

“HOW TO CONNECT TO SUCCESS”

Hmm...how does Portuguese give me the advantage I need?

Employers looking for Portuguese bilingual & biliterate professionals:

"...Coordinate between banking associates and Hasbro IT...ability to speak Portuguese a plus..."
Hasbro, Pawtucket, RI

"Bilingual ability in English/ Portuguese required, and cultural sensitivity necessary to work with a diverse patient and staff population...."
Blackstone Community Healthcare, Pawtucket, RI

"Conversational Portuguese. Able to explain it to both business & IT stakeholders....."
Pegasystems, MA

"...trilingual in English/ Portuguese / Spanish is a plus...."
First Help Financial, Newton, MA

"Bilingual in Portuguese."
Bank of America, Riverside, RI
(Source: www.indeed.com/jobs)

Meet & Greet Professionals from
Santander • US Trust • Bank Five • Fidelity
Freedom National Bank • Bank of America
Bankers Association of RI • CVS/Health
Hospital Association of RI • United Way
Lifespan • Blue Cross/Blue Shield
Atom Media Group • (add)ventures and more

Management students are invited
Business Luncheon
and Panel Discussion
Friday, April 22nd
11:30 a.m.—3:00 p.m.
Student Union Ballroom

PROGRAM

~“Dress for Success” Luncheon~

~Keynote Speaker: Kim Sawyer

President and General Counsel of
The Locator Services Group, Ltd in Boston.
As wife of US Ambassador to Portugal, she is Founder/Executive Director of “Connect to Success” in Lisbon mentoring
Portuguese women entrepreneurs.

~Panel Discussion: Global Experience / the Bilingual & Biliterate Workforce~

~Opportunities in Portuguese Studies:
Summer internships in Lisbon for Management Students

~Network Tips and Activities~

Admission is free but registration is required by April 18th! Email Marie Fraley: mfraley1@ric.edu

Sponsored by Institute for Portuguese and Lusophone World Studies in collaboration with the School of Management and the Career Development Center