development of design concepts and skills in their application to the studio practice of metalsmithing and jewelry. Studio. (Formerly Metal I.)

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 223 - Metalsmithing and Jewelry: Casting/Duplication Processes (3)

Casting and its application in the design and production of jewelry and small art metal forms are studied using a variety of waxes and techniques to develop models. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 224 - Graphic Design I (3)

Students research concept, preliminary forms, analysis, and basic studio and computer skills. Included are conceptual and visual problem-solving and graphic design theory related to creative organization of space using typography and image. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 107 and concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 are prerequisites for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 225 - Figurative Modeling (3)

Elements that emphasize three-dimensional aspects of the figure and the development of figurative concepts are realized through modeling and drawing. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 105.

Offered: Fall.

ART 226 - Pixel-Based Digital Design (3)

Technical and aesthetic aspects of digital art are studied, including photographic imagery, Web graphics, creative expression, design, conceptual development, and visual thinking. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 101 and ART 104.

Offered: Fall.

ART 227 - Vector-Based Digital Design (3)

Technical and aesthetic aspects of digital art are studied, including typography and graphics, creative expression, information design, conceptual development, and visual thinking. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 101 and ART 104.

Offered: Spring.

ART 231 - Prehistoric to Renaissance Art (4)

The fundamental concepts and functions of the history of art, visual analysis, and interpretation are introduced. Focus is on the painting, sculpture, and architecture of early Europe and the Near East. Lecture.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ART 232 - Renaissance to Modern Art (4)

Focusing on European painting, sculpture, architecture, and the minor arts of the past 500 years, the basic aims of ART 231 are developed further. Lecture.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ART 234 - Sculpture: Wood and Alternate Materials (3)

Students explore a variety of subject matter and develop a personalized vision using wood fabrication skills introduced in class. Plastics, assemblage, and student-selected alternate materials are also explored. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Spring.

ART 235 - Sculpture: Metal Casting and Fabrication (3)

Traditional and contemporary approaches to sculptural form are explored using metalworking techniques, including welding, cold fabrication, forging, and casting. Studio.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Fall.

ART 302 - Painting II (3)

Focusing on the figure, this course continues the development of concepts begun in ART 202. Students are encouraged to explore individual concepts, with emphasis on style, technique, and materials. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 202.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 306 - Ceramics II (3)

Emphasis is on the use of the potter's wheel and on firing at stoneware temperatures. Stress is on developing greater sensitivity to clay and glazes, experimentation, and skill. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 206 is prerequisite for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 307 - Digital Media II (3)

Students learn advanced digital 3D strategies for the visual industry and contemporary art making. Students adapt 3D modeling techniques through solving a series of formal and conceptual problems. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 207

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 324 - Graphic Design II (3)

Students investigate conceptual and visual problem solving through expanded graphic design projects. Emphasis is on the development of ideas, the manipulation of typography, image, and graphic design principles. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 224.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 331 - Greek and Roman Art (3)

Greek and Roman art from the tenth century B.C. to the fourth century A.D. are studied. Focus is on the differing character and functions of this art and on its importance for the development of Western art. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Spring.

ART 332 - Renaissance Art (3)

Focusing on the concept of the Renaissance from the fourteenth to the sixteenth centuries, this course surveys developments in painting, sculpture, and architecture in major European centers. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Fall.

ART 333 - Baroque Art (3)

Beginning with changes occurring in Rome around 1600, this course surveys seventeenth-century European art, with emphasis on Italian art. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Spring.

ART 334 - American Art and Architecture (3)

Painting, sculpture, and architecture from colonial times to the Armory Show of 1913 are examined, with particular attention given to problems of indigenous tradition. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Fall.

ART 336 - Nineteenth-Century European Art (3)

Beginning with the manifestation of romanticism and neoclassicism in late eighteenth-century European art, this course then follows the nineteenth-century developments of realism, naturalism, and symbolism. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Fall.

ART 337 - Twentieth-Century Art (3)

The development of modernism, dada, and surrealism in European centers, and American post-World War II and contemporary trends are traced through painting and sculpture. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

ART 338 - History of Photography (3)

Focus is on the origin and aesthetic evolution of fine art photography. Movements in theory and criticism relevant to photography are explored in relation to parallel developments in other visual arts. Lecture.

Prerequisite: ART 231 and ART 232, or consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

ART 347 - Photography II (3)

Focus is on advanced photographic theory, philosophy, and technique. Students are expected to develop a portfolio theme through mature sensitivity in handling the medium. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 107 and ART 217.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 400 - Issues for the Studio Artist (4)

Studio art majors engage in issues pertinent to their roles as professional visual artists, including the articulation of personal vision, the influences of social and formal issues, and the role of galleries, museums, and educational institutions.

Prerequisite: ART 231, ART 232, and all foundations courses required of B.F.A. majors.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 460 - Seminar in the Visual Arts (3)

Various historical and theoretical topics in the visual arts are explored. Lecture.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

ART 461 - Seminar in Art History (3)

Through readings, discussions, and papers on selected topics, students explore specific problems in art history, including interpretation and methodology. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content. Lecture.

Prerequisite: Advanced class standing and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 490 - Problems in the Visual Arts (1-6)

Students select, with approval, a specific area and medium for advanced investigation. Evidence of performance is presented in completed art work. A 6-credit-hour maximum for any single area of study. Studio.

Prerequisite: Completion of most advanced courses offered in area of study, upper-class standing, and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ART 491 - Studio III: Topic (1-6)

Students explore advanced involvement in specific studio concentrations, with emphasis on development of a personal direction. A professional attitude of self-regulation in developing ideas and executing work is expected. Studio.

Prerequisite: All 200- and 300-level courses in the topic area or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 492 - Studio IV: Topic (1-6)

A continuation of advanced studio studies, this course continues the in-depth development of a personal direction. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 491 and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 493 - Reading and Research in Art History (3)

Working individually with the instructor, the student continues the exploration of Greek and Roman art, Renaissance art, baroque art, American art, or modern art.

Prerequisite: Lecture course in respective area and consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

ART 497 - Senior Studio (1-6)

This final course in advanced studio culminates in an exhibition. In-depth exploration, conceptual inquiry, and articulation skills are promoted in relation to each student's personal direction. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 492 and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 560 - Graduate Seminar in the Visual Arts (3)

Focus is on current issues concerning philosophical, historical, and aesthetic problems in art. Structural concepts, relevant methods of inquiry, social and formal issues, and articulation of personal vision are examined.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

ART 590 - Directed Graduate Study (4)

Students conduct independent research and/or studio exploration in the visual arts under the supervision of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair. Open to candidates in the master's programs in art.

Offered: As needed.

ART 594 - Graduate Studio: Topic (1-6)

A professional level of work is required in both technique and attitude in this advanced study in the topic area. This course concludes with an Art Department Graduate Committee review. Studio.

Prerequisite: 400-level course in the topic.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 595 - Graduate Studio: Topic (1-6)

A continuation of ART 594, this course concludes with an Art Department Graduate Committee review. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 594 and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 596 - Graduate Studio: Topic (1-6)

Independent professional research is required, demonstrating continuity, integrity, and innovation in a particular area. This course concludes with an Art Department Graduate Committee review. Studio.

Prerequisite: ART 595 and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 691 - Thesis (3)

Students research and complete their thesis project under the direction of their thesis advisor. Credit for this course is contingent on final approval of the thesis.

Prerequisite: Acceptance of thesis proposal and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTE - Art Education

ARTE 303 - Introduction to Art Education (3)

Prospective art educators are oriented to the field of art as a discipline and to concepts of teaching and learning in art. Observational and studio experiences are included. (Formerly ARTE 203.)

Prerequisite: ART 204 or ART 205.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 340 - Methods and Materials in Art Education (2)

Children's artistic expression in relation to research and current approaches to art education are covered. Included are studio workshop experiences with art materials used in the elementary classroom. Not open to art education majors.

Prerequisite: Completion of college writing requirement and Gen. Ed. arts requirement.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ARTE 404 - Secondary Practicum in Art Education (3)

Teaching concepts, lesson plan development, and evaluation for secondary school art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in secondary art classrooms, and introductory teaching experiences.

Prerequisite: Admission to the art education teacher preparation program, ARTE 303, and 24 credit hours of art courses.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 405 - Elementary Practicum in Art Education (3)

Artistic development, teaching models, and curriculum development for elementary school art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in elementary art classrooms, and introductory teaching experiences.

Prerequisite: ARTE 404 and 33 credit hours of art courses.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 421 - Art in the Elementary School (3)

The objectives of an art program in the elementary grades are considered as well as the means of developing, presenting, encouraging, and evaluating programs.

Prerequisite: ARTE 340 or elementary teaching experience, and consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

ARTE 426 - Student Teaching in Art Education (10)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary and secondary school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 464; satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; special departmental requirements; a cumulative GPA of 2.67 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; completion of the community service requirement; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 464 - Student Teaching Seminar in Art Education (2)

Teacher behaviors appropriate to effective teaching are developed. Topics include classroom and time management, effective communication, learning styles, and teaching strategies. This seminar meets weekly.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 426.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 503 - Graduate Introduction to Art Education (3)

Prospective art educators are oriented to the field of art as a discipline and to concepts of teaching and learning in art. Included are graduate-level research projects as well as observational and studio experiences.

Prerequisite: Application or acceptance into the M.A.T. in art education program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 504 - Graduate Secondary Practicum in Art Education (3)

Teaching concepts, lesson plan development, and evaluation for secondary art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in secondary school art classrooms, and introductory teaching experiences

Prerequisite: CEP 552, prior or concurrent enrollment in ARTE 503, and acceptance into the M.A.T. in art education program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 505 - Graduate Elementary Practicum in Art Education (3)

Artistic development, teaching models, and curriculum development for elementary school art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in elementary school art classrooms, and introductory teaching experiences.

Prerequisite: ARTE 504.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 515 - Curriculum in Art Education (3)

Curriculum theory and development of art programs at elementary and secondary schools are identified, analyzed, and critiqued. Initiatives for site-specific curriculum development or revision are begun. Seminar.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

ARTE 525 - Graduate Student Teaching in Art Education (10)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary and secondary school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: ARTE 505, CEP 552, FNED 546; concurrent enrollment in ARTE 562; a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all required courses in the M.A.T. program in art education prior to student teaching; a minimum grade of C+ in all professional education courses; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 562 - Graduate Seminar in Student Teaching in Art Education (2)

Teacher behaviors appropriate to effective teaching are developed. Topics include classroom and time management, effective communication, learning styles, and teaching strategies. This seminar meets weekly.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 525.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 591 - Readings and Research in Art Education (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTE 613 - Research and Evaluation in Art (3)

Art research and evaluation are analyzed for design, methodology, and conceptual foundations. Emphasis is on interpreting, understanding, and critiquing original research or evaluation projects in art or art education.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM - Art Media

ARTM 521 - Electronic Media Production I (4)

The fundamentals of multimedia production, including logical and intuitive approaches as applied to graphic design, photography, animation, audio, and video, are covered. Studio.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 522 - Electronic Media Production II (4)

Study is made of the hypermedia environment as an interactive synthesis of diverse elements, including text, sound, moving and still photography, video, and animation. Studio.

Prerequisite: ARTM 521.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 523 - Digital Portfolio I (4)

Students develop a personal vision and learn to conceive, design, and produce hypermedia projects. Various media models are tested against topics. Students also prepare their proposals for ARTM 524. Studio.

Prerequisite: ARTM 522.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 524 - Digital Portfolio II (4)

In this capstone course, students consolidate their skills, while focusing on a specific topic and format. Studio.

Prerequisite: ARTM 523 and a written proposal submitted to and accepted by the instructor.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 532 - Media Ethics (4)

The ethical context of contemporary media is examined.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 541 - Media Aesthetics (4)

The theoretical study of aesthetic principles and creative uses of media as art forms and not simply as transmission devices are presented. Students also examine theories governing the aesthetics of visual communication media.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 542 - Media Culture and Theory I (4)

From a historico-theoretical foundation, students analyze new media and the transformations of traditional media into its recent electronic incarnations.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 543 - Media Culture and Theory II (4)

From a theoretical foundation, students examine new media, evolving technologies, and the changes in culture, society, and media that have accompanied the rise of the computer and postmodernism.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 579 - Media Studies Internship (1-4)

Students gain a more comprehensive understanding of electronic media through on-the-job training. Instruction, supervision, and practice in professional careers and specialties are provided. (Formerly COMM 579.)

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 590 - Directed Study in Media Studies (4)

Students conduct independent research in new media and/or engage in independent electronic media production under the supervision of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 691 - Thesis in Media Studies (4)

Students research and complete their thesis project under the direction of their thesis advisor. Credit for this course is contingent on final approval of the thesis.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC - Bilingual Bicultural Education

BLBC 515 - Bilingual Education Issues (3)

Bilingual education and its application in the United States are examined. Recent major research is also examined, critiqued, and discussed.

(Formerly BLBC 451.)

Prerequisite: 6 credit hours of teacher education courses or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

BLBC 516 - Methods and Materials in Bilingual-Bicultural Education (3)

Methods and materials in bilingual-bicultural education are identified and analyzed. Materials on the national and international levels are discussed.

(Formerly BLBC 416.)

Prerequisite: 6 credit hours of teacher education courses or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

BLBC 517 - Curriculum Issues in Bilingual-Bicultural Education (3)

Curriculum issues relating to second-language acquisition at both the elementary and secondary levels are identified and analyzed. Curriculum models are researched and evaluated. (Formerly BLBC 517.)

Prerequisite: BLBC 547 or TESL 546.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 539 - Language Acquisition and Learning (3)

Theory and research relating to first- and second-language acquisition and learning are examined from a pedagogical perspective. Students cannot receive credit for both BLBC 539 and TESL 539. (Formerly BLBC 439.)

Prerequisite: 6 credit hours of teacher education courses or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 547 - Concepts in Bilingual-Bicultural Education (3)

Methods and materials relating to bilingual and bicultural learning situations at all levels are examined and compared. Essential components of a bilingual-bicultural program are identified and implemented.

(Formerly BLBC 447.)

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 562 - Seminar in Bilingual Education (3)

Focus is on developing appropriate investigative skills and methodologies in conducting bilingual classroom-centered research. Students attend weekly seminar discussions.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and 24 credit hours of graduate courses, including BLBC 517 and BLBC 547.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL - Biology

BIOL 100 - Fundamental Concepts of Biology (4)

Unifying concepts from various levels of biological organization are considered. This course is for students pursuing studies other than the natural sciences. Lecture and laboratory. Not open to biology and clinical laboratory science majors. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 100 and BIOL 109.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 103 - Human Biology (3)

The fundamental principles and concepts of biology as they pertain to the human organism are introduced. This course is intended for students who are pursuing studies in areas other than the natural sciences. Lecture.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 108 - Basic Principles of Biology (4)

Basic biological principles are introduced. This course prepares students for courses in anatomy, physiology, and microbiology. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included). Not open to biology majors.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 111 - Introductory Biology I (4)

Emphasis is on the molecular and cellular nature of living systems. This course is intended for science majors and any student with an interest in science. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 112 - Introductory Biology II (4)

Emphasis is on organismal and ecological levels of organization. This course is intended for science majors and any student with an interest in science. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included).

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 with a minimum grade of C-.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 213 - Introductory Physiology of Plants and Animals (4)

Physiologic mechanisms of multicellular organisms are introduced. Emphasis is on evolutionary adaptations of flowering plants and vertebrates.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112.

Offered: Spring.

BIOL 221 - Genetics (4)

A balanced treatment of classical Mendelian concepts, population topics, and the recent advances in molecular genetics are presented. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: Fall.

BIOL 231 - Human Anatomy (4)

By using a systematic approach, study is made of the human organism with respect to the histological and gross anatomy. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included).

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 240 - Biostatistics (4)

Elementary probability theory serves as a foundation to learn research design, sampling, hypothesis testing, and statistical inferences in biology. Students use SPSS to statistically analyze problems typical of biological research.

Prerequisite: Completion of college mathematics competency and a grade of C or better in BIOL 100, BIOL 108 or BIOL 112.

Offered: Spring.

BIOL 241 - Biology Research Colloquium (0.5)

Students attend formal scientific research seminars given by invited outside speakers from diverse fields of biology. Students discuss the research with the speaker and their peers. This course must be taken for two semesters.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

BIOL 261 - The World's Forests (4)

Interactions between people and the three major types of forests of the world (boreal, temperate, and tropical) are explored from historical, ecological, cultural, socioeconomic, environmental, and ethical perspectives.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Fall (even years).

BIOL 300 - Developmental Biology of Animals (4)

A descriptive and experimental approach is applied to animal ontogeny, with consideration of cell fate determination, differentiation, morphogenesis, and pattern formation. Lecture and laboratory. (Formerly Developmental Biology.)

Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, BIOL 221, and completion or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 320.

Offered: Spring.

BIOL 318 - Ecology (4)

The ecosystem is introduced. Emphasis is on how the interaction of environmental factors has shaped, influenced, and controlled the distribution of biomes, communities, and populations. Lecture, laboratory, and field trips.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: Fall.

BIOL 320 - Cell and Molecular Biology (4)

The structure and function of cells as living units are presented. Cell metabolism, reproduction, and steady-state controls are discussed. The biochemical and ultrastructural nature of cells is examined. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, BIOL 221; CHEM 205.

Offered: Spring.

BIOL 321 - Invertebrate Zoology (4)

Study is made of common invertebrate types, their life histories, adaptive morphology, and physiology, with respect to their environment and to their phylogenetic position. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 329 - Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy (4)

Comparison of the anatomy and functions of the vertebrates from the evolutionary point of view is presented. Included is detailed dissection of selected representatives from five classes of vertebrates. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 335 - Human Physiology (4)

Basic principles of physiology are introduced, with emphasis on homeostatic mechanisms. Attention is given to the functions of organ systems and coordination in the whole human organism. (Formerly Vertebrate Physiology.)

General Education Category: Gen. Ed. Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better and BIOL 231.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 340 - Histology (4)

Structural characteristics of mammalian cells, tissues, and organs are examined in detail. At each of these levels of organization, functional correlates of microanatomical features are emphasized. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and 112, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 348 - Microbiology (4)

Microbial structure and metabolism, dynamics of microbial populations, disease causation, microbial genetics, and virology are presented. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 353 - The Plant Kingdom (4)

The major groups of plants are surveyed, with emphasis on evolutionary aspects, reproductive strategies, and ecological interrelationships.

Structural features of plant cells, tissues, and organs are emphasized.

Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 354 - Plant Growth and Development (4)

Topics include photophysiology, nitrogen metabolism, phytohormones, translocation, mineral nutrition, and the anatomical structures associated with these processes. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 420 - Biochemistry of Proteins and Nucleic Acids (3)

The physical and chemical properties and metabolism of proteins and nucleic acids are discussed. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 420 and CHEM 420. Lecture. (Formerly BIOL 410: Biochemistry I.)

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency, CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 421 - Biochemistry of Energy Metabolism (3)

The physical and chemical properties of carbohydrates and lipids are presented. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 421 and CHEM 421. Lecture. (Formerly BIOL 411: Biochemistry II.)

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency, CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 429 - Medical Microbiology (4)

This is a study of medically important microorganisms, with emphasis on the molecular mechanisms of pathogenicity. (Formerly Advanced Microbiology.)

Prerequisite: BIOL 348; CHEM 205, CHEM 206.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 431 - Immunology (3)

This is a study of animal immune responses, with emphasis on the properties of antigens and immunoglobulins, cellular communication, pathology, and the development and regulation of humoral and cellular immunity. Lecture.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better; CHEM 205, CHEM 206; or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 435 - Comparative Animal Physiology (3)

This is an exploration of diverse physiological adaptations to environmental conditions. Particular emphasis is placed on the wide variety of mechanisms that animals use to cope with diverse environmental conditions.

Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112 with a grade of C or better, and BIOL 221.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 440 - Evolution (3)

An interdisciplinary approach is used to examine evolutionary trends of plants and animals, the origin of life, molecular evolution, and speciation. Lecture.

Prerequisite: BIOL 221.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 445 - Behavioral Neuroscience (4)

Advanced assessment of neural systems and function is presented, with an emphasis on techniques and laboratory approaches. Neuroscience labs include anatomical, physiological, pharmacological, genetic, and behavioral analyses in animal models. Credit cannot be received for both PSYC 445 and BIOL 445.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency, PSYC 110, PSYC 221 and PSYC 345.

Offered: Annually.

BIOL 460 - Biology Senior Seminar (3)

Topics covering the breadth of biology content are synthesized in this capstone experience. Skills emphasized are writing and oral presentation in science. A content examination and literature review are required. Graded H, S, U.

Prerequisite: Senior status (90 credit hours successfully completed), BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, BIOL 221, BIOL 318, BIOL 320; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

BIOL 491-494 - Research in Biology (1-4)

The experimental aspects and recent advances in different fields of biology are examined. Research projects and papers on the work accomplished are required. Not open to students enrolled in the M.A. program in biology.

Prerequisite: Two 300-level biology courses and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer

BIOL 526 - Molecular Cell Physiology (3)

Topics may include solution chemistry, membrane structure, gene regulation, homeostasis, and cell organelle structure and function. Lecture. (Formerly Cell Morphology and Physiology.)

Prerequisite: BIOL 320; CHEM 205, CHEM 206.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 531 - Mammalian Endocrinology (3)

Topics include neuroendocrinology, hypothalamic-pituitary relationships, mechanisms of hormone action, endocrine aspects of reproduction, carbohydrate metabolism, calcium homeostasis, and water/electrolyte balance. Lecture.

Prerequisite: Two 300-level or above biology courses and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 532 - Advanced Developmental Biology (4)

The molecular regulation of development, differentiation, control of the cell cycle, and regeneration are examined, with emphasis on recent research. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 221, BIOL 300, BIOL 320, or equivalents.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 533 - Research Methods in Molecular Biology (4)

Students undertake a single semester-long research project, which requires the integration of diverse biological facts, principles, and techniques in order to answer a novel biological question.

Prerequisite: Senior undergraduate or graduate status, with consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BIOL 535 - Advanced Physiology I (4)

Examination of human physiology and pathophysiology in relationship to anesthesia practice. This course will utilize a systems approach to the topics of cellular physiology, neurophysiology, cardiovascular and respiratory physiology.

Prerequisite: Enrollment in the M.S.N. nurse anesthesia program or permission of the instructor.

Offered: Fall.

BIOL 536 - Advanced Physiology II (4)

Continuation of the examination of human physiologic concepts. This course will utilize a systems approach to the topics of renal and acid-base, gastrointestinal, and endocrine concepts.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite(s): BIOL 535.

Offered: Spring.

BIOL 560 - Graduate Seminar (1)

Students investigate a current biological topic using primary literature and develop skills that contribute to effective oral and written presentations in science.

Prerequisite: Graduate status. Open to undergraduates with consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

BIOL 651-654 - Advanced Topics in Biology (1-4)

Individual study is provided under the direction of a faculty member of the biology department. Topics vary.

Prerequisite: Normally open only to students enrolled in the M.A. program in biology.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 691-696 - Directed Research (1-6)

Students investigate an experimental question in biology under the direction of an advisor. Open only to students enrolled in the M.A. program in biology.

Prerequisite: Consent of advisor and department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CTE - Career and Technical Education

CTE 300 - Methods of Teaching Career and Technical Education (4)

Students are introduced to teaching career and technical education at the secondary and post-secondary levels. Topics include basic planning and teaching skills, writing skills, and strategies for identifying, organizing, and presenting lessons. (Only open to students enrolled for career and technical education certification.)

Prerequisite: CEP 315 or equivalent, with minimum grade of C; minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

CTE 302 - Curriculum Construction in Career and Technical Education (3)

Students develop the competencies needed to identify, write, and implement a curriculum in their occupational area. (Only open to students enrolled for career and technical education certification.)

Prerequisite: CEP 315 and FNED 346.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM - Chemistry

CHEM 103 - General Chemistry I (4)

Topics include atomic theory, periodicity, bonding, reactions, stoichiometry, gas laws, and thermochemistry. Laboratory experiments illustrate these concepts and develop laboratory techniques. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 103H - Honors General Chemistry I (4)

For students with a good background in science and mathematics. Topics are listed in and experiments are similar to CHEM 103, with increased emphasis on instrumentation and independent work. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall.

CHEM 104 - General Chemistry II (4)

Topics include states of matter, solutions, kinetics, acids and bases, equilibrium theory, thermodynamics, and electrochemistry. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: CHEM 103 or equivalent with a minimum grade of C-.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 104H - Honors General Chemistry II (4)

For students with a good background in science and mathematics. Topics are listed in and experiments are similar to CHEM 104, with increased emphasis on instrumentation and independent work. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: CHEM 103H or equivalent with a minimum grade of C-.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM 105 - General, Organic and Biological Chemistry I (4)

General chemistry in preparation for studying organic and biochemistry is introduced, including structure, bonding, energy, reactions, rates, equilibrium, acids and bases; and from organic chemistry, alkanes and alkenes. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 106 - General, Organic, and Biological Chemistry II (4)

Topics include alcohols, carbonyl compounds, amines, amides, carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, enzymes, bioenergetics, catabolism, biosynthesis, nucleic acids, hormones, and neurotransmitters. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: CHEM 105 with a minimum grade of C-.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 205 - Organic Chemistry I (4)

Topics include structure, stereochemistry, nomenclature, and chemistry of hydrocarbons and alkyl halides, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms, and computational chemistry. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 104 with a minimum grade of C-.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

CHEM 206 - Organic Chemistry II (4)

Topics include reactions of functional groups, synthesis and mechanism, spectroscopic identification, and topics in biochemistry and computational chemistry. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 205.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

CHEM 310 - Biochemistry (3)

Topics include biological macromolecule structure, function and interactions, catalysis and kinetics of biochemistry, acid-base equilibrium in biological systems, and thermodynamics of binding and recognition. Lecture.

Prerequisite: CHEM 206.

Offered: Fall (even years).

CHEM 403 - Inorganic Chemistry I (3)

Topics include electronic structure of atoms, bonding, solids, coordination chemistry, acid-base theory, nonaqueous solvents, periodicity, and some main group chemistry.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in CHEM 405, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

CHEM 404 - Analytical Chemistry (4)

Topics include the principles and applications of volumetric, gravimetric, and selected instrumental methods of analysis, including potentiometric and spectroscopic methods. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 104, PHYS 102 or PHYS 201, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (even years).

CHEM 405 - Physical Chemistry I (3)

Through rigorous quantitative approaches, properties of gases, kinetic molecular theory, thermodynamics, statistical mechanics, and chemical and phase equilibrium are presented. Differential and integral calculus are used extensively. Lecture.

Prerequisite: CHEM 104, MATH 213, and PHYS 102 or PHYS 201.

Offered: Fall.

CHEM 406 - Physical Chemistry II (3)

Through rigorous quantitative approaches, quantum mechanics, atomic structure, atomic spectra, chemical bonding, molecular spectra, and chemical kinetics are presented. Differential and integral calculus are used extensively. Lecture.

Prerequisite: CHEM 104, MATH 314, and PHYS 102 or PHYS 201.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM 407 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory I (1)

Experiments involving topics covered in CHEM 405 are performed. The experimental methods of physical chemistry are developed. Error analysis, statistical methods, and computer applications are emphasized.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite or corequisite: CHEM 405.

Offered: Fall.

CHEM 408 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory II (1)

This is a continuation of CHEM 407. Experiments involving chemical kinetics, molecular spectroscopy, photochemistry, computational chemistry, and other topics covered in CHEM 406 are performed.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite or corequisite: CHEM 406.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM 412 - Inorganic Chemistry II (2)

Topics include molecular orbital theory, symmetry, spectral and magnetic properties of coordination compounds, and selected main group and organometallic chemistry.

Prerequisite: CHEM 403.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM 413 - Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory (1)

Experiments illustrate main group periodicity, coordination and organometallic compounds' properties, and techniques, including the use of inert atmospheres and microwave acceleration of rates.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in CHEM 406 and CHEM 412.

Offered: Spring.

CHEM 414 - Instrumental Methods of Analysis (4)

Emphasis is on the areas of spectroscopy, electrochemistry, chromatography, and other identification and separation techniques using instrumental methods. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 404 and CHEM 405.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

CHEM 416 - Environmental Analytical Chemistry (4)

Topics include the principles and applications of volumetric, gravimetric, and selected instrumental methods of analysis, including potentiometric and spectroscopic methods, with emphasis on environmental applications. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 104; PHYS 102 or PHYS 201.

Offered: Fall (even years).

CHEM 418 - Marine Environmental Chemistry (4)

Examines biogeochemical cycling of material in the environment, including major and trace element distributions in seawater, environmental chemical equilibria, nutrient distributions and role of ocean in global climate. Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 417 and CHEM 418.

Prerequisite: CHEM 206.

Offered: Spring (even years).

CHEM 420 - Biochemistry of Proteins and Nucleic Acids (3)

The physical and chemical properties and metabolism of proteins and nucleic acids are discussed. Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 420 and BIOL 420. Lecture. (Formerly CHEM 410: Intermediate Biochemistry.)

Prerequisite: CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.

Offered: Fall, Spring (odd years).

CHEM 421 - Biochemistry of Energy Metabolism (3)

The physical and chemical properties of carbohydrates and lipids are presented. Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 421 and BIOL 421. Lecture. (Formerly CHEM 411: Advanced Biochemistry.)

Prerequisite: CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.

Offered: As needed.

CHEM 422 - Biochemistry Laboratory (3)

Topics include basic laboratory concepts, including notebook documentation, ethics, and data interpretation, as well as experiments involving DNA cloning, protein purification, spectroscopic analysis, and functional assays. Laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 310 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

CHEM 425 - Advanced Organic Chemistry (4)

Synthesis, structure determination, and mechanism are discussed in the context of natural product and bio-organic chemistry. Spectroscopic and computational methods are emphasized. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CHEM 206.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

CHEM 435 - Pharmacology and Toxicology (3)

The relationship between the chemical structure and biological activity of organic compounds is studied. Historical and current drug development and use are emphasized in relation to the biochemistry of disease.

Prerequisite: CHEM 205 and CHEM 206, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CHEM 467 - Honors Colloquium in Chemistry (05)

Advanced level topics in science are examined through participation in department colloquia with outside speakers and through a series of seminars. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: CHEM 206 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

CHEM 490 - Independent Study in Chemistry (3)

Students study under the guidance of a member of the chemistry faculty. The particular area of chemistry is selected on the basis of the interest of the student and instructor.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CHEM 491-493 - Research in Chemistry (1)

The student conducts original research in an area selected after consultation with the instructor and prepares a report on the work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CHEM 519 - Biochemistry for Health Professionals (3)

This course is designed to provide nurse anesthetist students with a strong foundation of biochemistry.

Prerequisite: CHEM 206 or equivalent; enrollment in the M.S.N. nurse anesthesia program or consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

COLL - College Course

COLL 101 - The College Experience (1)

Through classroom instruction and academic advisement, students explore the meaning of higher education, the transition to college, academic organization and terminology, and time management.

Offered: Fall.

COLL 125 - College Learning Strategies (3)

Skills necessary for success in college are developed, with emphasis on organizational methods, study skills, and the interpretation of reading materials. Normally open to freshman and sophomore students only, with consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COLL 202 - Open Books-Open Minds Peer Discussion Program (1)

Students facilitate analysis and discussion of the common book in a First Year Writing class. Discussion leaders participate and also encourage participation in Open Books-Open Minds events. (Formerly Open Books-Open Minds Mentor Program.)

Prerequisite: Completion of 24 credit hours of courses and consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM - Communication

COMM 162 - East Asian Popular Cinema (4)

East Asian culture, identity, gender, and communication patterns are explored through the examination of different genres in popular films and documentaries from Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and China.

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 208 - Public Speaking (4)

Students develop public-speaking skills through directed practice. Emphasis is on the selection and organization of material, the use of reasoning and evidence, speech construction, and methods of delivery.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 219 - Vocal Improvement (3)

Effective voice and articulation management are developed through theory and practice. Emphasis is on personal improvement for professional career objectives.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 223 - Introduction to Sign Language (3)

The basic vocabulary of Signed English and finger spelling are introduced. Discussion includes the needs and problems of the deaf community. A vocabulary of 600 signs should be attained at the completion of this course.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 240 - Mass Media and Society (4)

The institutions, history, and technology of the mass media are examined. Newspapers, film, and broadcasting media are studied in terms of social and personal impact.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 241 - Introduction to Cinema and Video (4)

Hollywood industry, new digital technology, audiences, and other important cinematic elements (visual, technical, social, ideological, aesthetic, economic, and cultural aspects) are examined.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 242 - Message, Media, and Meaning (4)

Students are introduced to visual communication and how meaning is made. Topics include the theories about and critical interpretation of visual media. Media production projects and presentations are required.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 243 - Writing for Digital Media (4)

Students are introduced to the concepts and techniques used to develop digital media products and learn how to write for a variety of digital media distribution channels.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 244 - Digital Media Lab (4)

Students gain the working knowledge required for the basic production of digital graphics, audio, video, and interactive media.

Prerequisite: COMM 242 and COMM 243.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 246 - Television Production (4)

The theoretical and practical aspects of television production, script preparation, and studio and control room operations and practice are presented. Included is a two-hour-per-week lab.

Prerequisite: COMM 244.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 251 - Research Methods in Communication (4)

Students will critique research from scholarly journals and apply a selected method in an original research proposal. Topics include communication research, quantitative and qualitative methods. (Formerly COMM 200.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 24 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 255 - Introduction to Language (4)

The diversity and basic similarities of languages are explored, including their phonetic, phonological, morphological, syntactic, semantic, and social properties. (Formerly COMM 355: Language and Thought in Communication.)

Prerequisite: COMM 251.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 256 - Human Communication and New Technology (4)

Explores how human communication occurs through new technologies, including the Internet, social media, mobile communication, and virtual spaces. Students will study both theory and praxis in professional and personal contexts.

Prerequisite: COMM 251.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 261 - Issues in Free Speech (4)

Free speech issues are critically examined in historical and cultural context. Emphasis is on American law and circumstances compared to those of selected non-Western countries.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Annually.

COMM 262 - Dialect: What We Speak (4)

This course explores the variability within a human language as influenced by geography, history, social class, gender, age, ethnicity, and cultural identity.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 263 - East Asian Media and Popular Culture (4)

Examination of cultural forms in China, Japan, and Korea by studying socio-political and cultural implications of transnational flows between East Asia and the West through various forms of media.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

COMM 301 - Public Relations (4)

The field of public relations is surveyed, with emphasis on the role of the communication specialist as a practitioner. Topics include public relations history, ethics, campaign design, and media use.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits, including COMM 251, or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 302 - Writing for News and Public Relations (4)

The fundamentals of composition using the AP style guide are introduced. Topics include news values, basic reporting, public relations formats, and techniques for achieving high-quality news and public relations writing.

Prerequisite: FYW 100 or FYW 100P or completion of the College Writing Requirement.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 305 - Introduction to Communication Disorders (3)

A variety of speech, language, and hearing problems that may exist in children and adults are examined. Normal processes, abnormalities, and treatment are also discussed.

Prerequisite: COMM 251.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 311 - Advanced Public Relations (4)

Additional public relations skills are learned, with emphasis on writing. Formats and public relations methods are also reviewed and applied to case studies.

Prerequisite: COMM 301 and COMM 302.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 312 - Advanced News and Public Relations Writing (4)

Students build on their news and media writing skills and become more proficient at public relations writing for digital and traditional outlets. Applications include news conferences and crisis communication.

Prerequisite: COMM 301 and COMM 302.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 319 - Phonetics and Phonology (4)

Students develop listening and transcription skills as well as knowledge about the production of speech. The sound structure of language is explored and students are introduced to phonological theory. (Formerly Phonetics.)

Prerequisite: COMM 255.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 320 - Speech and Language Development (4)

The theories and stages involved in the acquisition of speech and language skills from birth to adolescence are examined. Included are the subsystems of language and normal and abnormal speech and language development.

Prerequisite: COMM 251 and COMM 255.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 323 - Introduction to Audiology (3)

Acoustics, anatomy, and physiology of the ear are introduced. Included are basic hearing tests, hearing disorders, and rehabilitation.

Prerequisite: COMM 251 and either COMM 255 or COMM 305.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 325 - Anatomy and Physiology: Speech and Hearing (4)

Topics include the anatomy and physiology of the speech and hearing mechanism, and neurological, skeletal, and muscular functions involved in speech and hearing. (Formerly Auditory and Speech Mechanisms.)

Prerequisite: COMM 251 and either COMM 255 or COMM 305.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 330 - Interpersonal Communication (4)

By participating in a series of communication experiences, students explore principles, skills, theory, and techniques essential for effective face-to-face communication across a variety of contexts. (Formerly COMM 358.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing or permission of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 332 - Gender and Communication (4)

Theoretical foundations of gender and communication are introduced. Topics include verbal and nonverbal communication, communication style, socialization, and processing information. Contexts include interpersonal, organizational, political, and family.

Prerequisite: COMM 251 or permission of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 333 - Intercultural Communication (4)

The communication contexts, issues and consequences that accompany interaction between people from diverse cultures are explored. Research dealing with intercultural communication is explored.

Prerequisite: Junior standing, completion of at least 60 college credits or permission of program chair.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 334 - Advertising (4)

The key processes of modern advertising practice are introduced. Topics include production of effective advertising and media. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 334 and MKT 338. (Formerly COMM 338.)

Prerequisite: COMM 240.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 335 - Advertising Research (4)

Students explore the processes of acquisition, evaluation, and analysis of information needed for advertising planning. Secondary and primary research for advertising is introduced.

Prerequisite: COMM 334.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 336 - Health Communication (4)

Explores the dynamics and impact of health communication between individuals and the health care system, such as doctor-patient communication, dissemination of health-related information, and the role of mediated communication.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 hours credit or junior standing, or permission of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 337 - Advertising Strategy (4)

Theoretical foundations and the process of developing advertising strategy are introduced. Methods of using research data for developing advertising strategy are presented and case studies are discussed.

Prerequisite: COMM 334.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 338 - Communication for Health Professionals (4)

Designed for health professionals, this course examines the dynamics of patient-provider communication inside the context of the contemporary health system. Other topics covered include risk communication, diversity, influence of technology and social support and health.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, enrollment in the Medical Imaging program and RADT 201.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 339 - Advertising Creativity (4)

The process of conceptualizing and preparing advertising for mass media is introduced. Emphasis is placed on creative thinking, strategic writing skills, and visualization.

Prerequisite: COMM 337.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 340 - Mass Media Ethics (4)

Focus is on contemporary ethical issues that arise in both traditional mass media and new media contexts. (Formerly Current Issues in Mass Media.)

Prerequisite: COMM 240 and COMM 251.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 341 - Music Video Production (4)

Students examine the art, design, form, and creation of the music video. Preproduction, production, and postproduction techniques, including special effects, are used in several assignments.

Prerequisite: COMM 246.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 342 - History and Development of Electronic Media (4)

Emphasis is on the history and development of electronic media and its impact on political, cultural, and economic institutions in the United States.

Prerequisite: COMM 240 and COMM 251.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 344 - Broadcast Journalism (4)

The preparation, writing, production, and editing of broadcast news are discussed. Emphasis is on local and special news events. An analysis of broadcast policies and principles of news management are presented.

Prerequisite: COMM 246.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 345 - Nonfiction Video Production (4)

Students explore the development, design, and creation of nonfiction video forms, such as the documentary, corporate videos, and instructional videos. (Formerly Digital Media Production.)

Prerequisite: COMM 246.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 347 - Mass Media Law (4)

Laws and regulations that affect both mass media and new media formats are examined. Topics include the First Amendment, libel, commercial speech, obscenity, and other current legal issues. (Formerly Communication Law and Regulation.)

Prerequisite: COMM 240 and COMM 251.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 348 - Global Communication (4)

Students examine how the globalization of communication systems and content affects people's lives around the world. Media and interaction patterns within and across nations are compared. (Formerly International Telecommunications.)

Prerequisite: COMM 240 and COMM 251.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 351 - Persuasion (4)

Students will examine principles and techniques of effective influence. The course offers practical experience in persuasive message making in a variety of contexts.

Prerequisite: COMM 208 or permission of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 353 - Political Communication (4)

The role of communication in electoral campaigns, speechmaking, debates, media coverage, political advertising, and social media is examined. Special emphasis is placed on the use of strategic communication.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing, or permission of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

COMM 354 - Communication and Civic Engagement (4)

Students will explore the ways in which public dialogue and deliberation is used to encourage citizen engagement. Experiential projects and student-designed learning experiences are integral to the course.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits and COMM 208, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 356 - Group Decision Making (4)

The principles of group dynamics and discussion in task-oriented experiences are examined. Topics include group leadership skills and cooperative problem-solving methods.

Prerequisite: COMM 208 or permission of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 357 - Public Opinion and Propaganda (4)

The nature and influence of public opinion are explored. Topics include propaganda as a technique for persuasion. (Formerly Propaganda and Public Opinion.)

Prerequisite: COMM 240 or POL 200.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 359 - Argumentation and Debate (4)

The tools of argumentation and debate are introduced, including the construction of logical arguments and the analysis of arguments for weakness in reasoning or evidence. (Formerly COMM 259.)

Prerequisite: COMM 208 or permission of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

COMM 376 - Advertising Laboratory (4)

Students synthesize and apply the skills and knowledge learned in previous advertising courses to design a complete advertising campaign to enhance professional development skills.

Prerequisite: COMM 337, with a minimum grade of C.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 377 - Public Relations Laboratory (4)

Working in teams, students research, plan, and implement a public relations campaign for not-for-profit groups within the community. Field experience may be required.

Prerequisite: COMM 301 and COMM 311, each with a minimum grade of C.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 378 - Forensics (1)

With the approval of the forensics director, students may receive credit for participation in debate and other forensic activities. Admission to the activity does not, by itself, ensure credit. Credit may be awarded no more than four times.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 412 - Strategies in Fundraising and Development (4)

This course is designed to equip students with the practical skills of strategic fundraising and development, and to provide them with practice in applying these newly acquired skills.

Prerequisite: COMM 251 and COMM 351, or permission of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 421 - Speech and Hearing Science (4)

Basic acoustics, the acoustics of speech, speech production theory, psycho-acoustics, and speech perception are covered. Lecture and laboratory. (Formerly COMM 321.)

Prerequisite: COMM 319.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 422 - Language Processes (4)

Human language processes are examined, with explorations into its social, biological, and cognitive components. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: COMM 251 (or equivalent) and COMM 255.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 429 - Introduction to the Clinical Process (3)

The clinical process and ethics in speech-language pathology and audiology are introduced. Students earn 25 observation hours and learn professional report writing. (Formerly COMM 329: Clinical Observation.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least six courses in communication, including COMM 305, with a minimum GPA of 3.00 in all courses.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 445 - Advanced Digital Media Lab (4)

Advanced methods of producing and distributing digital media are presented. Focus is limited to one or two specific forms. Topics vary. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: COMM 344 or COMM 345 or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 446 - Critical Studies in Mass Media (4)

An important genre of mass media is examined from the perspective of contemporary theories in the field. Topics vary. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: COMM 342 or consent of the instructor.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 452 - Conflict Resolution (4)

Conflict is examined as a personal and societal challenge that can be managed by applying communication skills and knowledge. (Formerly COMM 352.)

Prerequisite: Junior standing, completion of at least 60 college credits or permission of program chair.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 454 - Organizational Communication (4)

A review of theory and practice of communication in organizations. Topics include corporate culture, leadership, teamwork, globalization, ethics, diversity, and critiques of communication systems and structures.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits or junior standing, or permission of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

COMM 459 - Debate Practicum (4)

By applying theories and methods of argumentation, students debate on controversial topics in public venues, such as high schools.

Prerequisite: COMM 359 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 460 - Seminar in Communication (3)

A topic not previously studied in communication is researched.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits, including COMM 208, COMM 251, and 12 additional credit hours of communication courses.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 461 - Public and Professional Capstone (4)

This course offers students an opportunity to engage in a research study employing rhetorical, qualitative, or quantitative methods, and author an essay suitable for presentation before academic or professional audiences.

Prerequisite: 75 credit hours, all communication required courses (COMM 208, COMM 251, COMM 351) and at least 4 other Public and Professional courses.

Offered: Spring.

COMM 479 - Communication Internship (4)

Students gain a more comprehensive understanding of communication fields through on-the-job training. This course may be repeated once for credit.

Prerequisite: Open to communication majors who have completed at least 75 credit hours of undergraduate courses, 18 of which are communication courses, and to graduate students, with consent of instructor. Application must be made during the semester prior to field experience. Additional requirements are set forth in the application form.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 490 - Directed Study (1-4)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 491 - Special Problems in Communication (1-4)

Students select a practicum-oriented problem and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor. This course may be repeated once for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 18 credit hours of communication courses, including COMM 251, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 492 - Senior Portfolio (4)

Students develop a professional-quality portfolio of media production projects. Emphasis is on conceptual design, clarity, aesthetics, content, effectiveness of communication to audience, and technical competence.

Prerequisite: Open only to communication majors and minors. Completion of at least 90 college credits, including COMM 208, COMM 240, COMM 242, COMM 251, and COMM 345.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 493 - Senior Thesis (4)

Students write a thesis and formally present findings on a major research project. Emphasis is on mass media theories and research methodologies.

Prerequisite: Open only to communication majors and minors. Completion of at least 90 college credits, including COMM 208, COMM 240, COMM 242, COMM 251, and COMM 342.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 494 - Independent Study I (4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the communication honors program.

Offered: As needed.

COMM 495 - Independent Study II (4)

This course continues the development of research or creative activity begun in COMM 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: COMM 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CTSC - Computed Tomography

CTSC 300 - Principles of Computed Tomography (2)

The principles of computed tomography imaging are taught, including basic patient care, pharmacology and drug administration, and routine pediatric and emergency medical care procedures.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.

Offered: As needed.

CTSC 301 - Computed Tomography Physics and Radiation Protection (2)

Topics include the physical principles and instrumentation involved in computed tomography. An overview is also given of radiation protection and responsibilities.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.

Offered: As needed.

CTSC 407 - Sectional Anatomy and Pathology (2)

Course content includes the detailed study of gross anatomical structures by location, relationship to other structures, and function. Thorough coverage is given of human diseases diagnosable via computed tomography.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.

Offered: As needed.

CTSC 432 - Computed Tomography Clinical Practice (8)

Content and clinical practice experiences are designed to develop, apply, critically analyze, integrate, synthesize, and evaluate concepts and theories in performing computed tomography procedures.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.

Offered: As needed.

CTSC 438 - Registry Review (2)

This course prepares students for successful completion of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists Advanced Certification Examination in Computed Tomography.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in CTSC 300.

Offered: As needed.

CIS - Computer Information Systems

CIS 251 - Computers in Management (3)

This course focuses on the computer literacy and information requirements of organizations. A variety of software tools will be used to create content, problem solve, and present information.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CIS 255 - Introduction to Java in Business (3)

Java programming language and application development are studied in the context of realistic, real-world business programming examples and case studies.

Prerequisite: CIS 251.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 256 - Introduction to COBOL Programming (3)

Topics include COBOL syntax, input/output statements, logic and arithmetic statements, basic sequential, and file processing.

Prerequisite: CIS 251 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 257 - Introduction to Visual Basic in Business (3)

Business applications are designed and coded using a visual basic programming language. Emphasis is on object-oriented design and programming. (Formerly Object-Oriented Programming for Business.)

Prerequisite: CIS 251 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 320 - Information Technology: Hardware and Software Systems (3)

The evolution of the major subsystems of computer hardware, technical knowledge of the integration of hardware, and selected operating systems software are examined.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, CIS 352 and one course from the following: CIS 255, CIS 256, CIS 257 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 324 - Web Design and Development (3)

Students are introduced to basic concepts, issues, and techniques related to designing, developing, and deploying websites using a variety of tools. Study includes HTML, CSS, formatting, layout, and objects.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, CIS 251 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 350 - Special Topics (3)

New courses are offered by faculty to present latest computer information materials.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, CIS 251 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 351 - Advanced Office Applications for Business (3)

Advanced applications of Office Suite software are examined. Applications include database, spreadsheet, word processing, and presentation graphics. (Formerly CIS 252: Microcomputer Applications for Management.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, CIS 251 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 352 - Management Information Systems (3)

Information systems are an integral part of all business activities and careers. This course introduces students to contemporary information systems and demonstrates how these systems are used throughout global organizations.

Prerequisite: CIS 251 or equivalent and completion of 60 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 355 - Advanced Business Applications in Java (3)

Business applications using Java programming language are further developed. Topics include object-oriented design, object-oriented programming, and database connectivity.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and CIS 255.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 357 - Advanced Business Applications in Visual Basic (3)

Students are introduced to a variety of sophisticated programming components of Visual Basic. These components include variable arrays, database creation and management, activeX components, and class modules.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and CIS 257.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 421 - Networks and Infrastructure (3)

Both computer and systems architecture and communications networks are presented with a focus on the services and capabilities that information technology infrastructure solutions enable in an organizational context.

Prerequisite: CIS 352 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 440 - Issues in Computer Security (3)

Students evaluate organizational and technological methods employed to provide security for computer software, hardware, and data. Topics include controlling for error, natural disaster, and intentional attacks.

Prerequisite: CIS 352 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 453 - Systems Analysis and Design (3)

System design and analysis concepts that were introduced in prior courses are now applied. Topics include documentation, hardware/software selection, database development, system implementation, and post-implementation evaluation.

Prerequisite: CIS 352 and one course from the following: CIS 255, CIS 256, CIS 257, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 455 - Database Programming (3)

The basic components of file and communication systems as they support information systems are surveyed. (Formerly CIS 355.)

Prerequisite: CIS 352 and one course from the following: CIS 255, CIS 256, CIS 257, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 462 - Applied Software Development Project (3)

This is a practicum in the application of programming and systems-development concepts, resulting in a comprehensive systems-development project. (Formerly CIS 362.)

Prerequisite: CIS 453 and CIS 455, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 467 - Directed Internship (3-9)

Students are assigned to a business, an industrial organization, or a not-for-profit organization and supervised by a mentor. Students receive 1 credit hour for every four hours of work. A two-hour biweekly seminar is included. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Major in computer information systems and completion of at least 60 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CIS 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 491 - Independent Study I (3)

This course emphasizes the development of research for students admitted to the computer information systems honors program. The research topic is selected and conducted under the mentorship of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Admission to the accounting honors program and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research begun in CIS 491. The honors research is completed under the consultation of a faculty advisor. A research paper and presentation are required.

Prerequisite: CIS 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 535 - Data Management (3)

Various techniques are explored for the management of the design and development of database systems. Issues in the creation and use of logical data models, database administration, and concurrent processing are explored.

Prerequisite: Senior standing or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 541 - Legal Aspects of Information Technology (3)

The legal environment within which an organization must conduct its electronic commerce is reviewed. Legal liability for data transmission and exchange is also explored.

Prerequisite: Senior standing or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 542 - Electronic Commerce (3)

The systems and management challenges and the opportunities and successful strategies required to develop and maintain electronic commerce are examined. Marketing, strategy, infrastructure design, and server management are also covered.

Prerequisite: Senior standing or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CIS 543 - Decision Support Systems (3)

The decision-making process is examined, with emphasis on dealing with incomplete and inexact data, including unstructured environments. The use of data management, modeling, and simulation are explored.

Prerequisite: Senior standing or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CSCI - Computer Science

CSCI 101 - Introduction to Computers (3)

Topics include an overview of computer systems, hardware and software, algorithms, computer history, applications, and the impact of computers on society. Hands-on computer work.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CSCI 157 - Introduction to Algorithmic Thinking in Python (4)

This course introduces algorithmic thinking and computer programming in the Python programming language. Topics include algorithms, flowcharts, top-down design, selection, repetition, modularization, input-output, and recursion.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 201 - Computer Programming and Design (4)

Fundamentals of problem specification, program design, and algorithm development are taught in the Java programming language. Topics include functions, selection, iteration, recursion, arrays, classes, and inheritance.

Prerequisite: CSCI 157 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 211 - Computer Programming and Design (4)

Fundamentals of problem specification, program design, and algorithm development are taught in the Java programming language. Topics include functions, selection, iteration, recursion, arrays, classes, and inheritance.

Prerequisite: CSCI 157 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 212 - Data Structures (4)

Abstract datatypes and data structures are presented. Topics include time complexity, linked lists, stacks, queues, lists, hashing, trees, heaps, searching, sorting, and development of object-oriented programming techniques.

Prerequisite: CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 221 - Computer Programming II (3)

A continuation of CSCI 201, emphasis is on techniques needed to develop large object-oriented programs. Topics include graphical user interfaces, exception handling, strings, recursion, and files. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: CSCI 201.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 302 - C++ Programming (3)

The fundamental concepts and constructs of the C++ programming language are examined. Topics include expressions, input/output, control structures, classes, inheritance, arrays, strings, and templates.

Prerequisite: CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.

Offered: Spring.

CSCI 305 - Functional Programming (4)

Functional programming focuses on the design process from problems to well-organized solutions. Topics include, design recipes, functions, lists, self-referential data structures, recursion, lambda functions, and abstraction with practical applications.

Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211 or equivalent, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

CSCI 312 - Computer Organization and Architecture I (4)

Basic concepts of computer organization, architecture, and machine language programming are examined. Topics include data representation, binary and hexadecimal arithmetic, Boolean algebra, combinatorial and sequential circuits, and registers.

Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 313 - Computer Organization and Architecture II (3)

A continuation of CSCI 312. Topics include the central processing unit, memory access, input/output, and floating point operations.

Prerequisite: CSCI 312 and either CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 315 - Data Structures (3)

Data structures are presented to represent and access information efficiently. Topics include time complexity, linked lists, stacks, queues, hashing, trees, heaps, searching, and sorting. (Formerly Information Structures.)

Prerequisite: CSCI 221.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 325 - Organization of Programming Language (3)

Programming language constructs are presented, with emphasis on the run-time behavior of programs. Topics include language definition, data types and structures, and run-time considerations.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: Spring.

CSCI 401 - Software Engineering (3)

The software development process is examined from initial requirements analysis to operation and maintenance. Student teams develop a software system from requirements to delivery, using disciplined techniques.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

CSCI 415 - Software Testing (4)

Software testing principles, concepts, and techniques are presented within the context of the software development life cycle. Topics include software test design, test process, test management, and software testing tools.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (even years).

CSCI 422 - Introduction to Computation Theory (3)

Computation theory concepts are introduced, including finite state automata, pushdown automata, and Turing machines. Also covered are the applications of these concepts to lexical analysis, parsing, and algorithms.

Prerequisite: CSCI 325 and MATH 436.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

CSCI 423 - Analysis of Algorithms (4)

Techniques for designing algorithms and analyzing their efficiency are covered. Topics include "big-oh" analysis, divide-and-conquer, greedy method, efficient sorting and searching, graph algorithms, dynamic programming, and NP-completeness.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning

Prerequisite: Either CSCI 212 or CSCI 315; MATH 212; and MATH 436.

Offered: Spring.

CSCI 427 - Introduction to Artificial Intelligence (3)

Fundamental artificial intelligence methods are introduced, including search, inference, problem solving, and knowledge representation. AI applications, such as natural language understanding and expert systems, are introduced.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: As needed.

CSCI 435 - Operating Systems and Computer Architecture (3)

Topics include instruction sets, I/O and interrupt structure, addressing schemes, memory management, process management, performance, and evaluation.

Prerequisite: CSCI 313 and either CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: Fall.

CSCI 437 - Introduction to Data and Computer Communications (3)

Data and computer communications are discussed through the topics of data transmission, data encoding, digital data communication techniques, data link control, multiplexing, and networking.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: As needed.

CSCI 455 - Introduction to Database Systems (3)

Database structure, organization, languages, and implementation are introduced, including data modeling, relational and object-oriented systems, query languages, and query processing.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

CSCI 467 - Computer Science Internship (4)

Students work at a business or nonprofit organization integrating classroom study with work-based learning, supervised by a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Major in computer science, minimum GPA of 2.67 in computer science courses, completion of or concurrent enrollment in CSCI 401, and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CSCI 476 - Advanced Topics in Computer Science (4)

Recent developments and topics of current interest in computer science are studied. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 315.

Offered: Spring.

CSCI 490 - Directed Study in Computer Science (1-4)

This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in computer science. Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CSCI 491 - Independent Study in Computer Science (1-4)

This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in computer science. Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity mentored by a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

CEP - Counseling and Educational Psychology

CEP 315 - Educational Psychology (3)

Learner-centered psychological principles and research findings are analyzed. Emphasis is on the characteristics of the learner and the nature of developmentally responsive pedagogy.

Prerequisite: Admission to a teacher education program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 509 - Professional Orientation and Ethical Practice (3)

Overview of the counseling profession including history, contemporary issues, professional identity and preparation of clinical mental health counselors is provided. Standards of ethical practice in counseling are reviewed. (Formerly CEP 609.)

Prerequisite: Matriculation into a counseling program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 519 - Supervision of Field-Based Work (1)

Students review the practice and administration of supervision for CEP candidates. Focus is on the characteristics of effective supervisors and the current trends in professional disciplines. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

CEP 531 - Human Development across Cultures (3)

Focus is on human development theories across cultures as they relate to the field of human services and on life cycle stages, the exploration of child, adolescence, and adult issues.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 532 - Theories and Methods of Counseling (3)

The nature of the counseling process and theories of counseling are considered. Included are techniques of interviewing and an examination of common and special counseling problems in various school and agency settings.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 533 - Psychology of Students with Exceptionalities (3)

The symptoms, causes, and treatment of developmental, learning, and social-emotional problems of children are covered. Educational classification criteria, services, interventions, and collaboration are reviewed. Observations are required.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

CEP 534 - Quantitative Measurement and Test Interpretation (3)

Students develop techniques for the effective use of test results in counseling, including statistical and data analysis techniques.

Prerequisite: Matriculation into the counseling or school psychology and CEP 532, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 535 - Vocational Counseling and Placement (3)

Counseling theories are explored, including the assessment of individual aptitudes, interests, and abilities. Also examined are occupational information sources and opportunities.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring, Summer

CEP 536 - Biological Perspectives in Mental Health (3)

Students are introduced to the neuroscience perspective of studying human behavior, including the biology of mental illness and the role of psychopharmacology.

Prerequisite: CEP 532 and matriculation into the counseling or school psychology program, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 537 - Introduction to Group Counseling (3)

The dynamics of group process, an analysis of current modalities, and the principles and techniques of group counseling are covered. Students participate in a time-limited group.

Prerequisite: CEP 538 and matriculation into the counseling or school psychology program, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 538 - Practicum I: Introduction to Counseling Skills (3)

Counseling experience is offered under supervised laboratory conditions, with emphasis on observation and evaluation in a laboratory-seminar sequence. Video, audio, and process recordings are used. (Formerly Clinical Practicum I.)

Prerequisite: CEP 531, CEP 532, and matriculation into the counseling or school psychology program.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 539 - Practicum II: Clinical Interviewing and Treatment Planning (3)

Students learn to conduct clinical interviews and develop collaborative, evidenced-based clinical treatment plans. Students apply their skills in a supervised clinical setting for 50 hours over the semester. (Formerly Clinical Practicum II.)

Prerequisite: CEP 538, with minimum grade of B, and prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 509 and CEP 543.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

CEP 540 - Clinical Practicum with Children in Schools (3)

Attention is given to developing skill in counseling children and youth, while working with clients under controlled supervisory conditions. Supervised school-based experiences are required.

Prerequisite: CEP 538, with minimum grade of B.

Offered: Spring.

CEP 541 - Clinical Internship in School Counseling I (3)

Students complete 150 hours of supervised school counseling in a school setting.

Prerequisite: CEP 540, with minimum grade of B.

Offered: Fall.

CEP 542 - Clinical Internship in School Counseling II (3)

This is a continuation of CEP 541.

Prerequisite: CEP 541, with minimum grade of B.

Offered: Spring.

CEP 543 - Clinical Assessment and Case Problems (3)

This is an introduction to clinical decision making, diagnostic assessment, and treatment planning. Students also learn how to conduct intakes and mental status examinations and how to diagnose various psychiatric conditions.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 536, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

CEP 544 - Family Counseling Theory and Practice (3)

Current family counseling theories and methods are introduced. Class instruction includes lectures, demonstrations, and family simulations.

Prerequisite: CEP 537 and CEP 538.

Offered: Spring.

CEP 546 - Assessment of Addiction and Co-Occurring Disorders (3)

Topics include concurrent mental health issues, the interactive nature between substance use and co-occurring mental health issues, assessment typologies, and treatment implications. (Formerly Rehabilitation of the Chemically Dependent Person.)

Prerequisite: CEP 536 and CEP 538.

DMS - Diagnostic Medical Sonography

DMS 300 - Introduction to Diagnostic Medical Sonography (4)

This course is designed to introduce students to diagnostic medical sonography, including sonographic principles and instrumentation, other imaging modalities, and medical terminology.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 301 - Abdominal, Obstetrical, and Gynecological Sonography (3)

This course is designed to introduce the student to abdominal, obstetrical, and gynecological sonography.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 303 - Abdominal Sonography I (1.5)

This course is designed to give the student an understanding of abdominal and small parts anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, sonographic presentation, and the clinical presentation of multiple disease states.

Prerequisite: Admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.

Offered: Summer.

DMS 305 - Obstetrical and Gynecological Sonography I (1.5)

Students gain knowledge of the menstrual cycle and sonographic anatomy of the female pelvis. Emphasis is placed on normal pelvic anatomy and an introduction to early pregnancy and its complications.

Prerequisite: Admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.

Offered: Summer.

DMS 307 - Sonographic Principles and Instrumentation I (1)

Imaging techniques that use high frequency sound production are introduced. Included is in-depth study of the characteristics of ultrasound and its interaction with human tissue.

Prerequisite: DMS 303.

Offered: Fall.

DMS 310 - Clinical Practice I (4.5)

Students are introduced to clinical and practical experience in diagnostic medical imaging. They must demonstrate the structures of the abdomen and gravid and non-gravid female pelvis, using sonography under known conditions.

Prerequisite: Admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 330 - Clinical Practice II (8.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 310. Students perform sonographic examinations and learn to recognize normal and abnormal sonographic patterns in the abdomen, female pelvis, and fetus.

Prerequisite: DMS 310.

Offered: Summer.

DMS 333 - Abdominal Sonography II (1.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 303. Students gain a more extensive understanding of abdominal anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, sonographic presentation, and the clinical presentation of multiple disease states.

Prerequisite: DMS 303.

Offered: Fall.

DMS 335 - Obstetrical and Gynecological Sonography II (1.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 305. Gynecological pathology and obstetrical sonography are covered. Included are normal variations of the gravid uterus, fetal development, obstetrical measurements, and gynecological oncology.

Prerequisite: DMS 305.

Offered: Fall.

DMS 337 - Sonographic Principles and Instrumentation II (1)

This is a continuation of DMS 307. Students explore imaging techniques that relate to high frequency sound production, characteristics of ultrasound, and its interaction with tissue and quality control.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite DMS 307.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 403 - Abdominal Sonography III (1.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 333. Students receive advanced knowledge of abdominal anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, sonographic presentation, and the clinical presentation of multiple disease states.

Prerequisite: DMS 333.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 405 - Obstetrical and Gynecological Sonography III (1.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 335. Focus is on the sonographic examination of congenital fetal anomalies, their etiologies, and their sonographic appearance.

Prerequisite: DMS 335.

Offered: Spring.

DMS 410 - Clinical Practice III (8.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 330.

Prerequisite: DMS 330.

Offered: Fall.

DMS 430 - Clinical Practice IV (8.5)

This is a continuation of DMS 410.

Prerequisite: DMS 410.

Offered: Spring.

DIS - Disability Studies

DIS 501 - Study of Disabilities in the USA (3)

Expand understanding of perceptions of individuals with a disability within the United States over time.

Prerequisite: Graduate status.

Offered: Fall.

DIS 538 - Fieldwork in Disability Studies (1)

ECED 419 - Early Care and Education, Birth to Three Years (3)

Students create and maintain positive learning activities for infant-toddler group care. (Formerly ELED 419: Early Childhood Education: Day Care for Children from Birth to Three.)

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 301, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

ECED 420 - Mathematics, Prekindergarten through Second Grade (3)

Mathematics education in prekindergarten through second grade is examined. Also explored are the development of appropriate teaching/learning strategies, content, and materials related to teaching all young children. Practicum required.

Prerequisite: ECED 301 or equivalent and ECED 419, each with minimum grade of B-; MATH 143 and MATH 144, each with minimum grade of C; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

ECED 423 - Developmental Literacy and the Language Arts I (4)

Developmentally appropriate methods and materials for promoting literacy and language skills, strategies, and dispositions for young children are explored, including children's literature. Practicum: kindergarten and grade one.

Prerequisite: ECED 301; ECED 419, with minimum grade of B-; prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 420, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

ECED 425 - Developmental Literacy and the Language Arts II (4)

Teacher candidates work with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers from diverse populations. Study includes managing classroom literacy programs through grade two. Practicum: infants through grade two.

Prerequisite: ECED 301; ECED 419, ECED 420, ECED 423, each with minimum grade of B-; concurrent enrollment in ECED 429; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

ECED 429 - Early Childhood Social Studies and Science (4)

Students use developmentally appropriate methods, content, and materials to establish positive learning environments. Practicum: prekindergarten and grade one. (Formerly ELED 429: Early Childhood Education: Social Studies and Science.)

Prerequisite: ECED 301 or equivalent, with minimum grade of B-; ECED 419, ECED 420, ECED 423; prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 425; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

ECED 439 - Student Teaching in Early Childhood Settings (9)

In this culminating field placement, candidates complete a teaching experience in a preschool or elementary school under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor in a full-semester assignment.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ECED 469 and satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses.

Offered: Spring.

ECED 449 - Early Childhood Community Program Internship (6)

In this culminating experience, candidates complete in an infant-toddler program, preschool program, or community-based program under the supervision of a cooperating teacher/supervisor and college supervisor.

Prerequisite: Completion of all program major requirements.

Offered: Spring.

ECED 469 - Best Practices in Early Childhood Settings (3)

Candidates analyze the teaching profession and examine current issues and practices in early childhood teaching in order to understand collaborations among school personnel, families, community agencies, assessment, and classroom management.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ECED 439.

Offered: Spring.

ECED 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ECED 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the early childhood education honors program.

Offered: As needed.

ECED 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ECED 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: ECED 491 and consent of instructor, program director and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ECED 502 - Curriculum, Developmental Play, and Programs (3)

Development and content of curriculum and trends in research for early care and education through primary grades are examined. (Formerly ELED 502: Curriculum and Methods in Early Childhood Education.)

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall.

ECED 503 - Infants and Toddlers in Early Care and Education Programs (3)

Components of quality group-care situations for infants and toddlers are analyzed. Topics include professional responsibilities and health and safety routines. (Formerly ELED 503: Infants/Toddlers in Group Care.)

Prerequisite: ECON 214 and MATH 177.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECON 314 - Intermediate Microeconomic Theory and Applications (3)

Theoretical foundations covered in ECON 214 are expanded upon and myriad applications of these theories are developed, using graphical and mathematical techniques. The role of microeconomics in managerial decision making is also explored.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 238.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECON 315 - Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory and Analysis (3)

Macroeconomic models are used to analyze economic growth, unemployment, and inflation. Also examined are the effectiveness of fiscal and monetary policies, using models depicting the interactions of product, resource, and financial markets.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 238.

Offered: Spring.

ECON 390 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 421 - International Economics (3)

The theory of international trade is analyzed. Topics include the benefits of trade and the effects of tariffs, quotas, and customs unions. Also covered are the theories of international monetary relations, capital flows, and exchange rates.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 422 - Economics of Developing Countries (3)

The characteristics of developing countries and the process of economic development are examined. Topics include poverty, inequality, unemployment, capital formation in industry and agriculture, and the effects of foreign trade and aid.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 423 - Financial Markets and Institutions (3)

Students examine the markets in which securities are traded and the institutions that participate in these markets. Students cannot receive credit for both ECON 423 and FIN 423.

Prerequisite: FIN 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECON 431 - Labor Economics (3)

The structures and operations of human resource markets are analyzed, including pricing and allocation of labor resources, wage differentials, income distribution, discrimination, and unemployment. (Formerly Human Resources Economics.)

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 433 - Economics of Government (3)

The role of the public sector in the United States and its effect on the economy are studied. Discussion includes the impact of federal, state, and local government expenditure and revenue. (Formerly Public Finance.)

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 435 - Urban Economics (3)

Economic analysis is applied to the development and problems of urban areas. Urban issues, such as poverty, housing, and transportation, are examined and the market forces that determine why and where urban areas develop.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 436 - Industrial Organization and Market Structure (3)

The economics of industrial organization and the organization of firms and industries are analyzed using microeconomic theories and empirical data. Public policy issues are assessed, including antitrust and regulatory mechanisms.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 437 - Environmental Economics (3)

Focus is on current environmental problems and policies. Topics include valuing the environment, approaches to controlling local and regional air pollution, energy policy, climate change, global warming, and sustainable economic growth.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 449 - Introduction to Econometrics (4)

Quantitative methods used in testing theoretical propositions in economics and business are presented. Emphasis is on the use of regression, time-series models, and other econometric methods. Lecture and computer laboratory.

Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MGT 249; MATH 248.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECON 461 - History of Economic Thought (3)

The development of economic thought is examined from the prescholastics through the middle of the twentieth century. This seminar is the first part of a two-semester capstone experience in economics.

Prerequisite: ECON 314, ECON 315, and at least one additional economics course at the 300-level or above.

Offered: Fall.

ECON 462 - Seminar in Economic Research (3)

Students integrate their experience in economic theories, methodologies, concepts, and applications. Literature in a variety of fields of economics is analyzed. A research paper and presentation are also required.

Prerequisite: ECON 314, ECON 449 and one additional economics course at the 400-level.

Offered: Spring.

ECON 490 - Independent Study in Economics (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 491 - Independent Study I (3)

This course emphasizes the development of research for students admitted to the economics honors program. The research topic is selected and conducted under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Admission to the economics honors program and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ECON 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research begun in ECON 491. The honors research is completed under the consultation of a faculty advisor. A research paper and presentation are required.

Prerequisite: ECON 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

EDP - Education Doctoral Program

EDP 610 - Core Seminar I: Issues and Problems in Educational Inquiry and Foundations (3)

Issues and problems are presented related to the philosophical and historical aspects of educational thought and the role of the school in society. Emphasis is on empirical analysis of classroom settings.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in Education program.

Offered: Fall.

EDP 611 - Core Seminar I: Issues and Problems in Educational Inquiry and Foundations (3)

Issues and problems are presented related to the philosophical and historical aspects of educational thought and the role of the school in society. Emphasis is on empirical analysis of classroom settings.

Prerequisite: EDP 610.

Offered: Spring.

EDP 612 - Introduction to Qualitative Research (3)

Qualitative methods of educational research, including terminology, historical development, assumptions, and models of inquiry, are examined.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.

Offered: Fall.

EDP 613 - Introduction to Quantitative Research (4)

The quantitative analysis of educational research data is examined. Emphasis is on applications of the general linear model to a variety of research designs (i.e., ANOVA, Regression). Lecture and computer laboratory.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.

Offered: Spring.

EDP 620 - Core Seminar II: Issues and Problems in Human Development, Learning, and Teaching (3)

Issues and problems related to human development, curriculum, teaching, and learning are examined, with emphasis on the ways of gathering and evaluating evidence about school and curricula effectiveness.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611. EDP 620 is prerequisite to EDP 621.

Offered: Fall.

EDP 621 - Core Seminar II: Issues and Problems in Human Development, Learning, and Teaching (3)

Issues and problems related to human development, curriculum, teaching, and learning are examined, with emphasis on the ways of gathering and evaluating evidence about school and curricula effectiveness.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611. EDP 620 is prerequisite to EDP 621.

Offered: Spring.

EDP 622 - Community Service Learning (2)

Focusing on the school, students examine theory and define problems related to community service and service learning.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611.

Offered: Spring.

EDP 623 - Research Design (3)

Students develop problem statements, research questions, hypotheses, and literature reviews, and identify appropriate methodology (qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods).

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611, EDP 612, EDP 613, or consent of codirector.

Offered: Fall.

EDP 630 - Core Seminar III: Issues and Problems in Organizational Theory, Leadership, and Policy Analysis (3)

Issues and problems are presented concerning the educational applications of organizational theory, leadership theory, and policy analysis as they relate to district, statewide, and/or regional educational offices and agencies.

Prerequisite: EDP 620, EDP 621. EDP 630 is prerequisite to EDP 631.

Offered: Fall.

EDP 631 - Core Seminar III: Issues and Problems in Organizational Theory, Leadership, and Policy Analysis (3)

Issues and problems are presented concerning the educational applications of organizational theory, leadership theory, and policy analysis as they relate to district, statewide, and/or regional educational offices and agencies.

Prerequisite: EDP 620, EDP 621. EDP 630 is prerequisite to EDP 631.

Offered: Spring.

EDP 641 - Field Research Seminar (1)

Second and third year students research questions and empirical designs and present them in biweekly forums. Discussion and feedback refine their research plans. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

EDP 661 - Language and Thinking in Schools (3)

Students consider language and thinking as they relate theoretically and practically to curricula in schools. Focus is on a variety of seminal perspectives in the professional literature.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611 or consent of co-director.

Offered: As needed.

EDP 662 - Culture, Discourse, and Education (3)

Students examine teaching and learning in relation to culture and discourse in social activity contexts of schools, classrooms, families, and community sites. Focus is on theories, methods, and findings of research.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611 or consent of co-director.

Offered: As needed.

EDP 663 - Discourse Analysis in Education Research (3)

Students examine and practice the analysis of discourse methodology in educational research. Various analyses of discourse samples are conducted and a variety of analytic research frameworks are explored.

Prerequisite: EDP 662 or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

EDP 664 - Social Justice in Higher Education (3)

Through course readings, discussions, and assignments, students examine the theoretical and historical circumstances, current research, and practical applications of social justice issues in higher education.

Prerequisite: EDP 610, EDP 611 or consent of co-director.

Offered: As needed.

EDP 692-693 - Directed Readings and Research Problems (1-3)

Students undertake directed readings and advanced research work under the supervision of their major instructor.

Prerequisite: EDP 623 and consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

EDP 699 - Doctoral Dissertation Research (12)

Students conduct a major research project and write a dissertation under the direction of the instructor. A minimum of 12 credit hours in this course is required. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program and consent of major instructor and RIC co-director.

Offered: As needed.

LEAD - Educational Leadership

LEAD 500 - Developing Leaders for Learning (3)

Effective leadership skills and dispositions are examined. Emphasis is on understanding human learning processes, developing an educational vision, and becoming a reflective leader. The role of values in leadership is also introduced.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 501 - Developing Inquiry for Reflective Leadership (1)

The roles of critical inquiry, research, and evaluation in reflective leadership are explored. A field research project that focuses on school system structures and processes is required.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 505 and LEAD 511, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 502 - Building Connections: External Contexts of Leadership (3)

Students explore methods of communicating with and influencing decision makers outside the school community to promote equitable access in learning. Emphasis is on building sociopolitical and fiscal resources to support learning.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program, LEAD 500, and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 503.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 503 - Building Connections in Diverse Contexts (1)

Students develop skill in communication, organization, and collaboration in diverse contexts. A fifty-hour field experience in an urban agency, or in a family- or youth-serving agency or school, is required. Performance-based assessments are expected.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 502.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 504 - Leading Learning I: Planning, Instruction, Assessment (4)

Students develop skills and dispositions needed for instructional and transformational leadership. Emphasis is on articulating an equitable vision for learning through critical reflection and on advocating data-based decision making and accountability.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 500.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 505 - Leading Learning II: Collaboration, Supervision, Technology (2)

Students enact an equitable educational platform for learning characterized by collaborative instructional teams, effective supervision, and systematic monitoring of learning outcomes. The role of information technology is examined.

Prerequisite: LEAD 504 and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 511.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 506 - Creating Learning Structures: Equity, Law, Practice (4)

Policy making and legislation at the local, state, and federal levels to advance learning are reviewed. Emphasis is on creating and managing structures for safe, equitable, and effective learning organizations.

Prerequisite: LEAD 505.

Offered: Summer.

LEAD 507 - Leading Change I: Challenges, Capacity, Transformation (4)

Models, strategies, and research on change and conflict resolution to improve school culture are examined. Emphasis is on the use of problem-framing, outcome monitoring, and data analysis in building capacity.

Prerequisite: LEAD 506.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 508 - Leading Change II: Research, Accountability, Ethics (2)

This course synthesizes the research, examines ethical practice, and promotes individual and group reflective practice for leading change. Accountability through critical inquiry and evidence-based decision making is emphasized.

Prerequisite: LEAD 507 and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 512.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 511 - Leadership Internship I (2)

This initial 150-hour, school-based experience nurtures entry-level competencies in promoting positive school culture and best practice for leading learning. Competency-focused work samples and dispositional assessments are expected.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in LEAD 505.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 512 - Leadership Internship II (2)

This final 150-hour, school-based experience focuses on consolidating entry-level competencies in promoting positive school culture and leading change. Submission of a competency-focused performance-based portfolio is required.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in LEAD 508.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 520 - Courts, Laws, and Schools (3)

This course is designed for educators with limited knowledge of or experience with the legal system. Students develop a basic understanding of the judicial system in Rhode Island.

Offered: Summer.

LEAD 521 - Family Court and Schools (3)

Focus is on family court and the increasing number of difficult family and juvenile situations. School leaders work with the judicial system to find proactive solutions to problems facing juveniles.

Offered: Summer.

LEAD 522 - Classroom to Courtroom (3)

Educators develop a mock trial to highlight the consequences for youth charged with serious legal offenses.

Offered: Summer.

LEAD 523 - Leadership, Law, and School Practices (3)

Educators develop cutting-edge leadership skills to enhance their leadership practice. This course is sponsored by RILEP and the Rhode Island Supreme Court.

Offered: Summer.

LEAD 530 - Instructional Leadership Foundation Seminar (2)

An overview is given of instructional leadership theories and research. Students participate in self-assessment activities, using information for setting strategic goals for their own development while pursuing the LEAD-IL goals.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 504 and LEAD 531.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 531 - Instructional Leaders as Coaches (2)

Core beliefs and guiding principles are reviewed concerning instructional coaching, providing content, modeling segments, and tools to assist instructional leaders as they support the professional growth of teachers.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 504 and LEAD 530.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 532 - Instructional Leader Internship I (2)

Students participate in a supervised 150-hour teacher leader internship focused on coaching.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program; completion of LEAD 504, LEAD 530, and LEAD 531.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 533 - Instructional Leader Seminar I: Leading Change (2)

Students participate in an integrating leadership experience to link theoretical concepts, models, and process of leadership with the purpose of creating change and analyzing its resulting outcomes.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 532.

Offered: Spring.

LEAD 534 - Instructional Leader Internship II (2)

Students participate in a supervised 150-hour instructional leader internship.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program, completion of LEAD 532 and LEAD 533, and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 535.

Offered: Fall.

LEAD 535 - Instructional Leader Seminar II: Data Driven Decision Making (2)

Students focus on integrating entry-level competencies on data-driven decision making, instructional leadership, and action research.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 534.

Offered: Spring.

ELED - Elementary Education

ELED 300 - Concepts of Teaching Diverse Learners (3)

The technical skills of teaching and classroom organization in diversity responsive classrooms are presented and practiced. Observations and multicultural field experience are required. (Formerly ELED 300: Concepts of Teaching).

Prerequisite: FNED 346, with minimum grade of B-; minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses; and admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 302 - Teaching All Learners: Foundations and Strategies (4)

Universal and selected teaching skills and strategies effective for diverse learners are presented and practiced; principles and practices addressing intellectual, physical, behavioral, and cultural differences among children are discussed. Practicum required. Students cannot receive credit for both ELED 302 and SPED 302.

Prerequisite: FNED 346, with minimum grade of B-; minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses; and admission to the elementary and special education teacher preparation programs; or consent of department chair. Concurrent enrollment in ELED 302 (or SPED 302) and CEP 315 is required.

Offered: Fall.

ELED 400 - Curriculum and Assessment with Instructional Technology (3)

Theory and strategies for designing curriculum and assessing student learning are examined, along with other factors affecting teaching and learning. A variety of texts will be analyzed and discussed including: elementary student work, elementary textbooks, and digital media.

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 410 - Education in Great Britain (3)

This is a study of the British system of education and the British approach to teacher preparation. Participants visit the University of Cumbria in Carlisle, UK.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development as well as admission to the Department of Elementary Education's student exchange program.

Offered: Fall.

ELED 420 - Children's Literature and the Integrated Arts (3)

The development of various patterns of literature instruction integrated with the arts of music, drama and art in the elementary school are studied.

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of the department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 422 - Developmental Reading (3)

This field-based experience is concerned with reading instruction from a developmental perspective. Instructional implications for teaching special populations are covered. Focus is on the elements of a balanced program in reading and writing. Laboratory/conference required. (Formerly ELED 422: Teaching Developmental Reading I).

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair. Concurrent with ELED 435;

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 435 - Language Arts and ELL Instruction (3)

The role of language arts in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies to include all children are examined, including English language learners and special populations. Laboratory/conference required. (Formerly ELED 435: Teaching Language Arts in the Elementary School).

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair. Concurrent with ELED 422.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 436 - Teaching Social Studies to Diverse Learners (3)

The role of social studies in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including becoming culturally conscientious and responsive to diverse learners. Laboratory/conference required. (Formerly ELED 436: Teaching Elementary School Social Studies).

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; ELED 422 and ELED 435, each with minimum grade of B-; POL 201, with minimum grade of C; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 437 - Elementary School Science and Health Education (3)

The role of science and health in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching science and health to special populations. Laboratory/conference required. (Formerly ELED 437 Teaching Elementary School Science).

Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and PSCI 103, each with minimum grade of C, except for students electing a content major in general science; ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; ELED 422 and ELED 435, each with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 438 - Teaching Elementary School Mathematics (3)

The role of mathematics in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching mathematics to special populations. Laboratory/conference required.

Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; ELED 422 and ELED 435, each with minimum grade of B-; MATH 143 and MATH 144, each with minimum grade of C; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 439 - Student Teaching in the Elementary School (9)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary school under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ELED 469; satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; a positive recommendation from the professor of each elementary education course; a cumulative GPA of 2.50 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and completion of the community service requirement.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 469 - Best Practices: Instruction, Assessment, Classroom Management (3)

Candidates analyze teaching as a profession. Topics include current issues and practices in teaching; collaborations among school personnel, families, and community agencies; assessment; classroom management; and job search. (Formerly Student Teaching Seminar in Elementary Education.)

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ELED 439.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the elementary education honors program.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ELED 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment by the department.

Prerequisite: ELED 491; and consent of instructor, program director and dean.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 500 - Reflections: The Art and Science of Teaching (3)

Focus is on elements that contribute to the making of an effective teacher, such as general pedagogical knowledge, knowledge of educational contexts, and knowledge of self as teacher. Field work and observations are required.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 552 and matriculation into M.A.T. program.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 501 - Reading in the Content Area (3)

Methods are provided for kindergarten through grade twelve teachers to help students learn from subject matter materials.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 504 - Mathematics in the Elementary School (3)

Focus is on the content and approach to modern mathematics programs, particularly current research and curriculum trends.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and elementary school teaching experience, or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 506 - Elementary Mathematics: Geometry, Measurement, Data, Statistics (3)

Elementary mathematics curriculum, content knowledge, standards-based instruction, and research in pedagogy are linked to the teaching of geometry, measurement, and data in the elementary classroom.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and elementary school teaching experience, or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 507 - Teaching Reading and Writing to English-as-a-Second-Language Students (3)

Focus is on second-language literacy in reading and writing for limited-English-proficient students. Students cannot receive credit for both ELED 507 and TESL 507.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 539 or TESL 541 or TESL 549.

Offered: Spring.

ELED 508 - Language Arts in the Elementary School (3)

Research and theory as it applies to oral and written language learning, classroom talk, sociocultural diversity in communication styles, and the teacher's role in a child-centered classroom are examined.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.

Offered: Summer.

ELED 510 - Research Methods, Analysis, and Applications (3)

Practitioners and consumers of research literature examine the process, products, and application of educational inquiry. Topics include research design, data collection, and analysis.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and prior work in research methods or applied research, or tests and measurements, or statistics; or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 512 - Theoretical Perspectives on How Students Learn (3)

The research on learning and theory are explored that have informed teaching in the United States. Study includes the foundations of traditional and constructivist education.

Prerequisite: Graduate status.

Offered: Annually.

ELED 513 - Designing and Assessing Teaching and Learning (3)

Students examine the theory and strategies for designing and assessing instruction, considering the diversity of learners, the nature of content, and ways of knowing.

Prerequisite: ELED 512.

Offered: Annually.

ELED 514 - Educational Change (3)

Applications of change models are incorporated into professional and educational settings. Course readings and projects explore models of educational change and reform through teachers' professional development and grant-writing activities.

Prerequisite: ELED 513 and matriculation into the M.Ed. program.

Offered: Annually.

ELED 515 - Literature in the Elementary School (3)

The development of various patterns of literature instruction in the elementary school are studied. Emphasis is on the development and enrichment of children's literary taste and appreciation. Laboratory experiences are included.

Prerequisite: Elementary school teaching experience or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 518 - Science in the Elementary School (3)

Emphasis is on recent research and curriculum trends in science education. Individual and group laboratory experiences employ various science processes.

Prerequisite: One year of college-level science or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 519 - Professional Development for Cooperating Teachers (3)

Cooperating teachers gain knowledge, tools, and experience that help them prepare teacher candidates to meet professional requirements in elementary and early childhood education. This course may be repeated after four years. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and currently serving as a cooperating teacher, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 522 - Developmental Reading: M.A.T. Practicum I (3)

Research and theory as it applies to developmental reading and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, and as needed.

ELED 524 - Developmental Reading: M.A.T. Practicum II (3)

Focus is on advanced research and theory in organizing and managing reading programs. Emphasis is on investigating alternative teaching materials and methods for diverse populations in a practicum setting.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program; CEP 552; ELED 500, ELED 522; FNED 546; minimum GPA of 3.0; or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 527 - Language Arts M.A.T. Practicum (3)

Research and theory as it applies to language arts and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, and as needed.

ELED 528 - Social Studies in the Elementary School (3)

Students examine and evaluate objectives, content, and the organization of social studies curriculum, resource materials and selected instructional models in the light of current recommendations and research data.

Prerequisite: Elementary school teaching experience or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 536 - Social Studies M.A.T. Practicum (3)

Research and theory as it applies to social studies and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 537 - Science M.A.T. Practicum (3)

Research and theory as it applies to science and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, and as needed.

ELED 538 - Mathematics M.A.T. Practicum (3)

Research and theory as it applies to mathematics and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, and as needed.

ELED 540 - Curriculum and Assessment (3)

Theory and strategies for designing curriculum and assessing student learning are examined, along with other factors affecting teaching and learning. An online component is included.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 541 - Teaching Literacy across the Curriculum (3)

This course examines how literacy theory and children's language and literacy development drive effective literacy assessment and instructional practice. An online component is included.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 542 - Educating All Students (3)

Focus is on the influence of culture and language on teaching and learning. Students develop skills to educate diverse learners. An online component is included.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 543 - Integrating Theory and Methods (3)

This interdisciplinary course focuses on applying theory in practice across content taught in elementary schools. Emphasis is on mathematics, science, and social studies. An online component is included.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ELED 558 - Teaching and Learning Writing (3)

Focus is on the nature of composition, text types, and genre, including narration, exposition, description, and persuasion. (Formerly Developing Composition and Creative Writing Skills in the Elementary School.)

Prerequisite: MGT 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MGT 331 - Occupational and Environmental Safety Management (3)

Occupational safety and health and environmental problems are discussed from technical, social, managerial, and legal perspectives.

Prerequisite: MGT 301.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 333 - Negotiations and Conflict Resolution (3)

Bargaining and conflict resolution concepts are supplemented and reinforced.

Prerequisite: MGT 301, MGT 320, MGT 322.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 335 - Process Analysis (3)

The effectiveness and efficiency of business process design, implementation, and management are analyzed in manufacturing and service firms.

Prerequisite: MGT 249 and MGT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MGT 341 - Business, Government, and Society (3)

Focus is on dynamic social, legal, political, economic, and ecological issues that require socially responsible behavior on the part of individuals and organizations.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MGT 342 - Comparative Management (3)

This is a cross-cultural study of management systems. The unique business management systems practiced in other countries are examined, including Japanese management and codetermination in Germany.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 345 - International Business (3)

Focus is on the institutions and processes that constitute the international environment of business. Topics include international trade, balance of payments, and multinational companies. (Formerly International Environment of Business.)

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MKT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MGT 347 - Supply Chain Management (3)

Emphasis is on the design and management of activities along the supply chain, from purchasing and materials management to distribution and transportation systems. Students cannot receive credit for both MGT 347 and MKT 347.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MKT 301.

Offered: As needed.

MGT 348 - Operations Management (3)

Techniques for the effective management of operations at both the strategic and operating levels are introduced.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MATH 248.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MGT 349 - Service Operations Management (3)

Students develop, analyze, and implement strategies for a wide range of service organizations. Emphasis is on the particular challenges for managers in service organizations.

Prerequisite: MGT 301.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 355 - Quality Assurance (3)

The means and advantages of establishing an effective quality system in manufacturing and service firms are discussed. Students cannot receive credit for both MGT 355 and HCA 355.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MATH 248.

Offered: Spring.

MGT 359 - Current Topics in Service Operations Management (3)

Current trends in the management of service organizations are explored. Focus is on the design, implementation, and management of strategies specific to services, such as e-commerce, entrepreneurship, and technology management.

Prerequisite: MGT 301.

Offered: As needed.

MGT 423 - Compensation and Benefits Administration (3)

The process of designing and managing a cost-effective, equitable, and legally acceptable total compensation package is examined. Topics include economic, social, and legal determinants of base pay; and incentives and benefits.

Prerequisite: MGT 320.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 424 - Employee Relations and Performance Appraisal (3)

Employee relations in union and nonunion organizations are examined. Topics include performance appraisal systems for nonunion environments, and laws, elections, and contract administration for union environments.

Prerequisite: MGT 320.

Offered: Spring.

MGT 425 - Recruitment and Selection (3)

Concepts and methods involved in designing and managing the recruitment and selection functions of management are examined. (Formerly Selection, Training, and Development.)

Prerequisite: MGT 320.

Offered: Fall.

MGT 428 - Human Resource Development (3)

The concepts, programs, and practices that organizations use to train and develop its members are examined. Topics include learning, needs assessment, program design and implementation, evaluation, skills training, and coaching.

Prerequisite: MGT 320.

Offered: Spring.

MGT 455 - Strategic Operations Management (3)

Emphasis is on the strategic integration of operations across functional areas to achieve sustainable competitive advantage in manufacturing and service organizations.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MGT 348.

Offered: As needed.

MGT 461 - Seminar in Strategic Management (3)

Focus is on the formulation and implementation of organizational strategies and policies. The case method is used in integrating material from other management and economics courses. (Formerly Seminar in Managerial Policy.)

Prerequisite: ACCT 201, ACCT 202; CIS 251, CIS 352; ECON 214, ECON 215; FIN 301; MATH 177, MATH 238, MATH 248; MGT 249, MGT 301, MGT 341, MGT 348; MKT 301; and completion of at least 102 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MGT 467 - Directed Internship (3)

Students are assigned to a business or nonprofit organization and earn three credits for topical course work, a two-hour biweekly seminar, and 120 hours of organization work, supervised by a mentor. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: MGT 301, completion of at least 60 college credits, a major or minor in a School of Management program, and consent of internship director and appropriate faculty member.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MGT 469 - Organization Theory (3)

Focuses on organization theory concepts, including inter-organizational processes and economic, institutional and cultural contexts. Seminar entails student-led presentations and discussions. Students cannot receive credit for both MGT 329 and MGT 469. (Formerly MGT 329: Organizational Theory and Design.)

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and 60 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MGT 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

MGT 521 - Enterprise Excellence through High-Performance Teams (3)

This course examines skills necessary to manage organizational relationships. Particular attention is given to relationship management issues, such as team building, negotiation and conflict and development of emotional intelligence skills.

Prerequisite: Program admission or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring

MKT - Marketing

MKT 301 - Introduction to Marketing (3)

This is an examination of the role of marketing in society, consumer behavior, product management, pricing, distribution, and promotion.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MKT 310 - Product Design and Development (3)

The development process of new products, from idea generation to launch, is explored.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: As needed.

MKT 315 - Marketing Creativity (3)

Focus is on the creative marketing of new products, along with services, promotions, and distribution. Students develop a novel prototype in at least one of the areas listed above.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 320 - Business Marketing (3)

This is an integrated study of the theory and practice of industrial marketing. Similarities between consumer-goods marketing and industrial-goods marketing are highlighted and analysis is made of decisions involving industrial marketing.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MKT 322 - Services Marketing (3)

Focus is on the difference between service industries and manufacturing industries. Topics include the development of marketing strategies in service industries.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall.

MKT 323 - Direct Marketing (3)

Direct marketing strategy and techniques are introduced. Topics include databases, electronic media, direct mail, catalogs, direct response advertising, telemarketing, and the role of direct marketing in the marketing mix.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MKT 329 - Global Marketing (3)

Global issues that confront today's international marketers are addressed. Concepts relevant to all international marketers are presented, regardless of the extent of their international involvement.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 333 - Market Research (3)

The role of marketing information as the basis for decision making is studied, including the cost and value of information, research design and instrumentation, data analysis, and forecasting. Problem-solving exercises are included.

Prerequisite: MGT 249 and MKT 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 334 - Consumer Behavior (3)

The marketing environment, consumer behavior, and market segmentation is studied. Emphasis is on understanding the turbulent environment surrounding the marketing decision maker.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 335 - Marketing Communications and Promotion (3)

Basic promotional tools available to the marketing manager are studied: advertising, sales promotion, personal selling, and publicity.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MKT 337 - Retail Management (3)

Emphasis is on retail strategies and the managerial planning required to meet objectives.

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall.

MKT 338 - Advertising (3)

The key processes of modern advertising practice are introduced. Topics include production of effective advertising and media. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 334 and MKT 338. (Formerly MKT 438.)

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Spring.

MKT 340 - Personal Selling and Sales Management (3)

Focus is on personal selling, a subset of the promotional element of marketing strategy, which involves face-to-face relationships, personal influence, and complex communication processes. (Formerly Sales Management.)

Prerequisite: MKT 301.

Offered: Fall.

MKT 347 - Supply Chain Management (3)

Emphasis is on design and management of activities along the supply chain, from purchasing and materials management to distribution and transportation systems. Students cannot receive credit for both MGT 347 and MKT 347.

Prerequisite: MGT 301 and MKT 301.

Offered: As needed.

MKT 462 - Strategic Marketing Management (3)

This capstone course integrates the marketing functions of product, price, channels, and promotion with the concepts of strategic planning. Emphasis is on the relevance of this integration to marketing.

Prerequisite: MKT 301, MKT 329, MKT 333, MKT 334, and one additional 300-level marketing course.

Offered: Spring.

MKT 467 - Directed Internship (3)

Students are assigned to a business or nonprofit organization and earn three credits for topical course work, a two-hour biweekly seminar, and 120 hours of organization work, supervised by a mentor.

Prerequisite: MKT 301, completion of at least 60 college credits, a major or minor in a School of Management program, and consent of internship director and appropriate faculty member.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH - Mathematics

MATH 010 - Basic Mathematics Competency (4)

Satisfactory completion of this course fulfills the College Mathematics Competency. Topics include problem solving, beginning algebra, geometry, measurement, introductory probability and statistics, and graphs and charts. Graded S, U.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 117E - Calculus: A Short Course (3)

Topics include differentiation and integration, including an introduction to partial differentiation. Open to high school EEP students only.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 118E - Statistics in the Everyday World (4)

Descriptive and inferential statistics with applications are studied. Topics include confidence intervals, tests of significance, correlation and regression. Open to high school EEP students only.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 120 - Intermediate Algebra (3)

Intended for students needing intermediate algebra skills, especially for MATH 177, 209, 238, or 247, this course includes absolute value, inequalities, exponents and radicals, algebraic fractions, and quadratic and exponential functions.

Prerequisite: MATH 010 or equivalent and consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 139 - Contemporary Topics in Mathematics (4)

Areas of modern mathematics that have application in contemporary society are introduced. Topics include the mathematics of social science, graph theory, consumer mathematics, and statistics.

General Education Category: Mathematics.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 144 - Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II (4)

A continuation of MATH 143, this course includes geometry and measurement, counting problems, probability, and statistics. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Mathematics for elementary education students only.

Prerequisite: MATH 143, with a minimum grade of C, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 177 - Quantitative Business Analysis I (4)

Topics include linear and selected nonlinear functions, linear systems, matrix methods, linear programming, average rate of change, derivatives and marginal analysis. Applications to management and economics are stressed throughout.

General Education Category: Mathematics.

Prerequisite: Three units of college preparatory mathematics and completed college mathematics competency, or MATH 120 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 209 - Precalculus Mathematics (4)

The functions, concepts, and techniques of algebra and trigonometry considered essential in the study and applications of calculus are introduced and/or reinforced.

General Education Category: Mathematics.

Prerequisite: Three units of college preparatory mathematics and MATH 120, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 210 - College Trigonometry (3)

This is an in-depth study of trigonometry. Topics include a comprehensive analysis of trigonometric and inverse trigonometric functions and solutions of triangles, vectors, and polar coordinates.

Prerequisite: Three units of college preparatory mathematics and MATH 120 or MATH 181, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 212 - Calculus I (4)

This course covers the fundamental concepts, techniques, and applications of the differential calculus of one variable and begins the study of integration.

General Education Category: Mathematics.

Prerequisite: MATH 209.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 213 - Calculus II (4)

A continuation of MATH 212, topics include derivatives and integrals of logarithmic, exponential, and inverse trigonometric functions; techniques of integration; infinite series; and related applications.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: MATH 212

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 220 - Formalizing Mathematical Thought (4)

This course is an introduction to abstract and generalized thinking including formal mathematical proof. Students cannot receive credit for MATH 220 if credit was received for MATH 300.

Prerequisite: MATH 143, MATH 144, and MATH 209.

Offered: Fall.

MATH 238 - Quantitative Business Analysis II (3)

Elementary differential calculus and partial differentiation are studied, with applications to management. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 238 and MATH 212.

Prerequisite: MATH 177 or MATH 209.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 240 - Statistical Methods I (4)

Descriptive statistics; confidence intervals and hypothesis testing; random variables; estimations and tests of significance; and correlation and regression are studied. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 240 and MATH 248.

General Education Category: Mathematics.

Prerequisite: Three units of college preparatory mathematics and MATH 120, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 241 - Statistical Methods II (4)

Continuation of MATH 240 at elementary level. Covers analysis of variance, multiple regression, and non-parametric statistics. Emphasis on large data sets being analyzed through computer software, and interpretation of results. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 241 and MGT 249, nor for MATH 241 if credit was received for MATH 445.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning

Prerequisite: MATH 240

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 248 - Business Statistics I (4)

Topics include descriptive statistics, probability distributions, expected values, sampling distributions, and an introduction to estimation and hypothesis testing. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 240 and MATH 248.

General Education Category: Gen. Ed. Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: MATH 177 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 262 - Ethnomathematics (4)

Students investigate how different cultures develop mathematics. Topics include the development of numeration systems, arithmetic, geometry, and calendars.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 300 - Bridge to Advanced Mathematics (4)

The standard techniques of deductive proof in mathematics are applied to basic results regarding sets, relations, functions, and other topics.

Prerequisite: MATH 213 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 314 - Calculus III (4)

A continuation of MATH 213, this course covers three-dimensional analytic geometry, elementary vector analysis, functions of several variables, partial differentiation, and multiple integration.

Prerequisite: MATH 213.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 315 - Linear Algebra (4)

Matrices, linear systems, vector spaces, vector geometry, linear transformations, and appropriate applications are covered.

Prerequisite: MATH 300, with a minimum grade of C.

Offered: Fall.

MATH 324 - College Geometry (4)

Advanced topics in Euclidean geometry are considered using synthetic, analytic, vector, and transformational formats. Included are axiomatics and non-Euclidean geometry, topics in logic, and methods of proof appropriate for geometry.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: MATH 212.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 409 - Mathematical Problem Analysis (4)

Problem-solving strategies in mathematics are identified. The level of problems and their analyses is designed to give students confidence in their ability to handle problems and a basis for the teaching of problem analysis.

Prerequisite: MATH 143, MATH 144, and either MATH 209 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

MATH 411 - Calculus IV (4)

A continuation of MATH 314, study includes Lagrange multipliers, line integrals, Green's Theorem, transformations and the Jacobian, and an introduction to analysis involving limits and the derivative.

Prerequisite: MATH 314.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

MATH 416 - Ordinary Differential Equations (4)

The fundamentals of differential equations are studied in the context of applications. Topics include analytical and numerical solutions of first- and second-order equations, systems of equations, and modeling.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 314.

Offered: Spring (as needed).

MATH 417 - Introduction to Numerical Analysis (4)

Algorithms and computer programs are used/developed to solve various mathematical problems. Topics include numerical solutions of equations, numerical differentiation and integration, and interpolation and approximation of functions.

Prerequisite: MATH 213 and one computer science course, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (as needed).

MATH 418 - Introduction to Operations Research (3)

Operations research is the systematic application of mathematical techniques for generating better decisions for real-world problems. Besides linear programming, topics may include queuing and network analysis.

Prerequisite: MATH 212 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (even years).

MATH 431 - Number Theory (3)

Topics include number systems, divisibility, primes and factorization, Diophantine problems, congruences, and Euler's and Fermat's Theorems.

Prerequisite: MATH 212.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 432 - Introduction to Abstract Algebra (4)

The definitions and properties of groups, rings, and fields are studied. Properties of familiar number systems are exhibited as special cases of these more general and abstract systems.

Prerequisite: MATH 315.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 436 - Discrete Mathematics (3)

Several important areas in noncontinuous mathematics are introduced, including graph theory and its applications, difference equations, and finite-state machines.

Prerequisite: MATH 212.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 441 - Introduction to Probability (4)

Topics include the development of both discrete and continuous probability theory, combinatorics, mathematical expectation, joint distributions, and sampling distributions.

Prerequisite: MATH 314.

Offered: Fall.

MATH 445 - Advanced Statistical Methods (3)

Using computer packages, study is made of advanced statistical topics, such as design of experiments, analysis of variance, and multiple regression. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 445 and MGT 249.

Prerequisite: MATH 212 and either MATH 240 or MATH 248 or MATH 441.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 458 - History of Mathematics (4)

The history of mathematical thought and the development of mathematics from ancient to modern times are studied.

Prerequisite: MATH 300, with a minimum grade of C.

Offered: Fall.

MATH 461 - Seminar in Mathematics (3)

Students analyze, synthesize, and expand on mathematics learned in preceding courses, culminating in a substantial project and presentation.

Prerequisite: MATH 432 and MATH 441.

Offered: Spring.

MATH 490 - Directed Study in Mathematics (3)

This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in mathematics. Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 491 - Independent Study in Mathematics (1)

This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in mathematics. Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity mentored by a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 512 - Foundations of Higher Analysis (3)

Fundamental concepts in the theory of calculus are presented. Topics include limits, continuity and uniform continuity, differentiation, the Riemann integral, sequences and series, and convergence criteria.

Prerequisite: MATH 300 and MATH 314.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 515 - Introduction to Complex Variables (3)

Techniques and concepts of the algebra and calculus of functions of one complex variable are studied, including trigonometric, exponential, and logarithmic functions.

Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 314.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 519 - Set Theory (3)

The foundations of set theory and logic are studied in the context of their application in the construction of number systems, from the natural numbers through the reals.

Prerequisite: MATH 300, MATH 314, MATH 432, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 528 - Topology (3)

Study is made of sets and sequences, various topological spaces, including metric, compactness, connectedness, curves, and mappings.

Prerequisite: MATH 300 and MATH 314.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 532 - Algebraic Structures (3)

Selected topics in the development of groups, rings, modules, and fields are covered, including homomorphisms, permutation groups, basic Galois Theory, ring extension problems, and ideals.

Prerequisite: MATH 300, MATH 315, MATH 432.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 551 - Topics in Proof (3)

Varying topics in mathematical proof are examined, from number systems and functions to abstract spaces.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 552 - Topics in Applied Mathematics (3)

Varying topics in applied mathematics are examined, from numerical and analytical investigations to modeling.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MATH 553 - Topics in Pure Mathematics (3)

Varying topics in pure mathematics are examined, from number theory and advanced geometries to abstract algebra.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MTET - Mathematics for Elementary Teachers

MTET 511 - Delving Deeper: Number and Operations (3)

Students analyze the structure of number and operations in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include place, value, operations, and number systems.

Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.

Offered: As needed.

MTET 512 - Delving Deeper: Functions and Algebra (3)

Students analyze the structure of functions and algebra in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include variables, patterns, and equations. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.

Offered: As needed.

MTET 513 - Delving Deeper: Geometry and Measurement (3)

Students analyze the structure of geometry and measurement in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include equivalence, shape, and reasoning.

Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.

Offered: As needed.

MTET 514 - Delving Deeper: Data Analysis and Statistics (3)

Students examine the structure of data analysis and statistics in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include question formation, data analysis, and inference. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.

Offered: As needed.

MTET 515 - Delving Deeper: Problem Analysis (3)

Students examine the structure of problem analysis in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include problem selection, problem strategies, and problem posing. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.

Offered: As needed.

MEDT - Medical Technology

MEDT 301 - Clinical Microbiology (8)

The relationship of bacteria to human bacterial diseases is discussed, with emphasis on the application of procedures to medical diagnosis. Also studied are fungi, viruses, the rickettsias, and human parasites.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Fall.

MEDT 302 - Clinical Chemistry (8)

The chemistry of body constituents and its relationship to the diagnosis of human disease is presented, with emphasis on principles and methods of analysis.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Spring.

MEDT 303 - Immunohematology (4)

Instruction is given in drawing and processing blood and in how to ascertain compatibility. Donor-recipient blood and tissue reactions are studied in detail.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Fall.

MEDT 304 - Hematology (6)

The morphology of blood and blood-forming organs are studied, along with the abnormalities associated with disease. The dynamics of and diagnostic tests for hemostasis are also examined.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Spring.

MEDT 305 - Pathophysiology (2)

This is an introduction to pathology. Topics include the correlation between pathological processes and clinical symptoms and the course of disease.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Fall.

MEDT 306 - Clinical Immunology (2)

The formation, structure, and action of antigens and antibodies are described. Topics also include methods of immunization. Laboratory emphasis is on serological procedures in the diagnosis of disease.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Spring.

MEDT 307 - Clinical Microscopy (2)

Focus is on the analysis of body fluids. Lecture and laboratory.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.

Offered: Fall.

MLED - Middle Level Education

MLED 310 - Teaching Early Adolescents (3)

Students examine the developmental characteristics of early adolescence and implications for teaching. (Formerly FNED 351: Instructional Issues of Middle Level Students.)

Prerequisite: CEP 315 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 320 - Middle School Organization and Integrated Curriculum (4)

Students examine the emergence of the modern middle school and its components: teaming, advisory, flexible scheduling, and differentiated instruction. (Formerly CURR 307: Middle School Curriculum and Organization.)

Prerequisite: MLED 310; and for elementary education students, ELED 300; and for secondary education students, prior or concurrent enrollment in SED 407; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 330 - Interdisciplinary Reading and Writing in Middle Schools (3)

Students develop content area lessons that enable middle level students to read, write, and think critically in the content area. (Formerly CURR 411: Interdisciplinary Reading and Writing in Middle Schools.)

Prerequisite: MLED 320; and for elementary education students, prior or concurrent enrollment in a methods course; and for secondary education students, SED 407; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 340 - Differentiated Elements in Middle School Instruction (3)

Preservice teachers focus on methods of selecting strategies to meet the needs of diverse learners and the relationship between assessments and planning for instruction in the differentiated classroom.

Prerequisite: MLED 330.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 510 - Teaching and Learning at the Middle-Level (3)

Students examine the physical, emotional, social, and intellectual characteristics of early adolescents and the impact of society on early adolescents. A practicum of fifteen hours is required.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Middle-Level CGS.

Offered: As needed.

MLED 520 - Curriculum and Organization of Middle-Level Schools (3)

Students examine the emergence of middle-level schools and its components: teaming, advisory, flexible scheduling, common core, instruction, and assessment. A practicum of eight hours is required.

Prerequisite: MLED 510 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MLED 530 - Applications of Middle-Level Instructional Models (3)

Students develop lessons for all content areas, using reading and writing strategies to promote literacy and critical thinking in middle-level teaching and learning. Students participate in a fifteen-hour practicum.

Prerequisite: MLED 520 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MLED 540 - Practicum in Middle Level Instruction (4)

The development and application of instructional plans are facilitated, using middle-level differentiated strategies. Students examine the components of differentiated strategies. Students participate in a thirty-hour practicum.

Prerequisite: MLED 530 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

MLAN - Modern Languages

MLAN 162 - Latin American Mestizo Cultures (4)

Indigenous traditions and world views outside the Western experience are presented as they existed in the past and as they survive in contemporary Latin America. (Formerly Mestizo Concepts of Community and Spirituality.)

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

MLAN 320 - Internship in Modern Languages (3)

Students are placed in organizations appropriate to their concentrations. Sites may include advocacy agencies, nonprofit agencies, and businesses.

Prerequisite: Completion of two 300-level courses in a modern languages concentration and an overall GPA of 2.67.

Offered: As needed.

MLAN 360 - Seminar in Modern Languages (3)

Students examine the relationships, commonalities, and differences among the cultures taught in the modern languages major. Study may include art, film, geography, literature, and philosophy.

Prerequisite: Completion of two 300-level courses and one cognate course in a modern languages concentration and an overall GPA of 2.67.

Offered: Spring.

MLAN 400 - Applied Linguistics (3)

Meaning and nature of language and its application to the teaching of foreign languages is studied. Emphasis on the planning and presentation of basic audio-lingual structures. Practical work is included.

Prerequisite: Admission to PK-12 World Languages program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

MRI - Magnetic Resonance Imaging

MRI 301 - Introduction to Magnetic Resonance Imaging (5)

This course covers basic MRI history, instrumentation, safety, positioning, equipment, coils and an overview of the department. Also included are basic pharmacology, venipuncture and intravenous contrast media administration.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the MRI clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 309 - Clinical Observation (4)

This course provides an introduction to the clinical practice of MRI, with emphasis on departmental procedures, MRI safety, and patient care. This course offers practical experience observing and applying health care principles.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the MRI clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 310 - Clinical Practice I (8)

Students gain skills required to achieve clinical competencies in a variety of MRI procedures. This course allows practice of MRI skills and leads to proficiency in MRI and patient care.

Prerequisite: MRI 301

Offered: Summer.

Prerequisite: NPST 400 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.

Offered: Fall.

NPST 402 - Staff and Volunteer Management for Nonprofits (3)

Students will develop knowledge and skills in areas of human capital management systems, processes, and philosophies that ensure nonprofit organizational success. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: NPST 400 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.

Offered: Spring.

NPST 403 - Internship in the Nonprofit Sector (4)

Students undertake a semester-long internship at a nonprofit or philanthropic organization. Weekly seminars reinforce best practices in nonprofit administration and opportunities for students to discuss their field placement experiences.

Prerequisite: Consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NPST 404 - Communications and Resource Development for Nonprofits (3)

Students will develop knowledge and skills in areas of communication, marketing and public relations strategies, philanthropy, preparing grant proposals, and other fund development efforts. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: NPST 400 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.

Offered: Spring.

NPST 500 - Advanced Leadership Institute in Nonprofit Studies (3)

This course focuses on the origins and composition of the nonprofit sector, operational issues in management, and development of strategic solutions to manage and move the sector forward.

Prerequisite: Consent of the director of the certificate program in nonprofit studies.

Offered: Summer.

NPST 635 - Advanced Grant Development and Fundraising (3)

This course provides an overview of the grants process and fundraising. Emphasis on developing competitive proposals, budgets, systems of administration, and innovative strategies for cultivation of stakeholder support.

Prerequisite: NPST 500 or consent of the director of the certificate program in nonprofit studies.

Offered: Spring.

NMT - Nuclear Medicine Technology

NMT 231 - Clinical Observation (3.5)

The clinical practice of nuclear medicine is introduced, with emphasis on hospital policies and procedures, radiation safety, and patient care. Practical experience is given in observing and applying health care principles.

Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.

Offered: Spring.

NMT 301 - Introduction to Nuclear Medicine Technology (4)

This is an introduction to the science and practice of nuclear medicine technology. Topics include the organization of diagnostic departments and the responsibilities of the professional nuclear medicine technologist.

Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.

Offered: Spring.

NMT 311 - Radiation Safety and Radiation Physics (2)

The concepts and physical principles that govern radioactivity are discussed, along with the interactions of ionizing radiation with matter, principles, and applications of radiation safety and protection.

Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging program with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.

Offered: Spring.

NMT 321 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures I (3)

Topics covered are anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, radiopharmacy, imaging techniques, and the interpretation of images. The course is taught using an integrated systems approach as applied to nuclear medicine.

Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.

Offered: Spring.

NMT 332 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures I (8.5)

Students learn the skills required to achieve clinical competencies in a variety of nuclear medicine procedures. Emphasis is on the integration of clinical and didactic education.

Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology.

Offered: Summer.

NMT 402 - Instrumentation and Radiobiology (2)

The principles of operation and quality control are defined for all nonimaging and imaging instruments in nuclear medicine.

Prerequisite: NMT 311.

Offered: Fall.

NMT 405 - Radiopharmacy (1)

The theory and practice of radiopharmacy and radiochemistry are defined and discussed, including preparation, calculation of doses, quality control, radiation safety, and applicable regulations.

Prerequisite: NMT 301.

Offered: Summer.

NMT 421 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures II (3)

This is a continuation of NMT 321.

Prerequisite: NMT 321.

Offered: Summer.

NMT 425 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures III (3)

This is a continuation of NMT 421.

Prerequisite: NMT 421.

Offered: Fall.

NMT 430 - Registry Review (2)

Students prepare for the national certification exam offered by the Nuclear Medicine Technology Certification Board.

Prerequisite: NMT 311.

Offered: Spring.

NMT 431 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures II (8.5)

This is a continuation of NMT 332.

Prerequisite: NMT 331.

Offered: Fall.

NMT 432 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures III (6.5)

This course is a continuation of NMT 431.

Prerequisite: NMT 431.

Offered: Spring.

NURS - Nursing

NURS 101 - The Nursing Education Experience I (1)

Topics promoting success in the nursing program are covered, including issues in the learning and practice of nursing, study skills, personal growth, and involvement in the college and department.

Prerequisite: COLL 101 and consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 102 - The Nursing Education Experience II (1)

Students examine the social, cultural, and economic contexts of nursing through readings, discussion, guest lecturers, field trips, and participation in college activities.

Prerequisite: NURS 101 and consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 175 - Nursing Drug Calculations (1)

Using dimensional analysis, students learn how to calculate drug dosages. (For nursing majors only.)

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 201 - Introduction to Health Care Systems (3)

Students analyze organizational structure, resources, current technology, informational systems, outcome measures, safety initiatives, health care policy, and ethics. The consumer's central role in health care decision making is examined.

Prerequisite: A major in health care administration or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 207 - Baccalaureate Education for Nursing (4)

This is the formal transition for the RN student into the baccalaureate program in nursing. Emphasis is on the nursing process as the scientific methodology for nursing practice.

Prerequisite: Licensed R.N. students.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 220 - Foundations of Therapeutic Interventions (3)

Concepts of nutrition, pharmacology, and pathophysiology are introduced as foundations for therapeutic intervention in nursing practice.

Prerequisite: BIOL 231, CHEM 106, PSYC 230, prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 335, and acceptance to the nursing program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 222 - Professional Nursing I (3)

The profession of nursing is introduced, including the history and practice of nursing, the health illness continuum, the health care system, the nursing process, and the demographic and economic changes that affect nursing practice.

Prerequisite: BIOL 231, CHEM 106, PSYC 230, prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 335, and acceptance to the nursing program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 223 - Fundamentals of Nursing Practice (4)

Cognitive and psychomotor skills are applied through guided experiences in simulated and clinical situations. Emphasis is on skills essential for the nursing practice.

Prerequisite: BIOL 231, BIOL 335; CHEM 106; NURS 220, NURS 222; PSYC 230; and prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 348 and NURS 224.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 224 - Health Assessment (3)

Basic health assessment skills are introduced. Emphasis is on normal findings.

Prerequisite: BIOL 231; CHEM 106; PSYC 230; prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 335 and BIOL 348; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 225 - Introduction to Writing and Research in Nursing (2)

Students are introduced to the conventions of writing in nursing and the role of research in evidence-based nursing practice.

Prerequisite: Acceptance to the nursing program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 262 - Substance Abuse as a Global Issue (4)

The global issue of substance abuse is analyzed through the lens of from multicultural factors influencing human behavior. Students explore concepts related to dynamic processes operating when substances are abused.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 263 - Dying, Loss, and Grief: Cross-Cultural Perspectives (4)

Death and dying across several cultures is surveyed from a public health perspective. A comparison is made between five religious traditions. Also examined are non-Western versus Western cultural beliefs.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

NURS 264 - Status of the World's Children (4)

The impact of cultural identity and heritage of children around the world is analyzed. Global issues of child exploitation and the global effort to halt that exploitation are examined.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 302 - Health Care Organizations (3)

The unique aspects of health care organizations are examined. Topics include governance, leadership challenges, performance improvement, finance, ethics, and regulation. Comparisons are made to traditional business organizations.

Prerequisite: NURS 201 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 303 - Health Policy and Contemporary Issues (3)

Policymaking processes and current policies affecting delivery of health care for individuals and populations are examined. Effectiveness, impact on cost, accessibility, and quality of care are analyzed.

Prerequisite: NURS 201 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 312 - Death and Dying (3)

Students explore their own feelings about death and dying from historical, ethical, and legal perspectives.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 314 - Health and Aging (4)

An interdisciplinary approach is taken to the health/mental health of older adults. Normal aging is compared to disease/disorders. Students cannot receive credit for both GRTL 314 and NURS 314.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 316 - Physical Assessment of the Adult and Child (4)

Diagnostic skills are used to assess clients of all age groups. Assessment of health and developmental status is done through interview, inspection, palpation, percussion, and auscultation.

Prerequisite: RN students.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 340 - Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing (6)

Psychiatric/mental health theory, practice, and the professional role are introduced, with emphasis on the adult client. Common psychiatric disorders across the lifespan are included.

Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224 and NURS 225.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 342 - Adult Health Nursing I (6)

Focus is on the promotion of health and the management of illness in the adult client. Students learn to manage client care in various settings and to develop professional behaviors through learning activities and practice situations.

Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224, NURS 225 and NURS 340.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 344 - Maternal Newborn Nursing (6)

Nursing theory and application are introduced in the practicum setting, with focus on the comprehensive and continuing care of expectant and newly expanded family systems.

Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224 and NURS 225.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 346 - Nursing of Children and Families (6)

The nursing care of children is examined within the context of the individual, family, and community. Principles of growth and development, health promotion, and therapeutic interventions are analyzed and applied.

Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224, NURS 225 and NURS 344.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 370 - Public and Community Health Nursing (6)

Principles of public health and nursing are synthesized and applied to the care of families and populations in theory and in practice. Ethnographic, epidemiological, and public policy approaches are used to understand public health issues.

Prerequisite: Prerequisite for general students: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346. Prerequisite for licensed R.N. students: acceptance by School of Nursing for senior level.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 372 - Adult Health Nursing II (6)

Focus continues on the promotion of health and the management of illness in adult clients. Students expand their knowledge and nursing practice in various settings. Professional behaviors are also developed.

Prerequisite: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 374 - Contemporary Professional Nursing (3)

Major topics pertinent to professional development and practice are analyzed in depth. Leadership and management theories, contemporary nursing issues, and factors facilitating professional achievements are also presented.

Prerequisite: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 375 - Transition to Professional Nursing Practice (6)

Professional values, roles, and issues, as well as client population-focused issues are discussed in seminar and applied in practicum. Students select a clinical setting in which the transition from student to professional nurse is fostered.

Prerequisite: NURS 372 and NURS 374.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 376 - Contemporary Nursing Practices: Issues and Challenges (6)

Professional values, roles, and issues pertinent to the contemporary health care environment are examined.

Prerequisite: R.N. student and NURS 370.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 390 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

NURS 391 - Independent Study in Nursing (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a different topic or continuation of a non-honors project.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 401 - Ethical and Legal Issues in Health Care Management (3)

Ethical and legal issues in health care are examined. Topics include ethical theories and bioethics, legal and regulatory systems, and patients' rights and responsibilities.

Prerequisite: NURS 201 or consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 402 - Health Care Informatics (3)

Informatics in health care are examined. Topics include essential computer components and internet structure, electronic medical records, clinical decision support, and user/computer interfaces.

Prerequisite: CIS 251 or consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 471 - Practicum in Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies (4)

Students practice intervention strategies, with emphasis on self-awareness and self-assessment. Observation and evaluation is conducted by the practicum supervisor. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 471 and PSYC 471.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in chemical dependency/addiction studies program and PSYC 351 and PSYC 452.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 474 - Internship in Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies (4)

Students gain field experience in an agency providing substance abuse services. Included are weekly seminar sessions, on-site visits, and field consultation. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 474 and PSYC 472.

Prerequisite: PSYC 425, PSYC 471, and approval of practicum and internship instructors.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the nursing honors program.

Offered: As needed.

NURS 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in NURS 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment form the department.

Prerequisite: NURS 491, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

NURS 501 - Advanced Nursing Research (3)

Theories and methodologies for evaluating research findings in nursing and health care are examined. Focus is on dissemination and utilization of research findings for evidence-based practice.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

NURS 502 - Health Care Systems (3)

Topics covered are organizational structure, resources, current technology, informational systems, outcome measures, safety initiatives, health care policy, and ethics. The central role of the patient in health care decision making is also examined.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 503 - Professional Role Development (3)

Behaviors that promote change and collaboration in practice environments are examined, including concepts of leadership, communication, power, and problem solving.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

NURS 504 - Advanced Pathophysiology (3)

Students explore the interrelationships of human systems and the effects of illness on the individual as a whole. Concepts and patterns of alterations in physiological mechanisms and functions are identified.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 505 - Advanced Pharmacology (3)

Pharmacologic agents and their clinical applications are examined. Pharmacologics, therapeutic uses, and the side effects and drug interactions of a broad variety of classes of drugs are explored as treatment modalities.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 506 - Advanced Health Assessment (3)

This course assists the learner in the acquisition of advanced health assessment skills. The status of clients is determined by using the health history interview and advanced diagnostic skills.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 508 - Public Health Science (3)

Study is made of environmental and occupational health, bioterrorism and disaster preparedness, communicable diseases, chronic diseases, and vulnerable populations.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 509 - Professional Project Seminar (1)

Students develop plans for a comprehensive project in the form of research, program design, or grant preparation. Planning includes literature review and exploration of resources. (Formerly Professional Project Seminar I.)

Prerequisite: NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, and graduate status in nursing.

Offered: Summer.

NURS 510 - Adult/Older Adult Health/Illness I (3)

Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to health promotion and disease prevention of adults across the lifespan. Emphasis is on the patient sphere. (Formerly Acute Care/Critical Care I.)

Prerequisite: NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 504, and NURS 530 (CNS) or NURS 540 (NP).

Offered: Spring.

NURS 511 - Population/Public Health Nursing (6)

Variables relevant to public health problems are investigated through field experience. Students demonstrate knowledge of analytic assessment and public health science skills.

Prerequisite: NURS 508; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, and NURS 507.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 512 - Genetics and Genomics in Health Care (3)

The scientific, ethical, legal, social, technological, and policy implications of genetics and genomics are explored, with application to interdisciplinary health care professionals.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of program director.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 513 - Teaching Nursing (3)

This elective course introduces students to the knowledge, skills, and attitudes required of a nurse educator. Through classroom and clinically oriented learning activities, students gain basic competencies.

Offered: Summer Session I.

NURS 514 - Advanced Pharmacology for Nurse Anesthesia (2)

This course builds upon the foundation established in NURS 505, and pharmacologic agents for anesthesia practice are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 505; CHEM 519; BIOL 535.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 515 - Foundational Principles of Nurse Anesthesia (3)

The history and scope of nurse anesthesia, physics as applied to anesthesia administration and practice, anesthesia equipment, perioperative evaluation and basic management are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 505, NURS 506; NURS 504 prerequisite or concurrent.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 516 - Advanced Principles of Nurse Anesthesia Practice I (3)

Advanced principles of anesthesia administration and management, including general and regional techniques for surgery are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 514, NURS 515.

Offered: Summer.

NURS 517 - Foundational Principles of Nurse Anesthesia (3)

The history and scope of nurse anesthesia practice, physics as applied to anesthesia administration and practice, anesthesia equipment, preoperative evaluation and basic management are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 505; NURS 506; NURS 504 prerequisite or concurrent.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 518 - Nursing Care/Case Management (3)

Students examine evidence-based approaches to the coordination of services for populations across health care systems to enhance client-centered, interdisciplinary care, outcomes based quality improvement and cost containment.

Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of program director.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 530 - Synergy Model for C.N.S. Practice (3)

Students develop knowledge of the Synergy Model required for the clinical nurse specialist practice. Model assumptions, development, and applicability to C.N.S. practice are discussed, analyzed, and applied.

Prerequisite: NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 504, and NURS 510.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 540 - Differential Diagnosis for Nurse Practitioners (3)

Students are introduced to the diagnostic framework, clinical decision making, and evidence-based resources. Focus is on developing skills in diagnostic reasoning and differential diagnosis.

Prerequisite: NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 504, and NURS 510.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 570 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum I (1)

Introduction to basic anesthesia skills and techniques for the novice with emphasis on airway management under direct supervision of clinical preceptors.

Prerequisite: NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 515; NURS 516 concurrent.

Offered: Summer.

NURS 609 - Master's Major Project (1)

Under the supervision of their primary project advisor, students conduct a major project, complete a final writing project, and present findings. (Formerly Professional Project Seminar II.) Graded S, U. Students enroll for a maximum of 2 credit hours.

Prerequisite: NURS 509.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 610 - Adult/Older Adult Health/Illness II (6)

Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to caring for adults with select acute health alterations. Emphasis is on the nursing/nursing practice sphere. (Formerly Acute Care/Critical Care II.)

Prerequisite: NURS 510 and NURS 530 or NURS 540.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 611 - Population/Public Health Nursing II (6)

Students collaborate with community groups to assess health needs, develop partnerships, and plan programs to address needs based on cultural sensitivity. Public policy solutions to those needs are proposed.

Prerequisite: NURS 511.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 616 - Advanced Principles of Nurse Anesthesia Practice II (3)

Advanced principles of anesthesia administration and management for cardiac, thoracic and neurological surgeries are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 516.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 620 - Adult/Older Adult Health/Illness III (6)

Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to caring for adults with select acute health alterations. Emphasis is on the systems/organizational sphere. (Formerly Acute Care/Critical Care III.)

Prerequisite: NURS 610.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 621 - Population/Public Health Nursing III (6)

Students engage in public policy and program planning with existing health systems. Focus includes budget development, oversight, and the use of management information systems for decision making.

Prerequisite: NURS 611.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 626 - Advanced Principles in Nurse Anesthesia III (3)

Advanced principles of anesthesia and management of endocrine, liver, neuromuscular, and burn surgeries, and surgery in obesity, with chronic pain and in remote settings, are examined.

Prerequisite: NURS 616.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 630 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum II (1)

Application of theory and development of skills for the advanced beginner under the close supervision of clinical preceptors.

Prerequisite: NURS 570; NURS 616 concurrent.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 636 - Transition into Nurse Anesthesia Practice (2)

Topics for entry into professional practice are examined and explored.

Prerequisite: NURS 670; NURS 690 concurrent.

Offered: Fall.

NURS 640 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum III (1)

The competent student will continue to apply advanced principles and improve skills under the guidance of clinical preceptors.

Prerequisite: NURS 630; NURS 626 concurrent.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 670 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum IV (1)

The proficient student will expand and enhance knowledge and skills with minimal direct guidance of clinical preceptors.

Prerequisite: NURS 640.

Offered: Spring.

NURS 690 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum V (1)

The novice practitioner will prepare to transition from the student role with consultation and minimal guidance of clinical preceptors.

Prerequisite: NURS 670; NURS 636 concurrent.

Offered: Spring.

PFA - Performing Arts

PFA 158 - Experiencing the Performing Arts (3)

An interdisciplinary approach is used to introduce the student to the performing arts. Perspectives concerning music, theatre, and dance as collaborative art forms are studied. The student is involved as listener, creator, and active participant.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall (as needed).

PFA 461 - Senior Seminar (3)

Senior candidates for the B.A. in music complete a project appropriate to their interests and field within the performing arts. This project includes a written component and possibly a performance element.

Prerequisite: Senior standing in the B.A. in music program.

Offered: Spring.

PHIL - Philosophy

PHIL 165 - The Heritage of Asian Philosophy (4)

The philosophical traditions of India, China, and Japan are explored. Focus is on Asian conceptions of reality, theories of knowledge, systems of ethical relationships and beliefs about human nature, and the role of philosophy in human affairs.

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 167 - Native American Philosophy (4)

Focus is on the wisdom found in Native American traditions. Current primary sources are used so that students may experience Native American philosophy directly.

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 200 - Introduction to Philosophy (3)

Basic philosophic issues, such as the existence of God, free will, minds, the nature of reality, knowledge, and truth, are examined. Emphasis is on reasoning and justification.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 201 - Introduction to Eastern Philosophy (3)

Theories of reality, knowledge, and the meaning of human existence in Eastern philosophical traditions are investigated. Included are the metaphysical speculations of the Indian schools and the ethical theories of East Asian schools.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 205 - Introduction to Logic (4)

This course covers principles of valid reasoning. Formal methods of propositional and quantificational logic are introduced to evaluate the validity of reasoning in arguments.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 206 - Ethics (3)

An examination and explanation of ethical judgments are made. Clarification and analysis of ethical terms and the validity of norms of conduct from the standpoint of formalistic, intuitional, hedonistic, and naturalistic ethical theories are considered.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 220 - Logic and Probability in Scientific Reasoning (4)

Natural and social sciences require probabilistic reasoning, with special logical features. This course studies general principles of logic, special principles of probabilistic reasoning, their scientific applications, and common probabilistic fallacies.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: Completion of any Mathematics or Natural Science general education distribution.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 230 - Aesthetics (4)

This course examines issues in the philosophy of art, such as: the nature of art, art and emotion, artistic intentions, aesthetic value, art and knowledge, and art and morality.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 241 - Philosophy of Religion (3)

This is an inquiry into the ontological, epistemological, and axiological ramifications of religious experience.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 261 - Ethical Issues in Health Care (4)

This is a critical inquiry into ethical issues in health care. Moral theories from both Western and non-Western traditions are discussed and applied to issues in health care.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 262 - Freedom and Responsibility (4)

This class examines the nature of free will. What is it? Is it necessary for moral responsibility? Do we have it? And if not, what should we do about it?

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 263 - The Idea of God (4)

Concepts of Divinity are critically examined. Issues include polytheism, monotheism, atheism, gender and the God(ess). Students are challenged to critically examine their own ideas through various philosophical and religious traditions.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 264 - The Great Ethical Traditions (4)

This is a critical inquiry into ethical issues and the great ethical traditions. Moral theories from both Western and non-Western traditions are examined.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 265 - Philosophical Issues of Gender and Sex (4)

Philosophical questions concerning the concepts of sex and gender are explored. Readings will be drawn from philosophical texts and from a number of related disciplines.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 266 - Asian Philosophies: Theory and Practice (4)

Study of philosophical themes and practical implications (personal and communal) in Asian cultures. Issues include concepts of life and death, origins and nature of reality, and standards of ethical relations.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 300 - American Philosophy (3)

In this survey from the American colonial period to the present, some of the major works of significant American philosophers are read and discussed. Among the philosophers considered are Charles Peirce, William James, and John Dewey.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 305 - Intermediate Logic (4)

This course covers some extensions of elementary logic with applications. Topics may include propositional modal logic, quantified modal logic, inductive logic, and meta-logic.

Prerequisite: 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PHIL 306 - Contemporary Ethical Theory (3)

Theories about the nature and possibility of ethics are discussed. Topics may include relativism, egoism, intuitionism, moral realism, the nature of the moral person, moral development, feminist ethics, and the significance of evolution.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall.

PHIL 311 - Knowledge and Truth (3)

The concept of knowledge and its relationship to the world of experience is investigated. Various theories of the nature of truth are presented and analyzed. Students are introduced to epistemology.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PHIL 315 - Evidence, Reasoning, and Proof (3)

The concept of evidence, types of reasoning, and standards of proof are examined. Topics include types of evidence, evaluating evidence, eyewitness claims, expert testimony and memory, appraising reasoning, and standards of proof.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Annually.

PHIL 320 - Philosophy of Science (4)

Induction and probability, causality and the laws of nature, as well as the nature of explanation and justification, are covered.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHIL 321 - Social and Political Philosophy (3)

Students examine social and political theories and the philosophical issues they raise concerning the origin of society and man's nature as a "political being" and "social being."

Prerequisite: Completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 322 - Philosophy of Law (3)

Conceptual problems regarding law and legal systems are examined. Topics may include the nature of law, law and morality, civil disobedience, positivism, naturalism, personhood under the law, rights, punishment, and criminal responsibility.

Prerequisite: Completion of completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring.

PHIL 325 - Environmental Ethics (3)

Theories and reality, ideology and action, and values and facts are examined. Focus is on rational policy decision making.

Prerequisite: Completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 330 - Metaphysics (3)

This is a problem-oriented introduction to some of the central issues of contemporary metaphysics. Topics may include ontology (what exists), necessity, causation, free will/determinism, space and time, and identity-over-time.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHIL 333 - Philosophy of Mind (3)

The status and role of mind in relation to body is studied. Diverse theories, such as mind/body dualism, identity theory, behaviorism, functionalism, and emergence, are discussed.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHIL 351 - Plato, Aristotle, and Greek Philosophy (4)

The origins of philosophy in Greek thought are explored. Works of philosophers such as Plato and Aristotle are read. (Formerly Plato, Aristotle, and Greek Thought.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall.

PHIL 353 - Epicureans, Stoics, Skeptics, and Hellenistic Philosophy (3)

Greek and Roman philosophy after Aristotle and before the Medieval period is studied. (Formerly Epicurus, Plotinus, and Hellenistic Philosophy.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PHIL 355 - Augustine, Aquinas, and Medieval Philosophy (3)

The origins of medieval thought are traced. The institutionalization of philosophic thought is analyzed. The works of Aquinas and Augustine are studied. (Formerly Aquinas, Bonaventure, and Medieval Thought.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 356 - Descartes, Hume, Kant, and Modern Philosophy (4)

Works from European philosophers from Descartes to Kant are read. (Formerly Seventeenth- and Eighteenth-Century Philosophers.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring.

PHIL 357 - Hegel, Nietzsche, and Nineteenth-Century Philosophy (3)

Selections from the works of Hegel and Nietzsche are analyzed and critiqued along with other nineteenth-century philosophers, such as Kierkegaard, Schopenhauer, Marx, and Freud.

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHIL 358 - Existentialism and Phenomenological Philosophy (3)

The main themes of existentialist philosophy and its successors are investigated through the study of such authors as Kierkegaard, Heidegger, Sartre, and Camus. (Formerly Existentialism and Contemporary Philosophy.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHIL 359 - Frege, Russell, Wittgenstein, and Analytic Philosophy (3)

Late nineteenth- and twentieth-century philosophers of language, such as Frege, Russell, Moore, Wittgenstein, Austin, Quine, and Kripke, are studied. (Formerly Contemporary Analytic Philosophy.)

Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHIL 363-364 - Seminar in Philosophy (3 or 4)

Concepts, individual thinkers, or institutional movements may be chosen and explored intensively.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 390 - Directed Study (3-4)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 479 - Philosophy Internship (1-4)

Students experience the environment of institutions and firms where the work demand includes a substantial philosophical dimension.

Prerequisite: Open to philosophy majors who have completed at least 60 credit hours of undergraduate courses, 18 of which are philosophy courses, with consent of department chair.

Offered: Summer as needed.

PHIL 490 - Independent Study in Philosophy (1-4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member. May be repeated with a different topic or continuation of a non-honors project.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 491 - Independent Study I (3-4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the philosophy honors program.

Offered: As needed.

PHIL 492 - Independent Study II (3-4)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in PHIL 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: PHIL 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSCI - Physical Science

PSCI 103 - Physical Science (4)

The processes and natural laws that control our physical environment are investigated. Emphasis is on laboratory experiment. Lecture and laboratory. Students cannot receive credit for both PSCI 103 and PHYS 101-PHYS 102.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSCI 207 - Introduction to Environmental Chemistry (3)

The flow of material and energy through the Earth system is introduced. Principles of element cycles, climate science, and coastal processes are also investigated.

Offered: Annually.

PSCI 208 - Forensic Science (4)

Students learn about modern forensic techniques used in crime scene analysis. Emphasis is on the methods used to collect and interpret crime scene data.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: Any Mathematics or Natural Science.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSCI 211 - Introduction to Astronomy (4)

Our solar system, the sun and other stars, galaxies, and the universe are explored. Astronomical phenomena are explained using basic physical principles. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSCI 212 - Introduction to Geology (4)

Focus is on the structure and composition of the earth and the processes that have shaped the earth. Topics include minerals, origin of magma, volcanic activity, and weathering and soil formation. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

PSCI 214 - Introduction to Meteorology (3)

The structure of the atmosphere and the processes relevant to the study of weather are considered. Emphasis is on the physical laws that govern atmospheric phenomena. Lecture.

Offered: Spring.

PSCI 217 - Introduction to Oceanography (4)

Topics include mapping the sea floor, formation of the ocean basins, sediments as recorders of ocean history, the composition and physical properties of seawater, ocean circulation, El Ninos, waves, and tides. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Spring.

PSCI 340 - Field Methods in Geology (3)

Mapping and the interpretation of geological structures are introduced. Emphasis is on the geology of local areas. Included are identification of rocks and methods of recording field observations. Laboratory and field trips.

Prerequisite: PSCI 212 or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

PSCI 357 - Historical and Contemporary Contexts of Science (3)

The development of science and technology is explored through case histories from the physical, biological, and environmental sciences.

Prerequisite: Any Natural Science course.

Offered: As needed.

PSCI 490 - Directed Study in Physical Science (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. A particular area of physical science is studied on the basis of the interest of the student and the instructor.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSCI 491-493 - Research in Physical Science (1)

The student conducts original research in an area selected after consultation with the instructor and prepares a report of their work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PHYS - Physics

PHYS 101 - General Physics I (4)

This noncalculus-based course includes vectors, statics, kinematics, Newton's laws, energy, momentum, fluids, thermodynamics, and wave motion. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

PHYS 102 - General Physics II (4)

This noncalculus-based course includes electrostatics, DC and AC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, optics, and an introduction to atomic and nuclear physics. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: PHYS 101.

Offered: Spring Summer.

PHYS 110 - Introductory Physics (4)

This algebra-based course includes vectors, statics, Newton's Laws, work and energy, electrostatics, DC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, nuclear radiation, and topics in modern physics. Lecture and Laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Offered: Spring.

PHYS 118E - Fundamentals of Physics I (4)

This noncalculus-based course includes vectors, statics, kinematics, Newton's laws, energy, momentum, fluids, thermodynamics, and wave motion. Lecture and laboratory. Open to high school EEP students only.

Offered: As needed.

PHYS 119E - Fundamentals of Physics II (4)

This noncalculus-based course includes electrostatics, DC and AC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, optics, and an introduction to atomic and nuclear physics. Lecture and laboratory. Open to high school EEP students only.

Prerequisite: PHYS 118E.

Offered: As needed.

PHYS 200 - Mechanics (4)

This calculus-based course includes vectors, statics, kinematics, momentum, energy, rotational motion, small oscillations, and fluid mechanics. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Natural Science.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 212, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

PHYS 201 - Electricity and Magnetism (4)

This calculus-based course includes electrostatics in a vacuum and in the presence of matter, DC and AC circuits, electromagnetism, and an introduction to optics. Lecture and laboratory.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: PHYS 200 and prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 213, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

PHYS 307 - Quantum Mechanics I (3)

Topics include relativistic mechanics, the failures of classical physics, the structure of the atom, and the wave description of matter, including the Schrödinger Equation. Lecture

Prerequisite: PHYS 201.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHYS 311 - Thermodynamics (3)

This is an introduction to the laws of thermodynamics and its application to equilibrium systems, such as ideal gases, phase transformations, solutions and chemical reactions, and elementary statistical mechanics. Lecture.

Prerequisite: PHYS 200 and successful completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 213, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHYS 312 - Mathematical Methods in Physics (3)

Topics include curvilinear coordinates, complex variables, integral transforms, vectors and matrices, special functions, differential equations, and numerical methods as applied to physics. Lecture.

Prerequisite: MATH 314.

Offered: Spring.

PHYS 313 - Junior Laboratory (3)

Intermediate-level experiments are performed in all areas of physics. Students also learn research skills, such as data analysis, literature review, and communication skills. Laboratory.

Prerequisite: PHYS 201 and PHYS 307.

Offered: Spring.

PHYS 315 - Optics (4)

This course covers electromagnetic waves, geometric optics, and physical optics. Topics include: mirrors, lenses, optical systems, thick lenses, aberrations, interference, diffraction, polarization, coherence, and lasers. Laboratory.

Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or PHYS 201 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHYS 320 - Analog Electronics (4)

Students examine discrete components, including resistors, capacitors, diodes, and transistors, and their applications. Oscilloscopes and other standard laboratory test equipment are used extensively. Integrated circuits are also introduced.

Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or 201 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHYS 321 - Digital Electronics (4)

Students explore basic logic chips and combine them to build digital devices including a microcomputer. Devices include multiplexers, counters, adders, flip-flops, and memory buses. Laboratory.

Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or PHYS 201 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHYS 401 - Advanced Electricity and Magnetism I (3)

This is an examination of the theory and application of electrostatic fields, charge, potential, magnetic fields, steady currents, magnetic flux, inductance, transient current, radiation, and magnetic energy. Lecture.

Prerequisite: MATH 314 and PHYS 201.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHYS 402 - Advanced Electricity and Magnetism II (3)

This course covers the principles of electrodynamics including Maxwell's Equations, conservation laws, electromagnetic radiation, and the application of Special Relativity to electrodynamics. Lecture. (Formerly Advanced Electricity and Magnetism.)

Prerequisite: PHYS 401.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PHYS 403 - Classical Mechanics (3)

This course covers, at an advanced level, the classical theory of linear and rotational dynamics of particles and continuous media. An introduction to Lagrangian mechanics is included. Lecture. (Formerly Intermediate Mechanics.)

Prerequisite: MATH 314, PHYS 201.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHYS 407 - Quantum Mechanics II (3)

Topics include the hydrogen atom, angular momentum, spin, the structure of solids, nuclear physics, and particle physics. Lecture. (Formerly Quantum Mechanics.)

Prerequisite: PHYS 201 and PHYS 307.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHYS 409 - Solid State Physics (3)

Topics include crystallography, common crystal structures, the reciprocal lattice, band theory, phonons, metals, and semiconductors. Lecture.

Prerequisite: PHYS 307.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PHYS 411 - Statistical Mechanics (3)

Topics include the advanced kinetic theory of gases, transport phenomena, and quantum statistical mechanics. Lecture. (Formerly Thermodynamics and Statistical Mechanics.)

Prerequisite: CHEM 104, MATH 416, PHYS 201.

Offered: As needed.

PHYS 413 - Senior Laboratory (3)

Advanced experiments in mechanics, waves, thermodynamics, optics, electromagnetism, and other topics are conducted. Laboratory.

Prerequisite: PHYS 201 and PHYS 313.

Offered: Spring.

PHYS 467 - Honors Colloquium in Physics ()

Current topics in science at an advanced level are presented through department colloquia with outside speakers and through a series of seminars led by resident experts. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: (1) 0.5 credit hour. PHYS 201 and consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHYS 490 - Directed Study in Physics (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. An area of physics is studied on the basis of the interest of the student and the instructor.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PHYS 491-493 - Research in Physics (1)

The student conducts original research in an area selected after consulting with the instructor and prepares a report on the work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

POL - Political Science

POL 161 - Politics and Culture in Southeast Asia (4)

Focus is on the interplay of culture and politics in Southeast Asia. Where possible, students approach Southeast Asian culture and politics through the writings and works of Southeast Asian leaders and citizens themselves.

General Education Category: Core 3.

Offered: Annually.

POL 200 - Introduction to Political Science (3)

The scope and methods of political science are introduced along with political ideologies, socialization, and institutions.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 201 - Development of American Democracy (4)

The struggle for democratic values, political institutions, and social freedoms from the Revolution to the present are considered. Landmark documents and themes in America's political history are analyzed.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 202 - American Government (4)

The institutions and principles of American national government are examined. Topics include the constitutional foundation, federalism, political parties, Congress, the presidency, the Supreme Court, and civil rights.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 203 - Global Politics (4)

This is an introduction to the governance of other contemporary national political systems and to the forces, principles, and transnational arrangements of international politics.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 204 - Introduction to Political Thought (4)

Fundamental concepts and issues of philosophy and political theory are investigated. Basic precepts about authority, law, government, and the terms of obligation are examined in light of contemporary concerns.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 208 - Introduction to the Law (3)

How the law and legal system affect the everyday lives of citizens is analyzed. Emphasis is placed on topics of current concern at all levels of government.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 261 - Global Competition: The United States and Its Trading Partners (4)

Issues surrounding global economic competition are examined along with the merits of free trade for the United States and other global competitors.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 262 - Power and Community (4)

Students study normative and empirical aspects of the concepts of "power" and "community." Examples of power relations in a variety of contexts and settings will be compared.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 264 - Federalism and Nation Building (4)

Literature produced by the development of American federalism and its relevance to contemporary issues in diverse cultural settings is studied.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Annually.

POL 265 - Politics and Popular Culture: Global Perspectives (4)

Students investigate the intersection of politics and popular culture in Western and non-Western societies by examining entertainment values, their relationship to political culture and behavior, and the debate over globalization.

General Education Category: Core 4.

Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.

Offered: Annually.

POL 266 - Investing in the Global Economy (4)

Students study nations around the world pursuing success in global economic competition. The course will compare economic development and investment opportunities of nations and their businesses.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 267 - Immigration, Citizenship, and National Identity (4)

Students investigate how different societies have dealt with citizenship and immigration issues and how conceptions of nationhood influence citizenship and immigration debates.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Annually.

POL 300 - Methodology in Political Science (4)

The approaches and methods of empirical political science research are surveyed. Emphasis is on research design, data collection, and interpretation.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Prerequisite: POL 202 and any Gen. Ed. Mathematics course, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 301 - Foundations of Public Administration (4)

The art and science of public administration is introduced. Focus is on the administrative leadership necessary to manage government agencies within the American political system.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

POL 303 - International Law and Organization (4)

Both twentieth-century international organization and the place of evolving international law are considered with respect to the settlement of disputes and the maintenance of peace.

Prerequisite: POL 203 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

POL 306 - State and Local Government (3)

Students examine the political structures, processes, policies, and power distributions in state and local governments in the United States. Topics include intergovernmental relations, executive leadership, and legislative policy making.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Every third semester.

POL 307 - Political Behavior (4)

Students examine how individuals interact with the American political system. Topics include political socialization, political psychology, public opinion, voting behavior, and other forms of mass political participation.

Prerequisite: POL 202.

Offered: Fall (even years).

POL 308 - Current Political Controversy (4)

Students learn the art and science of political analysis by critically reading and writing about political controversies currently in the news while learning to use the tools and data available to political scientists.

Prerequisite: POL 202 and completion of 30 credits.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 309 - Women and Politics (4)

Focus is on the increasing involvement of women in the politics and issues of contemporary America. Women's political socialization, voting behavior, and political roles in government are also discussed.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

POL 315 - Western Legal Systems (4)

This is a comparative study of English common law and continental European civil law. Students cannot receive credit for both POL 315 and HIST 315.

Prerequisite: Completion of one of the following: HIST 101, HIST 102, HIST 103, HIST 104, HIST 105, HIST 106, HIST 107, or HIST 161; or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 316 - Modern Western Political Thought (4)

The ideas of major Western political thinkers are reviewed. Students cannot receive credit for both HIST 316 and POL 316. (Formerly POL 310: Political Thought and the Modern World.)

Prerequisite: POL 204 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

POL 317 - Politics and Society (4)

Relationships of power and authority and their social foundations are examined. Students cannot receive credit for more than one of the following: HIST 317, POL 317, and SOC 317.

Prerequisite: POL 204 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

POL 318 - Crises of Liberalism (4)

Liberalism is studied and critiqued as political philosophy and as creed: a liberalism of toleration/inalienable natural rights; a liberalism of autonomy/market choice; a liberalism of human development/capability.

Prerequisite: POL 204 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

POL 327 - Internship in State Government (4)

Through field placements in the government of Rhode Island, students are able to integrate classroom theory with political reality. Included is a weekly lecture series involving the participation of appropriate political leaders and academics.

Prerequisite: Recommendation of the Academic Advisory Committee to the State Internship Commission.

Offered: Spring.

POL 328 - Field Experiences in the Public Sector (4)

Students are assigned to local, state, or national agencies, political parties, or interest groups. Assignments relate field experiences to academic concepts.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 331 - Courts and Public Policy (4)

Students examine the role of courts in forming and implementing public policy. Topics include litigation strategies, the selection of judges, judicial activism, and the impact of court decisions on society.

Prerequisite: POL 202.

Offered: Fall.

POL 332 - Civil Liberties in the United States (4)

Traditional constitutional guarantees of civil liberty and due process in American life are examined. Included are an examination of legal decisions and the justifications offered for those decisions.

Prerequisite: POL 202.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 333 - Law and Politics of Civil Rights (4)

Struggles for legal and political equality are examined, with primary focus on discrimination based on race, sex, and sexual orientation. Interactions among law, political institutions, interest groups, and social movements are also explored.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

POL 335 - Jurisprudence and the American Judicial Process (3)

The nature of law is examined through the analysis of selected theories of jurisprudence. Attention is given to judicial organization and process, judicial administration and politics, and judicial behavior at both the state and national levels.

Prerequisite: One 200-level political science course or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 337 - Urban Political Geography (3)

Geographic and political analyses are used to study the growth of cities. Consideration is given to the role of cities on local, national, and world scales. Students cannot receive credit for both GEOG 337 and POL 337.

Prerequisite: Any 200-level geography or political science course or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 341 - The Politics of Developing Nations (3)

Emphasis is on theories of political development and the analysis of developmental problems, including terrorism, the role of the military, instability, and the alteration of political cultures.

Prerequisite: POL 203 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 342 - The Politics of Global Economic Change (4)

Students examine economic globalization, including trade, finance, and migration, from different perspectives. Emphasis is on causes and political consequences of globalization.

Prerequisite: POL 203 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Every third semester.

POL 343 - The Politics of Western Democracies (4)

The political structures, processes, and policies of the principal West European and Anglo-American postindustrial societies are compared and analyzed.

Prerequisite: One 200-level political science course or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 345 - International Nongovernmental Organizations (4)

From an interdisciplinary perspective, the various roles of international nongovernmental organizations are examined. Students cannot receive credit for both INGO 300 and POL 345.

Prerequisite: POL 203 or consent of program director.

Offered: Fall.

POL 346 - Foreign Policy (4)

American foreign policy, decision making, and politics are examined. The policies and decision-making particulars of other governments are developed where appropriate. (Formerly POL 446.)

Prerequisite: POL 203.

Offered: As needed.

POL 353 - Parties and Elections (4)

Political parties and the American system of elections are analyzed. Also covered are the organizational aspects of the parties, mass voting behavior, the impact of elections on policymaking, and national and state trends. (Formerly Parties, Interest Groups, and the Media.)

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, of election years.

POL 354 - Interest Group Politics (4)

This is an in-depth examination of interest groups and the roles they play in American politics. Topics include group formation and maintenance, lobbyists and lobbying, electioneering, issue advocacy, and campaign finance.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (alternate years).

POL 355 - Policy Formation Process (4)

Public policy formulation, from input to output, by the major institutions of government is studied. Included are the internal processes and interactions of legislatures and executives. (Formerly POL 455.)

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

POL 357 - The American Presidency (4)

The constitutional and institutional evolution of the presidency is studied, including the demands and resources of the office. Students cannot receive credit for both HIST 332 and POL 357.

Prerequisite: Any 200-level history or political science course or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 358 - The American Congress (4)

Students examine the development of Congress and assess its structure, the behavior of its members, and its role in American politics.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Every third semester.

POL 359 - Politics and the Media (4)

The role media plays in politics is analyzed. Topics include media evolution and regulation and the relationship between media and political institutions/policy in the United States. (Formerly Political and Governmental Communications.)

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of instructor.

Offered: As needed.

POL 381 - Workshop in Public Service (1-4)

Selected topics are investigated in various formats.

Prerequisite: Varies.

Offered: As needed.

POL 390 - Directed Study in Political Science (1-4)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Major in political science and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

POL 444 - British Politics and Cultural Studies (3)

Focus is on British politics, government, constitution, political subcultures, and media since World War II and British involvement in the European Union. See The London Course under the political science program.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Summer.

POL 445 - European Political Geography (3)

The political geography, city planning, and urban policy within the European Union is studied, with focus on London. See The London Course under the political science program.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Summer.

POL 456 - Policy Analysis (3)

The substance of public policy in the United States is investigated. Focus is on various models of policy analysis that seek to explain the variables that influence the initiation, implementation, and outcome of policy decisions.

Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

POL 460 - Senior Seminar in Political Science (4)

This is an integrating experience in political science. Students complete a project that demonstrates their ability to investigate, write about, and orally present significant research.

Prerequisite: Senior standing and 12 credit hours of political science courses.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 491 - Independent Study I (4)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the political science honors program.

Offered: As needed.

POL 492 - Independent Study II (4)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in POL 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: POL 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

POL 504 - Federalism and Intergovernmental Relations (3)

The financial and programmatic relationships among federal, state, and local governments are examined. The federal government's efforts to achieve national policy objectives are also investigated.

Prerequisite: Early admission to the University of Rhode Island M.P.A. program or graduate status at Rhode Island College or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

POL 531 - Public Policy in the Arts (3)

The history, interests, purposes, rationales, politics, and programs of public agencies involved in shaping public policy in the arts are studied.

Prerequisite: Admission to the M.F.A. in theatre program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

PORT - Portuguese

PORT 102 - Elementary Portuguese II (4)

Four skills in elementary Portuguese—listening, speaking, reading, and writing—are further developed within the context of Portuguese culture. Online work is required.

General Education Category: Satisfies Gen. Ed. language requirement with a grade of C.

Prerequisite: PORT 101 or placement test or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PORT 113 - Intermediate Portuguese (4)

The cultural and linguistic heritage of the Portuguese-speaking world is examined through selected readings. Grammar is reviewed and basic oral and written skills developed. Online work is required.

Prerequisite: PORT 102 or placement test.

Offered: Spring.

PORT 114 - Readings in Intermediate Portuguese (4)

Students develop both reading skills and an appreciation of literature as a reflection of the heritage of the Portuguese-speaking world. Development of oral skill is continued, and attention is given to written practice.

Prerequisite: PORT 113 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

PORT 115 - Literature of the Portuguese-Speaking World (4)

Students are introduced to techniques of literary analysis through readings from Portugal and the Lusophone World as they continue to develop speaking, reading, and writing skills in Portuguese.

General Education Category: Literature.

Prerequisite: PORT 113 or equivalent, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PORT 201 - Conversation and Composition (4)

Students develop correct pronunciation through practice and elementary work in phonetics. Emphasis is on the use of correct spoken Portuguese on an advanced level.

Prerequisite: PORT 115 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

PORT 202 - Composition and Conversation (4)

Writing skills in Portuguese are developed through grammatical exercises, controlled composition, original themes, and the stylistic analysis of literary texts. Discussions of written materials in Portuguese provide oral practice.

Prerequisite: PORT 115 or equivalent or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

PORT 301 - Portuguese Literature and Culture I (4)

This is an introduction to the cultural, social, and historical aspects of Portuguese identity, from its inception to the end of the seventeenth century. Major literary currents, works, and authors are studied.

Prerequisite: PORT 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

PORT 302 - Portuguese Literature and Culture II (4)

This is an introduction to the cultural, social, and historical aspects of Portuguese identity, from the end of the seventeenth century to modernism. Major literary currents and works of each period are studied.

Prerequisite: PORT 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

PORT 304 - Brazilian Literature and Culture (4)

This is an introduction to the cultural, social, and historical aspects of Brazilian identity, from colonial times to the early twentieth century. Major literary currents, works, and authors of each period are studied.

Prerequisite: PORT 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

PORT 305 - Lusophone African Literatures and Cultures (4)

This is an introduction to the culture, history, and literary movements of African Lusophone nations. Major literary currents and works are studied from Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau, São Tomé and Príncipe, Angola, and Mozambique.

Prerequisite: PORT 202 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

PORT 390 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PORT 420 - Applied Grammar (3)

Practical application of grammar is given in both oral and written form, along with an intensive study of construction and idiomatic expressions. (Formerly PORT 320.)

Prerequisite: Completion of two of the following: PORT 301, PORT 302, PORT 304, PORT 305; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Alternate years.

PORT 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the portuguese honors program.

Offered: As needed.

PORT 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or creative activity begun in PORT 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment by the department.

Prerequisite: PORT 491 and consent of instructor, program director and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC - Psychology

PSYC 110 - Introduction to Psychology (4)

The science of psychology is surveyed, with an emphasis on the biopsychosocial factors that influence behavior.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSYC 215 - Social Psychology (4)

The ways in which individuals are affected by, and in turn affect, their social environment is introduced. Topics include intragroup and intergroup relations and cultural influences on behavior.

General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSYC 217 - Drugs and Chemical Dependency (4)

Psychoactive drugs and their effects are reviewed. Emphasis is on physiological brain response, history of drug use and drug control, chemical dependency, and drug abuse education. (Formerly Drugs, Society, and Chemical Dependency.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 110.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSYC 221 - Research Methods I: Foundations (4)

Psychological research is introduced. Topics include the nature of empirical research, varieties of research strategies and methods, the process of conducting research, and elementary data analysis. (Formerly Foundations of Psychological Research.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 110 or equivalent.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSYC 230 - Human Development (4)

This is a survey of life span development. Included are major theories and contemporary information relating to learning and biopsychosocial development.

Prerequisite: PSYC 110 or equivalent.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSYC 251 - Personality (4)

Personality functioning is studied, including biopsychosocial determinants, theories of personality, and techniques of personality assessment in children and adults.

Prerequisite: PSYC 110 or equivalent.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSYC 320 - Research Methods II: Behavioral Statistics (4)

Statistical methods and research design as they are used in psychological investigations are examined. Topics include measures of central tendency, variance, probability, and statistical tests. (Formerly Introduction to Psychological Methods.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSYC 331 - Child Psychology (4)

Development, from conception to early adolescence, is studied, with an emphasis on biopsychosocial factors.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and PSYC 230 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 332 - Adolescent Psychology (4)

Significant factors in adolescent development are studied. Emphasis is on adjustment to adolescent roles and the search for self-identity.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and PSYC 230 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 335 - Family Psychology (4)

Theories and research on family structure, functioning, and development, are examined. Discussion includes the interdependent relationships between an individual's thoughts, feelings, and behaviors and the family system.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and PSYC 230 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 339 - Psychology of Aging (4)

Theory and research relating to psychological processes in adulthood and old age are addressed. Topics include behavior-biology interactions and perceptual, cognitive, and intellectual functioning.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and PSYC 230 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 341 - Perception (4)

The variables that determine what we perceive are explored, including input from sensory systems and the effects of attention and past experience. Included are experimental techniques used to investigate perceptual phenomena.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 344 - Learning (4)

Traditional theories and contemporary models of learning are examined. Emphasis is on relationships between theories and observed phenomena.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 345 - Physiological Psychology (4)

Neural and chemical bases of behavior are examined, including the relationship between anatomical, neurophysiological, and behavioral data. General principles of sensory functioning, control of movement, and rhythms are also considered.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 347 - Social Cognition (4)

Theoretical and empirical approaches to people's understanding of the social environment are examined, including the contribution of neurological, cognitive, and cultural processes.

Prerequisite: PSYC 215 and PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PSYC 349 - Cognitive Psychology (4)

Historical and contemporary views of cognitive functioning are introduced, with emphasis on current interpretations of a wide range of cognitive phenomena. Included are information-processing theories.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 351 - Psychology of Human Diversity (4)

Psychosocial factors relating to human diversity, such as gender, socioeconomic class, and race/ethnicity, are presented. Included are historical and contemporary effects of discrimination and methods of reducing intergroup conflict. (Formerly PSYC 451: Race, Class, and Gender.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 110 (or PSYC 215) and PSYC 221.

Offered: Spring.

PSYC 354 - Abnormal Psychology (4)

Traditional and contemporary approaches to the understanding and treatment of a wide range of abnormal behaviors, both in children and in adults, are studied.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and PSYC 251 or equivalents.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSYC 356 - Psychology of Gender (4)

Documented sex differences from biological, biosocial, and social-psychological perspectives are analyzed. Included are theories and research findings relating to personality, self-concept, and mental health.

Prerequisite: PSYC 215 and PSYC 221 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 360 - Seminar in Current Topics (4)

Contemporary issues and developments in the field of psychology are explored. Recent research and theoretical literature are considered. Topics vary. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 390 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent, 6 credit hours of 300-level psychology courses, and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 391 - Directed Research (3)

This is a continuation of PSYC 390.

Prerequisite: PSYC 390 and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 392 - Problems in Psychological Research (4)

Topics of current interest are selected from psychological literature. Under the supervision of the instructor, students conduct investigations into these topic areas. One class per week is devoted to problems of research design and methodology.

Prerequisite: PSYC 473 or PSYC 475 or PSYC 477 and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 421 - Behavior Modification (4)

The principles of behavior modification are studied. These principles are applied to a variety of behaviors and settings.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 422 - Psychological Testing (4)

The basic principles of construction, selection, and interpretation of psychological tests are introduced. Also considered are reliability, validity, and norms.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 423 - Psychology and the Law (4)

Psychological theory and research are applied to the legal system. Topics may include the psychological factors influencing eyewitness testimony and jury deliberations.

Prerequisite: PSYC 215 and PSYC 221 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 424 - Health Psychology (4)

The psychological influences on how people stay healthy, become ill, and respond when they are ill are examined. Emphasis is on the application of psychological research and theory to health promotion.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 and either PSYC 215 or PSYC 251 or equivalents.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 425 - Community Psychology (4)

Relationships between people in their social context, environmental conditions, and the behavioral health of communities are explored. Focus is on evidence-based practices for community groups. (Formerly PSYC 453.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 110 (or PSYC 215) and PSYC 221.

Offered: Fall.

PSYC 445 - Behavioral Neuroscience (4)

Advanced assessment of neural systems and function is presented, with an emphasis on techniques and laboratory approaches. Neuroscience labs include anatomical, physiological, pharmacological, genetic, and behavioral analyses in animal models. Credit cannot be received for both PSYC 445 and BIOL 445.

Prerequisite: PSYC 110, PSYC 221, PSYC 345.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 452 - Theories of Psychological Intervention (4)

Theory and methods of psychological and behavioral interventions are presented. Focus is on an evidence-based approach to treating psychological disorders, including substance abuse.

Prerequisite: PSYC 217 and PSYC 354 or equivalents.

Offered: Spring.

PSYC 471 - Practicum in Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies (4)

Students practice intervention strategies, with emphasis on self-awareness and self-assessment. Observation and evaluation is conducted by the practicum supervisor. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 471 and PSYC 471.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in chemical dependency/addiction studies program and PSYC 351 and PSYC 452.

Offered: Fall.

PSYC 472 - Internship in Chemical Dependency and Addiction Studies (4)

Students gain field experience in an agency providing substance abuse services. Included are weekly seminar sessions, on-site visits, and field consultation. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 474 and PSYC 472.

Prerequisite: PSYC 425, PSYC 471, and approval of practicum and internship instructors.

Offered: Spring.

PSYC 473 - Research Methods III: Developmental Lab (4)

Standard laboratory and field procedures, research design, and the analysis and interpretation of data from developmental psychology are presented. Lecture and laboratory. (Formerly Research Methods in Developmental Psychology.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 320 and at least one course from PSYC 331, PSYC 332, PSYC 335, PSYC 339, PSYC 422, or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 475 - Research Methods III: Personality/Social Lab (4)

Laboratory and field procedures, research design, and the analysis and interpretation of data from personality and social psychology are presented. (Formerly Research Methods in Personality and Social Psychology.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 320 and at least one course from PSYC 347, PSYC 354, PSYC 356, PSYC 422, PSYC 423, PSYC 424, or equivalent.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 476 - Research Methods III: Applied Lab (4)

Standard research procedures, research design, and analysis and interpretation of data from the applied and human services areas of psychology are presented. (Formerly Research Methods in Applied Psychology.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 320 and at least one course from PSYC 347, PSYC 354, PSYC 356, PSYC 421, PSYC 422, PSYC 423, PSYC 424, PSYC 425.

Offered: Annually.

PSYC 477 - Research Methods III: Cognitive/Brain Science Lab (4)

Standard laboratory procedures, research design, and data analysis in cognition, learning, or behavioral neuroscience topics are presented. Laboratory assignments may involve human and/or animal behavior. Consult instructor for details. (Formerly Research Methods in Experimental Psychology.)

Prerequisite: PSYC 320 and at least one course from PSYC 341, PSYC 344, PSYC 345, PSYC 349, PSYC 422, or equivalent.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: PSYC 221 or equivalent, 6 credit hours of 300-level psychology courses; consent of instructor, department chair and dean; and admission to the psychology honors program.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 492 - Independent Study II (3)

This course continues the development of research or activity begun in PSYC 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.

Prerequisite: PSYC 491 and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 500 - Research Design and Analysis I (3)

The design and analysis of descriptive and nonexperimental research designs are covered. Included are correlational, nonparametric, and single-subject designs and their corresponding statistical tests for data analysis.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and undergraduate courses in research methods and statistics, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

PSYC 501 - Research Design and Analysis II (3)

The design and analysis of experimental and quasi-experimental research designs are covered. Included are between- and within-subjects approaches to single-factor and factorial designs and their corresponding statistical tests for data analysis.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

PSYC 538 - Seminar in Child and Adolescent Development (3)

Milestones in physical, social, emotional, cognitive, and language development from conception through adolescence are examined, with emphasis on theory and research. (Formerly Seminar in Personality and Social Development.)

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (even years).

PSYC 549 - Cognition (3)

Cognition is studied from a contemporary information-processing point of view. Included are historical antecedents, relationships to alternative theoretical perspectives, and applications to learning, development, and problem solving.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (even years).

PSYC 556 - Seminar in Personality Theory (3)

Personality theories are considered in the context of the philosophical and sociocultural environments in which they evolved. Relationships between behavioral development and theoretical predictions are examined. (Formerly PSYC 566.)

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

PSYC 558 - Seminar in Social Psychology (3)

An overview is given of the field of social psychology organized around major research areas. Each of the areas is critically examined using primary sources and representative empirical research.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (odd years).

PSYC 560 - Current Issues in Psychology (3)

Contemporary issues and developments in the field of psychology are explored at the graduate level. Recent research and theoretical literature are considered. Topics vary. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and 6 credit hours of psychology courses, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 593 - Directed Reading (3)

Under the supervision of a faculty member, the student engages in intensive readings on a specific topic in psychology.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500 and PSYC 501 or equivalents, completion of 3 additional credit hours in the plan of study, good standing (see Graduate Manual), and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 594 - Directed Research (3)

Students undertake a qualitative or quantitative empirical research project under the supervision of a faculty advisor. (Formerly PSYC 590.)

Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500 and PSYC 501 or equivalents, good standing (see Graduate Manual), and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PSYC 599 - Master's Thesis (3)

Students conduct a quantitative or qualitative empirical study. May be repeated once for a maximum of 6 credits

Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500 and PSYC 501 or equivalents, completion of 9 additional credits in the program, thesis committee approval, good standing (see Graduate Manual), and consent of department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

PBAD - Public Administration

PBAD 325 - Politics of Public Management (4)

Budgeting and Personnel Administration, Emphasis is on the central role of public budgets in policy formation and on the search for balance among a representative public work force, neutral competence, and political responsiveness.

Prerequisite: POL 301 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

RADT - Radiologic Technology

RADT 201 - Orientation to Medical Imaging (1)

Topics include the history of x-rays, the technologist's role on the health care team, radiographic equipment, clinical settings, and the various modalities in diagnostic imaging. (Formerly Orientation to Radiologic Technology.)

Prerequisite: BIOL 231 and MATH 139.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

RADT 255 - Patient Care Interventions for Allied Health (1)

Students learn communication and assessment skills, technical knowledge, and patient care in the radiology setting. (Formerly NURS 155.)

Prerequisite: RADT 201.

Offered: Summer, Spring.

RADT 301 - Introduction to Radiologic Technology (3.5)

This course explains the organization of radiology departments and services, licensure processes, the responsibilities of the professional radiologic technologist, and the responsibilities of a clinical setting.

Prerequisite: RADT 201.

Offered: Summer.

RADT 305 - Skeletal Anatomy (3)

Students learn the anatomy of the skeletal system, including identification of bony processes and specific anatomical features. Students identify and describe the articulations of different bones.

Prerequisite: RADT 201.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 306 - Radiographic Procedures I (3)

Basic positioning principles are explored, including communication, radiation safety, technical factors, and the evaluation of images. Topics include chest, abdomen, upper and lower extremity, and spine.

Prerequisite: RADT 201.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 307 - Radiographic Procedures II (3)

A continuation of RADT 306, this course includes positioning principles of bony thorax, skull, and contrast agent studies of the digestive, biliary, and urinary systems.

Prerequisite: RADT 306.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 308 - Radiographic Procedures III (3)

A continuation of RADT 307, this course explores advanced imaging studies, including trauma, portable, and pediatric patients. The formal critiquing of radiographic images is also discussed.

Prerequisite: RADT 307.

Offered: Summer.

RADT 309 - Clinical Education I (3.5)

In various clinical settings, students learn to produce appropriate radiographic images on all patient types. Technical factors are introduced.

Prerequisite: RADT 201.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 310 - Clinical Education II (3.5)

A continuation of RADT 309, this course includes routine radiographic procedures and technical factors.

Prerequisite: RADT 309.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 320 - Principles of Radiography I (3)

The discovery and properties of x-rays and the structure and function of x-ray tubes are discussed. The analysis of radiographic film quality is also explored.

Prerequisite: RADT 301.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 321 - Principles of Radiography II (3)

Topics include quality assurance testing, the evaluation of quality control tests, radiation monitoring, latent image formation, the use of intensifying screens, and automatic film processors.

Prerequisite: RADT 320.

Offered: Summer.

RADT 330 - Radiation Physics I (3)

Topics include the construction and function of x-ray tubes, the properties of x-ray emission spectra, photon interactions, and the clinical significance of photoelectric and Compton scattering.

Prerequisite: RADT 301.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 411 - Clinical Education III (8)

While reinforcing skills already learned, this clinical course focuses on advanced imaging procedures, including trauma and fluoroscopy procedures.

Prerequisite: RADT 310.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 412 - Clinical Education IV (8)

This final clinical course prepares students to become independent, functioning radiologic technologists.

Prerequisite: RADT 411.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 425 - Ethics/Critical Thinking and Problem Solving (2)

Topics include personal and professional values, professional standards, and legal liability in the workplace. Problem-solving techniques are taught to help students make competent, informed decisions.

Prerequisite: RADT 411.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 431 - Radiation Physics II (3)

Students explore electromagnetic and particulate radiation; tomography; radiosensitivity of different cell types; radiation sickness; radiation barriers; and federal, state, and local regulations concerning the use of radiation.

Prerequisite: RADT 330.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 440 - Cross-Sectional Anatomy (1)

Students examine the basic theory and practice of CT imaging and interpretation.

Prerequisite: RADT 305.

Offered: Fall.

RADT 455 - Comprehensive Radiographic Pathology (2)

A detailed, comprehensive pathology of organ systems relevant to radiologic technology is given.

Prerequisite: RADT 305.

Offered: Spring.

RADT 461 - Registry Review (3)

Students review the specifications of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists exam, the guidelines for application, study strategies, and content included in the exam.

Prerequisite: RADT 411.

Offered: Spring.

READ - Reading

READ 501 - Reading in the Content Areas (3)

Focus is on methods that help K-12 students learn from subject matter materials.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.

Offered: Spring.

READ 507 - Teaching Reading and Writing to English-as-a-Second-Language Students (3)

Focus is on second-language literacy in reading and writing for limited-English-proficient students. Students cannot receive credit for both READ 507 and TESL 507.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 539 or TESL 541 or TESL 549.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

READ 534 - Developmental Reading: Prekindergarten through Grade Eight (3)

Included are emergent literacy, reading, the other language arts, word recognition strategies, comprehension processes, study skills, and literacy evaluation. Emphasis is on recent research and curriculum trends in literacy education.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and ELED 422 or equivalent; or elementary school teaching experience; or consent of instructor.

Offered: Fall.

READ 629 - Remedial Reading Clinic (6)

Emphasis is on the diagnosis and treatment of reading difficulties. Students gain proficiency in using strategies for overcoming reading difficulties and practice these techniques in a six-week summer reading clinic.

Prerequisite: Graduate status, READ 501, READ 534, READ 685, READ 686.

Offered: Summer.

READ 641 - Administration of Reading Programs (3)

The role of the reading consultant in improving reading instruction is examined. Included are a study of the concept of literacy, a review of model reading programs, the change process, and curriculum planning.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 663.

Offered: Spring.

READ 663 - Seminar in Reading Research (3)

Focus is on the teacher as researcher. Applications of current instructional research are integrated into a student project.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 629.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

READ 667 - Reading Specialist Coaching (3)

Students examine the role of the coach in the teaching and learning of reading. Focus is on models of coaching to effect change for improving the teaching of reading.

Prerequisite: READ 501 and READ 534.

Offered: Fall.

READ 685 - Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties (3)

Through lectures, demonstrations, and experiences, students are introduced to the theory of reading difficulties and develop skill in diagnosis. This course is intended for professionals who work with disabled readers.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 501 or READ 534.

Offered: Fall.

READ 686 - Treatment of Reading Difficulties (3)

Focus is on current theories, practices, and materials concerning students who have reading difficulties. This course is intended for professionals who work with disabled readers.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 685.

Offered: Spring.

SED - Secondary Education

SED 406 - Instructional Methods, Design, and Technology (3)

Students learn the fundamentals of lesson design and methods for integrating instructional technology to enhance content area teaching and learning. Students design and present model lessons in a laboratory setting.

Prerequisite: Admission to a secondary education teacher preparation program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 407 - Instructional Methods, Design, and Literacy (3)

Students explore research-based reading and writing strategies for secondary education content teaching and apply these strategies by designing and presenting literacy instruction in a field-based setting.

Prerequisite: SED 406 (with minimum grade of B-) and fulfillment of retention requirements, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 411 - Content and Pedagogy in Secondary Education (4)

Students examine principles, methods, content, and curriculum in the content area and prepare lessons and units that incorporate the needs of diverse learners and effective assessment strategies.

Prerequisite: SED 407 (with minimum grade of B-), concurrent enrollment in SED 412, and fulfillment of retention requirements.

Offered: Fall. (Spring for history and social studies content majors.)

SED 412 - Field Practicum in Secondary Education (2)

Teacher candidates, under the supervision of college and clinical instructors, plan, develop, and implement lesson plans within middle/secondary clinical settings, drawing on content developed in SED 411.

Prerequisite: SED 407 (with minimum grade of B-), concurrent enrollment in SED 411, and fulfillment of retention requirements.

Offered: Fall. (Spring for history and social studies content majors.)

SED 421 - Student Teaching in the Secondary School (10)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in a middle or senior high school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and college supervisors. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SED 422; completion of all program requirements and all required education courses, with a minimum grade of B, prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all courses in the major prior to student teaching; a recommendation from the practicum instructor; undergraduate, second degree, and RITE students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.50 a full semester prior to student teaching; graduate students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; undergraduate and second degree students must complete the community service requirement; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 422 - Student Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education (2)

This is an integrative and culminating experience in the professional program in secondary education. Students reflect on their initial experience as classroom teachers.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SED 421.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 444 - Teaching Adolescent Literature (3)

This is a blending of the academic appreciation of young adult literature with pedagogical strategies for its classroom use. Students read widely in the field and develop individualized demonstration projects for use in the secondary English class.

Offered: Fall and/or Summer.

SED 445 - The Teaching of Writing in Secondary Schools (4)

Study includes the evaluation of aims and objectives, selection and organization of content, principles and methods of writing instruction, and current research and practice in the teaching of writing.

Prerequisite: Admission to the Secondary Education Teacher Preparation Program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 490 - Directed Study I (3)

Students develop a proposal that includes a description and rationale for their research project, a literature review, methodologies for data collection and analysis, a time line, and a plan for presenting their findings.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the educational studies honors program.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 491 - Independent Study I (3)

Participants apply positive behavioral intervention and supports.

Prerequisite: SPED 300 or equivalent, matriculation in a graduate program, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

SPED 505 - Oral and Written Language: Classroom Intervention (3)

The methods, techniques, and materials designed to help remediate oral and written language disorders in elementary and secondary school children with mild/moderate disabilities are studied.

Prerequisite: SPED 300 or equivalent, matriculation in a graduate program, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

SPED 513 - Orientation to the Education of Young Children with Special Needs (3)

The entire range of disabilities that become manifest during the period from birth to six is examined. Emphasis is on a delineation of the population, methods, and criteria for early identification.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

SPED 516 - Programs for Young Children with Disabilities (3)

An array of organizational models for serving infants and preschool children with special needs is examined. Topics include the effective implementation of individualized educational programs, curricular design, inclusion, assessing child progress, and family engagement.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment with SPED 668. SPED 513 and consent of program advisor.

Offered: Fall.

SPED 517 - Medical Aspects of Developmental Disabilities (3)

Students are introduced to the medical diagnosis, classification, and management of young children with developmental disabilities. Major known etiologies are examined.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

SPED 518 - Reading Instruction for Students with Disabilities (3)

Students select, adapt, implement, and assess reading methods and materials for elementary through secondary level students with mild/moderate disabilities.

Prerequisite: Matriculation in a graduate program SPED 501 and SPED 505 or equivalents, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

SPED 519 - Professional Development for Cooperating Teachers (3)

Participants refine practices that support effective supervision and evaluation of professional practice in special education. Focus is on updates in the field of special education and resources. Hybrid course.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and currently serving as a cooperating teacher, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

SPED 520 - Young Adults in Nonschool Settings (3)

Study includes a delineation of the population, an integrated model for organizing a total program, and methods for developing adaptive behavior in a variety of community, residential, vocational, and leisure settings.

Prerequisite: SPED 300.

Offered: Summer.

SPED 525 - Development of Communication and Movement (3)

Patterns of human development are analyzed, with emphasis on the development of communication and movement. Alternate communication strategies for the nonverbal student are also discussed.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

SPED 526 - Assessment, Curriculum, Methods for Children with Multiple Disabilities (3)

Instructional and environmental adaptations pertinent to facilitating adaptive behavior in students with multiple disabilities are discussed.

Prerequisite: SPED 300 and SPED 520.

Offered: Spring (even years).

SPED 531 - Universal Design for Educating All Students (3)

Principles/practices of universal design for teaching, learning, and assessment are provided. (Formerly Instructional Approaches to Children with Special Needs in Regular Classes.)

Prerequisite: ELED 500 and SED 406, or ARTE 505, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 534 - Involvement of Parents and Families Who Have Children with Disabilities (3)

The problems, attitudes, and roles of parents and other significant persons in the lives of children with disabilities are examined. Special education teachers and other educators develop techniques for professional and parent interaction.

Prerequisite: Matriculation in a graduate program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 544 - Families in Early Intervention Programs: Essential Roles (3)

Emphasis is on the critical roles that families assume in assessment and intervention processes in early intervention programs. Strategies that promote multiple roles and levels of involvement for families in these programs are discussed.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment with SPED 669. graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

SPED 545 - Assistive Technology in the Classroom (3)

Technology is explored that facilitates success for persons with disabilities in integrated school and community settings. Focus is on the application of varied activities and materials.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (as needed).

SPED 551 - Urban Multicultural Special Education (3)

Sociocultural foundations of urban multicultural special education are explored in order to design, implement, and evaluate culturally and linguistically relevant educational programs for students with disabilities in urban school environments.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 552 - Dual Language Development and Intervention (3)

Linguistic theories of first and second language development are examined with consideration of disability. Assessment procedures for distinguishing speech and language differences from delays/disorders are also examined.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education and concurrent enrollment in SPED 651, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 553 - Content-Based ESL Instruction for Exceptional Students (3)

Students analyze curriculum and instructional approaches that integrate language, literacy, and content instruction for English language learners with disabilities, while analyzing the adaptation of instruction for students' identified disabilities.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education, SPED 552 and SPED 651, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 554 - Curriculum Design for Exceptional Bilingual Students (3)

Students examine the theories of and approaches to curriculum design and development as well as approaches to the adaptation of curriculum and instruction for English language learners with special needs.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; research methods course; SPED 551, SPED 552, SPED 553; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 555 - Literacy for English Language Learners with Disabilities (3)

Methods and materials are presented for teaching literacy to English language learners with disabilities. Assessment and teaching methods are analyzed from a dual language perspective.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; SPED 551, SPED 552, SPED 651; concurrent enrollment in SPED 652; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 557 - Assessing English Language Learners with Disabilities (3)

Students gain skill in assessing the linguistic, academic, and behavioral abilities of English language learners with disabilities. Emphasis is on the selection, administration, and interpretation of multifaceted assessments.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; SPED 551, SPED 552, SPED 651; concurrent enrollment in SPED 653; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 558 - Mathematics/Science Instruction for Students with Disabilities (3)SPED 560 - Instructional Strategies for Students with Autism (3)

The characteristics of autism spectrum disorders are explored. Research-based educational practices are presented, which support learning for students with autism at all levels of education.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (odd years).

SPED 561 - Understanding Autism Spectrum Disorders (3)

The learning style and characteristics of autism spectrum disorders are examined. Techniques are developed for understanding and working with persons who have an autism spectrum diagnosis and their families.

Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (as needed).

SPED 562 - Practicum I in Autism (1)

The focus of this practicum is to conduct needs assessments of district capacity to meet the needs of students with autism. A district-based professional development plan is also developed.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in SPED 561, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Summer (as needed).

SPED 563 - Curriculum and Methodology: Students with Autism (3)

Using the general education curriculum as a basis for learning, techniques are developed to support students with autism. Student strengths are matched with evidence-based practice.

Prerequisite: SPED 561, SPED 562, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 564 and SPED 565; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (as needed).

SPED 564 - Building Social and Communication Skills (3)

The core social and communication deficits of autism are explored. Students learn to conduct specific assessments and to create individualized social and communication supports using evidence-based practices.

Prerequisite: SPED 561, SPED 562, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 563 and SPED 565; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring (as needed).

SPED 565 - Practicum II in Autism (1)

Concepts and skills are applied to students with autism in their classrooms. Student supports in communication, social skills, and curriculum adaptation are evaluated through on-site classroom observation.

Prerequisite: SPED 561, SPED 562, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 563 and SPED 564; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Summer (as needed).

SPED 566 - Autism and Positive Behavior Supports (3)

Participants use functional behavioral analysis to understand the unique behaviors of students with autism and the use of effective intervention.

Prerequisite: SPED 563, SPED 564, and SPED 565, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall (as needed).

SPED 606 - Leading Special Education I: Administration (3)

Emphasis is placed on school and community planning for children with disabilities and their families.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed

SPED 607 - Leading Special Education II: Legal and Financial Aspects (3)

Emphasis is placed on federal/state laws, policies, procedures, and funding that govern/support special education programs/provisions for students with disabilities and their families. Field-based work is required.

Prerequisite: SPED 606 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

SPED 608 - Leading Special Education III: Program Development and Organization (4)

Emphasis is placed on the development of programs that promote access, opportunity, and positive outcomes for students with disabilities and their families. (Practicum required.)

Prerequisite: SPED 606 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

SPED 609 - Leading Special Education IV: Program Evaluation (4)

Emphasis is on the efficacy and impact of programs developed to best support the academic, social, and emotional needs of students with disabilities. (Practicum required.)

Prerequisite: SPED 606 or consent of the department chair.

Offered: As needed.

SPED 648 - Interpreting and Developing Research in Special Education (3)

Emphasis is placed on research and evaluation studies and design as they relate to methodology in various special education programs. This course assists the student in the formulation of an original research and evaluation project.

Prerequisite: Matriculation into a graduate program.

Offered: Spring.

SPED 651 - Language Development Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)

Students practice assessment procedures for distinguishing speech and language differences from delays/disorders. Language intervention techniques are applied in classroom settings.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education and concurrent enrollment in SPED 552, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 652 - Literacy Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)

Students put into practice the methods used for teaching literacy to English language learners with disabilities. Literacy intervention techniques are applied in classroom settings.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; SPED 551, SPED 552; concurrent enrollment in SPED 555; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 653 - Assessment Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)

Students evaluate the linguistic, academic, and behavioral abilities of selected English language learners with disabilities. Students select, administer, and interpret multifaceted assessments and write individual educational plans.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; SPED 555, SPED 652; and concurrent enrollment in SPED 557; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 654 - Internship in Urban Multicultural Special Education (3)

Students are supervised in special education settings that provide services to culturally and linguistically diverse youngsters with disabilities. Students conduct assessments, give instruction, and collaborate with professionals and parents.

Prerequisite: Certification in special education; SPED 534, SPED 554, SPED 555, SPED 557, SPED 651, SPED 652, SPED 653; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 662 - Internship in the Elementary School (6)

The intern is required to evaluate, plan for, and teach elementary or middle school students with mild/moderate disabilities in a special education program.

Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 664 - Internship at the Middle Grades or Secondary Level (6)

Interns evaluate, plan for, and teach adolescents with mild/moderate disabilities at the middle grades or secondary level. A 12- to 14-week full-time internship is expected.

Prerequisite: Consent of graduate program advisor or department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 665 - Teaching Internship in Severe Intellectual Disabilities (6)

The intern is required to evaluate, plan for, and teach students with severe intellectual disabilities in a school environment. The internship is a full-time, 12 week experience.

Prerequisite: Consent of program advisor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 668 - Internship in Inclusive Early Childhood (3)

Interns participate in assessment, planning, program implementation, and collaboration with professionals and families in an inclusive early childhood class for 200 hours.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SPED 516, SPED 513, and consent of program advisor.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 669 - Internship in Early Intervention (3)

Interns participate in assessment, planning, program implementation, and collaboration with professionals and families in an early intervention program for 200 hours.

Prerequisite: SPED 513, concurrent enrollment in SPED 544, and consent of program advisor.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SUST - Sustainability Studies

SUST 200 - Introduction to Sustainability (4)

Students examine linkages among environmental protection, economic growth, and social progress in order to develop a fundamental understanding of interdisciplinary skills needed to assess and solve problems related to sustainability.

Offered: Fall, Spring Summer.

SUST 251 - Sustainable Systems and Deep Ecology (3)

This course presents holistic, experiential view of ecological systems as they interact with human experience, local food systems, green buildings, and sustainable energy systems, integrating guest lectures by green economy practitioners.

Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW, and at least 24 credits, or permission of instructor.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

SUST 261 - Exploring Nature Through Art, Science, Technology (4)

Students develop environmental awareness of local ecology, cultivating a deepened sense of personal connection with the natural world, through art, writing, technology, and scientific exploration. No prior artistic experience is required.

General Education Category: Connections

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL - Teaching English as a Second Language

TESL 300 - Promoting Early Childhood Dual Language Development (3)

Candidates acquire research-based strategies for promoting English and supporting the native language in early childhood settings. Approaches are also given for working with parents and caregivers who speak languages other than English.

Prerequisite: ECED 301, ECED 423; and admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program.

Offered: Fall.

TESL 507 - Teaching Reading and Writing to English-as-a-Second-Language Students (3)

Focus is on second-language literacy in reading and writing for limited English proficient students. Students cannot receive credit for both ELED 507 and TESL 507.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 541 or READ 534.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 539 - Language Acquisition and Learning (3)

Theory and research relating to first- and second-language acquisition and learning are examined from a pedagogical perspective. Emphasis is on variables affecting language learning and teaching. (Formerly TESL 439.)

Prerequisite: Admission to a teacher preparation program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring, Summer.

TESL 541 - Applied Linguistics in ESL (3)

The basic sounds, structures, and transformations of contemporary English usage as a basis for teaching English as a second language are examined.

Prerequisite: Graduate status.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

TESL 546 - Teaching English as a Second Language (3)

This is a methods course for students and teachers who plan to teach or are presently teaching English as a second language. The teaching techniques demonstrated reflect up-to-date research in applied linguistics.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 539 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 548 - Curriculum and Methods for Content ESL Instruction (3)

Focus is on the selection and use of methods and techniques that facilitate the learning of English and content area subjects by ESL students within the mainstream curriculum in secondary school.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 539 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

TESL 549 - Sociocultural Foundations of Language Minority Education (3)

Students examine sociocultural issues related to the instructional needs of language minority students, including social, cultural, political, and legal contexts of instruction. (Formerly TESL 449.)

Prerequisite: Admission to a teacher preparation program or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

TESL 551 - Assessment of English Language Learners (3)

The course explores principles of assessment for English Language Learners, formal and informal assessment methods and data analyses designed to improve instruction. (Formerly Curriculum Development and Language Assessment in ESL.)

Prerequisite: TESL 546 or TESL 548 and TESL 507 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 553 - Internship in English as a Second Language (3)

Students conduct assessments, provide instruction, and collaborate with professionals and parents in supervised ESL settings. The internship schedule includes weekly seminars.

Prerequisite: TESL 507 and TESL 546 or TESL 548.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH - Technology Education

TECH 200 - Introduction to Technological Systems and Processes (3)

This is an introduction to technological development, technological literacy, the use of technological systems, and tools for fundamental production processes to solve social technical problems.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 204 - Energy and Control Systems (3)

Energy sources and common energy processing techniques are introduced. Study includes control devices, energy transmission technology, and the operation of energy conservation systems.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 216 - Computer-Aided Design (3)

International drafting-language protocol is explored and used to solve design problems in orthographic and pictorial presentation. Study includes basic computer-aided drafting.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 300 - Orientation to Technology Education (4)

The field of technology education and its historic role in education are introduced. This study includes past and contemporary trends, technological literacy standards, program and curriculum development, and professional traits.

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202, with minimum GPA of 2.75; completion of at least 12 credit hours of content area courses, with minimum GPA of 2.75; and minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 306 - Automation and Control Processes (3)

This course explores pneumatic, hydraulic, and CNC industrial control and power systems. Applications for controlling devices and systems will be taught in a lab setting. Robotics programming experiences will be included.

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202.

Offered: Fall.

TECH 326 - Communication Systems (3)

Communication processes, systems, and their applications are examined. Study includes the technological processes used in developing, producing, delivering, and storing ideas and information in a technological society.

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202.

Offered: Fall.

TECH 327 - Construction Systems (3)

This is an introduction to the skills, knowledge, environments, and people in the construction industry. A laboratory component is required for students to plan, design, and build a structure. (Formerly TECH 305: Construction Technology.)

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 328 - Manufacturing Systems (3)

This is an exploration of contemporary manufacturing systems, design considerations, production techniques, and automated systems and control devices to produce products. Organizational and management structures are also practiced.

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 329 - Transportation Systems (3)

Focus is on transportation technology, modes, vehicular systems, and support systems for moving people and cargo in various environments. Study includes the effects of transportation on individuals, society, and the environment.

Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202.

Offered: Fall, Summer.

TECH 406 - Methods in Technology Education (4)

Students are introduced to a variety of teaching strategies involved in the daily instruction of technology education. Included are support materials and evaluation tools.

Prerequisite: TECH 300, with minimum grade of B-; completion of at least 18 credit hours of content area courses, with minimum GPA of 2.75 in these courses; admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and to the technology education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 407 - Practicum in Elementary Technology Education (Grades K through Six) (4)

Strategies for presenting technological topics and learning activities at the elementary school level are introduced. Topics include theory, activity safety, and the development of elementary integration activities.

Prerequisite: TECH 300, with minimum grade of B-; TECH 406, with minimum grade of B- and positive recommendation from the instructor; completion of at least 55 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major, or consent of department chair; minimum grade of C in all content area courses, unless otherwise required; minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75; and minimum GPA of 2.75 in content area.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 408 - Practicum in Technology Education (Grades Seven through Twelve) (4)

Three major instructional units in technology education are presented. Topics include the principles and practices of technology education, selected technology learning activities, and laboratory planning and management concepts.

Prerequisite: Admission to the technology education teacher preparation program.

Offered: Fall.

TECH 421 - Student Teaching in Technology Education (10)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in a middle or senior high school under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: TECH 407 and TECH 408, with a minimum grade of B- and positive recommendations from the instructors; concurrent enrollment in TECH 422; completion of all required education courses, with a minimum grade of B- (except CEP 315); completion of all content area courses, with a minimum GPA of 2.75; a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; completion of the community service requirement; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 422 - Student Teaching Seminar in Technology Education (2)

Teacher behaviors appropriate to effective teaching are developed. Topics include classroom and time management, effective communication, learning styles, and teaching strategies. This seminar meets weekly.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in TECH 421.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 430 - Internship in Applied Technology (6)

Exploratory internships offered for the purpose of professional development and advancing career goals. Learning experiences in work environments help students transition from the role of student to the professional.

Prerequisite: Senior standing; All content courses must be completed; 27 credits in content area; 2.75 GPA in content area.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 431 - Capstone Design Project (4)

This is a project completed under the direction of a faculty member. Students will design, model, test, and report results of their project.

Prerequisite: Senior standing; all content courses must be completed; 27 credits in content area; 2.75 GPA in content area.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 511 - Implementing Technology Education (3)

Teaching strategies are provided, with focus on implementing programs, integrating with STEM areas, and developing activities. (Formerly TECH 510: Analysis and Implementation of Objectives for Technology Education.)

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 512 - Program Development and Funding (3)

Focus is on developing funding plans and grants to sustain technology education programs.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 520 - Curriculum Models in Technology Education (3)

New curriculum models used in technology education programs at the national level are presented. Career education and prevocational curriculum thrusts are identified and analyzed for implementation in technology education programs.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 531 - Issues in the Workplace (3)

Economic, social, and political issues affecting work and education are identified. Forces accelerating the rate of change in peoples' working lives and their expectations for education and training are studied.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 562 - Research in Technology Education (3)

Basic forms of research and evaluation are introduced. Students are required to develop a research proposal in the field of technology education or in another area of technology. (Formerly TECH 561: Seminar on Technology Research.)

Prerequisite: Completion of four courses in the Professional Education Component and/or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 565 - Problem Solving and Critical Thinking (3)

Students apply techniques for analyzing problems, framing decisions, and stimulating critical analysis and creative thought.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

TECH 590 - Directed Study (3)

Students select a topic and undertake a concentrated research project under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and either completion of all required courses or final semester of study.

Offered: As needed.

THTR - Theatre

THTR 091 - Portfolio Review (0)

At the conclusion of each semester, students present their course work to a panel of professors for critique. The critique focuses on the student's progress and on preparing the student for future job interviews and employment. Grading is S or U.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 105 - Introduction to Theatre (3)

The basic principles of playwriting, acting, and directing are examined.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 110 - Fundamentals of Theatrical Design and Production (3)

The basic principles and practices of design and production are examined.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 178 - Theatre Production I (1)

Students work on RIC theatre productions under faculty supervision (in performance, technical theatre, costumes/makeup, or stage/theatre management). This course must be taken twice. Grading is S or U.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 217 - Fundamentals of Stage Management (3)

The basic principles of stage management are covered.

Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

THTR 220 - Voice and Articulation for the Performer (3)

The fundamentals of voice production and articulation are studied from the physiological and phonetic bases of speech.

Offered: As needed.

THTR 221 - Movement for the Actor (3)

The performer is trained in controlling, shaping, and moving the body. Attention is given to the development of physical characterization.

Prerequisite: THTR 105 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 222 - The Actor's Self: Improvisation and Technique (3)

The actor is introduced to self-discovery in performance. Improvisational techniques free the beginning actor physically, vocally, and emotionally.

Prerequisite: THTR 105 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 228 - Basic Design Principles for Theatre (3)

Students are introduced to the language of design. The elements and principles of design and basic drawing techniques are also examined.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

THTR 230 - Stagecraft (3)

The basics of drafting, theatrical building practices, electrical, and sound pathways are introduced. Research and shop projects are required.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

THTR 231 - Scenography (3)

Theatrical rendering techniques and the fundamentals of the theatrical scenic model are studied.

Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

THTR 232 - Technical Theatre Principles (3)

Advanced technical concepts and systems are examined. Focus is on how different systems are interrelated on stage.

Prerequisite: THTR 230.

Offered: Spring.

THTR 233 - Architecture and Décor (3)

The history of visual style is explored. Clothing, art, and architecture are examined through various key periods of history.

Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

THTR 240 - Appreciation and Enjoyment of the Theatre (4)

The theatrical process—from playwriting to performance to criticism—is studied. Attendance at theatre productions is required.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing for nonmajors.

Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

THTR 241 - American Musical Theatre (3)

The development of musical comedy and its variations within the United States from the eighteenth century to the present are traced.

Offered: Fall (even years).

THTR 242 - Acting for Nonmajors (4)

This course is for non-theatre majors. Students are introduced to acting, with focus on acquainting students with the basic concepts and principles of acting, including script analysis, character development, and ensemble playing.

General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

Offered: Summer.

THTR 261 - Contemporary Black Theatre: Cultural Perspectives (4)

African American theatre in America and English-speaking Africa since the 1960s is studied, with emphasis on representative plays, playwrights, movements, and artists.

General Education Category: Connections.

Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.

Offered: Annually.

THTR 278 - Theatre Production II (1)

Students work on RIC theatre productions under faculty supervision (in performance, technical theatre, costumes/makeup, or stage/theatre management). This course must be taken twice. Grading is S or U.

Prerequisite: THTR 178.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 302 - Oral Interpretation (3)

The analysis, preparation, and performance of a variety of literary forms are examined, including drama, prose, and poetry.

Prerequisite: THTR 220 or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

THTR 320 - Character Study: Psychological Realism (3)

The actor is introduced to the basic elements of characterization. Play structure, the function of characters within the structure, and individual characters are analyzed. (Formerly Character Study I.)

Prerequisite: THTR 220 and either THTR 221 or THTR 222, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

THTR 321 - Character Study: Transformation (3)

Through scene studies, students prepare complex and eccentric characterizations as found in the plays of Albee, Brecht, Ionesco, and others. (Formerly Character Study II.)

Prerequisite: THTR 220 and either THTR 221 or THTR 222, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Annually.

THTR 330 - Theatrical Design Concepts (3)

The differences and similarities within the design disciplines are explored. Students create multiple designs for a single production.

Prerequisite: THTR 228 and THTR 231, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

THTR 346 - Musical Theatre Performance (3)

The performance of music for musical theatre is studied in its theatrical context. Emphasis is on performance techniques and stylistic characteristics unique to the genre in solo and ensemble performance.

Glossary of Academic Terms

Capstone means “culminating” or “crowning.” It is used to describe a course that is the culminating experience for a program of study.

Cognates are required courses in disciplines related to the major. Cognates are intended to broaden and enhance the major.

Concentration is the area of specialization. Courses in the concentration are a group of courses that relate specifically to the student’s area of study.

Content major refers to the disciplinary course work taken by students in elementary education.

Core courses within General Education consist of three courses that provide an introduction to college-level writing and interdisciplinary seminars at both freshman and upper levels.

Distribution courses within General Education consist of one course from each of the following seven areas: Arts—Visual and Performing, History, Literature, Mathematics, Natural Science (lab required), Social and Behavioral Sciences, and Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.

Electives are courses that students may choose beyond their required courses in order to fulfill degree requirements.

Enrolled means a student has been admitted to the college and/or a program and has registered for courses.

Full-Time student is a student taking 12 to 18 credit hours per semester.

Major is the discipline or academic area in which the student engages in in-depth study. Majors normally require a minimum of 30 credit hours.

Matriculate means to be admitted formally to a degree program.

Minor is a secondary specialization in a degree program and normally requires a minimum of 18 credit hours.

Mode of Instruction

- Standard Classroom is a course that meets at a pre-determined time and place, in-person, on a regular schedule throughout the term. The course may include use of online learning management system(s).
- Hybrid is a course in which a portion of standard classroom instruction is replaced by online learning.
- Distance is a course in which all teaching and learning takes place online. There are no in-person meetings.

*All General Education Connections courses must include at least 50% Standard Classroom instruction.

Part-Time student takes fewer than 12 credit hours per semester.

Program of study usually consists of the following: General Education courses, courses in the major, cognate courses, and elective courses.

Retention Requirements must be met in order to remain enrolled at the college and/or in a program.

Teacher preparation program is a term used in the elementary education, secondary education, and K–12 programs to describe the major and other requirements needed to be eligible for certification as a teacher.

Teaching concentration in special education is a term used in the elementary education and secondary education program and refers to a group of courses in special education taken in addition to required courses in elementary education or secondary education.
