Using Assessment Data for High Impact
Practices Inside and Outside the Classroom

Wednesday, April 9, 2014

12:30 – 2:00 p.m.

Alger Hall 110

Outcomes Assessment

At RIC, we want our students, prospective students, alumni and the general public to recognize our commitment to the goal of ensuring high quality learning experiences for all students. The goals of assessment are to determine what we are doing well and why, and how can we improve.

Program

Welcome

Ron Pitt, Vice President for Academic Affairs

Shani Carter, Professor, Special Assistant to the VPAA for Student Outcomes Assessment, and Professor of Management

Presenters

Bob Cvornyek

The relationship of Student Learning Outcomes Assessment to other faculty duties.

Nancy Cloud

How using Chalk and Wire allows faculty to spend all their time interpreting data and not just analyzing data.

Christopher Hourigan

NSSE (National Survey of Student Engagement): where RIC is performing well in engaging students and where it is lacking.

Lloyd Matsumoto

How faculty are using a standardized test of seniors along with data on alumni 3-years and 5-years post-graduation to change curriculum.

Closing Remarks

Special thanks to the VPAA, Ron Pitt for providing refreshments.
