March 18, 2014

Grants for Nursing Education (Scholarship Awards)

Funding Source: NLN Foundation for Nursing Education

Deadline: April 30, 2014

The mission of the NLN Foundation for Nursing Education is to raise, steward, and distribute funds that promote excellence in nursing education. To that end, the NLN Foundation Scholarship Awards program supports the goal of attracting more seasoned and ethnically diverse nurses to become nurse educators. Scholarships of up to $8,000 will be awarded to assist in the completion of graduate education, which could include tuition assistance, support for a dissertation or thesis, or travel to an onsite internship or class.

Grants for Workforce Development

Funding Source: Dominion Higher Educational Partnership

Deadline: May 01, 2014

Educating our citizens and meeting the varied work force needs of business and industry are challenges that require diverse solutions. Grants from the Dominion Higher Educational Partnership program better align Dominion's work force needs with the company's support of higher education. Each year, Dominion accepts grant applications up to $50,000 that encourage the development of programs for post-secondary students, aimed at developing a skilled work force in areas critical to Dominion (see award categories for more details).
