This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resources Library. The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.

Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities @ Rhode Island College
600 Mt. Pleasant Avenue, Providence RI 02908
401 456-8072 Ph. 401 456-8773 TDD 401 456-8150 FAX
www.sherlockcenter.org
Adapted from the original text, Madeline, written and illustrated by Ludwig Bemelmans
A house in Paris was covered in vines.
12 little girls lived inside.
They brushed their teeth and went to bed.
They left the house at half passed 9 in rain or shine.
The smallest girl was Madeline. She was not afraid of anything.
One night Miss Clavel thought something was not right.
Madeline was crying in her bed.
The nurse said it was her appendix.
They drove during the night in a car with red lights.
Madeline woke up 2 hours later in a hospital room with flowers.
Miss Clavel brought the other girls to visit Madeline.
The room was filled with candy and toys.
They were surprised by the scar on her stomach.
The girls said "goodbye" and "We will come again".
The girls got home and went to bed.
Miss Clavel woke up and thought something was not right.
She ran faster and faster to check on the girls.
She asked what was wrong. The girls replied they want their appendix out.
"Good night little girls, now go to sleep" said Miss Clavel.
The End