

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Outstanding Educator Award for Promising Practices in Multicultural Education

The Dialogue on Diversity Committee at Rhode Island College is soliciting nominations for outstanding K-12 educators who exhibit promising practices in the area of multicultural education. Outstanding Educators can be nominated by any external nominator (including, but not limited to, administrators, students, parents or colleagues), but an educator can not nominate him or herself.

All nominees must meet the following criteria:

- K-12 educator
- 3 or more years of classroom experience
- works with racially, ethnically and/or socioeconomically diverse student populations
- exhibits specific strengths in multicultural education

All nominees will be invited to be our honored guests at the 11th annual Promising Practices Conference at Rhode Island College on Saturday, November 1st where the award recipient(s) will be announced.

Nomination Procedures:

- 1) The external nominator must fill out the attached form on behalf of the Outstanding Educator and submit it by email or hard copy to the Promising Practices Outstanding Teacher Award Committee (see address on Nomination Form). We accept rolling admissions for this award year-round, but nominations must be received by September 15, 2008 to be considered for the 2008 award.
- 2) All nominees will be contacted by the Committee and asked to submit a teaching portfolio by Sept. 30 illustrating their strengths in multicultural education.
- 3) All nominees will be invited to attend the 11th annual Promising Practices conference at Rhode Island College on November 1, 2008 where award recipients will be announced.

For more information on the Promising Practices Conference, contact:
www.ric.edu/promisingpractices

For more information on the Outstanding Educator Award, contact:
Dr. Lesley Bogad — lbogad@ric.edu

N O M I N A T I O N   F O R M

Outstanding Educator Award for Promising Practices in Multicultural Education

The Dialogue on Diversity Committee at Rhode Island College is soliciting nominations for outstanding K-12 educators who exhibit promising practices in the area of multicultural education. To nominate an Outstanding Educator, please fill out this form and return it by email (Lbogad@ric.edu) or mail it to:

Promising Practices Outstanding Teacher Award Committee
c/o Dr. Lesley Bogad — Educational Studies
600 Mt. Pleasant Ave.
Providence, RI 02906

Information on the Outstanding Educator:

Name: _____

School: _____ Grade level: _____

Address: _____
_____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Years of classroom experience (must be at least 3): _____

Information on the Nominator:

Name: _____

Relationship to Nominee: _____

Address: _____
_____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Nomination Statement:

On an attached sheet, please explain (in 1-page) why this educator should be recognized for his or her promising practices in multicultural education. Be specific in naming how this person addresses multicultural education in his or her classroom practices, curriculum, pedagogy and/or classroom/school climate.