

JAMES P. ADAMS LIBRARY

POLICY ON BINDING OF THESES AND FIELD OR RESEARCH PROJECTS AND SUBMITTING DIGITAL COPY

The student is required to submit one original paper copy to Technical Services Department in the library for Special Collections, with fully-completed approval pages.

The student can submit a copy of the thesis which the library will bind and send to the student's academic department. The student must fill out and print the Deposit and Access Agreement Form and turn it in with each theses. (<http://www.ric.edu/adamslibrary/theses.html>)

It is highly recommended that each student submit a digital copy via email to digitalcommons@ric.edu for inclusion in the DigitalCommons@RIC, the Institutional Repository of Rhode Island College,

Printed copies and the Deposit and Access Agreement Form should be turned in to the Technical Services Department, Room 201, Adams Library. Students should contact Technical Services personnel at 401-456-1903 or Linda 401-456-1902 for an appointment.
