Application Checklist

A proposal for anthropology honors should include the following specific project components:

1. An abstract of approximately 200 words for public dissemination.
2. A clear statement of the topic, identifying the key research questions(s) or topic(s).
3. A clear statement regarding the relationship of the proposal to current theory in the discipline.
4. A clear statement of the materials and/or methods to be used.
5. A bibliography of completed preliminary readings supporting the proposal and additional bibliographic material yet to be examined.
6. An outline of the sequential development of the proposed project(s)with a timetable for completion of each phase, which will include:
   - a date for submission of the final draft to the advisor which is no later than March 1 (spring) or October 1 (fall).
   - a date for submission, in its final form, to the Departmental Honors Committee which is no later than April 1 or November 1.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE HONORS PROGRAM
IN ANTHROPOLOGY

SUBMIT TWO (2) COPIES TO: Please do not
Chairperson, Department of Anthropology   write in this Gaige Hall 106E   column.

1. I am a declared Anthropology major.   _____

2. I am currently in the _____ semester of college.   _____

3. My grade point average at RIC is _____ as of _____.   _____
                          (Index)   (Date)
4. My grade point average in my major is _____ as of _____. _____
                          (Index)   (Date)

5. I have completed the following Anthropology courses: (please show grade for each)   _____

6. I am taking the following Anthropology courses at present: _____

7. I expect to enroll in the following Anthropology courses: (show anticipated date)   _____

8. I anticipate the need for _____ Directed Study _____ Reading Course   _____

    (a) During _____ with _____.
         (Semester - year)   (Instructor)

    (b) During_____ with _____.
         (Semester - year)   (Instructor)

9. My preliminary proposal is attached. The tentative title is: _____

_____

10. I request _____ as my faculty sponsor.   _____
        (Instructor)

Signature:_____ Date: