Unemployment Insurance (UI)

Eligibility:

- Must have been working prior to Covid-19
- Your employer said
  - Do NOT come to work &
  - NO compensation received
- Your place of business was closed
- Must stay at home to care for dependents for specific reasons

Note Eligibility Factors:

- Length of Employment
- Amount of Earnings
- Must be able and available to work.

More Information:

http://www.dlt.ri.gov/ui/

See Covid-19 UI FAQ
UI: If You Quit Job

Can’t collect UI if business is open and you quit
- unless you quit for “good cause.”

Examples of “good cause“:
• Doctor says you are High Risk
• You are sole caregiver for someone with no place to receive care and who cannot stay home alone

UI Amount of Payment

Amount you receive from RI will depend on:
• length of employment and
• the amount earned

Minimum: $53 per week
Maximum: $586 per week
• May be higher if dependents

Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) through the Corona Virus Aid, Relief, & Economic Security (CARES) Act provides, an additional $600 per week to those eligible, through July 31,2020.
UI Length of Payments

- Up to 26 weeks (RI UI allowance) & a 13-week extension provided by Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC)
- Extension will end on 12/31/2020

Some may receive Unemployment Insurance (UI) for up to 39 weeks.

Unemployment-Like Benefit:

Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) (CARES Act)

PUA: Special Unemployment Insurance-like benefit for those not eligible for UI.

May be eligible if:

- Gig economy worker, contract worker, Small-business owner, Worker for hire, Self-employed
- Denied regular UI due to inconsistent or insufficient earnings
- Seeking part-time employment

Apply at: http://www.dlt.ri.gov/ui/

Covid-19 UI FAQ for PUA details
Pandemic Unemployment Assistance PUA

Impact of UI and PUA on SSDI Payments

UI and PUA will be counted as "unearned income".

SSDI is an insurance program. Only "earned income" (wages or net earnings from self-employment) affect SSDI.

SSDI payments and Medicare eligibility will not be affected by UI or PUA.

UI/PUA And MEDICAID

During the Covid-19 emergency period you can collect UI or PUA (and SSDI) without losing Medicaid.

Medicaid Can’t Stop if you had it:
- Before the emergency began (May 18, 2020)
- Became/Become eligible during the emergency period

NOTE: don’t know when emergency period will end. Medicaid may be affected at some point.

UI/PUA Payment (+ extra $600/wk.)

Impact on Other Benefits

Since this is unearned income, may affect some benefits:
- SNAP benefits
- HUD rent subsidies (but rent can’t be increased beyond fair market value)
- NOTE: UI and PUA are taxable!

Will not Affect eligibility for Medicaid or Rite Care (SCHIP) during Covid-19 emergency period

Temporary Disability Insurance (TDI)

Get more information and apply for TDI at: http://www.dlt.ri.gov/tdi/

- Must have temporary illness or injury due to non-work-related activities (funded by RI taxpayers)
- Can apply for TDI if ill or advised to quarantine
- TDI payment maximum equal to 30 full weeks earnings.

- Minimum payment: $98/wk. (as of 7/1/2019)
- Maximum payment: $867/wk. (as of 7/1/2019)
- May get more if have dependents

TDI: Impact On SSDI & Medicare

- TDI and SSDI combined can never be more than 80% of previous average earnings
- If total would be higher than 80%, SSDI temporarily reduced while receiving TDI – known as "offset"
- Will never receive less in total income than you/family received in SSDI before TDI began (May receive more)
- Medicare will continue
TDI: Other Facts

TDI - Taxable Income?

TDI not subject to Federal or state income taxes.

Temporary Caregiver’s Insurance (TCI)

- $5.70 per child per day (reimbursement for cost of breakfast and lunch)
- Reimbursement from 3/16 – 4/30 ($193.80 per child)
- Will be added to EBT card for SNAP households
- Non-SNAP households will receive EBT card loaded with $193.80
SSI Economic Impact Payment
Or Stimulus Payment

- Low/moderate income:
  - A one-time payment of $1,200.
  - $500 payment for each dependent child under age 17.
- No payment if adult claimed as a dependent
- NOT counted as income
- Not counted as a resource for 12 months
- No effect on SSI or SSDI, Medicaid, Medicare, SNAP, or HUD Housing.

Note: 12 months resource limits enforced

Savings/Resource Limits
SSI and Medicaid have resource (savings) limits
Save for the future by opening an ABLE Account

Excess resources may affect SSI/Medicaid

SSI resource limits:
$2,000 if single; $3,000 if married

Possible Solution:
If you became disabled before age 26, can save excess resources in an ABLE Account.
(i.e. additional stimulus and/or unemployment)
SAVE WITHOUT FEAR OF LOSING SSI OR MEDICAID

Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) account may be a solution!

- Must have been disabled before age 26
- Can save up to $15,000 per year
- If employed, can save up to an additional $12,500 or your compensation for the taxable year (whichever is less)
- Can have up to $100,000 before SSI cash payments are affected
- Funds must be used for disability related expenses – education or job training, health-related expenses, home maintenance and repairs, etc.
