

2017 CACREP Vital Statistics Survey

Rhode Island College

Masters of Science Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Rhode Island College is a public institution in the North Atlantic Region. We have one program accredited under the 2009 CACREP standards – MS Clinical Mental Health Counseling (60 semester hours). The accreditation for the program extends to 2024. This survey is to be completed by all CACREP-accredited programs and must be publically reported in a program outcomes report for the program website.

Current students enrolled in 3-year program = 62

Graduates from program in 2017= 14

Completion rate of students in program = 88%

% of admitted students who graduate from the program in the expected time period

Licensure examination pass rate of students graduating from program= N/A

Students completing program must complete 2000 hour post Masters in 2 years before sitting for exam

Job Placement rate of graduates seeking employment = 72%

Information from survey administered to graduates 1 month after graduation.

Number of applications for program in 2016/17 = 36

Submitted by

*Monica G. Darcy, PhD, LMHC, NCC, ACS
Counseling Programs Director, CACREP liaison mdarcy@ric.edu*

July 26, 2017